PREFACE.

I HAVE now the pleasure of placing in the hands of my Customers a GENERAL CATALOGUE OF BOOKS, which will, for some time, I trust, remain a permanent Bibliographical Handbook. No such Catalogue of valuable BOOKS AND MANUSCRIPTS, CLASSIFIED for practical purposes, and accompanied by a complete INDEX, was ever before issued, and it is unlikely that it ever can be done again, owing to the increasing rarity of good Old Books, and the fact, that financially considered, the capital required to obtain such a large and expensive stock realizes less than the percentage of profit readily secured by ordinary investment.

Whether, further, any bookseller will be blessed with such uniform good health, such universality of range in all branches of Literature, and I may add, such a devotion to his trade, time alone will tell.

Anyhow this Catalogue has been the greatest effort in my career as a bookseller, which now extends over forty years—twenty-seven of them on my own account.

To bring together this Collection of Books, to group them into Classes, to get them catalogued, place them systematically on my shelves, and to issue the Catalogue originally in sections—the first dated August, 1871, the last November, 1873—has been an immense labour, and has only been achieved by my intense desire to be a useful labourer in promoting the progress of civilization.

The INDEX to this Catalogue, begun by myself, was given up by me as I found it impossible to find the necessary time to carry it forward with sufficient speed; it was then resolutely taken up and completed with the greatest care and industry by another hand perfectly competent to render it a work of exceptional value for reference.

Errors found in this volume, the blemishes which are unavoidable in a labour of such diffuse and extensive difficulty, must be placed to the account of unequal efficiency in the members of the cataloguing staff which I have employed, and an occasional change in the personnel.

Besides the Books enumerated in this Catalogue, many others have passed during the time of its compilation (1871-73) through my hands; and been bought by enthusiastic COLLECTORS, who favour me weekly, and more often with their calls. These books disposed of at once, comprised so many articles of the utmost value and interest that had they been included in the mass brought together and catalogued as my stock, they would have formed a whole unrivalled in the world. Amongst the works thus disposed of without public announcement, were volumes bound for great Collectors, such as Leo X, Maioli, Grolier, François I, Henri II, Diane de Poitiers, and others, many Editiones principes, and other first-class rarities.

There is no stand-still in my establishment: I continue to exert myself to obtain for customers the books and periodicals they specially want, and to buy the best libraries in England and abroad which come into the market for sale. NEW CATALOGUES will be issued by me monthly, but such a volume as this I shall not again attempt.

The pains I take to obtain rare works for my customers is best proved by the List of DESIDERATA regularly issued by me, and circulated extensively amongst owners of books.

Periodicals, Club Books, and the Transactions of Learned Societies are daily becoming a more important branch of Literature; and to these I devote much of my time and energy. Complete sets and separate parts can be had from me of nearly all the best publications of that class.

I may add, that I shall continue to deserve the patronage of my numerous Customers throughout the Globe by strict business rules and prompt attention to all their wants. A shilling pamphlet will be supplied as well as rare and fine books. It has been my endeavour to make my establishment a focus for learned men and book-collectors of every sort, in which they may find or readily obtain anything they require, either to make a Library or to follow up their literary and scientific pursuits. I trust, therefore, that my house will remain as it has been, useful to scholars and collectors from all countries. I will cheerfully devote the rest of my life to gratify their wishes and supply their wants.

BERNARD QUARITCH.

MANUSCRIPTS.

I.—CODICES BIBLICI.

A great work has been vigorously begun by the Divines appointed for the evision of the English Scriptures. Yet it is to be feared that without a most xtensive examination and comparison of MSS., the result will be far below the easonable expectation of the public, whom it so deeply concerns. In the first aragraph, under the above heading, Scholars and Churchmen will find five nportant Greek MSS. of an early date, all of which demand attention and nvestigation from the Committee of Revision. Their cost is high, no doubt, ut it would be singular if pecuniary considerations availed to prejudice the reat English Bible of the future.

1. Greek.

1. EVANGELIA IV., GRÆCE, cum CANONE EUSEBII, small 4to. Splendid Manuscript on VELLUM, beautifully written in a very clear hand, the Canon of Eusebius within elegant borders, richly illuminated in gold and colours, the headings of each Gospel in letters of gold within elaborately illuminated ornaments, numerous capitals in gold; adorned with Three large MINIATURES OF St. Matthew, St. Mark, and St. John, executed in colours on a gold ground in the Byzantine style, bound in brown Levant morocco, elegantly ornamented on back and sides after the antique, vellum fly-leaves, and gilt edges, enclosed in a solander case covered in rich crimson velvet, and lined inside with white silk velvet, by BEDFORD, A PERFECT GEM, £250. Sæc. XI.

A Manuscript no less precious for its text, than as a specimen of Byzantine Art in the Eleventh Century. The paintings which represent St. Mark and St. John (that of Matthew being damaged by the loss of colour) are infinitely superior to the ordinary character of the work in old MSS. The design and the execution are alike admirable. Indeed the graceful style of ornamentation used in the borders to the Canon (arches of gold richly decorated, supported by light pillars of coloured marbles) as well as the Gospel-headings, is quite sufficient to place this MS. amongst the most valuable Codices of the Greek Gospels, from an artistic point of view.

The handwriting is an excellent cursive with headings in a small uncial character; and resembles that of the specimen of Cod. Burney 19*, given in the Burney Catalogue, British Museum; that of the specimens given in the Pal. Sacra of Westwood, "Early Greek MS. No. 5;" and also that of plates 46 and 49 in D'Agincourt, Vol. III. Its antiquity is clearly denoted by the absence of divisions between words (except of course at the end of sentences), and the form of the breathings, which are of the quadrate (or half H) shape, which Montfaucon says ceased to be usual after the tenth century. The dative iota is not subscribed, but generally affixed at the end of the word (and occasionally omitted). Another point for remark is the use of the epenthetic ν before consonants; but this is not always seen in the text. Abbreviations are only adopted in the words and names usually so found even in the earliest MSS., and in a few places where terminations are contracted for want of space. It is often supposed that cursive MSS. are all of a comparatively modern origin, but the fact is that this kind of writing was known as early as the Sixth Century, and came into general use in the Ninth, at which period also the employment of ornamentation began. Accents and breathings were adopted in writing so far back as the Seventh Century.

The text is of great importance for the biblical critic, and the new translation of the Scriptures. It offers an immense number of valuable Various Readings. It agrees more nearly with the "Codex Ephraim rescriptus" (V Century) and the "Codex Bezæ" than with the other early ones; but it is very remarkably different from the latter (Beza's) in the Story of the Woman taken in Adultery. It has the famous passage (Mat. VI. 13)—"ὁτι σου ἐστιν ἡ βασιλεια." John v. 3 & 4, presents the doubtful words, cited by Tertullian, but varies very much from the Alexandrine Codex. It leaves out the words "και πυρί" in Mat. III. 11; but gives the "οπισω μου" in Mat. IV. 10.—The leaf which should contain Luke XIX. 10—26, is cut away, and there is no painting of this Evangelist's figure. Otherwise it is quite complete; and a very remarkable feature of the MS. are the prologues to each Gospel, differing from the known prefaces of the Fathers as given by Erasmus, Mill, and other editors.

On the last leaf is a memorandum in Greek recording the birth of the then possessor's daughter, named Theodora, on the second of October (St. Justin's day,) in the year of the World 6828 (1320 A.C.)

2 EVANGELIA GRÆCA, cum Canone Eusebii, stout sm. 8vo. elegant Manuscript on VELLUM, with illuminated headings and Miniatures of Mark, Luke, and John, initials and numbers in gold, red morocco, super extra, in red velvet case by Bedford, £100. Sec. XI.

A beautiful specimen of BYZANTINE CALLIGRAPHY and ornamentation. The breathings are written in the quadrate form, words are broken up at the end of lines, the dative iota is always adscript, the letter β is in the archaic shape like a Roman u, the Ψ is formed like a cross, and the MS. scarcely affords any examples of itacism. It is singularly correct in its readings, and thus forms most valuable material for the collation of the sacred text.

3 NOVUM TESTAMENTUM GRÆCE, very stout square small 8vo. Manuscript on VELLUM with MINIATURES of the Four Evangelists, beautifully bound in red morocco extra, elegantly ornamented on back and sides after the antique, vellum fly-leaves, enclosed in a solander case covered with rich crimson velvet, and lined inside with white silk velvet, by BEDFORD, £200. Sec. XI—XII.

This elegant little MS. contains the Four Gospels, the Acts, and the Epistles, thus needing only the Apocalypse to be a perfect Codex of the New Testament. It is well known that MSS. of the Acts and Epistles are very much scarcer than those of the Gospels,—and on that account, the present MS. may justly be considered the most valuable in the collection catalogued here. The order in which the Epistles are arranged, differs wholly from that which is used in the printed editions, and the text will afford valuable matter for collation. It is noticeable that in the baptism of the Eunuch (Acts viii. 37) the formula of belief, which appears in the received text, is omitted; this fact alone being sufficient to prove that the scribe followed a good original. The statement about Silas (Acts xv. 34) is also omitted. It has not the passage concerning the "three Witnesses," but in the words concerning the Passion, is in harmony with the received text. The inscriptions at the end of the different Epistles, differ from those in other MSS. and in printed editions.

There is a curious note at the end, written in capitals by the scribe, who gives his name in it. It shews that he considered his task completed with the Epistles, and consequently had no idea that the Apocalypse formed an integral portion of the New Testament. It must of course have been absent in the more ancient code which he transcribed. The inscription is to the following effect:—

"As sweet as is the tranquil haven to sea-wanderers,
So sweet to scribes is the end of the book.
Ioannikios the Monk."

The character in which the body of the book is written is a beautiful minute cursive, with divisions generally observed between the words, but otherwise shewing all the marks of antiquity, such as the right-angled notes of breathing, the peculiar form of the letters, the absence of the dative iota, etc. The Canon of Eusebius is not prefixed to the text, but there are tables to the Gospels, a Menology, portion of the Psalms, etc. written in an ancient hand on paper, and forming the beginning and end of the volume.

On the whole the present Manuscript is one of very great interest for the scholar and the collector.

4 EVANGELIA GRÆCE, sm. 4to. Manuscript on VELLUM, bound in brown morocco elegant, in imitation of the antique, stained vellum fly-leaves and gilt edges, in a solander case covered outside with crimson velvet, and lined inside with white silk velvet, the original covers preserved in flap, by BEDFORD, £45. Sec. XI—XII.

Elegantly written in a bold regular character, displaying great freedom of penmanship. As a specimen of ancient Greek calligraphy it is highly to be considered, although there are several lacunæ in the text, which follows pretty closely the Alexandrine version. Of course there are various readings to take the attention of the critic, but the collector will chiefly regard this MS. for its age, in connection with the beauty and simplicity of its clear rounded penmanship. The first leaves of Matthew's Gospel are missing. The dative iota is subscribed and the curved notes of aspiration used. There are no spaces observed between the words of a sentence and the custom of beginning a word at the end of a line and carrying it into the next, without any regard to the break, is universal through the volume. The shape of the characters is wholly antique and very graceful.

5 EVANGELIA GRÆCE, small 4to. Manuscript on VELLUM, bound in brown antique morocco elegant, blind and gold tooled after the antique, stained vellum fly-leaves and gilt edges, in a solander case, covered with rich crimson velvet, lined inside with white silk velvet, the original covers preserved in flap, by BEDFORD, £84. Sæc. XII—XIII.

In a very regular and uncommon style of penmanship, the letters being large, round, clear, and perfectly uniform. The aspirations are marked in the same manner as at present, that is, by curved lines; but on the other hand, the dative iota is everywhere omitted, the ι and the υ are generally crowned with two dots, and the letters retain the archaic form, almost as much as the MSS. a century older. Itacism frequently occurs. The various readings which the text affords are very numerous. Even the verbal alterations are remarkable in themselves, one of the most frequent turns of phrase being to substitute the article ὁς and a verb for ὁ and a participle. It has the disputed words ἐν τῷ φανερῷ (Mat. vi. 6), but the freedom of the scribe almost wholly through the MS. in his position and use of words is very great. If the Bible MSS. are to be divided into classes of versions, this one belongs to the school of the Beza Codex preserved in Cambridge.

It has subscriptions at the end of the Gospels, stating the number of στιχοι and ρηματα. See Montfaucon, (Pal. Græc. p. 306).

6 BIBLIA GRÆCA, stout small folio, MANUSCRIPT ON PAPER, the initial letters and headings illuminated in gold and colours, with 21 large Miniatures of the Prophets, richly painted in colours, heightened with gold, in the best style of Byzantine Art, bound in vellum, £32. Sæc. XV.

It is a circumstance of extreme rarity to find a Greek MS. adorned with paintings of such a superior kind as those of this volume. They are remarkably well executed and finished; and are still in fine preservation. The subjects are: King Solomon; Isaiah; Jeremiah; Ezekiel; Daniel; Hosea; Joel; Amos; Obadiah; Jonah; Micah; Nahum; Habbakuk; Zephania; Haggai; Zacharia; Malachi. In addition to the figure of Jonah himself, four other miniatures are given illustrative of the story: his delivery to the whale; his disgorgement; and two views of Nineveh. The ship in the first of these four is represented pierced for cannons, and with a red flag bearing a small black cross. In the picture showing his escape from the whale's mouth, there is a view of the shore with a hunting scene, deer pursued by dogs, etc. The text of the MS. is not a complete Bible; but contains Genesis, Exodus, Job, Proverbs, Isaiah, Ezekiel, Daniel, Hosea, Joel, Amos, Obadiah, Jonah, Micah, Nahum, Habbakuk, Zephaniah, Haggai, Zacharia, and Malachi; wanting however a leaf in Genesis; omitting Chapters 6-11, 18, 21-24, 26-30, 35-39 in Exodus; Chapters 3-39, and 41, in Job; and some chapters in Ezekiel and Daniel. This volume, although following closely to the old Byzantine type, was perhaps executed in Italy by one of the learned fugitives from Constantinople.

2. Duoglot (Greek-Latin).

7 EVANGELIUM S. Matthæi Græco-Latinum, small folio, MS. of the XVth Century, on Paper, with several very curious Miniatures, damaged by fire, in a morocco case, with flaps, £10. ? Pavia, 1461

A very interesting volume, containing several very singular Miniatures executed in colours, in a style marked by oriental influence. The Devil tempting Christ is one of the subjects. In 1465 this Manuscript was presented to the Convent of St.

Epiphanius (probably in Pavia). It begins with two Epistles of St. Jerome, after which follows a sort of commentary on the arrangement of the Gospels. An epistle of St. Ambrose in Latin, and the Nicene Creed in Greek; with a record of the donation of the book, are found at the end. There is also to be seen on the leaf next the notice of donation, the following memorandum: Τοῦτο τὸ βιβλίον ἐστὶν τοῦ Σεραφινου Ραλερανου Κανωνικου (sic). Βαρθολομαιος ὁ Μελζιος ἔγραψε. The statement concerning Bartolommeo Melzi may only refer to his having written the memorandum, not the book. The Melzi were a distinguished Milanese family. The text of the Gospel is quite perfect, with the exception perhaps of a few letters.

8 PSALTERIUM DAVIDIS, Græco-Latine, small 4to. A FINE MANUSCRIPT of Italian workmanship, on 130 leaves, the Greek and Latin in parallel columns, with rubricated initials, brown morocco extra, gilt edges, £5. 5*s* (Venetiis, cir. 1449)

The rarity of MSS. written in the two languages is well known.

The Greek is written in a small upright character, very clear; and the Latin in a somewhat larger hand. There are some prayers in Venetian Italian at the end of the Psalms.

3. Latin.

9 EVANGELIA QUATUOR, LATINE, CUM PROLOGIS, ARGUMENTIS ET BREVIARIIS, LATINE, small folio, fine Ancient Manuscript on VELLUM, with Canon of Eusebius, MINIATURE of St. Matthew, and initial letter finely ornamented in the Byzantine style, without the leaf containing the commencement of St. Mark's Gospel, bound in gros-grain red morocco elegant, handsomely ornamented after the antique, vellum fly-leaves, gilt edges, enclosed in a solander case covered in rich blue Geneva velvet, and lined inside with white silk velvet, lettered on morocco, by BEDFORD, £72. Sec. XI.

Probably of Italian origin. The Breviarium and the Canon, and some other parts of this Manuscript, are written in a hand which belongs rather to the Twelfth than to the Eleventh Century. The remainder of the book is in a fine clear character, with more of the Roman than of the Gothic type in it. The capital letters display the peculiar slender form in vogue at that time; V has always the appearance of a Y; and the non-capital y is represented crowned with a dot. The note of interrogation is a mark above the line, resembling a written w.

The original text was full of variations from the accepted form of the Vulgate, but a later hand (13th century) has made corrections and additions in many places. This corrector evidently regarded the codex with much veneration, since he destroyed nothing; the mode adopted by him being to write the substituted word above the original one, without touching the latter, and in the case of words and phrases which he considered superfluous or interpolated, to mark them by a line of dots beneath. But even his corrections have not always the effect of restoring what is considered the true language of St. Jerome. It is curious that in Matthew xxiv., the following verse is added on the margin, in the handwriting of the original scribe, to be inserted after the 41st verse: "Duo in lecto, unus assumetur, et alter relinquetur." As a third part to the very remarkable passage contained in verses 40 and 41, this is interesting. In a few instances the MUSIC of some passages is written above the line in red ink. The striking verses 19-22 in Matthew viii. were omitted by the original scribe, but are added at the side by the corrector.

The name of the writer is written on the last leaf "AMBROSIUS ME SCRIPSIT," after four lines which indicate that he had the intention of continuing his transcription of the Testament.

10 BIBLIA LATINA (Gen. xxxv. 11, usque ad IV. Reg. XVIII. 27), a venerable MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, folio, 238 leaves, with Capitals, in the original oak boards, covered with stamped leather, £25. Sæc. XI

This important and valuable Manuscript is that cited by C. Vercellone in his "Variæ Lectiones Vulgatæ Latinæ Bibliorum Editionis," as Codex U. It belongs to what is usually termed the "Recensio Alcuina" with which it generally agrees, but exhibits some few important readings not to be found there. The commencement and also the continuation as far as I Chronicles, 6, are supplied in MS. by a later hand.

11 EVANGELIUM SECUNDUM JOANNEM, cum Commentario et Glossis, sm. 4to. MS. on VELLUM, with an illuminated grotesque initial, being the letter I in the form of a bird, strongly whole bound in russia, gilt edges, £4. 10*s* Sec. XII-XIII

A very good palæographical specimen of Italian work, written upon smooth fine vellum, in the best and freshest state of preservation. It was probably executed in North Italy.

12 BIBLIA LATINA, CUM PROLOGIS, stout folio, A BEAUTIFUL MS. written on 379 leaves of FINE VELLUM, and ornamented with NEARLY ONE HUNDRED AND FORTY initial letters, containing MINIATURES, some curiously designed, in colours and heightened with burnished gold, and many others in colours only, in the commencement of the verses or chapters, as well as in the copious Index of ONE HUNDRED AND FOURTEEN COLUMNS, which unfortunately concludes with a portion of the letter T at the end, calf gilt, £27. Sec. XIII

This fine MS. if not executed in England, has at least been in England for over five hundred years, the MS. notes which are found here and there upon the margins, being in an English handwriting of the fourteenth century. These are sometimes of a curious character, such as "nota queso hoc capitulum," and "hystoria bona"—these last words finding apparently their best translation in the modern phrase "a good story." One of the miniatures in the Psalms represents the slaying of Goliah by David, who is attired as a man at arms in complete chain mail. The style of the paintings throughout is certainly indicative of the influence of an English school.

13 BIBLIA SACRA LATINA, CUM PROLOGIS S. HIERONYMI, stout folio, fine old MS. on VELLUM, probably executed in North Italy, with painted and ornamented initials, the letter F which occupies the entire length of the first page being a remarkable specimen, £21. Sec. XIII-XIV

A fine codex of the Bible, valuable as well for its text as for the example it affords of a good and early school of calligraphy. The character of the various headings and finis lines indicates the influence of a very ancient style of penmanship; and this, in connection with the arrangement and peculiarities of the text, shews that the scribe followed some codex of the eighth or ninth century. At the top of the first page there is the following memorandum, in a fourteenth-century hand: "Liber iste est loci et conventus Sti. Augustini de Monte Regali." This Mons Regalis is probably the town now known as Mondovi, which was founded by the fugitives from Milan, after its destruction by the Emperor in 1162, and which speedily rose in prosperity and importance, as a cathedral city and bishop's see. The MS. is not complete: an exact list of contents, in Italian MS. perhaps fifty years old, is inserted at the beginning on four leaves of paper. A summary of these contents is given below. The prologues of St. Jerome are prefixed to the various divisions. The two supplementary chapters of Daniel which Jerome added from Theodotion to the original twelve chapters, are given in this manuscript. They end with the words coram eo, not subjoining the king's remarks regarding the God of Daniel, which form the last verse. Numerous noteworthy variations from the textus receptus are found scattered through the volume. Contents: Genesis to Judges, without the large initial of Exodus and Numbers, the last few lines of Joshua, and in Judges the first three chapters and xx 12 to the end; Job, without I-IV 17; three books of Kings, beginning I. II. 9, and including the first chapter of the fourth book is the final chapter of the third; the fourth book of Kings, beginning IV 36; two books of Chronicles, without chapter 29 of the first and 1—31 of the second; Isaiah, beginning the latter part of cap. 49, ending with 65; Jeremiah without the first chapter, Lamentations, Oratio, Baruch, Ezekiel, Daniel, Joel, Hosea, Amos, Abdias, Jonah, Micah, Nahum, Habbakuk, Zephaniah, Haggai, Zachariah, Malachi; Psalms, 1—110; Proverbs, wanting half the last chapter; Book of Wisdom, v 17 to end; Ecclesiasticus, III to the end; two books of Ezra, wanting the last chapter; two books of Maccabees; Matthew's Gospel I-XII 12; St. Paul to the Romans (without beginning), to the Corinthians, and to the Ephesians.

merous initials illuminated in gold and colours, 62 of which contain fine minute MINIATURES; in old calf binding rebacked, from the library of the Duke of Sussex, with his bookplate, £20. Sec. XIII-XIV

Described in the Bibl. Sussex, I, pt. 1, p. lxxiii. The volume consists of 490 leaves of the thinnest and purest vellum, 7¼ by 4¾ inches in size. The text is arranged in double columns, and the writing is a remarkably fine specimen of French Gothic calligraphy, perfect and uniform throughout. Many of the miniatures display a very superior style of execution. One leaf is supplied in a handwriting of about the year 1600, by some monk of the Capuchins at Mante, to whose library the MS. then belonged—probably by the Frater Jacobus, peccator miserrimus, whose name appears on one of the fly-leaves.

15 BIBLIA LATINA, cum prologis Sancti Hieronymi et Indice, stout small folio, fine Manuscript on VELLUM, written in double columns, within double ruled lines, with the capitals in blue and red, some of the initials very neatly ornamented, bound in Levant gros-grain blue morocco elegant, richly tooled sides after the antique, vellum fly-leaves, gilt edges, by BEDFORD, £32. cir. 1300

As appears from the names scattered here and there on the margins, this MS. belonged to an English family of the name of Folliot or Ffolliett, about the time of Queen Elizabeth. This circumstance gives an additional interest beyond the intrinsic merit of the volume, and suggests the possibility that it is of English origin. Perhaps a closer examination of the book would show some peculiarities to confirm this conjecture, which, if correct, would make the MS. very valuable. A few lacunæ appear in the text, and it is consequently sold not subject to collation.

16 BIBLIA LATINA VULGATA, cum Prologis, 12mo. MS. beautifully and very minutely written on the finest abortive VELLUM, with 44 lines per page, the writing on each page occupying a length of scarcely more than four inches, with large initials, and rubrics and capitals in red and blue, a Table of the meanings of about 5000 Hebrew names at end, and, with the exception of the last leaf, in superb preservation, citron morocco, gilt edges, £15. Sec. XIV

This beautiful little MS. has been in English hands for nearly three hundred years, as appears by the words "Jhon Ston owēth this boke," written on the last leaf, in a handwriting of about the year 1600. This owner must have been an eminent man, as I find his name John Stone of London with an elaborate coat of arms in an Elizabethan MS. Armorial, described infra.

17 BIBLIA SACRA LATINA, cum Prologis, stout 12mo. elegant Manuscript on VELLUM, with ILLUMINATED capital letters, and a large initial to the book of Genesis, occupying the length of the page, and containing 8 separate Miniatures, the lowest one a Crucifixion, morocco extra, covered with blind tooling in the old style, £12. Sec. XIV

This MS. bears the presentation-inscription, dated 1476, of a Marcus of Bologna, who was afterwards canonized by the Pope. It is written in double columns, each containing forty-five lines in a space of 4½ inches. The beauty and regularity of the handwriting, and its perfect state of preservation, make this volume a desirable acquisition. Notwithstanding the earliness of the Italian ownership, the MS. is evidently of French execution.

18 BIBLIA LATINA Vulgata, cum prologis, very stout sm. 4to. Manuscript on VELLUM, 424 leaves, beautifully written in very minute and elegant character, with ornamental coloured initials and above 150 small MINIATURES in gold and colours illustrative of the biblical history, each executed within a large initial letter, an elegant ample border round the first page, green vellum, gilt edges, from the Enschede collection at Haarlem, £72. Sec. XIV

A beautiful Manuscript in the finest state of preservation and written on the thinnest vellum, in letters so neat and small that every page is occupied by two columns of 56 lines each. It is evidently of French origin, judging from the lilied sceptre which is held by the King in the illustration to Ecclesiasticus, and the lilies which are held up before the King in the miniature initial of Ecclesiastes. Each of the miniatures represents some subject in the book of which it adorns the initial letter, and the grotesque element is almost entirely absent, which is a circumstance very unusual in the illuminated MSS. of the time. The first leaf of Genesis is wanting; otherwise the volume is quite complete and in very fine condition. The first page of prologue is particularly excellent, the ornamental borders being light and elegant, and the initial-miniature executed with remarkable delicacy and minuteness. The tout ensemble of the MS. is very attractive, and it really is a charming example of Calligraphy and Illumination.

19 BIBLIA LATINA, à primo Regum libro usque ad librum Hester, cum prologis Sancti Hieronymi, large folio, a beautiful German MS. of 165 leaves on VELLUM, with thirteen finely executed MINIATURES in large initials (mostly 3½ inches square), eight of them illuminated in gold and colours, the other five etched, the writing large and clear in an elegant Gothic character; the beginning and end slightly damaged, whole bound morocco, blind-tooled, gilt edges, £24. cir. 1440

The uncoloured Drawings are done with so much softness, delicacy, and minuteness that they have a wonderful resemblance to engravings.

4. German.

20 BIBLIA HISTORICA, SEU SPECULUM HUMANÆ SALVATIONIS, GERMANICE, thick folio, MANUSCRIPT, so lettered, containing a translation of part of the Bible in old Alemannic German, on 466 leaves of paper, a few of them torn and mended, with above 180 large coloured illustrations of historical subjects of the Old Testament, besides initial letters, all executed in the bold rude style peculiar to the German monastic manuscripts which immediately preceded the block-books. The INITIAL LETTER of GENESIS IS PRINTED FROM AN ELABORATE WOOD OR METAL-ENGRAVING, ENCLOSING A DESIGN of the ANNUNCIATION WHICH is in STRIKING CONTRAST to the EXCESSIVELY RUDE ART of the DRAWINGS. The volume opens with twelve large designs, occupying the entire page, representing the Creation and History of Adam and Eve; many of the others are equally large, but the greater number are about half the size of the page. The whole is evidently the work of one hand, and only one sort of paper has been used, which is of strong texture, and has one water-mark throughout, viz. the Head of a Bull, of singular form. At the end of the Book of Judges occurs the name of the scribe thus, "Finitus est liber iste per me Cunradum Schlapperitzi," in an ancient oak binding, brass bosses at corners, £50. A.D. 1445

The date of this extraordinary MS. is written on a portion of the illustration "als die zobrerin Samül uff wakt das er Sal wisagty." The inscription runs thus: "Anno dni m.cccc.xlv da wart dis gemachet am d . . . ." the last word which is imperfect being perhaps the name of the place where it was done. This written date, and the circumstance of the first initial being printed, are offered to the consideration of the critics who ridicule the date of the famous St. Christopher, and who held that block-printing and its kindred arts were posterior to typography. The book contains, not a mere history of the Bible as the title would indicate, but a translation of the Scriptures, from Genesis to 2 Kings, 14, rendered with tolerable accuracy and different from any of the known German versions. The language is very curious, being in the Swiss or Alemannic form of High-German. The termination li occurs frequently as a substitute for lein and heit. Sals drig suin stands for Saul's three sons; the plural termination in thochtran is noticeable; as is also the orthography of ainödy (einöde), ainlift, for eilfte, sett for sagte, sig for sei, and the use of stattly for stadt or städtlein, tunkly for dunkelheit, belieben for glauben, etc. The drawings are rude and singular but very interesting, and many are the full size of the page, the others occupying more than half. The volume opens with twelve large designs, representing the Creation and the Story of Adam and Eve, on the last of which, in a contemporary hand-writing, is the famous couplet:

Digitized by Google

Do Adam rut un eua span
Wer was do ain edel man.
(When Adam delved and Eve span,
Who was then a gentleman?)

and under them in a somewhat later hand the third line is added

Dem got sölichē eren gan
(To whom God such honors gave.)

The story of Samson is illustrated by 25 drawings, the Book of Ruth by six, and the other portions of Scripture by the remainder. In addition to the 187 large drawings are numerous others of bordered capitals, borders, &c. composed of figures of Animals, Fruits, Flowers, and Grotesques. On the fly-leaves at end, also in a handwriting of the period, are recorded the years of scarcity from 1608 to 1631 inclusive, the price of corn, visitations of the Plague, War, &c.

The sheets are in many places bound up without correct succession.

5. Oriental.

21 PSALMS. Select Psalms in Coptic on one side and in Arabic on the other, with parallel passages in Coptic and Ethiopic, MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, ON A ROLL (about 70 by 2½ inches), on shittim-wood rollers, £2. 2*s* Sec. XIV

A former possessor, probably English, has written an interlineal Latin translation of the Coptic, in a neat handwriting, about the year 1700.

22 EVANGELIARIUM GRÆCUM, impl. 4to. ancient Greek MS. of the XI century, on VELLUM, in a clear bold and square character, almost without contractions, with large ILLUMINATED INITIALS, not wholly perfect, richly bound in dark red morocco extra, gilt edges, £40. Sec. XI.

A selection from the four Gospels, used by the priests for reading aloud and preaching from. There are occasional notes added to mark the inflexions of the voice and the intonation. The character of the handwriting in this venerable relic is early cursive, and there is no distinctive space between the words except at the end of a sentence or clause. There is neither subscribed nor adscript iota to mark the dative case; the breathings are generally noted by the peculiar character shaped like a headless cross lying down; and the forms of the letters in the head lines, as well as the colours used in illumination, are of archaic kind. All these circumstances combine to prove the high antiquity of the MS. It forms a very valuable specimen of Byzantine calligraphy of the best description.

23 MENOLOGIUM seu EVANGELISTARIUM, Græce, stout folio, fine Byzantine MS. on VELLUM, with illuminated capitals and headings in gold and colours, apparently not quite complete, £16. Sec. XI.

A valuable palæographical specimen, written in a large open character of mixed cursive and semi-uncial. It has the antique peculiarity of omitting the iota, whether subscript or adscript, in the dative case. The text is a series of Lessons from the Gospels, arranged menologically according to the Saints' days.

24 LECTIONARIUM SIVE EVANGELISTARIUM, Græce, large 4to. Manuscript on VELLUM, a fragment of an ancient Church Service, finely written in a large hand, in double columns, bound in red morocco extra, £7. 10*s* Sec. XII.

Interesting as an example of the workmanship of the period. There are some curious initial letters, coloured; and the whole character of the handwriting is primitive. The dative iota is always omitted, the ψ has the cross-shape, and the s and v are dotted.

25 HOROLOGIUM Magnum. ΩΡΟΛΟΓΙΟΝ ΜΕΓΑ: Μηνολόγιον, Κοντάκια, Ἀκολουθία, Παράκλησις, in one volume, thick sm. 4to. fine Byzantine Manuscript upon Bombyx paper, dated in the year 6982, A.M. of the

Constantinopolitan Era, in the original binding, having a portion of one leaf torn off, £6. 6*s* 1474

A valuable Service-Book, and a fine specimen of Greek Calligraphy. It is mentioned in Mr. Coxe's Report to H. M. Government on Manuscripts in the Levant. It measures 8 inches by 5½.

26 Ἡ ἉΓΙΑ ΜΕΤΑΜΟΡΦΩΣΙΣ. The Service for the Transfiguration, in Greek, with MUSICAL NOTATION, 12mo. MANUSCRIPT ON PAPER, bound in red morocco extra, ornamented back and sides after the antique, by BEDFORD, £9. 9*s* Sec. XV.

This very curious MS. was written in the island of Crete, as appears from the heading—"καὶ ταῦτα καθῶς ψάλλονται παρὰ κὺρ. βενεδίκτου Ἐπισκοποπούλου Πρωτοπαπὰ πόλεως Ρυθεῖμνης." The town of Rhythimna is in the north of Candia or Crete, and perhaps an examination of the records of Venetian domination in that island may shew the exact time when the Protopapa flourished. The Music is noted in Neumes, and it is remarkable that where one syllable accompanies several notes, the vowels are duplicated or triplicated in spelling, as the case may be. There are two old vellum-fly leaves covered with Greek writing of the 10th or 11th Century.

27 HYMNARIUM ET PENTECOSTARIUM, CUM NOTIS MUSICIS. Ἀρχὴ . . τῶν Σημαδίων τῆς Ψαλλικῆς Τέχνης τῶντε ανιωντῶν καὶ κατιωντῶν σωμάτωντε καὶ πνεύματων καὶ πάσης χειρονομίας καὶ ἀκολουθίας συντεθημένης εἰς αὐτὴν, παρὰ τῶν κατὰ κερὸς (καιρὸς) αι αδειχθέντων Ποιητῶν παλαιῶντε καὶ νέων, stout 12mo. FINE MANUSCRIPT ON PAPER, with the Music throughout, and an Introduction to the Science, bound, £10. 1719

The introduction which teaches the use of the Musical notes, is signed by Nikolaus Istreus of Michalitza, with the date 1719. Two of the Musical Parallagai are stated to be by Joannes Cucuzelos. After the Introduction follow the Hymns from ancient writers, set to Music by Chrysaphus the younger, the "protopsaltés of the great Church." These are followed by the Octoechus, to which succeed the Eleven Matins. Next came the Lauds, the last of which was entirely, both words and music, composed by Chrysaphus. Finally ensue three leitourgiai and several hymns by modern composers including Joseph Cucuzelos the younger. The Musical Introduction, being a complete key to the hieroglyphics of the strange system of notation give especial value to the MS. and the ancient Hymns add to it.

28 ΣΤΙΧΕΡΑΡΙΟΝ, καὶ ΤΡΙΩΔΙΟΝ, καὶ ΠΕΝΤΗΚΟΣΤΑΡΙΟΝ: Hymns and Liturgy of the Greek Church, sm. 4to. MANUSCRIPT ON PAPER, with the Music of every syllable, in oak boards, covered with stamped leather, the Crucifixion forming centre ornament on side, £5. Sec. XVIII.

The Sticherarium is divided according to months, beginning with September and ending with August. The Triôdium extends from Septuagesima to Easter; and is followed by the third part which runs from Easter to Pentecost. The MS. is unusually copious and complete; and must for that reason be considered rare and valuable.

2. Latin.

29 EVANGELIARUM pro Feriis et Diebus Sanctorum, small folio, Manuscript on VELLUM, a splendid specimen of early calligraphy, written probably for some cathedral, as the binding seems to have been robbed of silver carvings and enamels; in the original oak boards with gilt edges, £36. Sec. X

This is truly a very fine palæographical monument; the regularity and beauty of the bold rounded characters striking the eye with most remarkable effect. A higher antiquity has been attributed to the volume than is here claimed for it, a note on the fly-leaf running thus: "Nullus in hoc continentur post S. Lambertum † 708, beatorum, ergo videtur his codex scriptus exeunte Seculo VIII. vel ineunte seculo nono." The St. Lambert alluded to in this note, was the Bishop of Maestricht, whose murder has been attributed by various writers to various years, from 696 to 708. The Saint, next nearest in date to the period of the MS. is Cunibert or Hunibert, who died 663. This fine Evangeliarium is evidently of Burgundian origin, to judge from the names of the Saints recorded.

30 ANTIPHONARIUM, CUM NOTIS MUSICIS, fol. Manuscript on VELLUM, 165 leaves, with very quaint painted capitals, which are much older in style than the body of the MS. the musical notes written in Neuma or Neumes (with only one central line), old red morocco gilt, in good preservation, £36. circ. 1100

This VENERABLE and highly interesting relic of antiquity, which was attributed to the 11th century, is similar in character to a Graduale, bearing date of 1071, which fetched the sum of £80. (No. 154, at Payne's sale, Sotheby's, June 20, 1860), and probably came from the same church. "For the History of Sacred Music this is a most important volume, as in the Antiphonarium are preserved those beautiful Chants which the Venerable Bede was so anxious to introduce into our cathedrals, and which admirers of solemn grandeur consider were no way improved when Guido d'Arezzo introduced, in the eleventh century, his newly invented system, of sol-fa-ing."

From an almost effaced memorandum on the first page, and the length of the service attributed to St. Laurence in the text, it would seem that the MS. was written for and belonged to a Cistercian Abbey of St. Laurence, perhaps in Spain.

31 MISSALE (LINCOLNIENSE SEU SARISBURIENSE), sm. folio, VENERABLE MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, by an English scribe, of 6 leaves for the Almanack and 222 leaves for the Missal, early Gothic character, written in black and red, with some large illuminated capital letters, in original binding (rebacked) brass ornaments on sides, £42. cir. 1350

Written no doubt in the diocese of Lincoln, as there is special mention of St. Hugh, Bishop of Lincoln, in the Calendar, and special prayers for his day (17 November) in the Officium Sanctorum. The mode of entry in the Calendar shews that the Saint's-day was a very important festival in the church, equal in ceremonial with All Saints' Day and the Feast of Relics. Now this was an honor not accorded to St. Hugh in the Sarum Missal where his day appears as one of the "simples," not one of the "greater doubles" as it is shewn to be in the present MS. He was even omitted altogether in the Hereford service; and it would be worth the while of some competent scholar to examine narrowly the text of the above Missal and decide to what use it belongs. It is said that Lincoln once had a special Use, but no relic has hitherto been found of it. St. Hugh (whom Mr. Froude has recently included in his historical studies), although very distinguished for holiness and other merits in his own time, acquired little more than a local celebrity, and is not therefore found in the calendar of any Service-book used outside of England. He was a native of Burgundy, and belonged to the Cistercian order; and having contracted familiarity with King Henry II while Prior of Witham, was raised by the King to the Bishopric of Lincoln in which see he died in the year 1200. Giraldus Cambrensis wrote his life (while he was still bishop) in the de Vitis Episcoporum Lincolniensium (Wharton, Anglia Sacra, II, p. 419). He was canonized by Honorius III, who died in 1227. The MS. is a very fine one in large and bold characters, regularly and well written with the Music noted. But the initial decorations are in a much ruder and more primitive style than the body of the text. At the commencement of the Canon the usual prayer is found for the Church, the Pope, the Bishop, and the King. Edward III was no doubt the holder of this last dignity.

32 PSALTERIUM DAVIDIS cum Canticis, Symbolo S. Athanasii, Litania, Precibus, etc. et cum Calendario, folio, SPLENDID MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, written in a large and very fine style of calligraphy by an English scribe about the beginning of the XVth century, with numerous initial and capital letters, borders finely illuminated in gold and colours, morocco extra, gilt edges, £52. cir. 1400

This splendid Manuscript includes the names of St. John of Beverley, St. Wulstan, St. Swithin, St. Erckenwald, St. Edith, and appears to have been written probably in either the diocese of York or that of Lincoln. The feast of St. Hugh of Lincoln appears as a duplex. The book belonged to the Derby, Odyham, and Welles Families, in succession between 1440 and 1520. The Calendar contains various entries relating to them, e.g. Obiit Edwardus Welles An. dñi 1514 and he lyes in saynt mary butholfe church; disponsata Anna uxor mea A. 1497; Obitus Margarete Derby, A. 1449; natus Wyllūs Odyham 1501; Obitus Johīs Vankelly A. 1441; Obitus John Derby de London 1479; Obitus Johne Derby de Rading A. 1460; At Ashridge Professio John Derby A. 1469; Obitus Johis Derby Aldermāni A. 1481, probably the same person whose birth is noticed in September 1445; Obitus Will. Derby de Rading A. 1437; Obitus Radulphi Silkstone A. 1434; Obitus Elie Derby 1455; Nativitas Elysabethe Odyham A. 1498; and numerous similar entries. Prefixed are some diagrams, circles of Winds, etc. with explanations in English, in two places of which the Anglo-Saxon letter thorn is used for the th. These preliminary pieces were added in 1483, as appears by the date attached to the diagram for finding the Dominical Letter. At the end is a Modus Confitendi, followed by various Benedictiones, and an Inventory (in English) of Church furniture, commencing "Furst a masse book." This is preceded by a curious list of battles that had taken place in England between 1450 and 1481.

33 MISSALE SECUNDUM CONSUETUDINEM ROMANÆ CURIÆ, folio, Manuscript of the latter part of the fifteenth century, written in double columns, in a French-Gothic hand, on 208 leaves of pure VELLUM, preceded by a calendar, and decorated with several hundred richly illuminated capitals, painted in Grisaille upon gold; the first page of the Mass and the first page of the Canon surrounded by illuminated borders of flowers, birds, and insects, into one of which is introduced an Armorial Bearing, old calf, gilt edges, from the Duke of Sussex's collection, £6. 10*s cir.* 1480

On the last leaf, in a fine hand of the seventeenth century, there are added a lectio and sequentia evangelii, headed Sancti Autberti Epistola and Sancti Autberti Evangelium. It may be inferred from the name of St. Aubert, in consequence, that the present Missal was written and used in the diocese of Cambrai.

34 BREVIARIUM ROMANUM, 4to. a fine Manuscript written in red and black, upon VELLUM, containing all the priestly offices of the Roman Church, with several large ornamental initials, painted in gold and enclosing MINIATURES, the first page encircled by an elaborate border, containing 5 Miniatures, blue morocco extra, gilt edges, from Trotter Brockett's collection, £25. Low Countries, Sec. XV

Perfect and in singularly fine preservation; which is a very unusual circumstance in MS. Breviaries. Besides it may be remarked that Breviaries—the books which were carried about by priests for their continual study—are, for that very reason, among the rarest of all the old Liturgical MSS.

The Calendar is very full of Saints' names. That of S. Vedastus (Aug. 9) is spelled in its Flemish form "Vaast." The Calendar, the Fifteen Joys, and the Nine Mercies, are in rude old French, in which the word Ange is spelled Angre.

The Calendar and the Joys and Mercies are in French, these latter in language of an older period than the preceding MS. The Calendar is likewise very full of names, and includes Saint Vaast on the 14th of July. The prayers are also much more numerous than in the other MS., several additional services and special masses being added at the end.

French Calendar, beautifully drawn, coloured, and illuminated, an with an elegant border round every page, old calf, £20. cir. 140

The Calendar of this fine volume is in French, and very full as in the precedin articles. It includes Saint Vaast on the 6th of February, and Saint Charles, Ro de France, on the 28th of January, this latter being an instance of remarkabl rarity, indeed UNIQUE as far as the present collection is concerned. There are n French Prayers in the MS.

SÆC. XV

This fine Manuscript appears to have belonged to the Cossemant Family, and has various MS. Memoranda concerning its affairs on the margins of the Calendar which as in the above MSS. is very full.

Besides the Joys and Mercies, which are as usual in the vernacular tongue there are also about 50 pages of French hymns, prayers, and lives of Saints, all in verse. This is an extremely unusual circumstance, and gives a special value to the book, which may thus be considered to hold place as a poetical monument of the old French tongue. There is a portrait, perhaps of the poet, contained in the capital D with which the text begins.

The Calendar and the Rubrics are in French, but there are no French prayers in the volume.

This MS. has been in the hands of several noble possessors since the year 1577, when it belonged to the Saingénois family. The notes of various owners are found on the fly-leaves.

The Calendar contains but few Saints, one of whom, St. Leger, (2nd October) is spelled in the Frankish way, Leodegaire, the only instance of such orthography in all these Horæ.

The Joys and Mercies are given in French, as well as the Calendar which contains a great many names of Saints, including Vaast, on the 15 July. This is a very interesting volume, with several memoranda on the fly-leaves, which contains a record of the ownership during the entire of the seventeenth century. In the year 1602, the widow of François Croiser, to whose father it had belonged, gave it as a wedding present to her daughter Elizabeth on the latter's marriage with Guillaume Nutrat, who has inscribed a memorandum to that effect, dated 1602. A son of Nutrat inscribes the next memorandum, ordering that the book be preserved by his descendants, giving the date 1638, but omitting his signature. Under this is a similar notice by Marie Nutrat, apparently the widow of the last writer. The final inscription is as follows:—"En conformité de l'intention de mes pères et mères, ce livre a esté gardé et est parvenu jusques a moy. Je prie mes enfans de le garder de mesme et je veux que par forme et droit de substitution graduelle et infinie il passe a laisné de mes enfans masles. Fait ce xx Febvrier, 1692.—Dupuys nore. septieme du nom."

At the end of the French Joys and Mercies, there are 33 pages of other prayers in French. The volume has been described in the following terms:—"Tres-beau manuscrit de la fin du XVe siècle, sur peau de vélin. Il est orné de 12 grandes et 6

BEAUTIFUL MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, ornamented with richly designed BORDERS, INITIAL LETTERS, CAPITALS, 7 LARGE MINIATURES, the Signs of the Zodiac, and 10 SMALL MINIATURES for the Calendar (sold with all faults, the leaves for August and December being deficient), all exquisitely illuminated in gold and colours by a FRENCH ARTIST, red morocco extra, gilt edges, £42. SÆC. XV

This MS. which may rank as one of the best productions of French art, was executed in the diocese of Chartres, probably during the first half or towards the middle of the fifteenth century. The locality of its origin is indicated by the names in the Calendar of SS. Taurin, Chéron, Aignan, and others, but especially by the entry, opposite 17th of October, of "la dedicacion notre dame de Chrs." The Calendar is in French, but there are no French prayers in the text.

44 LIBER PRECUM, 12mo. beautiful MS. on VELLUM, with 11 large MINIATURES in gold and colours, and 9 smaller ones in Grisaille, executed with remarkable fineness; decorative borders, full of grotesque and fantastic designs, brown morocco, gilt edges, £36. Sec. XV

The Calendar is French, but there are no French prayers in the volume which consists chiefly of the Psalms. There is a portrait in the border of the first miniature, of a man kneeling, and two portraits of a man and a woman kneeling in the border of the miniature to the Crucifixion.

45 HORÆ BEATÆ MARIÆ VIRGINIS, sm. 4to. Manuscript of the end of the 15th Century, ON VELLUM, with 16 large and 20 small MINIATURES, and numerous borders, illuminated in gold and colours, Dutch calf, gilt edges, lettered on the back, "Missale Romanum," £16. 16*s* cir. 1500

The Calendar, which has a scant supply of names, is in French, as well as some of the headings, but there are no French prayers in the text.

A very fine and well-preserved specimen of French penmanship and ornamentation. The larger miniatures occupy each a full-page, and this, with the fruit-and-flower decoration in the borderings on the pages opposite, give the volume an imposing and attractive appearance. There is an old French note inserted, stating, on the authority of Fèlibien, that the MS. was the work of Giulio Clovio: but this, though plainly incorrect, shews the estimation in which the present "Livre d'Heures" was formerly held.

This volume was supposed to have been written and bound for Marguerite d the authoress of the famous Heptameron, in her youthful days. The MS. was appa rently written somewhere north of Paris, perhaps at Beauvais.

48 MINIATURES ON VELLUM, BY THE CELEBRATED BÄMLER. Two very ele gant Miniatures, evidently cut out from a Missal, richly illuminated in gold and colours, within beautiful borders, composed of flowers animals and birds, having at the corners four well-executed portraits of a Cardinal and three Bishops and the Attributes of the four Evan gelists. The Illuminations themselves represent the Crucifixion and St. Leonard releasing Prisoners, £5. 5*s* Artifex Johannes Bemler, 1457

These paintings by a famous German miniaturist, who afterwards became a typographer, and whose name, as such, is associated with the earliest productions of the press, were probably executed for some Missal in one of the three bishoprics, Passau, Augsburg, or Salzburg. From the painting of St. Leonard, and the date, it was perhaps the first of the three, Leonhard, Bishop of Passau, being then but a few years dead (1451).

This precious Manuscript was formerly the property of the Abbaye de St.
Pierre, Ghent. The coats of arms of an Abbot, which were formerly on the sides of the volume, are effaced. See "Messager des Sciences," 1869, p. 251.

The first page contains, written about the year 1200, the Latin translation of a very curious letter from Prester John, "dominus dominantium," addressed to the Greek Emperor, Manuel I, enlarging on the magnitude of his own wealth and power.

This copy must have been written very soon after the singular original document appeared in Europe. It is conjectured to have been sent from some Nestorian prince in Asia.

49* GREGORII PAPÆ EXPOSITIO in libro Ihezechielis prophetae ad Marianum episcopum. At the end: Explicit Omelia decima beati Gregorii papae in extrema parte Ihezechielis prophete, sm. folio, fine MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, on 148 leaves, with curious coloured initial letters, old calf, £12. Scr. exeunte Scr. XII

This MS. has evidently come from the same Abbey to which the Jerome Breviary belonged. The arms are effaced from the sides. It was written in the great Abbey of Premonstrates of Sta. Maria in Parco, near Louvain, as appears from the inscription by the original scribe on the last page of the text: "Liber sce Marie in Parcho." The last word, although intentionally erased, is not quite effaced. On the reverse of the same leaf is a list, in a later hand, of the privileges granted to the monastery by several Popes, and Princes of Lorraine and the Netherlands.

50 PETRI LOMBARDI SENTENTIARUM LIBRI IV, folio, beautifully written MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, in the ancient wooden binding, £7. 10*s* cir. A.D. 1180-1200

A perfect and finely preserved copy of the Sentences of Peter Lombard is a rare MS. to meet with. The present codex is fresh, fine and perfect, and must have been executed not many years after the death of the great Master. This work, which seems to have had special attractions for English scholars, is one of the most important philosophical productions of the middle ages. The number of comments, glosses, refutations and adverse criticisms, was very great all over Europe, as Peter the Lombard represented an advanced though moderate school of thought, which endeavoured to reconcile the dogmas of positive Religion with the deductions of pure Reason.

51 PETRI COMESTORIS SCHOLASTICA HISTORIA super Vetus et Novum Testamentum, stout sm. folio, fine Manuscript on VELLUM, red morocco, gilt edges, by Derome, from the library of the Duc de la Vallière, £8. SÆC. XIII

This important, valuable and beautiful MS. is described in several long MS. notes extracted by a former owner from the La Vallière catalogues, and inserted at the beginning of the volume. The Church History of Peter Comestor, the first great book of the kind, chiefly based upon the Scriptures, but also illustrated from the profane historians, was held in great esteem, and has been frequently printed and translated. The writer died towards the end of the twelfth century.

"L'ouvrage est plein de fables, de raisonnemens bizarres, et qui peignent l'ésprit et l'érudition de son siècle."—Delandine.

52 MARTYROLOGIUM per anni circulum cum duobus Calendariis, communi et proprio. Beginning thus: "Domino piissimo regum Karolo, Ysuardus indignus sacerdos ac monachus perhennem in Christo coronam," sm. folio, fine Manuscript on VELLUM, written in large bold characters and not divided into double columns, twenty lines per page, without the first leaf of the first Calendar and the last leaf of the text, £20. Diocese of Arles, cir. A.D. 1240

The first Kalendar, which was written at the same time as the Martyrology, begins with the month of March. It is the ordinary almanac which might have been found in any service-book of the time. But the second Kalendar is one of very great interest. It was written probably after the text was completed and then inserted in the book. Besides the names it originally contained, many others have been added at different times down to the year 1600. The names of the Abbesses, Princesses, sisters, and priests attached to the monastery (probably Benedictine) in which it was used during the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries, appear in it, with the days of their decease. These entries point out the locality: they mention the monasteries of St. André and Mont Majour, which belonged to the dioceses of Avignon and Arles as may be seen in the first volume of Le Long, Bibliothèque Historique. The names of the Bishops of Arles also occur with their days, and several of the saints belonging to Narbonne, Languedoc, and Provence. The following short entry is not without its interest: it not only exposes the ignorance of the lady who wrote it, but also indicates by its spelling of sourour, that her daily speech was the language of Occitania. It is opposite the 20 of March and runs thus: "Hobis sourour Ludovyqa' (hobiis being of course meant for obiit).

As for the Martyrology itself, it is a MS. of singular rarity. Usuardus, a Benedictine monk, composed it some time in the second half of the ninth century, and dedicated it to Charles the Bald. It has been printed in two or three editions, but I cannot find any mention of manuscript copies existing in the great collections of the present time. The only thing of the kind is a Martyrology in the Durham Cathedral Library, written about the same time as the above MS. but apparently modified and imperfect, without the dedication—in fact, not the genuine work of Usuard, but one of the corrupt reproductions which were made in various places for local use. The preface is one of no little interest; it describes the object and plan of the work, mentioning the previous labours of Jerome and Bede, and contains some curious observations on idolatry and the cult of the saints. The Martyrology itself begins with the Kalends or 1st of January, and ends on the last leaf with St. Silvester and the date of the 2nd of the Kalends of January, which of course corresponds to the 31 of December. Thus it is plain that only a page can be wanting at the end.

53 BERNARD, SAINT. Epistolæ V. de modo vivendi, Speculum Monachorum, Epistola admonitoria, de vitâ solitariâ, ad parentes; Tractatus de ordine vitæ et morum institutione; de interiore Domo; de edificando conscientiam; de gradibus humilitatis et superbie; de gradibus confessionis; de gradibus obedientie, Sermones, etc. 8vo. fine MS. on VELLUM, painted and gilt initials, Medicean binding, £2. 12*s* 6*d* cir. 1300

At the end of the volume, a Sermon of St. Bernard on the Mass is added in a more recent hand, and dated 1453. On leaf 201, a curious old Laud is written, commencing thus:

Sempre te sia in dilecto
Chil mondo anima mia te sia in dispecto.

54 RICARDI DE SANCTO VICTORE (Scoti), De Studio Sapientiæ, sive Tractatus qui dicitur Benjamin Minor; et ejusdem Liber de Interioris Hominis Statu, de Libero Arbitrio, etc. 4to. MS. on VELLUM, in a fine large hand, the titles of chapters in red and the capitals ornamented in colours, apparently written by an English scribe, blue morocco, gilt leaves, £5. 5*s* circ. 1300

Richard Abbot of St. Victor, one of the most learned and enlightened of the schoolmen of St. Bernard's time, was a native of Scotland, and died in 1173. His works, of which "Benjamin" is the most celebrated, are held in high estimation for their breadth and depth of thought; but are seldom found in collections of MSS.

55 INNOCENT III. Lotharii OPERA MINORA: de Contemptu Mundi; de Virtutibus et Vitiis; Veteris ac Novi Testamenti Biblia versiculis comprehensa; Tractatus Theologici; de Sacramentis; Sermones; de Pollucione Nocturnâ, 12mo. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, written by an English Scribe, 310 pp. having on first leaf the autograph of P. Noy de Sandwico (Sandwich), calf gilt, £4. 4*s* circ. 1300

Of these works, by the Pope who obliged King John of England to surrender and do homage for his crown, Cave only mentions the de contemptu Mundi, and the Sermones. The versicles in which the Bible is embodied commence thus:

Quicquid ab Hebreo stilus Atticus atque Latinus
Sumpsit in hoc totum codice, lector, habes.

The scribe has added some curious medicinal receipts at the end, for weakness of the eyes, colds, etc.

56 QUÆSTIONES PHILOSOPHICÆ, Ethicæ, Logicæ, etc. 3 parts in 1 vol. folio, a Latin MS. on 18 leaves of vellum, in minute characters of a cursive Gothic English style, in an ancient parchment wrapper, 30*s* Sec. XIV

The authors of these pieces are several, Radulphus Brito (? Acton), Thomas Aquinas, G. de Nogent, and others. They discuss moral and political subjects, and review the opinions of the great teachers who preceded them. One of the propositions regards the condition of Woman and her social relation to man.

57 CORPUS JURIS CANONICI. NOVELLÆ JOHANNIS ANDREE SUPER DECRETALIBUS, 2 vols. in 1, large folio, fine MS. on paper, written in double columns, £10. Per manus Johannis Wydenvelt, cir. 1380

Portions of the Glosses of this great jurisconsult are met with in the catalogues of public libraries, but a complete copy, like the above, of his work upon the Decretals (the entire body of the Canon Law) is very rare; and the value of such a MS. is considerably enhanced by its bearing upon the questions that have been agitated by the late Oecumenical Council. Andrea carried his professional enthusiasm so far as to christen one of his daughters "Novella." He died in the plague at Florence in 1348.

The scribe Wydenvelt, or Weitenfeld, wrote the book as mentioned in his subscription, for himself—"et est sua proprietas." After him it belonged to Marco de Sant' Agata who sold it to "Gabriel de Veritate" of Verona, who afterwards joined the Minorite Observants of S. Bernardino in that city and presented it to his convent, probably about the year 1450.

58 WICLIFFI TRIALOGUS. De Virtutibus et Viciis, sm. 4to. MS. on VELLUM by an English scribe, 108 leaves, with portrait of Wiclif inserted, calf, £21. cir. 1400

An early MS. of great portion of the famous Dialogues, or Trialogus, which constitute Wiclif's greatest work. Very few collections contain copies of it, as it was only composed by him a short time before his death (1384) and the storm of clerical persecution swept away most of the transcripts that had then been made. The present MS. was probably written very soon after the work was first issued.

This work, very popular in the Middle Ages, and only thrust out of vogue by the superior merit of the Imitation of Christ, was originally written in Latin by John of Suabia. It was translated, as appears from the verses at the end, in the year 1389, and in the town of Chateauneuf, into Romance, or French, by an anonymous monk, who however declares himself to be a Lorrainer and a namesake of St. John.

On the fly-leaf Mr. Hanrott has written: "This is a valuable MS.; the text far superior to that of any of the printed editions, except the first, with which it nearly agrees."

The older pieces were no doubt written by some member of the eminent Mellini family at Florence, as the owner of the volume, and translator of the later articles in it, was the celebrated Florentine littérateur Dominico Mellino who lived about 1540-1610.

(this date is probably an error for 1595 or 1605, and the name of Henricus Stephanus as applied to the establishment does not imply that the great printer was then alive).

IV.—LATIN CLASSICS.

65 BOETHIUS DE CONSOLATIONE PHILOSOPHIÆ, sm. folio, Illuminated Manuscript on VELLUM, of Italian workmanship, with painted border of figures round the opening page, the first initial and four others adorned with figures of the author, etc. calf gilt, £8. 10*s* circ. 1400

A comparison of this text with the Leyden edition of 1771 and the variorum notæ, shews that a collation of the present MS. would be necessary for a future edition of Boethius. It confirms some conjectural emendations and rectifies many readings; so that, although the scribe was evidently quite ignorant of Greek, his efforts to transfer the quotations to his own copy being wholly failures, yet he had before him a good original. Some peculiarities of the orthography are—the rejection of double consonants, as in modern Spanish; the occasional use of s for x; the spelling of faties for facies, of amonitione for admonitione.

The fly-leaf has a set of philosophical questions and answers, in contemporary writing: Quid est anima, quid est ratio, etc. etc.—to which an early sixteenth hand has added satirical descriptions of Venice and her rulers, by way of answer to "Quid est Venetiæ, quid est Venetiarum duæ?"

The De Oratore ends on the obverse of folio 127, and is thus subscribed by the copyist: "Marci Tullii Ciceronis de Oratore libri expliciunt. Scripti per me Petrum Snuilden Leodien. Dyoc. Anno a nativitate domini MCCCCLVIII. tempore potestatorie Venerabilis ac egregii viri domini Antonii de Campanatiis Juris civilis doctoris famosissimi tunc t'pis co'is Medicine potestatis clarissimi." It is followed by the other pieces above mentioned which end on the obverse of folio 135. It is remarkable that the scribe was a native of Liege.

There is a peculiarity in the style of the writing which is not met with in other Italian MSS. of the time. It is not so rounded, and has a trace of Gothic character.

Maii* 1452, with ornamental border to the first page containing a Coat of Arms, and capitals illuminated in gold and colours, green morocco extra, joints, gilt edges, £16. 16*s* 1452

A very valuable Codex, written entirely by one hand; and shewing in every page that after the transcription it was critically revised throughout, and collated with several early MSS. There are numerous instances of a slight varietas lectionis, but on the whole this volume confirms or establishes the general accuracy of the text that has descended to us. Copies of these satirists are very rare; for, though there are six amongst the Arundel and Burney MSS. in the British Museum, and two in Oxford (Corpus Christi and St. John Baptist's College), yet scarcely any other great collection is found to possess one. The Greek quotation of the ninth satire of Juvenal (line 37) is grossly incorrect, but is of course attributable to the ignorance of Greek which prevailed in Italy before the downfall of Constantinople. In the third satire of Persius, the scribe has sought to illustrate the words of the last line by an apt Greek quotation; but, in doing so, he has transformed the celebrated γνωθι σεαυτον into a semi-phonetic γνωτι σαυτον.

A most valuable Manuscript with the inscription "ad Julianum Consulem," omitted by Krehl, and presenting many important various readings. The last two leaves are in a later and ruder style of penmanship than the rest of the work, and without commentaries. The Greek quotations are in uncial characters.

nated in gold and colours, some the whole size of the page, red morocco gilt edges, £20. SÆC. XV

About four leaves are wanting at the end to complete the life of the twelfth Cæsar, Domitian. But the MS. is very beautifully executed and is remarkable for the correctness of its text. It was written probably about the year 1470.

An important and beautiful MS. from the archives of the Bandinelli Family of Florence. The first page is richly illuminated with an interlaced border of exquisite design, with choicely painted figures of Amoretti and animals. At the first page of the Æneid is a similar border, at the foot of which is a charming female figure doubtless one of the ladies of the Medici family, most delicately painted and worthy of the hand of Girolamo dei Libri. The MS. is in the finest condition, in the original Italian binding.

This very important Codex exhibits a far purer text than is usually to be found in Manuscripts of Virgil, and has evidently been collated and corrected throughout by some eminent scholar, who has diligently compared it with the original Codex from which it was transcribed. Some of the various readings would be most useful to a modern editor.

V.—HISTORICAL AND GENEALOGICAL WORKS.

1. England and Scotland.

75 BURY ST. EDMUNDS. History of the Abbey, and Life of Saint Edmund, with two other pieces, in 1 vol. sm. folio, Manuscript ON VELLUM, with autographs of the Antiquaries Tho. Martin and J. B. Nichols, and with a very long note by the latter respecting it, calf £21. cir. 137

This very curious and important volume formerly belonged to Thomas Martin of Palgrave, author of the History of Thetford and afterwards to Richard Yates, who presented it with his other Collections for the History of Bury to John Bowyer Nichols. This volume contains Vita et Miracula S. Edmundi metrice conscripta—Historia Ecclesiæ et Monasterii S. Edmundi—Edwardi I Epistola ad Papam "data apud Kemeseye vii die Maii MCCCI"—Liber Provincialis (being a list of the Patriarchs, Cardinals, Bishops, etc. under the Papal see).

The first page of the life of St. Edmund is in Sapphic metre, but the other 48 pp. are in curious Leonine rhymes. This life is attributed to John Lydgate by Mr. Nichols, as well as by Mr. Masters, but the fact is questionable, as the age of the MS. seems to preclude such authorship. Besides, there is a MS. in the British Museum, mentioned at No. 18 of Shaw's Illuminated Ornaments, of Lydgate's life of St. Edmund, in verse, in which he states that his Abbot had ordered him to translate "the noble story . . . out of the Latyn." It is not at all improbable that the present MS. was the book used by Lydgate. The History of the Monastery of Bury St. Edmunds ends with the Abbacy of William de Bernham, who commenced to rule in 1335. It is followed by a letter from Edward I to the Pope, dated 1301, and exposing his rights to the Crown of Scotland. This letter, although in Latin, has a French heading in red ink, which is, in spite of its language, so strikingly characteristic of a formed English nationality, that it deserves to be cited:

"Ce est la cope de la lre le bon roi Edward maunde a pape qe a adonqs estoit enroule en la chauncelrie contenaunt les droitz nre seignor le roi qore (qui or) est du roialme descoce p' queux chescun bon engleys qad (qui a) goute ou greyn du saunk (sang) on chare (chair) engleyse se doit moner qe nre dit seign' le roi et sa corone ne soient couardement desherites."

76 REGISTRE DE BRIEFS, 12mo. a curious old MS. on vellum, inscribed with the preceding title by the former owner, (Sir W. Ouseley), containing Charters, Letters, and Ordinances issued by Edward II. in Latin, old vellum binding, formerly in the possession of George Lascelles, with his Signature and Coat of Arms, £3. 10*s* Sec. XIV.

These copies were probably made not long after the date of the original instruments. The MS. is of itself very interesting, as having almost certainly been the note-book of some old English lawyer. On one page there is a list of the Judges of Assize in the year 1320.

7 PATENT ROLLS of Edward II., Richard I., and John, and PIPE ROLLS of Stephen and Henry II., transcribed by ROGER DODSWORTH, the well-known Antiquary, folio, neat MS. hf. calf, £4. cir. 1660

Some of Dodsworth's collections were published between 1655 and 1673, under the title of Monasticum Anglicanum, but the contents of the present MS. were never printed. The volume contains in addition printed Patents of Creation, Grants of Supporters, Form of Retour, &c., MS. copies of Licences to wear Foreign Orders, &c., also numerous cuttings from the London Gazette respecting Changes of Name and Assumption of Arms, Royal Appointments, and Grants of Title, with MS. Index.

8 LEWIS (A.) Discription of both the Universities of CAMBRIDGE and OXFORD, with their Armes, and the Armes of every Colledge in both of them, with the firste Founders and principall Benefactors; of the number of Bishoprijcks in England and Walles, with their Armes, and the Armes of diuers Bishops that ruled in that sea, with a Catalogue of their names, 12mo. MANUSCRIPT, 363 pp. very neatly written by B. Lewis, sometime Student in Cambridge, and 185 coloured drawings of Coats of Arms, and MS. Index added by T. Willement, Esq., purple velvet, gilt edges, £9. 10*s* 1587

The Oxford and Cambridge description ends on page 86, and the 89th is occupied by an emblazoned coat of Arms of Robert Dudley, Earl of Leicester, Chancellor of Oxford, 1587. The remainder is occupied by the Bishops. This is a very pretty and interesting Manuscript.

9 TRANSACTIONS of PARLIAMENTS during the reigns of Richard II, Henry IV, Henry V, Henry VI, Edward IV, Richard III, and Henry VII, etc. stout small folio, a neat MS. written early in the seventeenth century, and consisting of abstracts and selections from the Crown Records, evidently made by an accomplished antiquary and student of history, rough calf, £4. 4*s* cir. 1620

Abstracts of remarkable speeches and minute details of circumstances that have a living interest in English history, such as the deposition of Richard II, and the Wars of the Roses, the reign of Richard III, etc. render this volume a very desirable acquisition. The manner in which the Parliaments assembled, the opening discourses of the Lords Chancellor, the enthronements of the Kings, the investitures of the Princes of Wales—all these matters are minutely related. Lists of Petitions and Private Acts, etc., are given with a continuation down to Elizabeth's time.

30 SATIRICAL AND POLITICAL POEMS upon Charles II, the Duke of York, and their creatures, 12mo. neat original Manuscript, written for the most part about 1679 and 1680, but with some continuations carried down to 1709, bound in old vellum, gilt edges, £6. 6*s* 1679, etc.

These unpublished political satires are written with considerable force and bitterness, but in various places degenerate into the coarsest indecency. Their chief subject is the natural badness of the Stuart family (described as Rizzio's descendants) and the superlative wickedness of the Duke of York (afterwards James II). Charles II and his mistresses are all in turn unmercifully castigated, especially the Duchess of Portsmouth. The writer who was evidently a man of position, and conversant with the highest social and politcal circles, had a sound and hearty English hatred for Scotchmen, Irishmen, Frenchmen, and the Roman Catholic Religion. He includes amongst his own verses, an address by Dr. Robert Wild, who was a noted writer and pamphleteer of Charles II's reign.

81 SCOTLAND. Transcripts of valuable historical Documents chiefly relating to Scotland, from 1544 to 1706 inclusive, 4 vols. fol. MANUSCRIPT, transcribed from the originals in the Records, State Paper Office, etc. for DAWSON TURNER, with his notes upon the matter of each, hf. morocco, £10. cir. 1840-50

Dawson Turner probably intended this collection, with his notes, for publication as one of the great Club-books. The documents it includes are of extreme interest in Scottish history, comprising the eventful times between the succession of Mary Queen of Scots and the final Union with England.

82 ENGLISH HISTORICAL ARMORIAL, sm. 4to. Ancient Manuscrip containing several hundred Coats of Arms, neatly emblazoned in c lours, including all the English nobility and many of the gentry of t fifteenth century, with 19 large Escutcheons of Kings and Emperors, a a couple of rude portraits, calf neat, from Dr. Wellesley's librar £4. 10*s* cir. 148

The first and greater part of this curious MS. was executed about the end Edward IV's reign. Specimen of the language, from the escutcheon of the Em of Almayne: "He beryth gold an ægyl wt. ii hedys dys playyd sabyl memberyd gowlys," (gules). The second part was added towards the end of Queen Elizabeth reign, and several miscellaneous additions were further made at random down to th middle of the last century. The writing, and the language and spelling of the or ginal book, as well as the historical escutcheons of Kings and Emperors are ve curious, all indicating a period close to the time of the fall of Trebizond (1461), a the union (in 1474) of Castille and Aragon. In the second part there are two pa ticular Coats of Arms, one inscribed Jonson the pot, (no doubt the famous Ben) a the other the pots, Davie, probably Sir John Davies.

83 ALPHABETS OF ARMS, with Forme of Granting Arms, &c. stout sm 4to. 520 pp. containing several thousands of Names of ENGLISH FAMI LIES, with some WELSH, IRISH, and a few FRENCH names, description of their arms, and their localities; MANUSCRIPT, from the Collectio of John Holland, whose bookplate, engraved by Hogarth, is paste inside the cover, calf, £4. 1585-161

The greater portion of the book was compiled about 1585-95, as indicated b the names of Henry Earl of Derby, Henry Earl of Huntingdon, and Robert Deve reux Earl of Essex, who all died in the last decade of the sixteenth century. Th are given at the end of the lists of Earls in the latter part of the volume, and wer evidently living at the time their names were set down. The first part of the MS was also written at that period, but the second (which is a list of the names of indi viduals, not of families, as in the first part) seems to have been written from abou 1610 to 1620. For example, George Carew is mentioned as a Baron, which he wa created in the third year of James I. All these instances correspond with the caree of the great Camden. He may have been the writer of the MS. At the end ther is a piece entitled "The Order of Lordes and Ladyes with the Funerall of th Quene of Scotts att Peterborough."

84 ABERGAVENNY BARONAGE. Treatise of the Nobility of this Realm according to the Lawe, sm. 4to. clearly written MANUSCRIPT, of 14 pp. with several genealogical tables, rough calf, from Dr. Wellesley' library, £4. 4*s* circ. 159

This is probably the Autograph MS. of one of the great legal luminaries o Elizabeth's reign, probably of Sir Edward Coke himself. It is an elaborate work o the law of hereditary nobility and its application to a special case; and was prepare on the occasion of the famous law-suit in which the peerage of Abergavenny wa disputed between Lady Mary Fane, daughter of Henry Neville, the last Baron, wh died in 1586, and her cousin Edward Neville. When judgment was given in favo of the latter in 1603, the lady received the title of Baroness Le Despenser as a acknowledgment by the king of the ability with which her case had been supported

85 HISTORICAL PEERAGE OF ENGLAND: a very well written old English MANUSCRIPT, folio, 233 leaves, with a Table of Contents, and DRAWINGS of about 2000 Coats of ARMS, vellum, from Lord Farnham's library, £10. 1597-162

This is a valuable unpublished work. The original MS. was written soon after the first publication of Camden's Britannia, and, as appears from some of the state ments, in the course of the year 1597. The author made additions at various times, carrying his work to about the year 1620; but later hands have added memoranda here and there down to the last century.

86 HERALDIC COLLECTIONS. A very interesting and curious large folio volume of Heraldic Papers of the XVIth and XVIIth Centuries, consisting of Pedigrees, copies of Grants of Arms, (some in the Autographs of the famous Antiquaries and Heralds CAMDEN, Peter Le Neve, Sir R. St. George, R. Cooke, Dethick, and others), Arms emblazoned and in trick, &c. mounted in a volume, large folio, bound in russia, from Dr. Wellesley's library, £20. 1590-1700

Most of the documents are apparently the originals made by the various heralds at the request of members of families, copies of which were delivered over to the inquirers. A pedigree of the Kings of England, in the handwriting apparently of Camden, ends with Queen Elizabeth, and Arabella Stuart, in 1596.

The volume contains, among other papers, the arms and crests of the Knights of Bath made in 1616, Pedigrees of the Families of Dowdall, Browne, Walgrave, Warren, Malpas, Tamhorn, Villers, Stafford, Strangwaies, Oxenbridge, Dod, Halse, James, Frere, Beauchamp, Martyn, Sydenham, Walcott, Savage, Bacon, Weston, Shaw, St. John, Plowden, Hare, Kendall, Cavendish, Wilson, Dixwell, Perkins, Lennard, Browne, Dering, Tindall, Tylston, Gefferey, Midleton, Bowyer, &c. &c. Many of the coats of arms are emblazoned on a large scale. This volume contains documents of incalculable value for future writers, and was consequently looked upon as one of Dr. Wellesley's greatest treasures.

87 SEGAR (Sir William, Norroy). Tyrrell Family: Stemma antiquissimæ et honoratissimæ Familiæ seu Domus Tirallorum, HERALDIC ROLL ON VELLUM, coloured, and very neatly written, the autograph of Sir William Segar, 20*s* cir. 1600

Segar ("qui de suo non addidit") copied out this roll from the autograph of a member of the family, who was doubtlessly William Tyrrel. He calls the original vetustus, but it could not have been executed before 1570. There is, written in a corner of the roll, a curious legend relative to a combat between Sir James Tyrrell and an escaped Barbary serpent, in a churchyard in Essex, sometime about 1390.

88 ORDINARY OF ARMS, sm. folio and sq. 8vo. 2 vols. above 1500 Coats of Arms neatly tricked, those in the smaller volume being partly the originals inlaid, and partly "carefully tricked from those which were much decayed," copied by F. Pawsey, 1831, bound, £6. cir. 1600 and 1831

An entry of the name of Dr. Moore is signed "W. Camden, Clarenc." The volume was formerly in the possession of Peter Le Neve, and has a few notes in his autograph.

The Arms are particularly valuable as shewing the full quarterings of many important families and personages. There is a good Index at the commencement of the folio volume. There is also a curious drawing of an Earl and Countess's Hearse.

89 BROOKE (Raufe, Yorke Heraulte) ARMES OF JAMES I. and his NOBILITIE, Autograph MANUSCRIPT, beautifully written on a long Roll of Vellum (20 feet by 6½ inches), mounted on green silk, with 188 COATS OF ARMS, emblazoned in gold, silver, and colours, £20. 1605

This exquisite piece of herald's work would be an elegant adornment for any private collection, but its fittest resting-place would be the library of the College of Arms. It is authenticated by the signature of the Herald, at foot of the MS.

90 ORDINARY OF ARMS, sq. 8vo. MS, 59 very neatly emblazoned Coats of Arms, chiefly of English country families, hf. bd. 20*s* cir. 1620

91 ALPHABET OF ARMS (probably by WILLIAM CADY, whose Arms are painted on the first leaf,) folio, 160 pp. MANUSCRIPT, with various Coats of Arms in colours and in trick, old calf, £9. 9*s* 1620-60

This valuable old MS. written at the commencement of the 17th Cent. contains the Names of 4000 Families, with description of their Armorial Bearings.

It would be of great interest to the Genealogist as the Counties are given with most of the Names, and information of so special a kind has probably never been published.

92 PEERAGE OF ENGLAND, sm. folio, very neat MS. of 69 leaves, rough calf, from the Marquis of Hastings' library, £9. circ. 1642

Evidently written by some personage of high position. This MS. contains the names of all the peers who held titles (with an account of their origins, etc.) in the "most happy raigne" of Charles I.

A VERY FINE AND IMPORTANT MANUSCRIPT WITH THE NUMEROUS ARMS IN TRICK, occupying 405 leaves, russia extra, gilt edges, £90. 1642

A note on the fly-leaf states that it was purchased from Mr. Abney by Wm. Harper in 1822. It bears the signatures of both, and was then sold for £94. 10*s*.

94 ORDINARY OF ARMS. Collection of Arms, being the Work-book of THOMAS PENSON, Arms-Painter at the Signe of the Kings' Arms, on Ludgate Hill, folio, neatly tricked Drawings, with Index of about 400 names, hf. calf, £3. 10*s* 1650-91

This collection is valuable and interesting, as it consists chiefly of the Arms of English, Scotch, and Irish Nobility of the 17th century, with their Crests, Supporters, and Mottoes, which are not easy to obtain. Thomas Penson was probably descended from William Penson, Lancaster Herald, 1613. Most of the drawings in this book are considerably older than the date given above. At the end there is a large Coat of Arms, marked at the side "sent out of France in July, 1559," at foot of which appear the following rhymes :—

The Armes of Mary Queen Dolphines of France
The nobelest Lady on earth for till advance
Of Scotland Queene and of England, also
Of Ireland als God hath providitt so.

Under the different headings Bears, Trefoils, Death's Heads, Bones, Stags, Unicorns, Toads, Spiders, &c. &c. the names of Families are given bearing them in their Arms.

The manuscript was compiled by Richard Mawson, Portcullis and Poursuivant (who died on the same day, Sept. 2, 1745, on which the warrant was made out for appointing him Windsor Herald), and it afterwards passed into the possession of John Warburton, Somerset. It came finally to Willement, who bought it of Barak Longmate.

The greater part of the book, down to the election of Lorenzo Priuli in 1556, is in a fine bold handwriting, the same as in the genealogical MS. mentioned below as of this earlier date (1555-56). The continuation down to 1658 was added afterwards by some inheritor of the MS.

Unpublished autograph MS. of a valuable historical and genealogical work. The author was a representative of the most ancient and distinguished family in Padua, and his authority is therefore unimpeachable, so that this volume may be looked upon as the LIBRO D'ORO of Padua. A history of each family is given at the end of the general narrative, with the proper escutcheon of each, and an Index is added of the names for which no special description is given.

105 ARME MILANESI, etc. very stout folio, a curious Heraldic Manuscript containing about 15,000 Coats of Arms, emblazoned in colours, many on a large scale, bound in strong russia, from Rev. Dr. Wellesley's library, £14. Sæc. XVII

The families are chiefly Italian, especially from Milan; but the volume includes also many German, Slavonic, French, Flemish, and Spanish ones, as well as some ENGLISH and SCOTTISH.

If only as a great miscellaneous repository of armorial bearings, this bulky volume must be considered very valuable.

106 SABBADINO (Christoforo) Discorsi sopra la Laguna di Venetia, stout folio, MS. of 462 leaves, vellum, £2. 16*s* 1633

This copy of the unpublished work of a great Venetian engineer in the 16th century, was made by order of three nobles, a Foscarini, a Quirini, and a Contarini, in the year 1633, for deposit in the Archives, "ne scripta æterna digna memoria deleret oblivio." Sabbadino prefaces his work with a neat sonnet:—

Quanto fur grandi le tue mura, il sai,
Venetia, hor come le s'attrovan, vedi;
E s'al periglio lor tu non provedi,
Diserta e senza mura rimarrai.
Li fiumi e' l mar e gl' huomeni tu hai
Per inimici, e' l provi, e non lo credi:
Non tardar apri gl' occhi e muovi i piedi,
Che volendol poi far, tu non potrai.

Scaccia i fiumi da te, le voglie ingorde
Degl' huomini raffrena, e poscia il mare
Restato sol sempre t'harà obedita.
Deh non haver le orecchie al tuo ben sorde,
Perche con gran ragian ti vo affermare
Ch' il ciel ti diè nell' acque eterna vita!

107 HORION (Barons of). Waape der hochwohlgebohrener Mariæ Alexandrinæ Maximilianæ, Freyinnen von Horrion, Dahter zu Colonster, Angleur, Pol, Panheel, & Gohr, an Heraldic Roll on VELLUM, containing the Pedigrees of the Horion and Velbruck Families, with 31 emblazoned Coats of Arms, 21*s* 1739

Attested by the signatures of Carl Graf von Nesselrod, Tonys von Merode, and others. The Horion family resided in the province of Liege.

108 VALCOURT. DANDELOT (R., Brabant) Description de la très-noble Maison de PITPANCE, dite de Walcourt (dédiée au Sieur de Montauban, chef du nom) a large Heraldic Roll ON VELLUM, 59 inches by 29, containing the Pedigree of this family, from its origin with Thiery de Walcourt Rochefort, Comte de Montagu, in 1192, and its connections with noble houses in Scotland and Ireland, (Mar, Saltoun, O'Brien, etc.) containing 2 portraits and upwards of 260 emblazoned Coats of Arms, £2. 2*s* Bruxelles, 1682

This was a Hainault family, displaying the black eagle on its bearings. The geographer may derive information from the roll, as well as the genealogist, since it states of a lady, the Countess of Saltoun, that "elle mourut dans la ville de Hedenbourg en Irlande."

109 CHRONICLE AND ARMORIAL OF GHENT. GENEALOGIEN-BOEK, in Dutch, sm. folio, a beautiful original MS. very carefully written, 452 pp. with 805 painted Coats of Arms, and lists of about 10,000 names, and a large Miniature of the 15*th Century, a most important volume, calf*, £30. cir. 1634

A manuscript of considerable importance. It contains a Chronicle of the City of Ghent, with lists of the names and the arms of the various officials, who had ruled in the town as Baillivs and Schepenen (Echevins) from the eleventh century to the time of the writer. The miniature which is inserted at the beginning is a large picture, representing rhetoric in the form of a queen seated on her throne, and surrounded by scholars and professors. This frontispiece is one of the most remarkable features of the book. It was probably executed about the year 1400, and exhibits the characteristic features of good Flemish Art.

110 SALAZAR (Lope Garcia de). Cronica de España, hazañas de sus Reyes, LINAGES y Casamientos de FAMILIAS ILUSTRES, dichos y hechos de guerreros, etc. sm. folio, old Spanish MS. vellum, £4. cir. 1590

Salazar composed this chronicle about the year 1492. It has never been published, and only exists in fragments in a few Spanish libraries. The above copy is not a complete one, but contains a very large portion of the work, 131 leaves, as appears by a note at the end which declares that the volume belonged to an Abbot. It contains stories of the Moorish wars, disputes between the nobles, memorable deeds and sayings; but its chief value is its genealogical sketches of Family History. The author is mentioned by Antonio at p. 330 of Vol. II. of the Bibliotheca Vetus.

111 GARIBAY (Esteban de) OBRAS INEDITAS (Los sesenta Libros del Origen, Discursos, e Ilustraciones de las Dignidades Seglares de España, 17 vols. folio, MANUSCRIPT, transcribed from the Original Codex for the Viscount of Astorga, but having no portion of Books XI to XX or Book XLIX, hf. bd. uncut, £20. SÆC. XVIII

These 17 vols. were purchased in the Astorga sale for 640 francs.

This valuable and important production of the great chronicler Garibay was never published. The estimation in which his printed works are held, for their learning and elaborate collection of facts, is a sufficient testimony to the worth of the unprinted ones. It was known that he had prepared them, and scholars have often regretted their loss.

112 MORALES (Carta) Executoria de Hidalguia a pedimiento de Graviel de Morales vezino de Caravanchel de Abaxo, folio, Spanish MS. elegantly written on vellum, with headings painted and illuminated, in the original black morocco binding, repaired and rebacked, gilt edges, £4. 4*s* 1573

A fine specimen of Spanish calligraphy. It is a Patent of Nobility from Philip II. of Spain, and contains a complete account of itself running in letters of gold around the sides of the old morocco binding. It is stated to have been obtained from the king, after due investigation, against the opposition of the Council of Caravanchel and the Royal Exchequer.

113 VERDE BARAONA. CARTA EXECUTORIA de Hidalguia de Sangre, &c. &c. de D. Miguel Verde Baraona, Vecino de Sepulveda, folio, THE OFFICIAL MANUSCRIPT, beautifully written on 145 leaves of vellum, with finely illuminated Capitals, (the last containing a characteristic portrait), and Headings in gold and colours, the first two pages originally occupied with paintings, which, however, as well as a few leaves of the book, have been injured in Sotheby's fire, each leaf officially stamped, and autograph signatures of the Marquis del Arco and others at end, red morocco extra, £8. 10*s* Valladolid, 20 Agosto, 1695

114 OSORIO. Copia de la real CARTA EXECUTORIA de HIDALGUIA despachada en favor de Don Juan Francisco Osorio, descendiente de Don Juan Gomez Butron, 4to. official charter on VELLUM, with 7 emblazoned Escutcheons damaged by water, red morocco gilt, £3. 10*s* Madrid, 1777

The armorial bearings are those of Osorio, Butron, Mora, Escobar, Arnalte, and Castellanos.

115 VELASCO. DESPACHO confirmatorio de los Blasones de Armas, Nobleza y Genealogia que corresponden en Don Clemente Fernandez de Velasco, 4to. the official charter, written on VELLUM, with 4 Coats of Arms, two Genealogical Trees, and other paintings, illuminated initials, etc. but damaged by fire and water, red morocco, gilt edges, £7. 7*s* Madrid, 1798

The Charter contains interesting historical information regarding the Genealogical descent of the VELASCO FAMILY, and its connection with the most noted and famous houses of the old Spanish Aristocracy.

116 CHILE. Papeles que tratan del descubrimiento y reconquista de Osorno, sm. 4to. MS. of 261 leaves, by Manuel and Pedro de Orejuela and others, vellum, £4. 4*s* 1778

Detailed narratives of expeditions to discover the descendants of the long-lost Spanish town of Osorno destroyed by the Chiloe tribes early in the seventeenth century. The accounts of the Indians, as given through interpreters, and various witnesses, on the occasion of the official inquiry by Manuel Orejuela, make the MS. a very interesting one.

117 DOMINGUES Y MENDOZA. Servicios Personales del Maestre de Campo, Don Juan Domingues y Mendoza, fechos en las Provincias de la Nueva Mexico, à su costa, sm. folio, MS. bd. £14.

Mexico, Santa Fe, etc. 1674-96

These are the original documents sealed and signed by various viceregal and other officials of the Spanish crown, recording at different times the special and distinguished service rendered to the monarchy in Mexico and New Mexico by Dominguez y Mendoza and his two sons. They all seem to have been natives of Spanish America; and after a visit to the Spanish court, during which the old man died about 1690, his son Bernardo returned to New Spain furnished with the King's special recommendation to the Viceroy, which is included in the documents mentioned above. Consequently the volume will be found valuable for the history of the northern states of Mexico and Texas.

5. Miscellanea.

120 GENERAL ARMORIAL. A curious Heraldic Manuscript, stout oblong sm. folio, containing about five thousand Coats of Arms, emblazoned in colours, by different hands, many remarkably well executed and of early date, wooden boards, covered with old calf, from Rev. Dr. Wellesley's library, £6. Sæc. XVI-XVIII

There are also some German, French, Spanish and Slavonic Families included in this collection; and there are names such as Cavenaghi, Neale, Morgani, Dapples, Ossoreo, ONaghten, etc. which evidently indicate English and Irish families too. It would seem as if the earlier ones were done in the Seventeenth Century, and later collectors made these the nucleus for a work which they constantly added to. The older ones are of very superior execution.

121 ARMORIAL OF THE EMPIRE, and its Princes, of the FRENCH CROWN and its Peers, and of the other Sovereignties of Europe, folio, beautifully executed Manuscript, containing 158 large coloured Coats of Arms, hf. calf gilt, with autograph of E. H. Hay, Edinburgh, 1825, last from Lord Farnham's library, £3. 3*s* 1540-1636

The greater part of this volume was executed about the year 1540. The fly-leaf bears the inscription "Livre au Sieur de Challudet, 1638, Seigneur de Crosse Loire et de Liffermeau." The last few leaves were painted for him, as appears from the words "Jefis faire ces feilles dernieres a mon retour ditalie lan 1635."

122 DREUX. Les anciennes et modernes Genealogies, Epitaphes et Armoiries de tous les feux Contes et Contesses de Dreux, folio, FINE MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, with capital letters richly illuminated in gold and colours, and ornamented with 133 coats of arms emblazoned in their proper colours, red morocco super extra, by Belz-Niedrée, £12. 12*s* cir. 1540

This MS. was executed for Robert de la Marck, Duc de Bouillon, Prince of Sédan, and Maréchal of France, soon after the birth of his first son Henri-Robert, in 1539, by Louise de Brezé, whom he had married in 1529. The Dreux family, as a branch of the royal house of France, found an historian in Duchesne.

123 GÉNÉALOGIES DES FAMILIES de France, folio, MANUSCRIPT, 184 pp. with about 2000 Coats of Arms neatly tricked, hf. bound, 30*s* 1720-90

Only six leaves of the original work, which was written about 1710-20, have been preserved in the middle of the volume; the remainder is a neat copy made about the time of the great Revolution.

124 BONET ou BONNOR (Honoré de) ARBRE DES BATAILLES, small stout folio, neat Manuscript of this celebrated work, hf. morocco, £2. 16*s Sæc.* XV

In the dedication of this manuscript the author calls himself "Honnore Bonet Prieur de Sallon Docteur en Decret."

The work is a learned and curious treatise on the custom of Judicial Duels. It begins with fragments from Greek and Roman history, tracing the origin of battles to the struggle of Lucifer in Heaven, and proceeds with a description of the practice and conditions of trial by combat in all its forms.

125 PICON. GÉNÉALOGIE de la Maison de Picon. Ensemble l'Inventaire, Tiltres, Jugemens et Arrests de Confirmation et Maintenue de la Noblesse de la dite Maison, folio, ORIGINAL DOCUMENTS ON VELLUM, with official signatures (including that of the Chancellier Daguesseau), with a beautiful drawing of a Genealogical Tree, having in the distance a coloured view of Savona, with the Alps behind and the sail-studded Gulf of Genoa in the foreground, the coat of arms emblazoned in gold and colours beneath the branches, red morocco, with the arms of Picon in gold on sides, 30*s* 1669

These documents range from 1259 to 1668, and form an interesting historical series. The family of Picon, which belonged to the Riviera and to Savoy, and gave Podestàs to Savona, forms a connecting link between Italy and France, in which latter country they held a seigneurie and official positions.

126 RELATION des Regions et RELIGIONS D'AFRIQUE, c'est assavoir d'Egipte, Barbarie, Numidie, Libye, Terre de Negros, Etiopie superieure et inferieure, 4to. beautifully written MS. of 532 pp. bound in old olive morocco extra, gilt edges, genre De Rome, £2. 12*s* 6*d* 1630

Evidently the work of a superior scholar, who had diligently investigated all the existing sources of information. The work bristles with apt quotations, and is written in a pleasant and judicious manner.

VI.—ENGLISH LITERATURE AND SCIENCE.

127 COLNETT (Lieut. J.) Voyage for Whaling and Discovery round CAPE HORN into the Pacific Ocean, folio, autograph Manuscript, with several exquisite Drawings in water colours, splendidly bound in red morocco, super extra, joints, broad borders of gold, gilt edges, £12. 10*s* 1795

An account of Colnett's voyage was published in 1798, but it only contained 8 charts, and none of the fine illustrations which are in the MS. now offered for sale. This magnificent volume was presented by the author to Sir Philip Stephens, Bart., one of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, to whom the work is dedicated. Sold previously for £31. 10*s*.

128 HALLEY (Edmond, the Astronomer) Journal of VOYAGES in his Majesty's Pink, the Paramore, intended for the discovery of the Variation of the Magneticall Compass, 1698, 1699, and Journal of a Voiage for discovery of the course of the Tides, 1701, together 3 parts, two in one vol. roy. folio, calf, and the third small folio, sd. diagrams, small charts, and tables, from the Marquis of Hastings' library, £2. 12*s* 6*d* 1700-1

The first two Journals are fair copies made for Halley; the third, 1701, is in his autograph. Some of the results of these important voyages were laid before the Royal Society, but the Journals were never published.

129 JORDAN (Tho.) Medleys and Songs, with the music to which they are set, sm. 4to. 111 pp. UNPUBLISHED AUTOGRAPH MS. on paper, calf, from the library of "Don" Bowle, editor of Cervantes, £12. 12*s* 1657-58

These lyrics display the matured graces of the poet's style and abound with sparkling fancies and bright gems of poetry set in elegant language. They are all royalist in their political tendencies, and the anagram of Cals Tru Heart is applied to the exiled King. In variety of smooth-flowing rhymes and metres, these poems may be said to surpass even Herrick himself. They are bound up at the end of a copy of the author's "Poeticall Varieties, 1637," a very rare volume, which wants the leaf of dedication.

VII.—ITALIAN LITERATURE.

130 CLIMACO. Incomincia el prologo del frate che volgareço questo libro decto CRIMACO (Santa Scala del Paradiso) 4to. fine MS. on VELLUM, 390 pp. bound in green morocco extra, gilt edges, by BEDFORD, £32. cir. 1375

The first page of the text is adorned with a magnificent initial letter, and a graceful border which contains Miniatures. One of these, intended no doubt for a portrait of the author, and enclosed in the initial, is very large and fine; it is is itself an artistic masterpiece, and would do credit to any of the great Italian painters. Italian MSS. of this work are rare, and in request because of the faulty state of the printed editions, regarding which Count Mortara, in the Catalogue of Italian MSS. in the Bodleian, observes: "Stimiamo che sieno tutte pessime; onde volendosi egli citare, converrà far uso di testi a penna." The Italian translation was made about the year 1300, the book having been always a popular one in all languages. It is a mystico-moral treatise, exhibiting the gradual steps to be taken up the "Ladder to Heaven." St. John of Sinai, its author, died about A.D. 580.

131 GALLO DE MONTE SANO (Phylenio). Per la Florida Madona Lylia veta di virtu ornatyssima, SONETTI E ALTRE RIME, 8vo. hf. morocco, £8. 8*s* Sec. XV.

The first page is adorned with an elegant painted border, containing ornaments, a portrait of the Lady, and a floral design with the words: "Hos coniunxit amor." A MS. note at the commencement of the volume, describes it thus:—"Grazioso codice del XV. Scritto ad imitazione del Petrarca. Conosciuto dal Roscoe che nella sua vita di Leone X., dice esser vissuto verso la metà del XV. sec. A quanto pare egli non è conosciuto nè dal Quadri nè da Tiraboschi."

The first Sonnet recounts the poet's first meeting with the Lady Lylia. It begins as follows:

"Nel dì chogni Christian fa più honore
Al corpo che per noi sol morir volse
A un picchol balchon mia sorte accholse
Tre vaghe, Dee di forma e di valore,
E ne begliocchi duna io vidi Amore,
Che irato piu che mai il suo archo tolse,
Et dal bel viso tal forza ricolse
Che in un momento trapassomi el core."

132 PETRARCA, TRIUMPHI, small 8vo. fine Manuscript UPON VELLUM, with thirteen capital letters, illuminated in gold and colours by a first-class Italian artist, beautifully bound in Venetian morocco, by C. Lewis, £10. 10*s* Sec. XV

A most valuable codex, as may be seen by the short list of remarkable variants noted below. Several MSS. of the Triumphi exist in Italian libraries, but many are imperfect and most of them incorrect. Palermo in his catalogue of the Palatine Library at Florence describes one copy which has "notevoli varianti dalla lezione comune." The few instances he quotes are also found in the present copy, but in one instance shewing a very superior improvement. As a short specimen of the numerous variants which make this MS. imperfect, the following list is given.

Amore, I; line 19. L'habito in vista si leggiadro et nuovo (printed editions, Labito altero inusitato e novo.) Line 25, Nulla tenea pero non maglia o scudo (contra le qual' non val elmo ne scudo.) 33. Che per sua man di vita eran divisi

(ch'anzi tempo ha di vita Amor divisi). 79, Giovencel mansueto (mansueto fanciullo). 117, Cha morte et tul sai bene amando corse (ch 'amando come vedi a morte corse) 129, chamor perseguito per tante ville (ch'Amor e lui segui per tante ville). A few lines from the end of canto I, it has dieron for renderon, potré por porria, selva for bosco. In the second canto, line 11, udir for saper; 17, Rè for nè. The second canto of the Amore is here placed fourth in order. In it, the sixth line reads lacrimando instead of ragionando. The 44th and 46th lines are: che del nostro furor scuse non valse . . . . . che sol quel che piu ch'altri in virtu salse; a much superior reading to the printed text which has false on line 44 for valse, and gives the 46th as, Quel che sol piu che tutto l'mondo valse. This difference is one of the most remarkable that could be found. In the Castitá, the nineteenth line has furor dimpeto, a reading which corrects the printed texts furor di petto and romor di petto. Line 24, vapori o venti for fiamma e venti, 38, duna fugace cerva, for di fugitiva cerva; 40, paruto for stat' ivi; 51, legno for nave; and in the last line, fra quai cognobi, for fra quali io vidi. At the beginning of the Morte, the MS. has 18 lines more than the printed edition, and its 19th and 21st differ entirely from the first and third of the latter. On the 24th, ingegni for inganni. Between the Morte and the Fama there are 163 lines, beginning: Nel cor pien damarissima dolceça.

133 PETRARCA, CANZONI, SONETTI, E TRIONFI, sm. folio, MANUSCRIPT ON PAPER, very distinctly written in a large round hand, vellum, £12. cir. 1400

Written in North Italy at the beginning of the fifteenth century. It is a very valuable MS. full of variants from the printed editions, and containing the complete poetical works of Petrarch in Italian. At the end of the Sonetti the scribe mentions himself in the following rude Leonine verses:

Qui scripxit scribat semper cundomino vivat
Vivat in celis Semper cundomino felix.

The text of the Trionfi corresponds pretty closely, so far as the Amore goes, with the above MS. on vellum, and has (between the Morte and the Fama) the 163 lines beginning "Nel cor pien damarissima dolceça," but in other respects it resembles the printed editions.

VIII.—CELTIC AND NORSE LITERATURE.

134 KEATING (Geoffrey) FORUS FEASA AR EIRINN, le Seathrun Ceating, folio, neat Irish MS. of the History of Ireland, pp. xxiii. and 174, bound in old calf, from the Marquis of Hastings' library, £18. 1718

Extremely valuable, as it is well known how great a difference exists between the original work and the printed editions of the translation. The rarity of MSS. of Keating's History of Ireland is shewn by the circumstance that there is only an imperfect copy in the celebrated Stowe collection of Irish MSS. O'Connor, in the Bibl. Stowensis mentions the existence of four copies in various places.

135 KEATING. TRI BIOR-GHAOTHE AN BHAIS, re Seuthrun Ceiting: the Three Darts of Death, by GEOFFREY KEATING, author of the History of Ireland, sq. 8vo. very neat MS. 341 pp. from the library of the Duke of Sussex, old calf, £2. 6s

Iar na sgriobhtha anios go nua le Riosdard Tuibear, 1710

This MS. was originally presented by Sir William Betham to the Duke of Sussex.

136 GORCHESTION BEIRDD CYMRU: Compositions of the Welsh Bards, sm. folio, MS. of about 300 pp in the original binding, from the library of the late Williams ab Ithel, £12. cir. 1690-1720

A very VALUABLE COLLECTION of POEMS by the later WELSH BARDS, formerly in the possession of Hugh and John CADWALADER, who added some original pieces during the years 1750 to 1770. The copies were probably made by some member or members of that family from older MS., or taken down from memory or recitation. Amongst the names of the poets included in this volume, the following are found; Hugh Morus, Owen Gwunedd, David ap Gwilim, Sion Tudur, William Llunn, Gruffydd ap Jevan, Rowland Jones, Dafudd Morus, Ellis Cadwalader, Dr. John Cent, William Philip, Kadwalad ap Robert, Rhys Goch, Hugh Llwud Cynfel, Richard Cynwal, Richard Philip, John Phylip, Edward Urian, Dafydd ap Edmwnt, Thomas Prys, Ellis Rowlant, and many others.

137 THORKELIN, LEXICON ISLANDICO-LATINUM, stout roy. 8vo. neat UNPUBLISHED MS. bds. £2. 16*s* Kaupmannah. circ. 179(

Dedicated to the first Marquis of Hastings, when Lord Rawdon, as follows "Verduligum Herra sinum Lavardi Rawdon er thessi Orda-Bok tileignut." This MS. the work of one of the greatest masters of Old Norse that ever lived, is almost invaluable to scholars of the present day for whom Icelandic lexicography has accomplished so little.

IX.—ROMANCES, POPULAR LITERATURE.

138 GYRON LE COURTOYS; Cy commence le livre de missire guiron le courtois du boys verdoyant—At end, Fin du premier libure de Guyron le Courtoys, folio, MOST VALUABLE MANUSCRIPT of this prose Romance of Chivalry, written in the first part of the XV Century for the Rohan Family, as their arms are drawn in the large initial letter, vellum, £20. SÆC. XV (circa 1430)

This Manuscript is the more precious, as the printed text of the Romance is said to be the merest abstract of the original work. Paulin Paris speaks in the following terms of the printed editions—"Voilà donc l'histoire des éditions si recherchées et si peu dignes de l'être, de Guiron le Courtois. Quand on les compare aux originaux dont elles n'ont reproduit que le triste squelette . . ." As for the circumstance that the above is only one of three volumes, it scarcely affects the value of the MS., since the Bibliothèque du Roi only possessed a single perfect copy.

With regard to the text, there is one important reading which will possibly be considered to vouch for the entire MS. It presents towards the end of the preamble on the third page the following words: "Il veult q cestuy mien livre qui de courtoisie doibt estre, soit appelle de Guiron pource q sy courtois fu et plus que nul qui onques fust au temps du roy Artus." This is of course what the reading ought to be, but P. Paris states that every MS. he had consulted upon this particular point bore the name Palamedes instead of Guiron.

The romance was derived from Breton legends and compiled in French at the desire of Henry III. of England, by "je HELIE DE BORRON, en droit moy et qui pour son chevalier me tiens," soon after the year 1220. He recapitulates at length the circumstance of its composition, his having completed the Bret or romance of Tristan, at the request of its author Robert de Borron, his old companion in arms, how the king had been delighted with that work, and had requested him to prepare the present one as a further history of the Round Table and the Holy Grail. This recapitulation of facts and reasons forms what P. Paris calls the "préambule," but none of the copies which he describes seems to have had a very interesting preface, (shewing from Helie de Borron's own words en ce royaulme dangleteree, that the work was done in England) which gives an account of the various Arthur romances and their translators or compilers. "Maistre Gautier Moab" is the way in which he writes the name of Walter Mapes.

139 ROMAN DE LA ROSE (en Vers, commencé par Guillaume de Lorris et achevé par Jehan de Meung), 4to. FINE EARLY Manuscript ON VELLUM, written by a French Scribe, calf, with the Soubise device in gold on back, £20. cir. 1320

This important Manuscript (if Dawson Turner's autograph note be correct) formerly belonged to the President De Thou. Sir Francis Palgrave in an autograph note informs us that the "text of the present MS. exhibits a much more early and authentic orthography as well as better readings" than the edition by Méon. The variants and the transpositions are very numerous and important, and being of Jean de Meun's own time imperatively demand the consideration of the next editor of the romance. The rubrics or headings which were added in later MSS. are entirely absent here, and no break or note is made in the original hand, at the transition from William of Lorris' work to that of his continuator. What is most remarkable here, is the interposition of 73 lines between the end of one and the beginning of the other as they are given in the printed editions. This unknown portion of the work (for it is evident that it belongs to it and is not an interpolation) begins in the following manner :—

Digitized by Google

En ce questoie en tel destrece
Si vi venir a grant noblece
Deviers le tour dame Pitie
Qi maint cuer triste avoit flequie.

The last word quoted here, which evidently stands for the modern word fléchi, and several other similar specimens of orthography shew that the MS. was executed in the north of France. The language is very curious in many of its forms, as for instance iou for je, chou for ce, u for ou, iouenes for jeunes, as for aux, vaura for voudra, dius for dieu. The opening lines of the poem agree very closely with the reading given in a MS. of the French National Library which Pâris declared to contain one of the most ancient and best examples of the poem. They run thus :—

Maintes gens quident que en songes
Nait se fables non et mençongnes.

The lines in which the name of the romance is determined stand as follows :—

Chou est li romans de le rose
U lars damours est toute encloze
La matere en est biele et noeve
Or doint dius qu ē gre le recoive
Celle pour cui iou lai enpris
Cest celle qui tant a de pris.

140 LIVRE DES CENT EPISTRES (EN VERS) QUE OTHEA LA DEESSE ENVOYA A HECTOR DE TROYE QUANT IL ESTOIT EN LEAGE DE QUINZE ANS, avec Glose et Alegorie, small folio, MANUSCRIPT, written for CHARLES DE CROY PRINCE DE CHIMAY (in 1486), calf extra, by F. Bedford, £10. 1486

A note upon the fly-leaf states that a similar MS. to this exists in the Library of the Dukes of Burgundy, but I do not find any such in the catalogues of collections that I have examined. Every section of the text, which is in metre, is accompanied by a gloss, an allegory, and a quotation from the Latin Scriptures. The first gloss commences thus : " Othea scelon grec seult est' prins pour sagesse de femme. Et comme les anciens non ayans encore lumiere de foy aonrassent pluise's dieux et teinssent estranges loix soubs lesquelles loix soit passees les plus haultes seignouries."

141 APOCALYPSIS CUM FIGURIS, SIVE HISTORIA SANCTI JOHANNIS EJUSQUE VISIONES APOCALYPTICÆ, folio

A SPLENDID MANUSCRIPT upon VELLUM, written in the XIVth century, and ornamented with 35 SUPERB DESIGNS the size of the page, executed with a pen and slightly heightened with colours, having short explanations of the subjects (in Latin) between the drawings, bound in parchment; from the "Abbaye de Citeaux Bourgogne," £125. Saec. XIV.

This magnificent specimen of Early French art is similar to the celebrated Block-Book bearing the same title, which sold for £445. in the Rev. T. Corser's sale, and which now forms one of the most interesting items of my stock. It is described post under the heading "Xylography." But as to the designs, the MS. is very far superior in execution. Like as in that work, each design in this manuscript exhibits two or more subjects.

142 LIBER BELIAL JACOBI PALLADINI DE THERAMO, Germanice. . . . Puch daz da betracht ob Ihs Marien sun daz recht hab behabt da er die höll un' die tuefel hat beraubt an dem tag da er für alle menschen die mart' gelitte' hat, sm. fol. 70 leaves, neat old German MS. on paper, with 35 large and spirited DRAWINGS, coloured and partly illuminated with gold, stamped Dutch vellum, £130.

Anthonius Rüttel de Pairmenchingn hoc scripsit domino suo Gabriele Müller, hoc tempore scriptor suus, 1450

An extraordinary religious Romance, composed towards the end of the fourteenth century, in Latin, and translated afterwards into most of the European languages. The present MS., which is interesting and valuable from several points of view, seems to be the prototype of the earliest printed German version, which appeared about 1462, previously to the publication of the first Latin edition. The work has been considered by some to be the grotesque creation of a coarse mind; by some to spring from the blasphemous ideas of an impious one; and by others, to be the production of a far-seeing Reformer. Whatever be the truth of these conjectures, the book was placed upon the Index Expurgatorius, although the author died in the enjoyment of his high archiepiscopal functions. John Huss was an enthusiastic admirer of it, and a prognostication drawn by him from its pages was one of the causes of his condemnation.

The plot of the story is, that Belial, as advocate of Lucifer, pleads before King Solomon in an action against Christ, who is represented by Moses, for robbery of souls from hell by means of his crucifixion. The two advocates are sworn on the gospels to speak the truth "gerechtlich und aun getär;" and, as Prosper Marchand has well observed, the champion of Heaven is not only inferior to his opponent in argument and ability, but even in courtesy. Belial is cool and polite, quoting with aptness and cogency the texts of scripture on which he founds his case, while Moses, weak and confused, frequently sinks from irritability to abuse; ". . . . und sprach in zorn zu dem Belial, Hör du schalck Belial," etc.

A curious feature of the work is that it follows exactly the whole form of process in the Ecclesiastical Courts, from the first citation to the final Judgment on Appeal, and is at the same time the earliest known record of such proceedings.

The drawings, thirty-five in number, are of no common order; in design and execution they recall some of the best productions of the early German artists, and if they be the work of the scribe Anthonius Rüttel, which scarcely seems probable, his name deserves to be rescued from obscurity. It is a rare and interesting feature of this manuscript that it bears the names of the copyist and his employer—rather an unusual circumstance—and also of two of the next earliest owners.

The translator's preface refers to a circumstance generally considered non-existent in the days of Roman-Catholic Europe, but proved by a direction "daz man die hayligen geschrift in yedlicher sprach aygner gewonhait reden sol."

There are but few MSS. now known to exist of the German translation; and admirably illustrated as the present copy is, it may be considered unique.

143 VENCESLAI BOHEMIÆ REGIS (SANCTI) VITA ET MARTYRIUM Iconibus, ex Sacello eidem dicato in Ecclesia majori Arcis Pragensis desumtis, pictis et illuminatis, exornatum, folio, Manuscript on VELLUM, each page within a gold border, with richly illuminated title-page and 27 LARGE PAINTINGS, executed in gold and colours by a Spanish Artist, and representing the Life and Martyrdom of St. Wenceslaus, Sovereign of Bohemia, in the Xth Century, taken from pictures in the Church at Prague dedicated to the Saint, old red morocco, gilt edges, £15. SÆC. XVII

This highly attractive Manuscript is important as giving Costumes, Manners, and Customs, Furniture, Implements, Architecture, &c. from designs of the latter part of the fifteenth century. The paintings and the Latin text, taken together, constitute an interesting mediæval romance or legendary history.

"Ce livre est regardé comme le chef-d'œuvre du savant bénédictin, qui en est l'auteur. Le supplément est beaucoup plus rare que le livre auquel il appartient, parceque, selon toute apparence, les exemplaires en ont été tirés à plus petit nombre."

It is immaterial whether the book be of the first edition, 1681, or the second, 1709, provided copies have the Supplement published in 1704, and the Nova Appendix (pp. 635-48) issued by Ruinart in 1709. By reprinting a few leaves and by additions, the publisher made all his remaining stock of the first edition conformable with the new one which he was bringing out.

315 CHINESE MYTHOLOGY, a volume roy. folio, containing 100 beautiful DRAWINGS BY NATIVE ARTISTS, painted on the finest cotton-paper, and mounted on thick drawing paper, all COLOURED in the most elaborate and artistic manner, representing the Deities, Demi-Gods, Sages, and Heroes, of the various systems of Chinese Mythology, with an explanatory Index in MS. by Dr. John R. Morrison, son of the Lexicographer, and, equally with his father, a profound Chinese scholar, bound in red morocco extra, gilt edges, £100. China, cir. 1830

A SUPERB VOLUME. It forms such a Gallery of Chinese Mythological Paintings, as could scarcely be collected now in China. The work is done with admirable taste and skill, and could not have cost the original possessor less than £200. It would now be more expensive still, as the number of real artists is daily diminishing in China; and the distracting civil wars of late years have wrought fearful destruction amongst the public monuments and collections all over the empire. Independently of the pictorial and ornamental attractiveness of this volume, it possesses a high value for the student of Races and Religions. There is a singular interest in examining the ideas embodied in the figures that represent the divinities of the Chinese mind; and in noting how frequently they differ from the ordinary type of Chinese humanity. The obliquity of eyesight peculiar to the Mongolian race is not visible in more than half of these drawings, and it would seem likely that much of the modern Chinese faith or superstition is derived from a source still more ancient than the earliest ages of that ancient people itself—that is, from the aboriginal inhabitants of the country who still hold an independent footing there, and harass the imperial government under the name of the Miao-tsze Mountaineers. This race is also found in Formosa and some others of the islands in the Chinese seas.

The demi-gods and deities, who appear in the above drawings, are not taken from the calendar of any one religion, but comprise alike Buddhistic figures, Confucian sages, and the idols of the Taou-sze, or Rationalists—the least numerous sect of the three that divide China amongst them.

316 AVICENNÆ CANON totius MEDICINÆ, stout 8vo. curious and interesting MS. comprising the Precepts of the greatest of all Mediæval Physicians, Avicenna (980-1036), translated from the Arabic into Rabbinical Hebrew, very legibly written without points, with autograph of Renaudot, hogskin, gilt edges, £2. Sec. XVI

317 BIBLE, IN HEBREW, WITH THE POINTS AND THE DOUBLE MASORA, stout sm. folio, beautiful Manuscript on VELLUM, with illuminated ornaments in a most delicately fine style of penmanship, in treble columns, entirely written in the square character, without any intermixture of the modern Rabbinical, even in the masoretic notes, bound in old calf, £70. Spain, cir. A.D. 1200

The order of the books is a matter that deserves consideration in determining the value and the allocation to its proper class of every biblical Hebrew MS. In the present MS. they run as follows:—the Pentateuch, Joshua, Judges, Samuel, and Kings; Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Isaiah, Hosea, Ruth, Psalms, Job, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Canticles, Lamentations, Esther, Daniel, Ezra and Nehemiah, Chronicles. This order, which is different from the usual one observed in MSS. is remarkable, as being evidently the same as in the original followed by the scribe, the ends and the beginnings of the books generally meeting together on single pages. There is no division indicated between the several books of Judges, Kings, and Chronicles; and Ezra and Nehemiah run together without any break in the page. There are four pages of Canons or Tables between Hosea and Ruth, three of those pages being HIGHLY ORNAMENTED, with GILT and COLOURED COLUMNS and ARCHES enclosing the text. The ornamentation is strange and grotesque in style, evidently pointing to a Spanish, not an Italian, origin—a matter left in doubt by Professor Vincenzi "scrittore di lengua Ebraica nella Vaticana," whose note is enclosed in the volume.

318 BIBLIA HEBRAICA, cum Punctis, stout 12mo. A VERY BEAUTIFUL MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, written in a minute and exquisitely fine Italian hand, with the initials finely illuminated in gold and colours, red morocco super extra, gilt edges, by BEDFORD, £55. Sec. XV.

The writing and the vellum are both so very fine, that the Manuscript may be looked upon as a perfect gem, and one of the most desirable articles in my entire stock. Besides, a codex of the complete Bible is seldom met with.

The Pentateuch was completed 17 Chisler 5249 (17th December, 1488).

A rare peculiarity is the use of the name Ahashuerus as the title of the Book of Esther. The calligraphy is singularly fine; the illuminated headings are very rich, and the Arabesque ornamentation of the first page is elegant and graceful.

319 GENESIS, Chap. XXXI, v. 17, to XXXIII, 3, and EXODUS XX, 7, to XXII, 25, in Hebrew MS. on two rolls of thick GOAT SKIN, written in a large bold and well-shaped hand, £2. 2*s* ? Sec. XVI

320 THE PENTATEUCH, the MEGILLOTH (Esther, Ruth, Lamentations, Ecclesiasticus, Canticles) the Book of JOB, the Haphtaroth, with the TARGUM of ONKELOS, and the Masorah: together 3 vols. (Vol. 1, 105 leaves; Vol. 2, 156 leaves; Vol. 3, 190 leaves), atlas 4to. on Vellum, written in a fine bold character, probably of German execution, in double columns, bound, £36. cir. 1400

A splendid MS. formerly in the possession of the great De Rossi, who has prefixed to each volume a list of a few of the variants. The text is written in the right hand column, the Chaldee Targum in the left. De Rossi has decided, from internal evidence, that the MS. was not executed later than the year 1411, and probably was earlier. This opinion is presumably derived from the inscription at the end of Deuteronomy, which shews that the book was written by Isaac bar Simhha for the Rabbi Meir bar Nathan. THE GREAT NUMBER of VARIÆ LECTIONES supplied by this Codex renders it of the greatest importance to students of the Hebrew Scriptures.

with red and green, with ornamental headings, one of them finished with green and gold, the margins of a few leaves ornamented with curious drawings, in fine preservation, bound in morocco, with joints, in a case, £7. 10s Sec. XVII

It is curious that the first erasure made by the censor in this volume, is of the words "and for apostates" (let there be hope).

322 PRECES ET PRÆCEPTA HEBRÆORUM, Hebraice, sm. 4to. MS. on VELLUM, a beautiful specimen of Calligraphy, written in very elegant Romano-Jewish characters, with points, and having the commencing words in LETTERS OF GOLD, surrounded by ornamental borders, painted in various colours, richly bound in green velvet, the sides and edges protected with centres, (having a lion rampant and three stars, as arms, engraved upon them), corners and clasps of solid silver, £35. Sec. XV

Illuminated Hebrew MSS. by Italian Artists are of very rare occurrence. This elegant specimen of Italian Art was a marriage gift, and is in the finest state of preservation. Some of the Prayers are intermixed with Benedictions in Italian, but written in Hebrew characters.

6. Indian.

323 HINDOO MYTHOLOGY: A FULL SERIES OF ALL THE DEITIES AND INCARNATIONS OF THE BRAHMAN RELIGION, with some PORTRAITS OF MOGUL EMPERORS AND OTHER INDIAN PRINCES, and a few figures of ladies at toilet, etc.—together 111 exquisite DRAWINGS, comprising about 250 subjects, the largest measuring 14 inches by 10, carefully designed and executed in RICH COLOURS AND GOLD, by most accomplished Native Artists during the last Century, most of the names given in Persian and Nagari characters, with unarranged English explanations made in India; all the drawings mounted, and bound in 4 vols. fol. old blue morocco, gilt edges, £65. (cir. 1750-80)

This magnificent collection which equals anything of the kind now existing in either public or private libraries in Europe, was probably made for Warren Hastings or some other English magnate in India. It is important equally for its artistic and for its mythological value. The Hindoo Pantheon surpasses that of Greece by the extraordinary variety in the forms of its Gods, and by their still more wonderful achievements. The belief of the Hindoos in these Heroes of the Puranas is universal, and likely to remain so, in spite of civilising and missionary efforts. The grace, delicacy, and finish of these drawings is very remarkable; they are totally different from the gaudy and flaring productions of a more recent school, which are frequently puffed up and sold as "splendid specimens of Persian art."

324 ARTAUD DE BEAUVILLETTE, MYTHOLOGIE ICONOLOGIQUE DES BRAMES, sm. fol. 52 COLOURED AND illuminated DRAWINGS of Hindoo Deities, copied, "avec la plus servile exactitude" by this French savant from native originals, the names of the divinities all added, with a MS. title and prefatory notice, old French green morocco extra, gilt edges, £8. 8*s* 1790

This is not the work of a mere copyist; but that of a scholar and man of learning who would preserve faithfully even the defects and rudeness of the original drawings, rather than lose any possible symbolism that might have an interest for the student of Mythology.

324*ADI PARVA, the first section of the famous Sanscrit Epic, the Mahábhárata, written on about 200 oblong folio leaves of paper, with a few rude drawings, £3. 3*s* cir. 1780

325 SRI BHAGAVAT. LIFE OF KRISHNA, in Sanscrit, stout sm. 4to. a fine Brahminical MS. of 960 pp. written in a bold and plain hand, in the Devanágari character, WITH 147 LARGE DRAWINGS, each the full size of the page, all brightly coloured and many of them

326 ADI GRANTH: the SACRED BOOK OF THE SIKHS, a fine bold MS. in PUNJABI, in the Gurumukhi character, stout folio, 467 leaves, strong native binding, £7. 10*s* 1874 (1817)

The religious books of the Sikhs are regarded with so much veneration by them, that, according to Sir John Malcolm, it is almost impossible for a foreigner to obtain a copy even in the Punjáb.

327 KAVYA SEKHARA, an old and celebrated Singhalese Grammar, written in verse by Srî Râhula of Tottagamuwa, A.D. 1444, complete on 84 long narrow leaves, of the Talipot palm tree, confined by boards, formerly in the possession of Dr. Davy, author of the work on Ceylon, 36*s* Sec. XVIII

328 FOUR BUDDHIST WORKS in one volume, sm. 4to. Singhalese MSS. on 76 leaves of rice-paper, sd. £2. 2*s* Ceylon, cir. 1800

329 GENESIS, in Arabic, with an interlineary Malay translation, folio, MS. possibly executed in Java, subscribed by Ibn Ayub abu Yahya, and dated the year of the world 7587, limp vellum, uncut, £3. 16*s* Sec. XVII.

It is questionable by what system of Chronology the scribe dated this book: the former owner catalogued the work as marked with a year equivalent to 1680.

330 BATTASCH WOORDENBOEK: a collection of Batta Words, with the interpretation in Malay and Dutch added to many of them, by Professor Milliès of Utrecht, folio, hf. bd. £2. 10*s* cir. 1850

Dictionaries, NEDERDUITSCH-JAPANSCH WOORDENBOEK (without the letters T and U) arranged in quadruple columns, the Dutch first, followed by the corresponding Japanese words, in Roman and Katagana characters, and finally by the Chinese form, 8 vols. probably written by Titsingh, about 1790—VOCABULARIUM Linguæ Japonicæ, Tomus II. (all Japanese); Japanisches SACH-WÖRTERBUCH (all Japanese); SPIEGEL der Sprache von KOORAI, mit Schinesischer und Japanischer Übersetzung, the sound of the Corean expressed both in Native and Roman characters, with the German translation opposite on many of the pages, 3 vols. probably written by Siebold about forty years ago—11 vols. folio, hf. bd. £15. Sec. XVIII-XIX

9. Persian.

333 'AHLI' OF SHI'RÁZ. Complete Works of one of the most famous poets of Persia, fol. exquisitely written and illuminated in the most delicate and graceful style of Persian art, the figures of the splendid Anwan somewhat defaced by Sunni zeal, but the beautiful borders and ornaments in perfect preservation, Persian binding, elaborately gilt and decorated inside and outside, enclosed in a case, £20. circ. 1550

Ahli died in the year 1535. Complete copies of his works are very rare. The present MS. has an inscription in Georgian on the title-page, which is translated thus:

The first volume is beautifully written in a delicate hand, and though undated may be attributed to about the year 1020. The second volume is written by Muhammad Amin bin 'Abdi 'l-Khalil, in 1044. The third is undated, written about the end of the last century.

408 HORÆ BEATÆ MARIÆ VIRGINIS, sm. 4to. superbly illuminated MS. on VELLUM, WITH 12 LARGE AND 46 SMALL MINIATURE PAINTINGS, EVERY PAGE SURROUNDED BY AN ARABESQUE BORDER, IN WHICH ARE INTRODUCED VARIOUS ANIMALS, insects, birds, flowers, fruits, monsters, and various grotesque designs, with many hundreds of initials, most of them containing small miniatures not included in the above number, in ancient MOROCCO extra, gilt edges, with a silver clasp, bearing the coat of arms and initial of the Rev. J. Dallaway, from whose widow Sir S. Meyrick purchased the volume, £84. cir. 1450-60

This extraordinary MS. is enriched with paintings, borderings, and a splendour of illumination beyond most books of its class; and has some miniatures executed on so large a scale that the figures occupy almost the entire length of the page. The execution of the work is French, but there are no French prayers in the volume, the Calendar being however in that language. Towards the end there is an initial D which contains the portrait of a kneeling lady who wears the conical head-dress so much in vogue about 1450-60.

409 HEURES DE NOSTRE DAME, smallest 4to. illuminated MS. on VELLUM, with borders and 7 MINIATURES, ancient binding, with the Crucifix stamped on the sides, £14. 10*s* cir. 1420

The Calendar, which as well as the Joys and Requests, is in French, is full of memoranda made by Simon d'Igny and his family, who resided about Toul and Fontenoy, at the beginning of the seventeenth century; with other notes by the Hanus family from 1690 to 1730.

410 TREVETH (Nicholai) Exposicio hystoriarum extranearum dictorumque poeticorum que tanguntur ab Augustino in libro de Civitate Dei . . . Exposicio fratris THOME WALEYS super libros de Civitate Dei, facta 1432, 2 parts in 1 vol. sm. 4to. well-written MS. on VELLUM, wanting perhaps a leaf or two at the end, russia, £3. 16*s* cir. 1350

MSS. of this work (for the two together form one whole) are very rare. There is none in Lambeth or Durham, and the book has only twice appeared in print, at Toulouse in 1488 and Venice in 1489. This copy belonged to John, Bishop of Exeter, (? John Ketteridge, about 1410) and became, by assignment, the property of Merton College for the use of poor scholars. The note which relates this fact was written about 1450, and concludes with stating that the volume is now handed to John Gardener, fellow of the said Hall (Merton) to be transferred thither.

411 GREGORII Papæ Liber XL Omeliarum. Petri Archidiaconi Lond. Remediarium conversorum in libris XII, addressed to the third Bishop of London—Venerabilis Bernardi Clarevallensis Abbatis libri V Exhortationum—Canticum Canticorum cum glossa interlineari—Bernardus super Canticum Canticorum, folio, fine MS. on vellum, with illuminated capital letters in the richest gold and colours by an English hand, a few leaves at the end damaged by damp, £25. cir. 1220

This fine English MS. bears a curious history on its fly-leaves, and is in many respects a most interesting one. It is marked as assigned to the Friars Minors of York de dono of Symon de . . . , with the value 5*s* under this entry, which was probably made in the 14th century. On another page it is noted as having been given in pledge for 30*s*, on the 28 of January, 1400. Towards the end of the fifteenth (perhaps about 1480) it came into the possession of John Vicars, Rector of Newton Kyme, near Tadcaster, who was very likely the "Sir John Vicars" mentioned in the will of Margaret Pigot, 1485 (Testamenta Ebor. IV, 7). His mention of Dionysius the Carthusian shows that he could not have lived before the invention of printing, as Thoresby supposed (Duc. Leod. p. 516). This John Vicars has written some prayers on the final fly-leaves, and added a catalogue of his library, with their cost-prices or value attached. This list of books gives particular value to the MS., and forms in itself alone an extremely interesting item of literary history. We learn from it that an English clergyman, in the fifteenth century, was possessor (and doubtless reader too) of the works of

S. Augustine, 4 vols. £3.; St. Jerome, 4 vols. £1. 13*s* 4*d*; S. Chrysostom, 3 vols. 30*s*; St. Gregory, 1 vol. (the present MS.) 13*s* 4*d*; S. Ambrose, 1 vol. 10*s*;

S. Bernard, 1 vol. 8*s*; S. Hilary, 6*s* 8*d*; Trido (?) 4 vols. 10*s*; Dionysius the Carthusian, 5 vols. £1. 13*s* 4*d*; S. Epiphanius, 10*s*; S. Basil the Great, 8*s*; Anselm 6*s*; Cyril, 2 vols. 10*s*; Plutarch, 6*s* 8*d*; Dionysius the Areopagite, 6*s* 8*d*; Bede 2 vols. 10*s*; Origen, 2 vols. 8*s*; Macrobius, 12*d*; Hamon, 6*s*; Cyprian, 2 vols. 3*s* 3*d*. Thomas Aquinas on the Sentences, 4 vols. 4*s*; Sermons of J. à Voragine, 2 vols 2*s* 8*d*.

In a later hand there is added by Roger Hollings, the Glebe of Newton Kyme in 1563. After which the MS. became the property of Robert Midgeley of Coxwold, who gave it to Ralph Thoresby, in the Catalogue of whose Museum (ut supra) it will be found fully described, with some slight errors, however.

412 WAUURIN (Jehan de) Seigneur du Forestel, RECOEL DES CRONICQUES ET ANCHIENNES HISTOIRES DE LA GRANT BRETAIGNE adpnt nomme Engleterre, premier volume, in 2 vols. folio, Manuscript, in red and black, neatly written in a large hand, and illustrated with a few well executed drawings in colours, some slightly injured from immersion, calf gilt, from the libraries of James II, of Count MacCarthy, and of Sir S. Meyrick, £27. 1455-61

An unpublished and probably unique Chronicle of English history, written at the close of his life by an old knight who had fought at the battle of Agincourt. The word unpublished is not unadvisedly used, although some chapters of this inedited chronicle were printed for the Société de l'Histoire de France, in 1858. The phrase probably unique is defensible, as the work is not mentioned in any of the library catalogues of MSS. I have met with, and the source of the French publication of 1858 is doubtful. The above two volumes begin of course with the usual fabulous antiquities of England, and, after some progress, deal at great length with the story of King Arthur. They conclude soon after the accession of Edward III. In his prologue the old warrior dedicates the volume to his nephew, whom he styles "mon tres honnoure et doubte seigneur Monsgr. Waleran seigneur de Wauvrin, de Lillers, Mallanoy, et Saint Venant," and who had been out in the Levant as Captain General of the war galleys of Philip Duke of Burgundy. The relationship is explained in the passage which states how "moy . . . filz inlegiteisme de vostre grant pere Monsgr. Robert de Wauvrin . . . lequel mourut en la bataille d'Asincourt ou je etoie." From the prologue it appears that he carried his work down to the accession of Edward IV, but the remainder was lost at sea in its shipment from Wales to London, as appears by Sir Samuel Meyrick's note on the fly-leaf. The author describes his feeling of surprise and regret that the noble realm of England had never been chronicled in an extensive or comprehensive way before his own time.

413 BRACTON (H.) DE LEGIBUS ET CONSUETUDINIBUS ANGLIÆ, folio, fine Manuscript on VELLUM, the first leaf illuminated in gold and colours, and containing a miniature portrait of Henry III on his throne, red morocco, richly tooled and gilt on back and sides, with joints, lined with silk, gilt edges, £21. cir. 1270

There is a long and learned note by Sir Samuel Meyrick on the fly-leaf, concerning the author and his great work on the Laws of England. The present copy is full of interesting memoranda which shew that it was in the possession of several Devonshire families, through natural succession, between the years 1378 and 1541. These memoranda are sometimes in Latin, sometimes in English, and consist of legal documents (in draught or copy), general notes, curious medicinal observations, and moral reflections. They begin with John William Gart of Southmolton, in the second year of Richard II. On p. 309, is a memorandum of John Drake's ownership, teste John Harewood, written about the year 1442, at which date are found a deed in Latin and a bond in English. Of about the same date are the curious notices on diseases and remedies, a list of hawks headed "these be the namys of all man' haukes," several general memoranda, and a deed by Joanna Radleigh. Pp. 618-22 are covered with documents between Thomas Raysheleigh of Southmolton and William Harewode of the same place, dated the 32nd year of Henry VIII, and a little further on there are a couple of letters addressed to "Your Lordship," of the same date. The MS. also bears the name of Robert Goldessone, in an Elizabethan hand, and that of William Bourchier of a somewhat later date.

414 SEGAR (SIR W., Garter and Principal King of Arms) Variations of the Armes and Badges of ye Kings of England, (and of the nobles and gentlemen connected in any degree with the royal houses of England and Scotland,) from ye time of Brute untill this present Year of our Lord, 1604, folio, about 400 beautifully emblazoned Coats of Arms, some of the original leaves which were decayed replaced with copies by Simon Segar, who has also made various additions, calf gilt, £7. 15*s* 1604-13

Sir William Segar evidently commenced his work in 1604, and closed it in 1613, when it is probable he was arrested by death. He intended this very volume for presentation to James I.

415 LENARD (SAMPSON) and A. VINCENT, Pursuivants of Arms, A.D. 1619, Visitation of the County of Leicester, the arms in trick, with an Index, Armes, &c. taken at a Visitation of the County of Oxon, the arms in trick—2 parts in 1 vol. folio, MS. with "A Catalogue of the Manuscripts and Printed Books of Heraldry belonging to Joseph Edmondson, Painter, 1759," in his handwriting at the end of the volume, calf neat, £3. 10*s* 1759

A valuable and important volume.

416 CRONICL O WECH OESODD: History or Chronicle of the World, in Welsh, in a modified Gothic character, very thick folio, Manuscript on Paper, some leaves wanting, and others misplaced by the binder; formerly in the possession of the renowned Antiquary, Edward Lhwyd, whose autograph is on the fly-leaf, and afterwards in that of Sir John Sebright, rough calf, £30. 1500-60

Only a small portion of this "Chronicle of the Six Ages of the World" was executed about the beginning of the sixteenth century; the remainder was done about 1560. The actual matter of the history comes down to the beginning of the twelfth century, but there are allusions and dates in the text which prove at what time the book was written. The beginning is also wanted which contained the early fabulous accounts of Greece—an immaterial loss. Considering the excessive rarity of Welsh MSS., and the nature and fine execution of the present one, we may unhesitatingly pronounce it to be an article of very considerable value. There are some long notes on the subject by Sir Samuel Rush Meyrick, written on the fly-leaf.

417 OWAIN (GUTTYN) GWEHELYTHAU CYMRY: Fragmenta GENEALOGICA CAMBRENSIA: a collection of Pedigrees of Ancient Families in North and South Wales and Powys, sm. 4to. ancient Welsh Manuscript on Paper, but defective and mutilated, with a transcript and a translation of the same by Sir S. R. Meyrick; together 2 vols. sm. 4to. calf neat, £12. 12*s* 1497

This unpublished work is, even in its present mutilated state, extremely valuable; and its age, which goes back into the fifteenth century, would give it an extraordinary position in any collection of Welsh MSS.

418 ACHAU SAINT YNYS PRYDAIN. Catalogues of the Saints of Britain, in Welsh, by Truman and Hopkins, written about the year 1670 and copied by Sir Samuel Meyrick from the Cwtta Bach of Iolo Morganwg, sm. 8vo. MS. entirely in the handwriting of S. R. Meyrick, calf gilt, 28*s* 1808

419 LIFE OF THE ENCHANTER MERLIN, in Irish, sm. 4to. 16 leaves of MS. without the first leaf, 25*s* Copied by John Bowen, Tralee, 1825

Copied from an old Irish legend of diablerie, and ending with several verses entitled Advice of Merlin to the Christians.

420 O'DALY (D.) Dialogue between Death and the Patient, in Irish, A.D. 1554, with translation by John Collins in 1805, sm. 4to. neat transcript, hf. bd. 25*s* 1814

This curious old poem on the same subject as the Dance of Death, is followed by 16 leaves which contain some Ossianic pieces on Cuchullin, and a few miscellaneous verses by late bards, all in Irish and English. The English is throughout in rude metre.

421 PSALTERIUM et PRECES, cum Calendario, sm. 4to. beautifully written Manuscript on VELLUM, with illuminated capitals, containing Miniatures, and several hundreds of grotesque figures introduced at end of sentences, wanting the last leaf of prayers, and the months July to October in the Kalendar, calf antique, £5. 15*s*

Norfolk or Suffolk, cir. 1250

The entries in the Calendar of two foreign Saints, S. William, Archbishop of Bourges, and St. Robert, the founder of the Cistercians, who are not found in any other English service book, shew that the MS. was written not long after the decrees of their canonization were promulgated, in 1218 and 1222. The Calendar comprises all the English saints of the Sarum Missals, but a fourteenth century hand has added such other entries as that of St. Botolph on the 17 of June, and the dedication of St. Botolph's Church on the 6th of that month, with a still later entry on the 14 June of a new dedication of that Church. At the back of the Calendar there is a list of payments from various places in Norfolk, written about the year 1400. In the body of the book several marginal memoranda of tenants, whose harvest bonds were due, and other things, shew that in the year 1550 the book was the property of Robert Hawe of Shottesham.

RELIGIONS, MYTHOLOGIES, SYSTEMS OF PHILOSOPHY, MENTAL ABERRATIONS.

 Many valuable essays on the various religions of the East, will be found in the periodical publications of learned Societies, like the Asiatic of Bengal and the Asiatic of Great Britain. Scholars are therefore referred to the special catalogue of Periodicals, post.

I.—COMPARATIVE MYTHOLOGY, GENERAL HISTORY OF RELIGIONS AND SECTS.

430 BOETTIGER, Amalthea oder Museum der Kunstmythologie und bildlichen Alterthumskunde, 3 vols. 8vo. 18 plates, hf. bd. red morocco, fine copy from Dr. Hawtrey's library, 14*s* Leip. 1820-25

431 BRYANT'S New System, or Analysis of Antient Mythology, with his Life, 6 vols. 8vo. 41 plates, calf, 36*s*; or fine copy in calf gilt, £2. 2*s* 1807

432 COX (G. W.) Mythology of the Aryan Nations, 2 vols. 8vo. (pub. £1. 8*s*) cloth, £1. 2*s* 6*d* 1870

This admirable work has already taken a high rank in the literature of Comparative Mythology. It is the most extensive and perhaps the most important contribution that has yet been made to the proper treatment of that science.

433 DABISTAN (The) or SCHOOL OF MANNERS, translated from the Persian, with Notes, &c. by D. Shea, and A. Troyer, 3 vols. 8vo. (pub. £1. 1*s*) cloth, 17*s* 6*d* 1844

This is a work of great interest, and contains an account of the old Persian, the Brahmin, the Buddhist, the Christian, the Sufi, and the Mohammedan religions, with their various sects; as well as a statement of their doctrines. It is most valuable for its exposition of the Zoroastrian creed, as this is based upon ancient Zend works now entirely lost.

434 DUNLAP'S Vestiges of the Spirit-history of Man, 8vo. pp. vii and 404, cloth, from Alexander von Humboldt's library, 8*s* 6*d* New York, 1858

An inquiry into the origin and significance of the various religions of the world.

435 DULAURE, des Cultes qui ont précédé et amené l'Idolatrie ou l'adoration des figures humaines, fétiches, astres, héros, morts, montagnes, forêts, arbres, eaux, signes, pierres brutes, l'origine de Mercure et Vénus, etc. 8vo. bds. 20*s* Paris, 1805

436 DUPUIS, Origine de tous les Cultes, ou Religion universelle, 3 vols. avec Atlas de 23 planches, 1795—Mémoire sur l'origine des Constellations, 1781—5 vols. in 4, 4to. original edition, numerous curious plates, comprising the Symbols of the Ancient Religions, hf. bd. £2. 2*s* 1795-81

437 ——— Origine de tous les Cultes, 7 vols. 8vo. calf, with 4to. Atlas of 23 plates, hf. calf, 36*s* 1795

438 ——— the same, without Atlas, 7 vols. in 12, 8vo. bd. 20*s* 1795

Dupuis applied a scientific method to the explanation of all the religions and mythologies with which he possessed acquaintance, including Christianity as one of many kindred Oriental cults; and sought to derive them all, by means of astronomical research, from a desire or instinct generally existent amongst mankind, to symbolize the changes of the seasons and the varied phases of the solar and stellar systems.

439 FABER (G. S.) Origin of PAGAN IDOLATRY, 3 vols. 4to. plates, calf extra, scarce, £8. 1816

At the end of Vol. III is bound a Large Paper copy of Remarks on the Pyramid of Cephrenes, by G. S. Faber, London, 1819.

Dr. Faber's theory was that all the religions of the heathen world were corruptions of the Jewish history of Adam and Eve.

440 FABER'S Dissertation on the mysteries of the CABIRI, or the great Gods of Phenicia, Samothrace, Egypt, Troas, Greece, Italy, and Crete, ... the orgies of Isis, Ceres, Mithras, Bacchus, Rhea, Adonis, and Hecate, 2 vols. 8vo. frontispiece, hf. calf gilt, 27*s* 1803

As Dupuis, on the one side, deduced every form of worship from the celestial observations of primeval astronomers, so Faber, on the other hand, saw in every pagan ceremony a degenerated tradition of the records of the Bible.

441 HIGGINS'S Anacalypsis, an attempt to draw aside the veil of the Saitic Isis, or an Inquiry into the Origin of Languages, Nations, and Religions, 3 vols. in 2, 4to. xxxii. and 867 pages, five plates containing 34 compartments of figures, etc. bds. hf. russ. VERY RARE, £12. 12*s* 1833-36

The works of Higgins will be ever remarkable as the productions of a vigorous and independent mind revolting audaciously from the despotism of old prejudices. His learning was however crude and ill-assorted: although very extensive and derived from multifarious sources, it was not subjected to any critical analysis, and the result is, as might be expected, in pitiable contrast with the scientific labours of the present day.

The demand for Higgins' Anacalypsis is immeasurably in excess of the supply. It is curious to observe with how much eagerness the inquisitive readers of Great Britain and the United States rush to this common fount to slake their burning thirst for information concerning the origin of Religions.

442 HOLWELL'S Mythological, Etymological, and historical Dictionary, 8vo. calf gilt, 5*s* 1793

443 HURD'S History of the Religions, Rites, Ceremonies, and Customs of the World, a complete and impartial view of all the Religions of the Universe, folio, a great number of plates, calf, 20*s* n. d. about 1783

444 IAMBLICHUS de Mysteriis Ægyptiorum, Chaldæorum, Assyriorum; Proclus in Platonem de Animâ; de Magiâ; et varia Opuscula Porphyrii, Synesii, Pselli, Prisciani, Platonis, Pythagoræ, Xenocratis et Marsilii, Latine, M. Ficino interprete, folio, hf. russia, 21*s* Venetiis, Aldus, 1497

Rare et beau volume.—Renouard. EDITIO PRINCEPS. Priced, 1826, Payne and Foss, £5. 5*s*; 1829, Longman, £2. 12*s* 6*d*; 1837-40-48, Payne and Foss, £3. 13*s* 6*d*.

445 JONES (Sir W.) WORKS, 6 vols. 4to. BEST EDITION, portraits and numerous plates from the Hindu Mythology, facsimiles, etc. russia neat, £2. 2*s* 1799

The first volume contains the dissertation on the Gods of Greece, Italy, and India, which may be looked upon as the foundation stone of the modern science of Comparative Mythology.

446 LANDSEER'S Sabæan Researches, 4to. plates of Babylonian Cylinders, and other relics of Ancient Art, hf. calf, 12*s* 6*d* 1823

A well-meant work on comparative mythology, chiefly in connection with astronomical research.

448 MACKEY'S Man's Best Friend, or the Evils of Pious Frauds, sm. 8vo. bds. 7*s* 6*d* Norwich, 1826

Another astronomical mythologist, with much sense, a little knowledge, and plenty of abuse for the Jews, the Christians, and the Freemasons.

457 SAINTE-CROIX, Recherches sur les Mystères du Paganisme; seconde édition, par S. de Sacy, 2 vols. 8vo. sd. 28*s* Paris, 1817

This second edition of Sainte-Croix's valuable work is the only correct one. The original edition was falsified and warped from the author's intention by the editor Villoison. The additions which he made to it, so far from increasing its value, as has been stated, serve only to damage the perfected scheme of the work, which, in the second edition, De Sacy may be said to have published for the first time, with his own judicious amendments.

458 SHAHRASTANI (Abú 'l-Fath Muhammad) Kitáb-u 'l-Milal wa 'l-Nihal, Book of Religious and Philosophical Sects, in Arabic, edited by Cureton, 2 vols. in 1, royal 8vo. cloth, 20*s* Or. Text Soc. 1842-6 importance at the present time, when the study of old creeds and mythologies is so universal, may be estimated from an abridgement of the contents. It comprises an account of the Mussulmans and all their numerous sects; the Jews; Christians and their sects; Magi, Zoroastrians, Manichæans, and other claimants of revealed religion; Sabæans; the Hermetic philosophy; the Greek Philosophers and their schools, from Thales to Porphyrius; the systems of Muhammadan doctors, especially Avicenna; the pre-Islamite religion of Arabia; Brahminism; Buddhism, and the other religions of India, concluding with an account of Hindu philosophers.

In China, the European settlers hold this collection of memoirs in so high esteem, that copies generally sell there for about a pound a volume. The last volume is very scarce, having been published twenty years after the fifteenth.

2. Christianity.

Myths engrafted on the doctrines of the Church.

See post Catalogue of THEOLOGY.

481*CURTII (Cornelii) de Clavis Dominicis liber, 24mo. numerous beautifully engraved plates by Sadeler, each a different representation of "Christ on the Cross," old pigskin, with clasp, 36*s* Monaci, 1622

A curious work, full of puns and abuse, to prove that four nails, and not any other number, were used at the Crucifixion; and that they still remained to be seen by the faithful. The coarse language bestowed upon all opponents, especially the Reformers, is quite in the author's "bello more Belgico." The engravings were beautifully done from existing objects of ancient Christian Art,—not in a mere hired engraver's style, but as a labour of love by the accomplished artist-monk, Raphael Sadeler, the friend of the author.

482 LAURI Commentarius de Annulo pronubo Deiparæ Virginis, qui Perusiæ adservatur, 12mo. vellum, 5*s* Romæ, 1622

The ring with which Joseph wedded the Virgin Mary is honoured with an elaborate history, from the period of its first use to its resting place in Perugia in the time of the author.

483 DESLYONS, Discours ecclésiastiques contre le Paganisme des Roys de la Fève et du Roy-Boit, pratiqués par les Chrétiens charnels en la veille et au jour de l'Epiphanie, 12mo. red morocco, ornamented with gilt tooling, scarce, 10*s* Paris, 1664

484 LEGGENDA di Tobia e di Tobiolo, ora per la prima volta pubblicata, impl. 8vo. LARGE THICK PAPER, testo di lingua of the fourteenth century, amplified from the Apocrypha, bds. 9*s* Milano, 1825

One of 7 copies on thick paper.

485 LEGENDA (miraculosa) de le dilecte spose e care hospite de Christo MARTHA e MAGDALENA, sm. 4to. 21*s*

s. l. et a. Christophorus de Gualdafer, (Venet. cir. 1473)

This is the story of Mary Magdalen and her sister Martha (the three Maries being rolled into one, a fate they have often met with at the hands of churchmen.) largely amplified from the Gospels, and continued by a narrative of their after life, and thaumaturgic successes in South Gaul. The Agneleta Martha is evidently a greater favourite with the writer than the santa pecatrice. Valdarfer quitted Venice in 1474, to establish himself in Milan, but the orthography of the above legend shews that it was executed in the former city.

486 MARTORELLI (P. V.) Teatro Istoricо della Santa Casa Nazarena della B. V. Maria e sua Traslazione in Loretto, 2 vols. folio, plates, calf gilt, 30*s* Rome, 1732-3

This work, the most important upon the subject, although little known, comprises the chronicles of Riera, Torsellini, Teremano, Angelita, and others. It shews how, towards the end of the thirteenth century, the house of Loretto, the very same structure in which the Blessed Virgin had received the Angelical Visitation, was conveyed by angels across the sea and land from Palestine to Italy.

487 MAURY (L. F. A.) Essai sur les Légendes Pieuses du Moyen Age, 8vo. sd. 10*s* Paris, 1843

488 MAYER (Joh. God.) Historia Diaboli, de Diaboli, malorumque spirituum existentia, potestate, etc. sm. 8vo. calf gilt, 12*s* Tubingæ, 1780

This curious history is based upon vast erudition, and shews traces of a meditative and logical mind. The distinguished character whose biography it contains, is not considered to have the remotest chance of ever quitting his present unlucky post as leader of the opposition.

490 VENIDA DEL MESIAS en Gloria y Magestad, observaciones de Juan Josafat Ben-Ezra, 3 vols. 8vo. portrait and curious plates, VELLUM PAPER, morocco, gilt edges, rare, from the library of the Emperor Maximilian of Mexico, £2. 10*s* Londres, 1826

The author of this extraordinary work was a Jesuit, of the name of Lacunza, who was born in Santiago in Chili in the year 1731, and died in 1801. The name "Ben-Ezra," he adopted as a "nom de plume," assuming to be a converted Jew. His opinion of the Millenium was so strangely opposed to the Catholic faith, that he never could receive permission to have his work printed; a few MS. copies got into surreptitious circulation on the two continents, and aroused the strongest interest and curiosity. Notwithstanding the interdict laid upon it by the authorities in America as well as in Spain, and even against the author's own desire, copies were printed by stealth, but all incorrect and imperfect, until the publication of the London edition of 1826, which is the most complete.

491 VILLETTE (M.) Histoire de Nôtre-Dame de Liesse, sm. 8vo. plates by Thomassin, after Stella, fine copy in chocolate morocco, gilt-marbled edges, by Belz-Niedrée, 25*s* Laon, 1708

Full of erudition; containing an account of personal visits from the Virgin, and a curious Eastern romance connected with the transportation of her image to Liesse, with a list of the various boons she had specially granted to individuals.

The third volume is wanting to most copies. Col. Stanley's copy, 2 vols. only fetched £29. 8*s*; Knight's, £15.

507 ——— Reisebeschreibung nach Arabien u. s. w., und Beschreibung von Arabien, 3 vols. 4to. two in calf, one half bound, 15*s* Kopenh. 1772-78

Niebuhr possessed, before he started on his travels, more knowledge concerning the people and the civilisation he was about to see, than most travellers do now on their return. His descriptions of Arabian manners, customs, and ceremonies, are singularly correct.

enlightened spirit, and valuable for the correction of all European views upon the subject.

513 WEIL'S Geschichte der Chalifen nach handschriftlichen noch unbenützten Quellen bearbeitet, 3 vols. 8vo. hf. calf, 25*s* Mannheim, 1846-51

5. Phallic, Tree and Serpent Worship.

514 DULAURE, Histoire des différens Cultes: des Cultes qui ont précéde et amené l'Idolatrie ou l'adoration des figures humaines; des Divinités génératrices, ou du Culte du Phallus, 2 vols. 8vo. hf. morocco, uncut, top edges gilt, £2. 10*s* Paris, 1825

A curious and interesting book. The first volume hardly belongs in strictness to the present class, but the second volume is the chief text-book on the subject. Dulaure is not however, like O'Brien, one of those who see their pet theory illustrated everywhere, and who would have assisted in the destruction of the Vendome column, as forming a monument of Napoleonic Phallus-worship.

515 FERGUSSON'S Tree and Serpent Worship; or Illustrations of Mythology and Art in India, in the first and fourth centuries after Christ, from Sculptures of the Buddhist Topes at Sanchi and Amravati, super royal 4to. 250 pp. 100 photographs and plates, hf. red morocco, gilt top, uncut, £6. 6*s* 1868

516 INMAN'S (Dr. Th.) ANCIENT FAITHS embodied in Ancient Names: or an attempt to trace the Religious Belief, Sacred Rites, and Holy Emblems of certain Nations, 2 stout vols. 8vo. numerous plates and woodcuts, (pub. at £3.) extra cloth, £2. 8*s*

Printed for the Author, 1868-69

Printed for the Author, 1870

VERY RARE. The illustrations are the same as those contained in "Ancient Faiths," but the text is different, being an explanation of the figures.

518 KNIGHT (Payne) Account of the remains of the Worship of Priapus, 4to. plates, bds. £7. 10*s*; or, hf. calf, £6. 10*s* 1786

Saturated with Greek and Roman learning, and diversified with the play of a warm imagination, it is not strange that this curious work of Payne Knight should be in request and rare.

519 O'BRIEN (Henry) on the Round Towers of Ireland, or the Mysteries of Free-Masonry, of Sabaism, and of Budhism unveiled, WITH THE PREFACE, 8vo. cuts, hf. calf, clean copy, £2. 1834

Very rare. A wonderful display of learning, but wholly devoid of scientific discrimination and judiciousness. The abundance of the author's lore, derived from every source to illustrate the history of Phallic worship, is only equalled by the astounding errors of his linguistic and ethnological views.

520 O'BRIEN'S Round Towers, with the long preface, 1834—VILLANUEVA, Phœnician Ireland, translated and illustrated by O'Brien, map, 1833—2 vols. 8vo. hf. calf gilt, £2. 10*s* 1833-34

As a specimen of the fidelity of his version, the translator gives the dedication and the first chapter of the Latin text, with a few extracts from some other chapters. But for want of the complete original, by which to check the exuberant flow of O'Brien's language, we must be satisfied to think that Villanueva has been translated.

7. Zoroastrianism.

523 AVESTA, aus dem Grundtexte übersetzt, Deutsch, mit Rücksicht auf die Tradition, von SPIEGEL, 3 vols. 8vo. complete, sd. 21*s* Leipzig, 1852-63

524 AVESTA: the Religious Books of the Parsees, from SPIEGEL's German translations of the original Manuscripts by A. H. BLEECK, 3 vols. in 1, 8vo. cloth, 25*s* 1864

The English translation must be considered superior to the German, as it has received the latest emendations of Professor Spiegel. This version of the Avesta is unquestionably a great book, and may take rank beside Sale's Koran, as enabling the English scholar to study satisfactorily the Bible of one of the great religions that have subjugated the intellects of mankind.

525 ZEND-AVESTA, ouvrage de ZOROASTER, contenant ses idées théologiques, physiques et morales, le culte religieux qu'il a établi, traduit en Français, par ANQUETIL DU PERRON, 2 vols. in 3, 4to. plates, old calf, £3.; or old French calf gilt, £3. 10*s* Paris, 1771

The Anhang is an independent work, and contains pieces by Duperron, Foucher, and Kleuker, relative to the ancient literature of Persia, and the Zend writings.

BEST EDITION, many plates of Inscriptions, Alphabets, etc. calf, 30*s* Oxonii, 1760

531 ——— the same, 4to. presentation copy from the Earl of Morton to Sir James Gray, Bart. old red morocco, gilt edges, £2. 12*s* 6*d* 1760

531*DESATIR, or sacred writings of the ancient Persian prophets (Abad, Jemshid, Zirtusht, etc.) original text, Ancient Persian version, (with Commentary and Glossary) and English translation by Mulla Firuz bin Kaus, 2 vols. in 1, large 8vo. bd. 30*s* Bombay, 1818

Although the "original text" may be, as has been asserted, a Gebr fabrication compiled in Persia in the seventeenth century, and based upon the Pahlawi language, yet the linguistic and ethnological value of the so-called old Persian translation and of the commentary cannot be denied.

An excellent philosophical account which can be read from beginning to end (not merely referred to) with profit and interest. Smith's Dictionary, which follows the same guiding principle in its treatment of the mythological portion, is vastly more extensive, and invaluable as a book of reference, but the editor's preface ought certainly not to have ignored Mr. Keightley's name and work.

"Le Rig Véda . . . . . est le monument littéraire le plus ancien qui ait été conservé."—Preface. This great work of Langlois is the most important production of French scholarship with regard to the ancient language and religion of India. It contains the complete Sanhita or Hymns of the Rig Veda, and having been terminated in 1851 it forms a striking contrast to English labours in the same direction, Wilson's translation being still imperfect, and Max Müller's only just begun.

As time advances, the works of this extraordinary man, one of the greatest philosophers the world has seen, will be more and more highly treasured. From his earliest youth, he devoted his mind to the study of religious systems, and the evolution of Monotheism from them all. Master of English, Sanscrit, Arabic, Persian, Hebrew, Greek, and Latin, he thoroughly examined the great books of each religion —including the Christian Scriptures, the Fathers, Brahminism, Buddhism, and Mohammedanism; as well as the various sects of each. He was persecuted and reviled as an atheist, as well by Hindoos as by Christians; but the future will acknowledge him a great Reformer.

Even at the distance of two centuries and a quarter it is difficult to restrain a feeling of indignation on reading such a record as this. The mere existence of such human brutes as the accusers, witnesses, and judges, would be enough to destroy all hopes of a reign of Tolerance.

666 ——— another edition, sm. 4to. somewhat cropped, russia, gilt edges, 35*s* 1651
From the description given by Lowndes it might be supposed that the first edition did not contain everything that was published in later ones. The truth is that the first is in everyway the best edition, and that all those which succeeded, whether in quarto or in folio, were merely publishers' reprints. Scot was an enlightened man who treated witchcraft rationally, in a very different manner from the dull royal demonologist.

667 SCOT'S Discovery of Witchcraft, with an excellent discourse on the nature of Devils and Spirits, sm. folio, woodcuts, calf, £4. 4*s* 1665
In this remarkable edition, nine chapters at the beginning of the fifteenth book are added to Scot's text, and also an entire second book to the discourse on Devils. These additions are in a very different spirit from the original work, and seem to emanate from a believer or adept.

745*——— traduit par Tissot, avec biographie de Kant, 2 vols. 8vo. sd. 5*s* Paris, 1845

746 OMAR KHAYYAM. Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam, the Astronomer-Poet of Persia, rendered into English verse, sq. 8vo. XVIII and 30 pp. sd. 2*s* 6*d* 1858
The remarkable materialism of this poet, his ideas concerning the value of individual human existence, and its annihilation at death, have created no inconsiderable sensation in a time like the present, when speculation is so rife with regard to subjects which the mind hardly dared to think upon in other days, not so very long ago. Omar Khayyam may be compared with Lucretius. The translation is done with extraordinary vigour, spirit, and fidelity.

747 PRIESTLEY'S Doctrines of Heathen Philosophy compared with those of Revelation, 8vo. bds. privately printed, and rare, 10*s* Northumb. Penn. 1804

A singularly vigourous assault upon the sacred books and dogmas of the Christians and the Jews.

749 SAINTES, Histoire critique du Rationalisme en Allemagne, 8vo. calf neat, 4*s* Paris, 1841

750 SPINOZÆ Opera, cum vita auctoris, ed. Paulus, 2 vols. 8vo. portrait, hf. bd. 12*s* Jenæ, 1802-3

The most celebrated of Spinoza's works, anonymously printed and everywhere condemned by authority. It is a treatise on the Bible, its value and its purport.

757 MEYSONNIER (L.) la Belle Magie, 18mo. plates, veau fauve, gilt edges, rare, £1. 1*s* Lyon, 1669
A curious book on the nature of the Vital Essence, a mixture of Psychology and Physiology with a strong leaven of occult science.

758 CONNOR (Bernardi) Evangelium Medici seu Medicina mystica de suspensis naturæ legibus, 12mo. red morocco, 12*s* Amst. 1699
A very learned but singular work, as may be seen by his propositions: de corporis humani genesi ex fœminâ sine mare, and de corporis humani ortu sine mare et fœminâ, in the latter of which he analyses chemically the existent human body, with the logical conclusion of its reproducibility by synthesis. He gives a rational and natural explanation of the New Testament miracles.

A curious history of the state of the Jews during the Middle Ages. It contains, besides much matter concerning the customs and doctrines of the Jews, a record of the most barbarous oppression set forth with extreme Christian complacency.

Hegesippus was the most ancient of all the writers on the history of the Church; but the above curious work is supposititious.

771 IMBONATI Bibliotheca Latino-Hebræa, sive de Scriptoribus Latinis qui de re Hebraicâ scripsêre: cum Adventu Messiæ et Chronologiâ Scripturæ, folio, portrait, bd. 16*s* Romæ, 1694

772 MAIMONIDES. Yad Hhazakah: the Strong Hand, of Rabbi Moses ben Maimon, in Hebrew, 2 vols. in 1, large folio, Editio Princeps, not quite perfect, the margins of some leaves mended, otherwise a fine copy, calf, £3. 10*s* s. l. et a. (cir. 1475)

This edition is almost entirely unknown, and it is probable that only three or four copies are in existence. De' Rossi was the first to discover it. In his Annales, p. 126, it is mentioned in the following terms: "Præstantissima ac rarissima hæc editio a nobis olim detecta nec ab ullo scriptore memorata . , . Patet ex collatione principem hanc editionem . . . . insignem variarum lectionum copiam suppeditare." He also describes the character as very rude, approaching the Germanic form of letter, and as not to be found in any other book of the fifteenth century. The Yad Hachazakah is an embodiment of all the Judaic principles in the Talmud and Mishna.

773 MAIMONIDES. BERNARD'S Creed and Ethics of the Jews, in selections from the Yad Hachazakah of Maimonides, Heb. and English, with notes, copious illustrations from the Talmud, Alphabetical Glossary, etc. (pub. at 21*s*) in bds. hf. calf, 15*s* Cambridge, 1832

777 MAKHZOR: a Collection of Hebrew Prayers, very stout 12mo. beautifully printed in black and gold, with the vowel points, upon VELLUM, blue morocco extra, gilt edges, £10. 10*s* Boloniia, 1537

778 ——— another copy, not quite perfect, also on vellum, bds. £5. 1537

VERY RARE. It is mentioned by Van Praet at No. 9 of the first volume of the "Livres Imprimés sur vélin," being quoted by him from the catalogue of De Rossi's Library.

This precious volume of Hebrew Prayers, according to the rite of the Roman Synagogue, derives additional value beyond its rarity, from the pieces of festal poetry which are interspersed, and which, being imbued with the old mysticism of the Tulmud, are of very great interest to readers who have made a study of that subject. The writer of an article on the Makhazor in Wetzer and Welte's Kirchen-Lexikon, states that "für die vollständigste und geschätzteste von allen Ausgaben gilt die von Bologna, 1541." This however is incorrect, as the edition of 1541 is merely a reproduction of the above.

In this curious book, destined to prove to the Jews out of their own books that the true Messiah had come in the person of Jesus Christ, Hebrew characters were printed for the first time. There are only a few of them. Elsewhere throughout the book the long Hebrew extracts are given in Roman letters.

Philo remained always a Jew in his religion, although by education and intellect he was a Hellenist and a philosopher of the Neo-Platonic school. His works are the endeavour to give a Greek form to the old body of Judaism, and to illuminate the darkness of the Kabbala with the learning of Greece.

VERY RARE. The author of this celebrated work, called "The Little Talmud," is said by Wolff to be "the last of the mystical writers on the Talmud." He was born near Fez in the early part of the eleventh century, and died at Cordova in 1133, being just ninety years of age. II.—CHRISTIANITY.

1. Bible Commentaries.

799 SCRIPTURÆ Sacræ Cursus Completus, edidit J. Migne, 28 vols. impl. 8vo. double columns, vellum, £10. Paris, 1839-41

If the Abbé Migne had never executed any other work than this, he would nevertheless have earned the perpetual gratitude of all biblical students. Besides the text of the Scriptures, in Latin and French (with all the ancient variants from other versions) the commentaries and dissertations of 130 distinct authors from Tertullian down to the nineteenth century, are included in these volumes. The best critics were selected without regard to their country or particular sect of Christianity, so that the compilation is a truly Catholic one, and not merely Roman Catholic, as some might erroneously imagine. It is an unrivalled store-house of theological learning and Biblical Criticism.

This valuable work is the fountain head of Biblical criticism. Origen did more to establish the text of the Old Testament as now received, than all others. The Hexapla consist of the Hebrew text, with its transcription in Greek characters, and the Greek versions of Aquila, Symmachus, the Septuagint, and Theodotion. Montfaucon has added the text of the Vulgate and separate Latin translations of the Hebrew and the four Greek texts.

Portions of the Glosses of this great jurisconsult are met with in the catalogues of public libraries, but a complete copy of his work upon the Decretals (the entire body of the Canon Law) are very rare; and the value of such a MS. as the present is considerably enhanced because of the interest excited by the late Council at Rome, and the questions discussed in it. Andrea, who carried his professional enthusiasm so far as to christen his daughter "Novella," was no less highly esteemed in his lifetime than after his death, which happened by the plague at Florence in 1348.

825 FORMULARIUM INSTRUMENTORUM Cameræ Apostolicæ, sm. folio, very fine copy, calf extra, 18*s*
s. l. et a. sed Memmingæ per A. Kunne de Duderstadt, circ. 1482
This edition was unknown to Brunet and Ebert, who mention that of 1474. As in the work several Bulls and Forms are dated 1477, this edition must contain additions.

826 HÉRICOURT, Loix Ecclésiastiques de France, avec une analyse des livres du Droit Canonique conféréz avec les usages de l'Eglise Gallicane, folio, calf, 7*s* 6*d* Paris, 1719

This curious work on the duties and mutual relations of the four estates (Pope, Emperor, Bishop, and Laity) was put in the Index Prohibitorum, as treating upon too delicate a subject without sufficient finesse.

828 JOHANNIS SUMMA. Title: Hie hebt sich an dz buch | genannt summa Johan | nis vnd dye gezogen ist | ausz dem heyligen decret | buch. Colophon: . . . . vñ von latein in teütsch gemacht durch . . . . This work has a regular title-page, in modern style.

Considered objectionable in the same way as Sanchez de Matrimonio.

834 DICTIONNAIRE portatif des Cas de Conscience, 2 vols. sm. 8vo. 1200 pp. double cols. calf gilt, 10*s* Lyon, 1759
A very well-meant compilation, but full of such curious matter as would entitle it to be placed under the heading of Priapeia.

835 HISTORY von den vier KETZER Prediger Ordens, zu Bern in der Eydgnoschafft verbrant. Ein schön Lied von der unbefleckten Entpfengknusz Marie, sm. 4to. curious woodcut on the titlepage, calf extra, gilt edges, bound by Pratt, 30*s* M.D.IX.
The four unfortunates who form the subject of this narrative were certainly guilty of imposture in deceiving a silly brother-monk, and playing the part of celestial visitants in his cell at night, but the real crime which brought them to the stake was their honest opposition to the silly doctrine of the Immaculate Conception.

836 JAROSLAI A S. ALEXIO Theologia historico-dogmatica, 3 vols. in 1, thick 4to. LARGE PAPER, stamped pigskin, rare, 36*s*
Jaurini (Raab) Streibig, 1738-40
Books printed at Raab, in Hungary, are very few and scarce. This is one of the earliest.

837 LOAZES (F. DE) TRACTATUS IN CAUSA MATRIMONII HENRICI VIII ET CATHARINÆ ANGLIÆ REGUM, sm. folio, fine copy in red morocco, gilt edges, £7. 7*s* Barchine in Officina C. Amorosii, 1531
VERY RARE. Loazes was the head of the Inquisition in Catalonia. This work treats curiously in detail the doubts and questions agitated in regard to Prince Arthur's relations with Catharine of Aragon, so as to justify the legality of her union with King Henry and to stigmatise the divorce as criminal. He never fails to bestow high praise throughout upon Henry's "most serene Majesty," treating the affair with Anne Bullen as caused entirely by wicked advisers.

Freeling's library*, £40.
Enprynted in the cyte of London in the Fletestreete in the sygne of ye sonne by WYNKYN DE WORDE, ye year of our Lorde M.CCCCC.VI
This second edition by Wynkin de Worde is excessively rare, and the copy is particularly desirable from its fine condition. The title and the last leaf have woodcuts, with the title block-printed above. COLLATION: a, 4 leaves; a, 6 leaves; b to x, in alternate sheets of four and eight leaves; aa to nn, in alternate sheets of four and eight leaves; oo and pp, in six leaves each; making altogether 218 leaves.

842 ——— lo stesso, dato in luce dagli Accad. della Crusca, 4to. portrait, vellum gilt, 12*s* Firenze, 1725
The language and the matter of this celebrated work of moral theology were considered sufficient to place Passavanti in the very highest rank of Italian literature, and in a foremost place amongst the doctors of the church. He died about the middle of the fourteenth century.

846 ——— the same, with a new title-page, in 1 vol. stout folio, calf, good copy, 30*s* ib. 1617
"Ouvrage célèbre, à cause de quelques passages singuliers qui s'y trouvent." Brunet.
The old story which relates that the author wrote this work standing with naked feet on cold marble, may well pass muster. The number of possible sins and peccadilloes in sexual matters which Sanchez evoked from his imagination, bespeak a mind so morbidly diseased as to approach insanity.

847 TESTIMONIE of ANTIQUITIE shewing the auncient Fayth in the Church of England, in Anglo-Saxon and English, 16mo. calf neat, from Sir Mark Sykes' library, 25*s* John Day, n. d. (1567)

Chiefly to shew that Transubstantiation was not a doctrine of the ancient English Church. The first piece is a Paschal sermon of the tenth century, followed by a letter of Abbot Ælfric, the Lord's Prayer, the Creed, the Commandments, etc. all Anglo-Saxon and English.

848 L'ISLE (W.) Divers ancient Monuments in the Saxon Tongue (Anglo-Saxon and English), shewing that the Lord's Prayer and the Creede were then used in the mother tongue, and also what opinion was held of the Sacrament of the body and blood of Christ, with a second edition of a TESTIMONY OF ANTIQUITY, sm. 4to. morocco extra, gilt edges, by Riviere, £2. 2*s* 1638

The author prefixes a long poetical dedication to the "Prince his Highness."

849 TURRECREMATA (Joannis de) Tractatus de venerabili Sacramento de Corpore Christi et contra communicantes sub utraque specie, sm. 4to. fine copy in half calf, VERY RARE, £7. 7*s*

Delf in Hollandia, s. a. et typ. nom. (cir. 1477)

Panzer mentions this work in the Supplement of the Annales, but without referring it to any date or printer. Hain similarly mentions it, while Brunet omits all notice of it; from which we may conclude that these bibliographers never saw the book. It bears at the end of the Colophon the escutcheons of the two printers who produced the first Dutch Bible, in 1477, the first known offspring of the Delft press. The present Treatise of Cardinal Torquemada, may perhaps dispute that honour, and claim to be even an older typographical monument.

The original credit of this great work belongs to Antonio Bosio, who wrote in Italian upon the subject. Aringhi re-cast the labours of his predecessor, and published them in Latin with considerable augmentations. This is one of the great text-books on the history of the early Christians, and their artistic remains.

Édition préférée aux autres, car les critiques de Pagi y sont inserées à leurs places; on y trouve des notes par Mansi et de plus des Index en 3 vols. qui ne sont pas dans l'edition de Rome.—Brunet.

The annals of Baronius furnish the complete and connected account of Christian affairs during the first twelve centuries of the Church, and with the Supplements of Raynaldus and Spondanus, and the Chronological Apparatus of Pagi and Mansi's Notes, being the History of the Church down to the year 1640 in one continuous narrative, introducing documents from the Papal Archives which serve to elucidate profane history at the same time, and to which, in the earlier portion more particularly, Baronius had access both as Cardinal and intimate friend and confessor to Pope Clement VIII.

These are the learned prefaces, occasional treatises, and ancient documents, which had appeared scattered through the Acta Sanctorum of the Bollandists, brought together in one corpus, and illustrated with numerous plates, facsimiles of records, seals, and designs, after the manner of Mabillon and Montfaucon.

This collection contains many interesting memorials, the result of long, active, and extended research. It is a book which has never yet been superseded, and no well furnished library of English History ought to be without it. The plates in this copy are in very fine state. 929 ORSI, ISTORIA ECCLESIASTICA (A.D. 1-656), 21 vols. 1746-62—Becchetti (F. A.) Continuazione (600-1378), 17 vols. 1770-88—Becchetti, Istoria degli ultimi quattro Secoli della Chiesa dallo Scisma d'Occidente al regnante sommo Pontefice Pio VI (1378-1787), 12 vols. 1788-97—together 50 vols. 4to. uniformly half bound, from the Library of Dr. Todd, Trin. Coll. Dublin, £16. 10*s* Roma, 1746-97

Cardinal Orsi's own part of the work is confined to the first six centuries; the concluding volume, the 21st of the series, was compiled from his papers by Bottari, his biographer. Becchetti's Continuation extended only to the fourteenth century, and was comprised in 17 vols. He then began the history of the last four centuries, and the 12th volume, the last of the series of 50 vols., brings the history of the Church down to the year 1587. The 38 vols. to the close of the 14th century, were reprinted at Rome in 1749-88, in 38 vols. 12mo., copies of which occasionally occur for sale at an average of £6. to £7.; and a later reprint of the same portion at Venice in 1822-26, in 42 pocket volumes, now out of print, may also be obtained at a similar price. The original quarto, however, is the only complete edition.

"I congratulate Italy on the happy production with which you have enriched it. M. Fleury had occasion for a writer to fill up the chasms in his history; for it must be confessed that he has but slightly touched a number of very important facts. Sometimes it is dangerous to be solicitous of being too concise—this gives sketches only, instead of finished pieces. I sincerely wish that your labour may meet with a brilliant recompense, not for your glory but for the glory of the Church."

Laire attributes this excessively rare edition to the Press of Günther Zainer; but Panzer thinks it was produced in Italy. It was perhaps printed in Bologna, by Azzoguidi or some other, about the time of the establishment of the press in that city. The paper-mark is the bull's head with a star or rose on the spike, and also the Cross-keys. On account of the rarity of this collection of S. This is still the best edition; for in spite of the faults of arrangement objected to in it, the reprint by Vallarsius with improvements and additions (Verona, 1734-42, 11 vols.) has contributed fresh errors of its own, especially in conjectural emendations without reference to MSS.

One of the best works published by the Benedictines. St. Hilary of Poitiers died in the year 368. He was one of the greatest lights of the Church, and signalised himself as a successful adversary of the Arians. Brunet describes the edition of his works published at Verona in 1730 as the best, but Thaller, in Wetzer's Kirchen-Lexicon, says: "die beste Ausgabe ist die durch Coustant besorgte, Paris, 1693; die schönste . . . von Sc. "The memory of Alcuin, Dean of York, will always be revered, not only on account of his genius and acquirements, but also for the important services he rendered to learning, during the eighth century. Being sent on an embassy by Offa, King of Mercia, to Charlemagne, the latter contracted so great an esteem and friendship for him, that he earnestly solicited, and at length prevailed upon him to settle in his court, and become his preceptor. 'His erudition,' says one of his biographers, 'was singularly great, his speech elegant, his style concise, simple, pure; in prose and verse he was equally polished.'"

The great Oxford man, Bradwardine, who died in 1349, is supposed to have nearly approached the eminence of an Augustine, in this his principal work against the Pelagians. It has also gained for him the reputation of a precursor of the sixteenth century Reformers and of modern Protestantism. Bradwardine was no less distinguished as a mathematician and astronomer. There is a book by him on the old subject that has baffled so many heads—the quadrature of the circle. See No. 823.

rique de son père. Les autres particularités de sa vie sont inconnues, mais ses ouvrages lui assurent un rang distingué parmi les auteurs de son temps. Conrad Celtes les a recueillis et publiés à Nuremberg en 1501 ; H.-L. Schurzfleisch en a aussi donné une édition à Wittemberg en 1707, mais cette réimpression, quoique correcte, est peu recherchée. Trithème attribue à Hrosvite un livre d'épigrammes, des lettres et les vies des papes Anastase 1er et Innocent 1er, mais ces ouvrages sont vraisemblablement perdus. On cite encore sous son nom une vie de Wilibald, évêque d'Eichstadt en 740 ; mais Fabricius prouve que c'est l'ouvrage d'une religieuse de Gandersheim, antérieure à Hrosvite. Les comédies de Hrosvite, dont le nom signifie (Rose blanche), sont au nombre de six, et roulent toutes sur les obstacles dont doit triompher la vertu des femmes. La pièce intitulée Gallicanus offre un caractère historique ; celle de Dulcitius est une pure comédie bouffone ; dans Callimaque on trouve la passion telle qu'on pouvait la ressentir au Xe et XIe siècles. Paphnuce nous montre ce qu'étaient alors les dissertations scholastiques ; Abraham offre des scènes réellement dramatiques ; et la Foi, l'Espérance et la Charité est une Comédie du genre allégorique. Ce théâtre si singulier, si original, nous donne la portée du siècle où il parut. De pareilles œuvres ne se produisent point isolées, et l'esprit humain ne se développe pas outre mesure dans une des branches de l'activité humaine pour rester stationnaire dans toutes les autres.—Borluut de Northdonck.

8. Hagiology, Martyrology, Passionals, Lives of Christ and the Saints.

1022 ACTA SANCTORUM, quotquot toto Orbe coluntur, collegit, digessit, notis illustravit Joannes BOLLANDUS, operam et studium contulit Godefr. Henschenius, editio novissima, curante Carnandet, Vols. I-LIV, (to the 14th October), folio, uncut, £50. Paris, 1863-68

A marvellous production of gigantic learning and unwearied industry. No portion of a mediæval history can be written without copious reference to the Acta Sanctorum; and, regarded from this point of view, there is nothing except the Monumenta Germaniæ of Pertz, and the Historiens des Gaules of Bouquet that can claim to rank with the vast work of the Bollandists. It cannot be forgotten that the Lives of the Saints include a history and biography of the most prominent figures in Christendom during a thousand years.

1023 BUTLER'S Lives of the Fathers, Martyrs, and other principal Saints, compiled from original monuments, 12 vols. 18mo. portraits, cloth, 12*s* Derby, cir. 1850

1024 DAT DUYTSCHE PASSIONAIL. Tzo der ere godes ys dit boych genomē usse einē boych dat men noemt Aurea legēda, dat ys tzo duytsch geheyschē dye gulde legende off dat Passionail, 2 vols. in 1 stout sm. folio, numerous very early woodcuts, coloured in the style of the Block-Books, fine copy in the original oak boards, covered with stamped leather, EXTREMELY RARE, unknown to Panzer, £20.

Cœllen, Ludovuich van Renchē, 1485

In the Cologne dialect of Low German with a supplement which concerns chiefly the Saints of Cologne. This work is for the most part a translation from Conrad Winter's Latin edition of 1481 of the Golden Legend, but varies towards the end. It includes one of St. Thomas of Canterbury. Caxton probably translated his Golden Legend from the first edition of this book. Panzer only mentions one book by this printer—whom he calls Ludovicus de Reuchen—a Latin Psalter printed one year before the present volume.

1025 PASSIONAEL. Hyr heuet syk an dat Passi | onael: Unde dat Leuend der | hylghen: Unde to deme ersten | dat SAMER DEEL . . . On fol. 207: Hyr heuet syk au dat WINTER DEEL . . . In fine: Hyr endighet sik dat passionael efte der Hyllighen levendt mit velen nyen merckliкē schonē historien, . . . uth deme latine in dat dudesck ghebracht, stout folio, 418 leaves, with many quaint and rude WOODCUTS, probably used here for the first time, all the cuts entirely free from colour, singularly fine sound copy, calf, VERY RARE, £8. Lübeck, Arnd, 1492

This work differs entirely from the preceding in arrangement and in language. They may be looked upon as in general two independent versions of the Aurea Legenda.

1026 PASSIONEL efte dat leuent der hyllighen to dude uth dem latino mit uelen nven hystorien unde leren, stout sm. folio, numerous woodcuts, fine copy, but wanting leaves 18 and 55 of the second part, and a corner of leaf 73 in the first part torn off, in the original oak boards, covered with stamped pigskin, £2. 5*s* Lübeck, S. Arnd. 1507

This scarce edition is in Platt-Deutsch like the two preceding, but has several additional legends including even contemporary matter.

sine typographi nomine, Haarlem, 1483

THE ONLY COPY KNOWN OF THIS BOOK, WHICH IS THE FIRST PRINTED AT HAARLEM WITH A DATE. It is consequently a typographical monument of extreme importance, in view of the long Costerian controversy and the extravagant pretensions put forward for Haarlem by the Dutch bibliographers. The book consists of Signatures a to l in eights, the last two leaves of l being blank. The preservation of these leaves is one of the most extraordinary features of the book. The woodcuts are very singular specimens of rude and early art, yet the faces are well done.

"Les caractères sont ceux de JACOB BELLAERT, dont la marque typogr. se trouve au v°. du 86e ou dernier feuillet. Le 1er feuillet est blanc au r°. et contient au vo. une gravure sur bois qui représente le Christ en discours avec les Pharisiens.

Les gravures sur bois dont ce livre est orné, au nombre de 32, proviennent de G. Leeu à Gouda qui s'en est servi, ainsi que de 34 autres pour sa Passion de 1482 (Holtrop 419). En 1488 Claes Leeu à Anvers s'est servi des mêmes planches (de toutes, au nombre de 66);—en 1490 Peter van Os à Zwolle (de 3 de ces planches seulement), et en 1496 les Frères conférenciers (Collacie-broeders) à Gouda (de toutes les 66.) M. Enschedé, qui a observé ces particularités, y ajoute dans une note au commènc. de cet ouvrage; 'Il est digne de remarque que Geraert Leeu s'est servi depuis 1484 des mêmes caracteres avec lesquels les livres de Bellaert sont imprimés; ils sont donc probablement taillés à Harlem.'—Dans la 9e livr. des Monuments Typogr. de M. Holtrop on trouve un fac-simile de cette ouvrage rarissime."—P. Deschamps.

1051 PINDER, Speculum PASSIONIS Domini Nostri Jesu Christi, folio, 40 large very beautiful woodcuts, full of expression and vigour, by Hans Schäufelein and G. Glockendon, fine copy, brown morocco extra, gilt edges, by Capé, £7. 7*s* Nurembergæ, Fed. Peypus, 1519

The name of the translator gives especial value to the French version of Strauss.

1055 TESAURO SPIRITUALE, cum le Epistole et Evangelii historiate: cum le Meditatione de Sancto Bonaventura, sm. folio, 63 large and well executed woodcuts within arabesque borders, the title block-printed, calf, £36. Mediolani, per Guilermos Fratres Rothomagenses, 1498

Excessively rare, not cited by any Bibliographer. The present copy is in a state of perfect preservation. On the first guard leaf is a long bibliographical note by Bart. Gamba. The text appears to be an adaptation of some similar work which the anonymous translator had seen in Spain, but the woodcuts are original, and so remarkable for artistic merit that they deserve to be traced to their proper author.

This singularly prophetical work was first printed in Latin in 1508, and entitles the author to rank amongst the first of the Reformers. He styles himself an unworthy priest, and can hardly therefore be identical with the Joseph Grünpeck who wrote on the morbus gallicus and is described as medicus. The second chapter is based on predictions from the sermons "of the holy man, the prophet and vicar of Christ, who now through all towns of German and Welsch land—calls upon men to return and repent." The author dwells upon the depravity of churchmen and exhorts his readers to combat the sins and wickedness of the time "with the weapons of a laudable Reformation, alteration, and conversion of, everything."

An excessively rare book, of which it seems that only one other copy is known, which is cited by Brunet on the authority of a private catalogue. The old Toulousan language in which it is written is very remarkable, from a linguistic point of view. The book is in signatures a to p, the first and the last two in six, the rest in eight leaves.

Joachim Hopper, the Chancellor of Philip II, caused a cross of gold to be made adorned with gems of the twelve gems mentioned in the Apocalypse. His grandson Caius Antonius decorated the base of it with sacred relics, and in the present description he specifies the gems and various notices of them in the Scriptures, with curious extracts and observations.

Wittemberg, Hans Lufft, 1527

It was supposed that the misfortunes of the Romish Church had been foreseen and foretold in these curious soothsayings of Lichtenberger. This caused Luther to write a preface to them, which is in itself very interesting, pointing out the purely astrological nature of the productions. The truth of the science does not seem to have been at all doubted by the great Reformer.

These pseudo-revelations, so unkindly fathered upon the good St. Methodius, are very curious in themselves as exhibiting the state of feeling in Europe during the fifteenth century with regard to the domination of the Turks; and the hopes and wishes of the Christian populations, based upon a long succession of legends.

VERY RARE. Dibdin had never seen it, and only dscribed it after Herbert, Hazlitt does not mention it at all, and Lowndes merely states the existence of the impression without specifying any copy. Besides the above copy which fetched £31. at Gardner's sale. I have no memoranda of sales of any, except an imperfect one.

Next after Caxton, the name of his pupil Wynkin de Worde is most famous in the annals of English typography. Although by birth a Lorrainer, he devoted himself to England, and did more than any other of the early English printers to spread knowledge by means of the press. So highly are his productions esteemed that a copy of the Contemplacyon of Sinners, published by him in 1499, fetched at Sotheby's about the beginning of May last year (1870) the enormous sum of £210.

1143 [PHELIPEAUX (M.)] Relation de l'Origine, du Progrès et de la Condemnation du Quietisme répandu en France, 2 vols. 18mo. fine copy in old French red MOROCCO, gilt marbled edges, £1. 12*s* s. l. 1732

This curious posthumous work by a bitter adversary of Fénelon was published anonymously and secretly so as to avoid public condemnation. This fate however it did not evade, as the work was forbidden, and ordered to be destroyed by Cardinal Fleury. Phelipeaux died in 1708, leaving instructions that the Relation was not to be printed till twenty years after his death.

An extraordinary work upon the Virgin, and all the graces obtainable through her influence. She is figured as a fleece, an olive-tree, a bush, a vine, a window, a ladder, a bed-chamber, an oven, and other such curious objects; and the woodcuts correspond in singularity with the text. This book affords the only instance in which Ulrich Pinder appears as a printer, for it is impossible to understand the colophon otherwise.

Bound up at the end of Vol. I is a Manuscript, written circa 1500, containing various Sermons in German, by "Maister Hainrich," preached to the Prioress, &c.

A set of devotional meditations upon the incidents of the Saviour's life as represented in the pictures which Torquemada had ordered to be painted in the church of the Minerva at Rome. The woodcuts are curious: it is to be supposed they correspond to the paintings.

1149 UBERTINI DE CASALI, Liber qui intitulatur Arbor Vitæ Crucifixæ Jesu, folio, marginal MS. notes, vellum, 18*s* Venetiis, 1500
A singular visionary work, full of religious rapture and ecstacy, tracing in a mystic way to Jesus himself the foundation of the Franciscan order. It is said to have suggested the famous Liber Conformitatum of Bartolommeo Albizzi, in which the lives of S. Francis and of Christ are paralleled, and which was of course considered to be blasphemous.

A very interesting book. The Culdees (Recluses or Servants of God) were the order of Monks established by St. Columba in the sixth century in the island of Iona. They are supposed to have taught Christianity in a form independent of the Romish ritual.

1159 Dominicans. BURGI (Tho. de) HIBERNIA DOMINICANA sive HISTORIA PROVINCIÆ HIBERNIÆ, in qua nedum omnia, quæ ad memoratam attinent Provinciam, et cœnobia ejus tam intra quam extra Regnum Hiberniæ constituta (interjectis singulorum Fundatorum Genealogiis) exhibentur, sed etiam plura Regulares generatim sumptos Clerumque secularem et res civiles Hiberniæ atque etiam Magnæ Britanniæ spectantia, CUM SUPPLEMENTO, 4to. calf neat, from the library of the Marquis of Hastings, £10. Colon. Agr. 1762-72

One of the most interesting volumes relating to the History of Ireland. The Supplement, comprising pp. 728-950, is of extreme rarity. Although the title bears the imprint of Cologne, it has been clearly ascertained that it was produced under the author's inspection, by a printer named Edmund Finn, at Kilkenny in Ireland.

In most copies of Burke's Hibernia Dominicana, five leaves, pp. 137-146 inclusively, are wanting, having been SUPPRESSED BY AUTHORITY; this copy has these castrations, which are of very rare occurrence.

A valuable collection made up by some careful amateur about the year 1770, and then bound. It would be well if similar efforts were always used to give a durable form to the satirical and ephemeral literature of the day, which often contain important material for history.

Cali* (Caley), 1553

This book, dedicated to Princess Mary, consists of the extracted and versified opinions of the fathers, great prelates, and doctors of the church, and even of the heretic leaders, including Luther, Bucer, Melanchthon, and others, concerning Transubstantiation. It is however unquestionable that many of the authorities so cited would have some difficulty in recognizing their offspring. On her accession to the throne Mary made him Bishop of Winchester, but Queen Elizabeth ejected him from his see.

s. l. & a. sed Argentorati, circa 1525

VERY RARE: a copy like the present, in beautiful old morocco, and stamped with the seldom-occurring escutcheon of a distinguished collector, is naturally of much greater value than an ordinary one. Luther's letter in acknowledgment of the dedication to him, is prefixed to the second volume, with the date of 1524.

1216 BECON'S (Thomas) WORKS, whiche he hath hitherto made and published, with diverse other newe Bookes added to the same, heretofore never set forth in print, 3 vols. in 2, folio, Black Letter, leaves wanting in each volume, in the original oak boards covered with stamped leather, but loose in the covers, very rare, £3. 10*s* John Daye, 1560-64

A slightly defective copy was recently sold by me for £14.

I cannot trace the sale of a single perfect copy of this book during the last forty years. A copy wanting folios 1—9 in Vol. II. fetched at Sotheby's, 1861, £20.; another wanting three leaves was priced in a bookseller's catalogue, 1866, £18. 18*s*.

VERY RARE. These works of "the Bloody Butcher," Bishop Bonner, especially the Articles, created much controversy and bitter feeling, both at that time, when Bale answered them, and ever since, even down to the period of the Tractarian movement when they formed the groundwork of a treatise published in 1842 to attack the new Oxford school.

The Homilies have at the end a leaf of Tetastrichon and a Dialogue between man and the Ayre, which Lowndes incorrectly imagined to belong to another edition of which he assumed the existence. The two chief works in this volume are the Doctrine and Homilies, but the Articles and the Injunction seem to be by far the rarest.

Humphrey Dyson was a London Notary-Public who published a collection of Queen Elizabeth's Proclamations in 1618.

1218 CHALMERS (David) CAMERARII (Davidis, Scoti) de Scotorum fortitudine, doctrina, et pietate; ac de ortu et progressu haeresis in regnis Scotiae & Angliae libri IV. small 4to. a good sound copy in vellum, VERY RARE, £2. 10*s* Paris. 1631

"Livre rare et recherché en Angleterre."—Brunet. Hanrott's copy fetched £5. 7*s* 6*d*.

Brunet has two separate articles concerning this writer, one under Camerarius, the other under his Gallicized name Chambre, without apparently being aware that they represented only one man.

the Duke hys Grace of Somerset, as appeareth by hys Epystle set before the same, 12mo. sheet M supplied in contemporary MS. calf neat, £3. Lond. Gwalter Lynne, 1550

VERY RARE : Sir Mark Sykes' copy sold for £10. 10*s*, the present one fetched at Bandinel's sale in 1861, £5.. The Protector Duke of Somerset saw the work in MS. during his confinement in the Tower, and it afforded him so much comfort that on his release, he caused it to be printed and graced it with a preface. The book has no indication that he was not the author; but it appears that the original German was by Werdmüller, and the translation by the great English reformer Coverdale. The former owner, "Thomas C * * * London, Habardasher," about 1570, has added several prayers in MS. at beginning and end, which are very curious.

1220 CRANMER (Archbp. T.) Answer unto a crafty and sophisticall Cavillation devised by Stephen Gardiner late Byshop of Winchester agaynst the trewe and godly doctrine of the moste holy Sacrament of the Body and Bloud of our Saviour Jesu Christe, sm. folio, with woodcut frontispiece of the burning of Cranmer, Black Letter, curious MS. notes, by T. Aitken, £3. 15*s* John Daye, 1580

A very large and curious copy, shewing the work to have been printed on paper used previously for some other book with headings only.

1221 FYSSHER (Johan, bysshop of Rochester) This treatyse concerning the fruytful saynges of Dauyd the kynge and prophete in the seven penytencyall psalmes. Devyded in seven sermons, was made and compyled by the ryght reverente fader in god Johan Fyssher, doctoure of dyvynyte and bysshop of Rochester, at the exortacion and sterynge of the moost excellēt princesse Margarete coūtesse of Rychemoūt and Derby and moder to our soverayne lorde kynge Henry the vii, sm. 4to. with the portcullis on the title and Caxton's mark at the end, blue morocco extra, gilt edges, from the libraries of Mr. Utterson and the Rev. T. Corser, £28. Emprynted at London in the Fletestrete . . . . by Wynkyn de Worde . . . . 1509

VERY RARE. Dr. Dibdin only mentions a single copy of this edition. There are, however, two others known : one in the Lambeth library, the other in the British Museum. Besides these, the few copies (perhaps three) that have turned up during forty years, were all defective.

1222 FISHER (Bishop). Assertionis Lutheranæ Confutatio, sm. 4to. in the original oak boards, covered with stamped pigskin, with clasps, 20*s* 1524

This edition (unnoticed by Lowndes) which bears a woodcut of Henry VIII's arms on title and at end, is without place or printer's name, but was probably printed at Basel.

1223 FRITH. A Boke made by John Fryth, Prysoner in the Tower of London, answerynge unto M. Mores letter, which he wrote agaynst the fyrste lytle treatyse that John Fryth made concernynge the Sacrament, 12mo. Black Letter, calf extra, antique style, bound by F. A stout Roman Catholic reply to a "wicked Sermon" by Bishop Jewell, regarding the doctrine of the "Real Presence." The author begins his preface thus : —"Detesting your heresie yet loving your person."

MS. corrections and interlineations from the second edition (1550). He writes in a note at the end, which alleges the great rarity of the volume :—"This first edition is though the worst sold very deare by those yt know ye booke." It was no doubt the martyrdom of the good Bishop in Queen Mary's time which created such a desire for and consequent rarity of his writings.

The first piece is portion of the celebrated controversy between Bishop Jewell and the Jesuit Harding, in which the remarkable Apologia of the Bishop was given to the world.

VERY RARE first edition. A copy having the title in facsimile was priced in a London bookseller's catalogue in 1858, £3. 13*s* 6*d*.

vately printed by Cardinal Pole, and after some few copies had been distributed, suppressed and destroyed by the author. Cranmer was ordered by the king to reply to it, and Henry failing to induce Pole to return to England offered a reward for the procurement of his death at Rome. Even the Cardinal's own friends looked unfavourably upon the book, which was the principal cause of its suppression by him. So rare was the Defensio in the last century, that Harley Earl of Oxford endeavoured in vain to procure a copy of it.

The appendix of Ribadeneira, which is entirely additional in this edition, occupies 183 pp.

This work of the Jesuit Sanders, although formerly stigmatized as a false and pernicious production, was not long ago eulogized in the Saturday Review as the best existing History of the Reformation in England.

Very fine copy of an edition unmentioned by the bibliographers, and which appears to have been amongst the earliest publications of the celebrated reformer. On the title there is a large portrait of Luther in his monastic costume, and in the dedication he styles himfelf "Martinus Luther Augustiner." He describes with grim humour the persecution of his book on the Indulgence published two years previously, and the attacks made upon him by Emser and other Romish writers.

1248 BREDENBACHII (Matt.) de Dissidiis Ecclesie componendis Sententiæ, Coloniæ, 1557—Apologia de eo quod visus esset ascerbius in Lutherum scripsisse, in libro de Dissidiis Ecclesiæ, Col. 1557—another edition of the same two works in one vol. Ant. 1588—together 3 vols. 12mo. uniform in calf gilt, gilt edges, 12*s* 1557-1558

A violent Roman Catholic attack on Luther in the de Dissidiis, and a reluctant apology afterwards for the worst part of his personal abuse. This was elicited by a warning from the Duke of Cleves, not as he asserts from motives of Christian charity.

A justly celebrated work, published by one of the most eminent amongst the Reformers, the friend of Reuchlin and Ulrich von Hutten. It was to Gratius that the Epistolæ obscurorum virorum were addressed.

1253 GALLI (Nic.) Catechismus Predigsweise gestelt für die Kirche zu Regenspurg, wider allerlei newerung und verfelschung, sm. 4to. woodcut titlepage and bibliographical woodcuts through the volume, signed OM, blue morocco extra, gilt edges, by F. Bedford, £6. 16*s* Regenspurg, 1554

Gallus was a pugnacious Reformer, the disciple of Luther, but managed to quarrel with Melanchthon and others of his associates. Curious references to the doctrines of the Anabaptists, the Zwinglians, and others, are found in his preface. At the end of the Catechism is added a singular relation of an imaginary dream, in which Luther appears to Gallus and complains of the deteriorations taking place amongst the reformers. This piece, entitled Klagrede, was intended as a reply to the Querela Lutheri, published in March 1554. The books end with a funeral sermon by Hieron. Rauscher on the Pfaltzgräfin Elizabeth.

1254 LUTHER'S WORKS, ORIGINAL EDITIONS: MARTINUS LUTHER von des Christlichen Standes Besserung, 1520—De Votis Monasticis, 1521—Von Menschenn Lere zu meyden, 1522—Vom eelichen Leben, 1522—Das Elltern die Kinder zur Ehe nicht zwingen noch hindern sollen, EXCESSIVELY RARE, 1522—Trostlichs Büchleyn ynn aller Widderwertickeyt, 1525—Vertrag zwischen dem Bund zu Schwaben und den Bawrn am Bodensee und Algen, black letter, very rare, 1525—DER BAPST ESEL, durch Melanchthon gedeutet mit D. The great rarity and interest of such a collection as the above must be apparent to every collector.

1255 NAOGEORGI Regnum Papisticum et alia Poemata, 12mo. BEST EDITION, calf gilt, rare, 30*s* (Basileæ), 1559

The Regnum Papisticum is looked upon by Roman-Catholic theologians as one of the most detestable productions of the followers of Luther, and as the very worst of the writings of Naogeorgus. The satirical power and ability of his caustic pen placed him in the foremost rank of the Reformers, although he afterwards lost the good will of Melanchthon.

This is a modified version of the old legend of the Pope Joan, making her Agnes an English-woman.

1257 WURM (Mathis, von Geydertheym) Balaams Eselin von dem Bann das er umb Geldtschuld und andre geringe Sachen nit mag christlich gefelt werden, sm. 4to. large woodcut on the titlepage, very rare, £2. 10*s* 1524

There is no note of the place or the printer's name, which indeed could scarcely be expected considering the date (1524) and the character of this curious little book. It is a treatise against the wickedness of the pontiff and his followers in arrogating the power of excommunication and absolution. The daring author goes so far as to use these words "die Römisch Kirch würd sein die Hur von der Ezechiel sagt." I cannot find any mention made by bibliographers of the book or the writer.

1258 TRACTATUS. Epistola de miseria Curatorum seu plebanorum, curious woodcut dated 1489 on the titlepage, no date, place, or printer's name—Hutten (Ulrichi de) Οὔτις: Nemo, curious woodcut on the titlepage, portrait inserted, Augustæ, s. a.—Collationes quas dicuntur fecisse mutuo rex Salomon sapientissimus et Marcolphus facie deformis et turpissimus tamen ut fertur eloquentissimus, sine ullâ notâ—Syntaxis Brechtana in metra sane quam facilia nuper coacta etc. Item in artem metricam Introductorium, woodcuts on the titlepage, Antw. per M. Hillenium Hoochstratanum, s. a.—in one vol. sm. 4to. calf, 30*s cir.* 1500-20

The dialogue of Marcolphus and Solomon is very curious. The former, a sort of Æsop, ridicules all the acts and sayings of the king, as recorded in the Bible, answering him in short proverbial and satirical language.

1259 TRACTATUS. Ain schöner Dialogus oder Gesprech, so ain Prediger Münch Bembus genant, und ain Burger Silenus, und sein Narr, mit ainander habent, woodcut on the titlepage. Sine ulla notâ—Tractatulus Medicinalis [Regimen Salernitanum] quem Doctores Parisienses miserunt Regi Angliæ, in Latin and German verse, with woodcut on the titlepage and another in two compartments on the reverse, Argent. per M. Hipfuf, 1519—Hoechstrassen (Jac.) Tractatus magistralis declarans quam graviter peccent querentes auxilium a maleficis, woodcut on the last page, Colon. per M. de Werdena, 1510—Practica der Pfaffen, Anfangk unnd Ausganck desz gantzen Bapstumbs, darin wird angezeygt das alles was der Bapst inhalt nichts anders ist dann ein Raup vom Keysserthumb, many exceedingly curious woodcuts, Getruckt auff dem Campoflor. Kalen. Undecembres, in 1 vol. very rare, fine copies, calf extra, gilt edges, bound by Pratt, £12 12*s*

The last piece in this volume was translated into English and printed under the title of "The beginning and ending of all Popery" by Walter Lynne.

1260 NEGRO (Francesco, Bassanese). Della Tragedia intitolato Libero Arbitrio, editione seconda con accrescimento, 12mo. green morocco extra, gilt edges, £2. 10*s* (? Geneva,) 1550

Negro was an Italian Reformer, the disciple of Zwingli; and became a Socinian after the date of this book.

"Pièce aussi rare que recherchée des curieux.—Le dénouement de cette tragédie est que la grace justifiante tranche la tête au roi francarbitre et que le pape est reconnu pour l'anti-Christ."—Bibl. Universelle.

John Day, n. d. (cir. 1550)

The learned translator, who was daughter of Sir Anthony Cooke, and became afterwards Lady Anne Bacon, was little over twenty years of age when this volume was printed. Lowndes does not mention this edition, but only another, containing fourteen out of the twenty-five Sermons, which was probably the first and partial issue of the book. Ochino is considered by Roman Catholics to have been a vile heretic indeed, one who supported the pernicious doctrine of Polygamy. He had been the Vicar-General of the Capuchins, an order then recently established.

A rare book, printed about the year 1556.

A very fierce attack upon the Sermons of Ochino.

1271 ——— idem opus, 1544—DEDEKINDI GROBIANUS de Morum simplicitate, a curious satirical poem, Franc. 1550—in 1 vol. 12mo. original stamped hogskin binding, £2. 10*s* 1544-50

A collection of Pasquinades against the Papacy and the Roman Church, edited chiefly from Italian writers, by Cœlius Secundus Curio, when after his flight from Italy and the Inquisition, he settled at Basel. One is almost ashamed to repeat the often-told story that Heinsius gave 100 golden ducats for his copy in which he wrote:

"Roma meos fratres igni dedit, unica phœnix
Vivo aureisque veneo centum Heinsio."

EXCESSIVELY RARE, totally unknown to Lowndes. This work was subsequently translated into English by T. Stocker and printed in 1584.

Viret was the precursor of Calvin in Geneva, and is considered to have been the most learned and eminent of all the Reformers of Romance Switzerland. The above is a satirical exposition of the Mass, which he treats as a ridiculous theatrical performance, and commentates in detail.

Strassburg, J. Grieninger, 1520

The sermons of the great Strasbourg preacher, Johann Gailer of Kaisersberg, exercised a great influence in his time. They are characterised by a peculiar humour that approaches the grotesque, as might be imagined from his having once taken the "Ship of Fools" for the text of a series of Sermons.

1286 LESLIE (James). Natalis Domini relucet in Academiâ Marischallanâ Universitatis Aberdonensis, smallest 4to. title, dedication to Lord Keith, and dedication to the reader, 3 leaves; Oratio, 2 leaves, sd. rare, 20*s* Aberdoniis, 1661

1296 BONA, Rerum Liturgicarum libri duo, 4to. portrait, old calf gilt, £2. 2*s* Parisiis, 1672

This work is a lasting monument of Cardinal Bona's profound learning. It was reprinted several times afterwards.

This is a very valuable book, but rare and little known. No copy seems to have been sold since Rock's sale at Sotheby's in 1857. The antiquity and origin of ecclesiastical ceremonies, and their ancient significance, are subjects of no little interest.

1302 GERBERTUS de Cantu et Musicâ Sacrâ a primâ Ecclesiæ ætate usque ad presens tempus, 2 vols. 4to. numerous plates of facsimiles of ancient music, calf, 36*s* San Blas. 1774

Marcellus the Archbishop of Corfu, published this valuable work as his own, dedicating it to Leo X. It was soon found out to be really an unpublished one by Piccolomini the editor of the first Pontifical (1485), and thereupon the Pope decreed the suppression of all the copies. They have consequently become very rare.

Breviary.

1307 BREVIARIUM ROMANUM, 4 vols. 8vo. plates, blue morocco extra, gilt edges, £2. 8*s* Romæ, 1835

Horæ, Offices, Prayer Books, Lectionaries.

1308 HORE DIUE VIRGINIS MARIE scd'm verum vsum Roma- | num cum aliis multis, 12mo. PRINTED ON VELLUM, 104 leaves, Roman Letter, with 18 large illustrations, the text within pretty borders, containing about 500 small engravings of Biblical Scenes and figures, etc. parts of the Calendar, the headings, and the marginal extracts printed in red ink, the initials illuminated, fine copy, in ancient smooth red morocco, gilt edges, £20. Paris, Thielmannū Keruer, 1504

This edition is singular in not having a Dance of Death. The present volume would exactly correspond with the edition described by Brunet (Heures Gothiques, No. 175) but for the following variations: the first year of the Calendar is, correctly, 1497 (not, as he says, incorrectly 1487); Kerver's mark and name appear only on page 1, not as Brunet asserts, on the last page also, where the printer's name is seen in the imprint, and there is no mark; besides two other trifling discrepancies which need not be noted.—Brunet mentions two copies, one on paper, which sold at Solar's sale for 475 francs, and the other on vellum, in M. Didot's library.

1309 HORE INTEMERATE DEI GENITRICIS VIRGINIS MA | RIE secūdum usum Romanum totaliter ad lon | gum, etc. large 8vo. gothic letter, printed on fine vellum, printer's mark on title, and 18 large engravings, the text entirely within engraved borders, containing a great profusion of smaller illustrations, entirely different from those of the preceding article, and including a series of the Dance of Death, the initial and capital letters illuminated, beautifully bound in smooth dark morocco, elaborately tooled in the Grolier style, with red morocco linings, and joints, gilt edges, by Riviere, £36. Paris, T. Kerver, le dernier iour de Mars, 1511 (? 1506)

COLLATION: 100 leaves, consisting of signatures a to n iv. This edition is not mentioned by Brunet. The date 1511 appears to be a typographical error for 1506 (easily made from the similarity in form of the Gothic v and x), as the Calendar begins with the latter date (1506-30).

1310 HORÆ DIVÆ VIRGINIS MARIÆ secundum verum Usum Romanum, cum Calendario, sm. 8vo. signatures a—n in eights and o in four, in Roman type, PRINTED ON VELLUM, within elegant woodcut borders, composed of sacred and grotesque subjects (including DANCE OF DEATH), with the large and small wood engravings UNCOLOURED, fine copy, with capitals illuminated in gold and colours, green morocco, joints, gilt edges, £15. 15*s* *Paris, T. This edition is not mentioned by Brunet.

PRINTED ON Vellum, with capital letters and Miniatures, finely illuminated in gold and colours, brown morocco extra, blind tooling, gilt edges in the antique style by Thompson of Paris, £15.

Paris, Egidius Hardouyn pro Germano Hardouyn, 1510

This fine and very rare edition, printed in Roman (not Gothic) characters, has the usual engraving of Dejanira's rape by the Centaur on the first page, but the other two large illustrations are of rare design, and give this volume a noteworthy place amongst the numerous Books of Hours published about the same time, in which a regular series of designs is constantly reproduced. It agrees with No. 235 of Brunet's list, which from his absence of special mention, he most likely never saw.

1312 HORÆ BEATÆ MARIÆ secundum Usum Romanum, 16mo. gothic letter, printed on vellum, with the engravings and capitals illuminated in gold and colours, olive morocco extra, gilt marbled edges, by Lortic, RARE, £5. Paris, Egidius Hardouyn (1514)

The Calendar is for nine years from 1514-22.

1313 HEURES A LUSAIGE DE ROMME tout au long sans riens requerir [avec le Calendrier et l'Almanach (1515-1530)] large 8vo. gothic letter, printed on vellum, within very elegant engraved borders, composed of sacred and grotesque subjects, including a fine DANCE OF DEATH, with the large and small MINIATURES, capital letters, etc. richly illuminated in gold and colours in the original beautifully ornamented binding, covered with gold tooling in the Grolier style, painted in compartments, gilt edge, but rebacked, from Mr. Slade's library, £25.

Paris, par Gillet Hardouyn (1515)

This copy sold for £39. in the Libri sale.

This is probably No. 245 of Brunet's list. It has 88 leaves (A to L in eights). The Dance of Death is in quite a different style from all the others. The illumination is done in opaque colours, and in such a way that it may almost be said the original engravings are replaced by contemporary drawings. The illustrations are different from those of the 1510 edition above, and that of 1500 (No. 1363).

1314 HEURES a lusaige de Rōme | toutes au long sans requerir: avec aucūs des | miracles de nostre dame, etc. roy. 8vo. Paris, par N. Hygman, pour Jehan de Bric (almanac commencing 1515)

Not mentioned by Brunet, who, however, states that a copy of a later edition (1516) fetched 163 francs at the Pins-Montbrun sale in 1861.—The first page bears an engraving of the De Coucy Coat of Arms, illuminated, beneath which are written the words "Jacques de Coucy."

VERY RARE and curious. The volume begins with a Calendar in Italian, and finishes with 72 pages of Prayers in that language, as used by the "Fratelli di S. Maria dell' Humiltà;" they commence strangely enough with the Office for the universal Reform of the Church.

1326 PSALTERIUM CUM PRECIBUS et Calendario Latine, sm. 4to. MS. on Vellum, with illuminated capitals in the grotesque and interlaced ancient English style, one of the letters containing a design of two knights combating in the armour of the 12th century, calf, £10. circ. 1190
Only for the entry of St. Thomas Becket in the Calendar, this volume would appear to be older than the date above attributed to it. The character of the handwriting is strikingly archaic. The MS. has come from the Isle of Wight, where it was popularly considered to have been in the possession of Charles I while in Carisbrook.

Editio Princeps of the Roman Pontificale, and therefore a volume of VERY GREAT IMPORTANCE, in nowise secondary to the best edition, which is that of 1596. It was edited by Piccolomini for Innocent VIII, in consequence of the discrepancies existing in various copies of the MS. Pontifical used before that time. It is one of the finest books of its kind. The typography and the paper are both worthy of the greatest admiration, and reflect infinite credit upon the priest-printer who produced the volume.

Paris. opera Wolffgangi Hopylii impensis Francisci Byrchman, 28 Nov. 1514

The Marriage Service is, as usual, in the quaint old English of the fifteenth century. COLLATION: title and other preliminaries, 8 leaves; text, folios 1—86, 89—170, being signatures a to y, in eights, except I, b, x, y, which are in sixes; incipit proprium in festivitates, signatures A to H in eights and J in ten leaves; commune sanctorum, folios 1—64, being signatures A to H in eights. The above is a very fine and beautiful copy of an extraordinarily rare volume.

The rarity of this edition is so great that Lowndes in mentioning it does not specify any copy as being known to him. No copy has occurred at any public sale within my knowledge except the above.

The unusual name of Cæsaris Burgus is given to Salisbury in some quaint Latin verses in the title, recommending the purchase of this improved book to the priests. They begin thus:

Sanctorum qui sancta soles intrare sacerdos
Hoc missale novum (si michi credas) emas.

1351 MISSALE AD USUM INSI | GNIS ECCLESIE SARISBURIENSIS | NUNC RECENS TYPIS ELEGANTIORIBUS EXARATUM | HISTORIIS NOVIS VARIIS AC PROPRIIS INSI | GNITUM, etc. folio, Gothic letter, beautifully printed in black and red ink, with Music and numerous fine woodcuts and large capitals, two leaves of the Canon printed on Vellum, large engravings, one of the Crucifixion, the other of God the Father, very fine copy in the original oak boards, notwithstanding a few small wormholes, recovered by Broadbere, who has preserved the old stamped sides, gilt edges, with brass clasps and corners, EXCESSIVELY RARE, £84.

last, as they ceased to be printed in 1557, shortly before Elizabeth's accession to the throne. Most of the copies that survived the reforming rage of the sixteenth century were mutilated, and Mr. Maskell (Mon. Rit. I. lxiv.) notices that the fine large wood-cut of God the Father, crowned with a papal tiara, and surrounded by the apostolical symbols, on the second vellum leaf of the Canon, "is a rare picture, and seldom found in printed Missals." The same accomplished critic, in his work on Ancient Liturgies (pref. p. vii.), remarks in reference to all the old English service-books, that "Of late years the demand for them has increased tenfold, and their price, always great, has naturally increased with the demand, so as to put them, when they do occur, beyond the reach of men who are nevertheless the most anxious to obtain them." The last two sheets I and K are occupied by a curious Accentuarium to guide the priests in their pronunciation of the Latin tongue. As a specimen of the English that occurs in the volume, it may not be out of place to quote here a portion of the marriage service—"I N. take the N. to my weddyd husbōde to have et to hold fro thys day forwarde for bett' for wurs, for richere, for porer, in sikenesse & in helthe to be honowr & buxum in bed & at bord tyll deth us departe yf holy chyrche wyl it ordeyne & therto I plyght the my trouth."

The Processionals are amongst the rarest of the English liturgical printed books, because in the first place, there were less of them needed for publication, and in the second place, they were most eagerly sought for and destroyed by the Protestants of Elizabeth's reign, as, from their very name and nature, they were supposed to be specially devoted to the idolatrous ceremonies of the Romish ritual. Of the several editions said to have been printed in the year 1555 of the above Processional, (perhaps their difference consisted only in the varying title-pages added by the publishers), I can only find mention of four copies having occurred for sale during the past five and thirty years.

The Books of Ritual of the Scottish Church which were saved from destruction in the great Ecclesiastical revolution of the 16th Century, were very few; and it has so happened that through negligence in this country, or by reason of the civil tumults of France, the many Offices which were in use throughout the Dioceses of Scotland have become so rare, that only one Breviary and one Missal are now known to exist. The Breviary is that which was used in the extensive Diocese of Aberdeen, in the Province of Saint Andrew; it was printed by Chapman, the first printer established in Scotland, in 1502 and 1510, but is now of such rarity, that no more than four copies (and no one of these altogether perfect) can be traced.

Guillaume Merlin printed a book of Horæ in the year 1548. As for the last piece in the volume, it apparently wants title and preliminaries ; but is probably the same book as that stated by Brunet (Vol. II, 1221) to be the FIRST PRINTED AT RHEIMS.

On the helmet above is written the name Guillermus. There are several memoranda on the fly-leaves concerning members of the Lignage and Chatillon families during the seventeenth century from its very commencement. On the last page appears the following note:—"Le 31 Janv. 1727, Monsieur de Corvisier m'a donné ce livre à condition qu'il luy sera rendu après ma mort ce que j'ordonne estre exécuté. It is this superiority which causes the demand for and consequent rarity of his books, by which their prices are so greatly heightened.

1776-77
The liturgy is contained in the book of 1777; that of 1776 contains an illustrative text, arranged in several very learned disquisitions, upon the differences between this and other liturgies, on the Sacramentaria, the Vestments, etc. and the origin and spread of Christianity in ancient Germany.

1378 VEH (Michael) New GESANGBÜCHLIN geystlicher Lieder vor alle gutthe Christen nach Ordenung Christlicher Kirchen, 12mo. with musical notes, fine copy, morocco, gilt edges, VERY RARE, £5. 5*s*
Leiptzigk, durch N. Wolrab, 1537
Veh was a Dominican, "Doctor und Probst der Stifftkirchen" at Halle. The tunes are some ancient and some by Wolfgang Heintz and Johann Hoffman, organists of the Cardinal Archbishop of Mentz.

1379 WACKERNAGEL (P.) das Deutsche Kirchenlied, von der ältesten Zeit bis zu Anfang des XVII Jahrhunderts, mit Supplement von F. Hommel, 5 parts, forming 3 vols. sm. 4to. sd. 32*s* Leipzig, 1862-64
A very elaborate and valuable work, with biographical and critical notes. The ancient Latin hymns used in the German church, as well as those in Latin by German authors, and those in the native language, are included in this collection. The Supplement contains "Geistliche Volkslieder," with the Music.

The Bishop remarks in his preface that all the Missals printed in his diocese before his time had been destroyed through war and other causes. It was in this year, 1555, that peace was made at Augsburg between the Emperor and the Lutheran princes.

1381 MISSA. SEQUITUR EXPOSITIO MISSE . . . . Hyenach volget gar ein lobliche heylsame ausslegung der heyligen messe . . . . At end: Hye enndet sich das loblich heylsam buch das man nennet die ausslegung des amptes der heyligen messe. darinn man findet gar wol erklärt was ein yegklichs wort bedeütet von anfang der messe bisz zu dem ende. Also das dz latein vor steet und das teütsch darauff geet, sm. folio, with two large coloured woodcuts, fine copy in the original oak boards, recovered with stamped leather, £4. Augspurg, 1484

The printer's name is not given; but Metzger (Augsburghs Druckdenkmale, p. 43) has shewn that the volume was printed by Bämler, whose name is so celebrated because of the bibliographical error which arose from his having, while yet employed as rubricator, written his name, with the date 1466, upon a copy of Eggesteyn's Strasburg Latin Bible.

Basileæ, per M. Furter, 1495

A book of Lenten Sermons can hardly be considered to belong to Liturgical literature, but this Quadragesimale seems to have been considered so valuable that it became a regular text for the service of the church at Basel.

1383 AGENDA PAROCHIALIUM ECCLESIARUM, sm. folio, printed in very large type, red and black, with the Music, first leaf mended, fine copy, calf, RARE, unknown to Panzer, £4. 4*s*

In urbe Basil. M. Wenszler et J. de Kilchen, 1488

Panzer (I. p. 161) only mentions a single book—a Graduale—printed by Kilchen or Kirchen in conjunction with Wenssler. The latter printed for a long series of years, but it would seem that Kirchen had but a short connection with the art of typography. In the Baptismal Service, there is a grotesque commixture of the Latin instructions and the words to be used which are in Swiss German.

1385 Cologne. VITA (De) et beneficiis salvatoris JESU CHRISTI devotissime meditationes—HOROLOGIUM devotionis circa vitam Christi, with 36 very early and singular engravings apparently on metal—Devotus tractatulus Dni Gerardi Zutphanie de spiritualibus ascensionibus—in 1 vol. sm. 8vo. black letter, old stamped binding in calf, £2. 16*s* Coloniæ (circ. 1485)

These woodcuts of the Cologne School are very interesting to the Student of historical Art.

The Horologium was composed by Bertold, a monk of the order of Predicants, after seven years of a hermit-life. He had previously written in Theutunic, but found it was necessary to reduce his work into Latin and grammar.

1386 PRAYERS. A collection of very rare devotional pieces, in the Cologne dialect of Low German.

1387 Eichstädt. BREVIARIUM EYSTETENSE, cum Calendario, stout sm. 4to. printed in red and black, on VELLUM, French red morocco, gilt edges, EXTREMELY RARE, £72.

s. l. et a. sed Eustadii, typis Michaelis Reyser, circa 1478

One of the earliest books printed at Eichstädt. The late proprietor has written on fly-leaf, "Eichstädt, typ. Michael Reyser, 1469" (?). Van Praet mentions only a later edition of 1488, as being in the Vatican Library. This was one of the treasures carried off by the French during their occupation of Rome, and placed in the Imperial Library in Paris, but was restored to the Vatican in 1815. Brunet describes a copy of the present edition as containing 384 leaves, and printed on vellum, at the Bibl. Impériale, but it is evidently imperfect, as the above copy comprises 392 leaves, of which the first is nearly blank, having but two lines, the second is quite blank, and three others in the body of the book also blank. It is an extraordinary circumstance to find these five leaves in the volume; and shows that the greatest possible care must have been taken of it ever since it was issued from the press. The book is indeed only the Pars Hiemalis of the Breviary, but it is not described so, and from the calendar, and the number of leaves mentioned in the copy at the Bibl. Impériale, it is evident that Reyser did not print any more.

1388 Antwerp. DUYTSCHE GHETYDEN, 12mo. 152 leaves, with numerous woodcuts, full page size, and a woodcut border to every page, the initials filled in by hand, very large, almost uncut copy in the original stamped binding, £36. Antverpen, Adriaen van Liesvelt, 1495

EXCESSIVELY RARE, and a very pretty little book of Hours, which is described by Holtrop (225). It consists of signatures a to t, in eights.

"Tout en imitant les heures françaises dans les ornements et dans l'arrangement des bois, elles gardent leur manière flamande," etc.—Renouvier, p. 237.

VERY RARE. The book is described by Holtrop (180). At the end is bound up with it an old MS. "die Antiffen van den Sonnendaghe," etc. 23 leaves.

Slavonia.

1391 EWANGELIE Y EPISTOLY . . . przez I. Wuyka, Soc. Jesu, 16mo. in the original binding, with figures stamped in gold on the sides, 36*s* Krakowie, 1593

The Gospels and Epistles arranged, with nexus, for the celebration of the Roman service in Poland.

1392 Breslau. MISSALE VRATISLAVIENSE, cum Calendario et Tabula paschali (1506-58), stout folio, PRINTED in red and black, upon VELLUM, very fine copy, with capitals richly illuminated in gold and colours, but wanting folios 260-65, 276-79, and 289-306, in the original oak boards, covered with stamped leather, £28.

Moguntiæ, P. Schoiffer, s. a. (? 1506)

This magnificent specimen of PRINTING ON VELLUM is probably UNIQUE, as no copy is mentioned by Van Praet, Ebert, or Brunet.

Spanish, Mozarabic.

1393 AREVALI Hymnodia Hispanica, cum dissertatione de Hymnis Ecclesiasticis, 4to. calf, 30*s* Romæ, 1786

The introductory Dissertation upon Church Hymns is a long, learned, and interesting composition.

1395 PASSIONUM ET LAMENTATIONUM juxta Sanctæ Romanæ Ecclesiæ normam Liber fæliciter explicit; concinatus et in meliorem concentum redactus à Joanne Navarro Minorita Provinciæ Apost. Petri et Pauli Mechhuacanensis, etc. folio, a work of Church Music, printed in red and black, with the notation throughout, woodcuts, etc. no title, vellum, £10. Mexici, D. L. Davalos, 1604

EXCESSIVELY RARE, and unmentioned by the bibliographers, although it is evidently, from the woodcuts, the bold Gothic type, and the imposing appearance of the Music, largely and boldly noted in black, on red lines, the most pretentious and magnificent work that had at that early period issued from the Mexican press.

Sweden.

It is questionable whether the authorship has been rightly attributed to John of Damascus.

1405 ——— another copy, sm. 4to. all before sig. B, and after C iv. in MS. bds. 25*s* 1543

Very scarce. Bindley's copy sold for £6.

This volume was known at the time as "the King's Book." There is a curious note on the last page: "This boke bound in paper boordes or claspes not to be solde aboue xvi.d."

1406 HENRY VIII'S PRYMER. Primer or Booke of Prayers in English, sm. 4to. black letter, wanting title and the first three leaves of the Calendar, also leaf  4 and part of  3, part of A 4, Dd 2, and Ll 1 to end (probably no more than three leaves), £8. 10*s* (London, 1545)

Excessively rare. An imperfect copy is in St. Paul's Chapter Library. The king's injunction, forming a preface of three pages, is dated "at our palayce of Westm. the vi day of May in the xxxvii yere of our reyne," which is of course 1545, not 1546, as is added in a sixteenth century hand under the subscription. On leaf L 3 the prayer in the "Letany" for deliverance from conspiracy and "the tyrany of the bishop of Rome" was struck through with ink by a contemporary hand. The scarcity of this Primer is to be accounted for by the destruction of copies on its being superseded and abolished by Edward VI's Book of Common Prayer.

1407 LITURGIÆ BRITANNICÆ, or the several editions of the Book of Common Prayer, from its compilation to its last revision, together with the Liturgy of the Church of Scotland, by W. Keeling, second edition, 8vo. cloth, £2. 2*s* 1851

The value of this work may easily be recognised. It exhibits in parallel columns, the Liturgies of 1549, 1552, 1559, 1603, and 1662, with the Scottish Prayer-Book of 1637.

As comprising the first transactions and writings of the English Reformers, in connection with those of the continent, concerning the original Book of Common Prayer, this is a curious and interesting volume. It was moreover privately and anonymously printed.

1411 Briefe Discourse of the Troubles begun at Frankeford in Germany A.D. 1554 about the Book of Common Prayer, now reprinted verbatim from the originall copy of 1575, sm. 4to. hf. bd. £1. 1*s* London, 1642

The Music is given in four parts throughout, and includes at the beginning of the Psalmes a notation of 31 different Common-Tunes of Jedburgh, Inverness, Coupar, Galloway, Melros, etc.

1415 BOOKE OF COMMON PRAYER and administration of the Sacraments; the Psalter, after the translation of the Great Bible; the Forme of making Bishops, etc.; the Psalmes in meeter by Sternhold, Hopkins, and others; 4 vols. in 1, folio, without the two preliminary leaves after the title, but interleaved and full of MS. alterations copied from those made in the autograph of the King and Archbishop Laud, hf. bd. £12. 12*s* Barker and Bill, 1636

The copy of the King's note on the fly-leaf runs as follows:

"I gave the Archbishop of Canterbury comand to make the alteracõns expressed in this book and to fit a liturgy for the Church of Scotland; and whersoever they shall differ from another booke signed by us at Hampt. Court, Sept. 28, 1634, our pleasure is to have these followed rather than the former, unless the Archbp. of St. Andrews and his brethren who are upon the place shall see apparent reason to the contrary. At Whitehall, April 19, 1636."

1416 A FORME OF COMMON PRAYER, together with an Order of Fasting, ... the Prayers are to be read every Wednesday during this Visitation. Barker, and the assignees of John Bill*, 1636

With an excessively rare leaf before the title, bearing signature A but otherwise blank.

1417 BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER of 1636 (The) with all the MS. alterations made by Convocation in 1661 (the draft of the present version, showing at a glance in what particulars it differs from the preceding edition). From this long lost document the copy appended to the Act of Uniformity was transcribed, from which transcription "the Sealed Book" of 1662 was printed, fol. (sells £2. 2*s*) cloth, £1. 16*s* 1870

The volume possesses the highest value and interest to all those who would form a correct judgment as to the mind of the English Church in matters pertaining to doctrine and ritual.

The book is reproduced by Major-General Sir Henry James' Photozincographic Process, and is an exact counterpart of the original folio volume; a limited number only are printed.

1418 BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER, and Administration of the Sacraments, and other parts of Divine Service for the use of the Church of SCOTLAND, with the PSALMS by King James, 2 vols. in 1, black letter, fine copy in black morocco, gilt edges, from the libraries of Sir Robert Sibbald (with his autograph inscription), Archbishop Nicholson, and the Rev. Dr. Todd, T.C.D. £5. 5*s* Edinb. R. Young, 1637-36

VERY RARE. This is the famous Common Prayer of Archbishop Laud by which he and the king hoped to force the English liturgy upon the Scottish people, the actual result being to embitter the anti-prelatic feelings of the North, and to precipitate the civil war and downfall of Charles I. Sign. ¶ ¶ 3 in this copy has the Psalm printed correctly. On the reverse of the last leaf is the catchword, "Certaine," which was cancelled in some copies, the intention having been to add Certain Prayers.

1437 LYRA BRITANNICA: a Collection of British (English) Hymns, printed from the genuine texts, with Biographical Sketches of the Hymn Writers, by the Rev. Charles Rogers, LL.D., F.S.A., Scot., second edition, 1 vol. thick post 8vo. 712 pages, (pub. at 21*s*) cloth, red edges, 10*s* 1868

This is the best publication of its kind. It seems not to have attracted any particular notice, and the public is thereby deprived of the pleasure which must arise from the possession of a thoroughly good book. It is a classical collection of above 700 Hymns by 233 writers, (including some American) and gives in every instance the original text from its first source, and not as generally occurs in other collections, the popular or truncated form. To attain this desirable object, and to correct hitherto existing errors, as well as to gain facts for the biographical sketches, the editor has devoted the labour of years and received the assistance of many distinguished amateurs. The result is a book which is perfect in its way, and superior to every other such collection.

clergy in the new Reformed church. Not the least curious part of the volume is the appendix, in Latin, prescribing a mild and conformal style of service for those monks and other ministers of the Catholic church who still conserved their constitutions in Brunswick, so long as they should live.

Regenspurg, 1554

Gallus was a pugnacious Reformer, the disciple of Luther, but managed to quarrel with Melancthon and others of his associates. Curious references to the doctrines of the Anabaptists, the Zwinglians, and others, are found in his preface. At the end of the Catechism is added a singular relation of an imaginary dream, in which Luther appears to Gallus and complains of the deteriorations taking place amongst the reformers. This piece, entitled Klagrede, was intended as a reply to the Querela Lutheri, published in March 1554. The book ends with a funeral sermon by Hieron. Rauscher on the Pfaltzgräfin Elizabeth.

Very Rare. These Articles and Injunctions were formed, in a great measure, upon the canons of the Council of Cologne, promulgated by Herman de Wida, "the good Archbishop," and which had been drawn up by Martin Bucer. Melanchthon and Brentius prepared them by the desire of the elder Wolfgang, of Bavaria, and they were first issued at Zweibrücken in 1557, and at Neuberg in 1560; and finally settled and published in 1570 by his son. The portions of Scripture are taken from Luther's version, and the Litany, Creed, and Communion Service are the same as those still in use in the Lutheran Church. This volume, which is elegantly printed in red and black, with musical notes, is a valuable relic of a branch of the Lutheran Church, which no longer exists.

This rare and interesting volume forms a complete authoritative exposition of Luther's religious doctrines in the year 1543. The portions of it which may excite most curiosity are the "Notæ veræ Ecclesiæ," and the long dissertation "de Sacramento Altaris."

This is the first Polyglott ever printed with the characters peculiar to each language. It is remarkable for Giustiniani's commentary upon the 19th Psalm, "coeli enarrant," where his pride as a Genoese in the recent glories of his compatriot COLUMBUS, induced him to insert an account of AMERICA and A LIFE OF ITS DISCOVERER.

The version called Chaldee on the title is Ethiopic, that language being supposed in Potken's time to be the true ancient Chaldee, while the language known as Chaldee was considered to be simply a corrupt colloquial dialect.

glotton, Heb. Chald. Syr. Sam. Ethiop. Arab. et Pers. cum omnium Grammaticis, 2 vols. in 1, portrait by Faithorne, ib. 1669—together 8 vols. large fol. ruled with red ink, fine copy in old calf, £24. 1657-69

This valuable copy is of the original issue which is but very rarely met with in consequence of the destruction by Walton at the Restoration, of the sheet C of prolegomena, which was offensive to Charles II. In the original passages, he states his sentiments and intentions with regard to the publication in a very different way from what appears afterwards, and thanks the most illustrious Lord Protector and his council for their assistance granted to his labours and the exemption of the paper from duty. In the reprint which was made after the Restoration, the Bishop enlarges piously on the dreadful affairs of recent times, and the wicked overthrow of lofty heads "that had shone as stars above the church," and drops the illustrious Protector entirely, except by a kind of innuendo drawn from his sense of shame;—that is, in giving the names of his patrons, he mentions all "præter eos quorum favore chartam à vectigalibus immunem habuimus."

1460 BIBLIA POLYGLOTTA WALTONI, et CASTELLI LEXICON HEPTAGLOTTON, 8 vols. bound in 9, large folio, portraits and plates, fine copy, ruled throughout, in old calf, £24. 1657-69

This copy contains the royal preface, but has the cancelled sheet C added at the end of the prolegomena.

1461 BIBLIA POLYGLOTTA WALTONI, 6 vols. folio, portrait and plates, beautiful copy ruled throughout, in a sumptuous binding of blue MOROCCO super-extra, Harleian gold-tooling, gilt edges, by BEDFORD, £42. 1657

This has the royal preface. None of the above copies contains the dedication to Charles II. which was issued after the publication of the book.

"This Polyglot is of the utmost importance to a critic, not only on account of the extracts which it contains from a variety of important MSS., but particularly on account of the Oriental versions, from which he must collect various readings of the New-Testament. Though several of the MSS. which are quoted in the Polyglot have since that time been more accurately collated, and no one would now have recourse to that edition for the reading of the Codex Alexandrinus or Cantabrigiensis; yet some of the MSS. which Usher had collected, have never since been examined. Mill and Wetstein have inserted those readings in their collections as they found them in the Polyglot. Now, as errors of the press are unavoidable, especially in a work like Wetstein's, it is necessary to have a recourse to the Polyglot whenever a doubt arises in regard to the accuracy of a quotation by Mill or Wetstein, in order to see whether these MSS. which were collated for the London Polyglot, have the readings in question or not."—Bp. Marsh's Michaelis.

It is not generally known that Walton's Polyglott Bible contains the best and most nearly complete collection of the various TARGUMS.

1462 BIBLIA SACRA POLYGLOTTA, Textus Archetypos Versionesque præcipuas ab Ecclesia antiquitùs receptas necnon versiones recentiores complectentia; accedunt Prolegomena in Textuum Archetyporum Versionumque antiquarum Crisin literalem, auctore Samuele LEE, large stout fol. mor. extra, gold borders, gilt edges, £6. Lond. Bagster, 1831

An excellent Polyglot edition of the Bible, in Hebrew, Greek, Latin, English, French, German, Italian and Spanish, now scarce. All of them are printed in 12mo. size, so that the Hebrew, English, Greek and Latin occupy four quarters of each left hand page, and the others occupy the right hand. At the end of the volume are, Variæ lectiones in versionem Septuaginta virorum, Novum Testamentum Græcum, Pentateuchum Hebræo-Samaritanum; and the whole of the New Testament in Syriac.

A new issue just now produced costs £8. 8s, although it is necessarily inferior to the original edition, being merely a reprint.

1463 POLYGLOTTEN-BIBEL: Die heilige Schrift alten und neuen Testaments, bearbeitet von STIER und THEILE, 4 vols. in 6, stout roy. 8vo. vellum gilt, £3. Bielefeld, 1854-55

The Old Testament is in four languages; the Hebrew original, the Greek of the Septuagint, the Latin of the Vulgate, and Luther's German translation, 5 vols. The sixth contains the New Testament in Greek, Latin, and German.

A volume of extreme rarity, evidently never seen by Lowndes, as he states it to be dedicated to Archbishop Parker instead of Queen Elizabeth. This very interesting Codex, of which the above is a careful reprint, was discovered in Mexico by Beltrami in the year 1826, and came into the hands of the present editor by purchase from the heirs. It is composed in the purest and most elegant Nathuatl that was ever written, by Bernardino Sahagun, a Spanish Monk of the Franciscan order, with the assistance of two scions of royalty in Anahuac, one the son of Montezuma, the other the son of the Prince of Tezcuco—and purports to be a "postilla" on the Gospels and Epistles. Sahagun arrived at Mexico in the year 1529, and lived and laboured with great success in that country for fully sixty years. Of his many works in and on the Nahuatl language, the above is the only one which has been saved from perdition. Mr. Biondelli has accompanied Sahagun's text by a Latin version, has added a copious Vocabulary, Nahuatl and Latin, and by his introductory observations, has thrown considerable light not alone upon the Nahuatl language, its affinity to other families of language, its grammatical peculiarities, but also upon the traditions, institutions, and monuments of the Aztecs—thus forming a complete treasury of everything appertaining to the ancient Mexicans. Altogether this is a volume which cannot be dispensed with by the student in linguistics.

1502 BIBLIA BELGICA dat is de gantsche heylighe Schrift grondelick verduytschet, 12mo. fine copy in Dutch calf gilt, 27*s* Leyden, 1599

This Bible is called the Deux Aes, from the curious proverbial rhymes (deux aes en heeft niet, six cincq en geeft niet, etc.) on the margin of Nehemiah, III; and also Eulenspiegel's, from the filthy note on the margin of Ecclesiasticus, xix.

1502*BIBLIA SACRA, de geheele Heylighe Schrifture, thick folio, illustrated with hundreds of wood engravings by Van Sichem, after Albert Durer, Aldergraver, Penex, Lucas of Leyden, Wierx, and others, original oak bds. covered with impressed leather, with clasps, £2. 5*s* Antwerpen, 1657

1503 NEDERDUYTSE BYBEL na de Oversetting van Lutherus; Boek der Psalmen nevens Christelyke Gesangen, 2 vols. in 1, sm. 8vo. Music, sealskin binding gilt edges, 7*s* 6*d* Amsterdam, (1778)

1505 DAT NIEUWE TESTAMENT onses Heeren Jesu Christi, in Nederduytsch, 24mo. printed in a very minute gothic type, old calf, very rare, 20*s* s. l. e. n. t. 1569

Evidently secretly printed.

1506 English. THE FIRST ENGLISH BIBLE, by TYNDALE and COVERDALE, folio, numerous fine woodcuts, a defective copy, containing the Old Testament not quite perfect, but having three of the woodcut titles in excellent preservation, and the body of the book sound, £36. sine loco (? Zürich, Froschover) 1535

No perfect copy of this great book is known to exist. If any such were discovered and set-up at auction it would probably fetch £1000.

1507 BIBLIA, the BYBLE, that is, the HOLY SCRIPTURES of the Olde and New Testament, faythfully translated (by MYLES COVERDALE, Bishop of Exeter, 1535), stout 4to. portrait, facsimile of the woodcut title, etc. (pub. at 35*s*) cloth, 25*s* 1535; reprinted 1847

1508 BIBLE, in which are contayned the Olde and Newe Testament, translated into Englysh by THOMAS MATHEW, (John Rogers) stout folio, First Edition of Matthew's Bible, Black Letter, with numerous large woodcuts, two titles, and 5 other leaves in facsimile, the first seven leaves of table, and the last four of Revelations wanting, otherwise a perfect copy of this EXCESSIVELY RARE BOOK, brown morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, £50. Grafton and Whitchurch, 1537

This edition is of great importance in the annals of the English Bible. It may be called the second version, as it was the first after Coverdale's, from whose text it was published with improvements by Rogers.

Sir Mark Sykes' copy fetched £78. 15*s*; 1845, Fletcher's, £105.; Lea Wilson's copy, at Gardiner's sale, 1855, £150.

1508*BIBLE, THE GREAT. The Byble in Englyshe, that is to saye the content of all the holy Scrypture, both of ye olde and newe testament, stout folio, a copy of Cromwell's Bible, often but wrongly called the first edition of Cranmer's, not perfect, very tall copy, in the original binding, excessively rare, £36. Fynisshed in Aprill, Anno 1539

A most desirable copy for completion by facsimile; Mr. Harris would be glad to receive the commission.

The title and five succeeding preliminary pages, and also the title preceding the third book of Esdras, are wanting. The first couple of leaves, and the last two, as also a few in the middle of the book are defective; but the greater portion of the work is in good condition. The titles and woodcuts of the "Great Bible" are considered superb, and have been attributed to Hans Holbein; the type is large and beautiful, and the paper excellent.

The extreme rarity of the above Bible may be imagined when it is stated that Gardiner's copy fetched £121.

1509 BYBLE (The) IN ENGLYSHE, that is to say the contēt of al the holy scripture both of ye Olde and Newe Testamēt, with a prologe thereinto made by the reverende father in God, Thomas (Cranmer) archbysshop of Cantorbury, stout folio, Black Letter, with woodcuts, sold as per collation below, with the first four pp. (21—24) of Mr. Fry's Description of the Great Bible, printed as a specimen upon vellum, £50. 1540

A COPY OF CRANMER'S CELEBRATED FIRST EDITION OF THE HOLY SCRIPTURES; (the first part, ending with Deuteronomy, being from the issue of November, 1540) having a large ornamental letter at the commencement of Romans, with the initials E. W. (Edward Whitchurch) within the same wood-block; and title to the New Testament designed by Holbein defective, but having the arms of Thomas Lord Cromwell not defaced; and also fol. LXVI marked xLVI.

No title; Prologue, 2 leaves (the third wanting); Names of the Bookes, 1 leaf; Genesis, etc. leaves i—iii, vi—lxxxiv, the last defective; title to second part, 1 leaf;

Digitized by Google

Job, etc. leaves ii—cxxiii; Psalmes, etc. ii—cxxxii (cxxxi being also marked cxxxii); the Apocrypha (title wanting) folios ii—lxxx; New Testament, title defective; Matthew, etc. leaves ii—ci. Thus there are eight leaves, including one title, altogether wanting. See Lea Wilson's Catalogue, No. 8, for the description of the book as far as the end of the first part; and No. 7 for the remainder.

The volume HAS VERY LARGE MARGINS AND IS FINE AND SOUND, with few exceptions. From Joshua to the end of the whole Bible, this copy is the FIRST EDITION printed by Cranmer.

1509* BIBLE, now lately with greate industry and diligence recognized (after MATHEW'S Bible by Edm. Becke), with Tyndall's Notes and Prologues, folio, Black Letter, numerous cuts, Title to Old Testament and the last leaf of Index in facsimile, brown morocco extra, gilt edges, by Rivière, £30. Imprinted by John Day and William Seres, 1549

Dr. Adam Clarke's copy of this edition was sold for £31. 10*s*. Gardner's copy fetched in 1854, £40. Priced Thorpe, 1847, £52. 10*s*.

1510 BIBLE, whych is all the holy Scripture, by THOMAS MATTHEWE (recognized by Becke) with the NEWE TESTAMENTE, newly and diligently translated, with Annotations to helpe the reader to the understandinge of the Texte, folio, Black Letter, russia, gilt edges, RARE, £10. Raynalde and Hyll, 1549

The above very rare edition of the eventful year 1549, in which no less than five different bibles were published, wants the first title, and seven other leaves of preliminary matter, and the last leaf with the imprint, being sold therefore not subject to return. The description given by Lewis (pp. 109—11) evidently shows that he conld only meet an imperfect copy. 1836, Priced by Thorpe, £21.; Pickering's copy fetched £31. For a complete collation, see Lea Wilson's Catalogue, No. 14.

1511 BIBLE IN ENGLYSHE, of the largest and greatest volume, with the Common Prayer (CRANMER'S GREAT BIBLE) large folio, Black Letter, elegant woodcut initials, fine copy, but title and last two leaves of Table admirably facsimiled, splendidly bound in morocco super extra, ornamented with gold tooling, gilt marbled edges, by Riviere, £24.

Rouen, at the Cost and Charges of Richard Carmarden, 1566

This large volume is a beautiful work of typography, and deserves to rank highly amongst the biblical treasures of a good English library.

1512 HOLIE BIBLE, large folio, Black Letter, First Edition of the Bishops' BIBLE, published under the auspices of Archbishop Parker, title containing portrait of Q. Elizabeth very accurately re-engraved, 2 copperplate portraits of Lord Leicester and Secretary Cecil, and numerous large wood engravings, fine copy in brown morocco super extra, sides ornamented with gold tooling, gilt edges, by Riviere, £28.

Richard Jugge, 1568

Pickering's copy (formerly Lea Wilson's) fetched £60. 10*s*. This edition is excessively rare, the reason of which may be attributed to the fact that nearly the entire issue was destroyed by use, as it was ordained that copies should be placed in every cathedral, and moreover that every Archbishop, Bishop, Dean, and Ecclesiastical Dignitary should have at least one exposed publicly in his Hall or Dining Room for the use of his Servants and Strangers.

1513 BIBLE, with annotations upon all the hard places, GENEVAN VERSION, small folio, woodcuts, very fine copy in blue morocco super extra, gilt edges, by F. Bedford, £7. 7*s* C. Barker, 1582

A very scarce edition of the "Breeches Bible," the fetish of so many ignorant persons. A "Breeches Bible" is looked upon by them as something extraordinarily rare,—and it is almost impossible to make them aware that the numerous editions of the Genevan version all bear this silly title, and moreover, that there is nothing at all strange or remarkable in the use of the distinctive word.

1514 BIBLE, that is, the Holy Scriptures contained in the Old and New Testament, folio, engraved title with elaborate border, by William Hole, with red lines, beautiful copy in red morocco, super extra, gilt edges, by Riviere, £9. R. Barker, 1607

See the Bibliotheca Spenceriana, Vol. V. p. 72.

1517 BIBLE, with annotations upon all the hard places, Scripture Genealogies by J. Speed and two Concordances by F. R. Herrey, 4to. THE GENEVAN VERSION, Black Letter, fine copy in calf extra, gilt edges, by W. Pratt, £3. 3*s* R. Barker, 1615

1518 HOLY BIBLE, translated by the English Colledge of Doway with Annotations, for discovering of corruptions in some late translations and for clearing controversies in Religion, 2 vols. sm. 4to. very fine copy in blue morocco super extra, gilt edges, by F. Bedford, VERY RARE, £9. 9*s* Rouen, J. Cousturier, 1635

These celebrated annotations do not seem to have yet reached their destination—the end of controversy.

1519 BIBLE, containing the Old and New Testaments, diligently revised, with marginal notes (by John Canne), 2 vols. in 1, 12mo. old red MOROCCO extra, gilt edges, from the library of Randolph, Bishop of London, 18*s* Bill, 1698

A scarce edition, printed in a very minute type.

1520 HOLY BIBLE, London, 1699—Biblia Ectypa, Bildnissen auss Heiliger Schrifft, von Chr. WEIGEL, Regensburg, 1697—the two works amalgamated, and divided into 9 vols. 8vo. forming an illustrated Bible, with nearly 500 fine engravings, a quotation from the Vulgate on the top of each plate, and from the German Bible at the bottom, very fine impressions, text and plates carefully ruled, old English red morocco, gilt edges, fine copy, £5. 1697-99

This forms a beautiful library edition of the English Bible.

Cambridge, John Baskerville, 1763

This is one of the most beautiful books ever printed. Sold in the Duke of Roxburghe's sale for £10. 15*s*; Dr. Heath's for £9.; and Rev. T. Williams for £8. 10*s*.

1522 BIBLE (The Holy), Old and New Testaments, newly translated out of the original tongues, and with the former translations diligently compared and revised, 4to. woodcut frontispiece, bound in whole RED MOROCCO, EXTRA GILT, gilt edges, a beautiful specimen of binding, 30*s* Baskett, 1767

1523 BIBLE (The ENGLISH) containing the Old and New Testaments, translated out of the original tongues, 2 vols. stout roy. 8vo. illustrated with a series of 80 engravings on wood in BEWICK'S manner, by Nesbit, Branston, Lee, Austin, and Clennel, russia gilt, £2. 10*s* Cambridge, 1796-98

1524 NEW TESTAMENT. The English Hexapla, exhibiting the six important English Versions (Wyclif, Tyndale, Cranmer, Genevan, Anglo-Rhemish, Authorised), with the original Greek Text after Scholz, preceded by a History of English Translations and Translators, royal 4to. LARGE PAPER, morocco extra, gilt edges, £2. 16*s* Bagster, (1848)

1525 NEW TESTAMENT, being the first Translation from the Greek into English by W. Tyndale, reprinted verbatim with a Memoir of his Life and Writings by G. Offor, sm. 4to. LARGE PAPER, ruled with red lines, coloured portrait and illuminated capitals, blue morocco extra, gilt edges, £3. 3*s* Bagster, 1836

1526 THE FIRST PRINTED ENGLISH NEW TESTAMENT, photolithographed in facsimile, and edited by Arber, sm. 4to. cloth, 7*s* 6*d* 1871

The above two reproductions are not to be confounded: Bagster reprinted the 8vo. edition without glosses from the complete copy in Bristol; while Mr. Arber facsimiles the 4to. edition with glosses from a unique fragment. They were both printed in 1526. The priority is questionable.

1527 NEW TESTAMENT, both in Latin and English, after the vulgare Texte which is red in the Churche, Translated and corrected by Myles COVERDALE, 12mo. Black Letter, (the Latin in Roman), title and dedication in facsimile, a few leaves mended, and portion of the pagination and marginal notes cut into, otherwise a fine copy, morocco super extra, leather linings, gilt edges, by W. Pratt, £28. Paris, F. Regnault, 1538

This edition is intrinsically valuable, as Bonner caused the errors which disfigured the two London editions to be corrected according to Coverdale's desire. He obtained from Francis I. the license to print it, whilst he was acting as English Ambassador in France. Only a few copies had been distributed when the entire impression was seized by the Inquisition and destroyed. Gardner's copy sold for £82.; Harman's for £79.; and the Bishop of Cashel's for £69. 6*s*.

1528 NEWE TESTAMENT, faithfully translated oute of the Greeke, with the notes and expositions of the dark places therein, (TYNDALE'S VERSION, No. 31 of Lea Wilson's List), sm. 4to. Black Letter, title containing portrait of Edward VI and numerous woodcuts (that to Matthew xiii representing the Devil with a wooden leg), a few leaves mended, otherwise a large and fine copy in morocco super extra, ornamented with gold tooling, gilt edges, by F. Bedford, £36. Rycharde Jugge, 1553

In this very rare Edition FYSH DAYE is marked in the Calendar instead of FAST as in the former. Mr. Steven's copy sold for £52. 10*s*.

A copy wanting five leaves and having a facsimile title fetched £27. at Offor's sale in 1865.

1529 NEVV TESTAMENT translated out of Greeke by THEODORE BEZA, whereunto are adjoyned brief summaries of doctrine upon the Evangelists and Actes of the Apostles, together with the methode of the Epistles of the Apostles, by the said Theod. Beza; with short expositions on the phrases, taken out of the large annotations of the aforesaid author and Joach. Camerarius, by P. Loseler Villerius, Englished by L. THOMSON, First Edition, 12mo. FINE LARGE COPY, calf gilt, £12. 10*s* Lond. by C. Barker, 1576

"The first edition of this translation, which was afterwards frequently attached to the Genevan Bible. This edition differs in some parts from subsequent ones by Thomson, and contains, also, an English version of Beza's dedication to Louis Prince of Condé."—Cotton, who gives a specimen of this translation. After the epistle to the Reader, is a woodcut map of Palestine.

Mr. Wilkes's copy sold for £30. and Mr. Pickering's (though wormed) produced £16.

1530 NEW TESTAMENT, translated faithfully into English out of the authentical Latin, diligently conferred with the Greeke, and other editions in divers languages, in the English College of Rhemes, sm. 4to. Editio Princeps of the English Roman-Catholic Testament, very fine large copy in old calf, RARE, £7. 7*s* Rhemes, 1582

Sold at Wilkinson's sale for £12. 12*s*; and at Gardiner's for £15.

"A literal, and barbarous translation from the Vulgate before its last revision; accompanied with acrimonious and injurious annotations. The residence in a foreign country, and what they deemed exile from their own, corrupted the translators language, and soured their tempers; and it was, unhappily, the common custom of those lamentable times to season every religious controversy with gall and vinegar." —Geddes.

This edition is famous for its annotations, said to have been written by Bristow or by Worthington, and containing so much "impious and treasonable" matter as to have been suppressed even by the Papist party themselves, in the second edition. Whether this charge be true or not, it is constantly repeated, along with a statement of the "excessive rarity" of the volume, and the destruction of most copies on their arrival in England. In any case, the Editio Princeps of that Bible which has circulated amongst and influenced the minds of the Roman Catholic inhabitants of the British isles for nearly three centuries, deserves to be secured and treasured by every judicious collector.

1531 NEW TESTAMENT, translated by the English College at Rhemes: set forth the SECOND Time by the same College returned to Doway, with one new Table of Heretical Corruptions, and annotations augmented, sm. 4to. calf, 30*s* Antwerp, Daniel Vervliet, 1600

1532 ——— the same, very fine copy, purple MOROCCO, gilt edges, scarce, £2. 10*s* 1600

This second edition of the English Roman Catholic Testament is as scarce as the first. It is said to be castrated in the annotations because of their virulence in the first, but I cannot observe that any such difference exists between the two editions—at least, it is not patent, but may be latent.

1533 SHAW'S Superbly Illustrated Edition of the NEW TESTAMENT, 4to. with engravings on wood from the designs of Fra Angelico, Pietro Perugrino, Francesco Francia, Lorenzo di Credi, Fra Bartolommeo, Titian, Raphael, Gaudenzio Ferrari, Daniele da Volterra, etc. (pub. at £3. 3*s in cloth,*) dark olive morocco gilt, tooled and gilt sides, £3. 8*s* 1865

1534 ——— the same, roy. 4to. LARGE PAPER, hf. bd. £12. 12*s* 1864

Only 250 copies printed.

1535 O'CALLAGHAN'S List of Editions of the Scriptures and parts thereof printed in America previous to 1860, with introduction and bibliographical notes, 4to. LARGE PAPER, hf. morocco, uncut, presentation copy to Dr. Cotton, RARE, £4. 4*s* Albany, (U.S.) 1861

A valuable MS. letter from the author to Mr. Lennox on a bibliographical question is inserted.

1536 WILSON (Lea) Account of EDITIONS OF BIBLES, Testaments, Psalms, and other Books of the Holy Scriptures, in English, in his Collection, 4to. half morocco, uncut, top edge gilt, £5. 15*s* 1845

1537 ——— the same, 4to. hogskin, gilt top, uncut, PRIVATELY PRINTED, and none for sale, very scarce, £6. 15*s* 1845

The extreme care taken by the late Mr. Wilson in the compilation of this will always render it a valuable book of reference for collations, &c. The number of copies printed was very small; some say 50, others 120; nearly all were given to public libraries. It is in consequence gradually rising in price.

As some irregularity occurs in the paging, the following collation is given: Title, with coat of arms on reverse; Preface, 3 leaves; text, pp. 1-136; Appendix, pp. 129*-136*; then pp. 137-352, including Index.

1538 Esquimaux. NEW TESTAMENT. Testamentetak tamedsa, 12mo. calf, 2*s* London, 1840

1539 Ethiopic. PSALMORUM Liber et (16) alia Cantica Biblica Æthiopice; cum Syllabario Linguarum Chaldæarum (Æthiopicarum); impressum ingenio et impensis Joannis POTKEN, sm. 4to. fine woodcut of King David harping, printed in red ink on the first leaf, hf. bd. RARE, £2. Romæ, 1513

The first book printed in the Æthiopic character. Potken insists that this is the true Chaldean language, and that the hitherto so called Chaldean was only a corrupt dialect.

1539*Biblia Veteris Testamenti, Æthiopice, ed. Dillmann. Tomus I, et Tomi II pars 1 (all published): Pentateuchus, Josua, Judices, Ruth, Reges, in 4 pts. 4to. sd. 21*s* Lips. 1853-61

1540 Psalterium cum Canticis, etc. Aethiop. curâ Ludolphi, sm. 4to. large paper, neatly bound, 6*s* Franc. 1701

This rare issue was doubtlessly intended for distribution in Africa, as it does not contain any European characters.

1540*Finnish. Uusi Testamenti, 8vo. New Testament in Finnish, calf, 5*s* Porwossa, 1850

1541 French. FIRST FRENCH PROTESTANT BIBLE, by Calvin and Olivetan. La Bible qui est toute la Saincte Escriture en laquelle sont contenus le Vieil Testament et le Nouveau, translatez en Francoys, le Vieil de Lebrieu et le Nouveau du Grec, stout folio, wanting the fifth preliminary leaf, and leaves 31-36 of the Acts, a couple of leaves mended, bd. excessively rare, £10.

Neufchastel, Pierre de Wingle dict Pirot Picard, 1535

It appears from my own memoranda and from Brunet's notices that perhaps not more than three or four copies exist perfect and in good condition.

Paris, par A. Bonnemere, 1538

This rare and beautiful volume is a finely preserved specimen of early French typography. It is printed quite in Verard's style, with the large and grotesque initials peculiar to him. The text is not a literal translation of the Bible, but a rendering into French by Guyart des Moulins, of the great biblical history in Latin of Peter Comestor.

1543 BIBLE (la) qui est toute la saincte Escriture, contenant le Vieil et le Nouueau Testament, 4 parts in 2 vols. 12mo. beautifully printed in very minute characters, with numerous woodcuts, maps, etc. fine copy in old French calf extra, rare, £2. 10*s* (Genève,) François Etienne, 1567

"Jolie édition imprimée en très-petits caractères et ornée de figures sur bois finement gravées."—Brunet. It is perhaps the earliest large book ever printed with types so minute and elegant. A contemporary proprietor has written on the titles "Bible Huguenotte," as a warning, no doubt, to the orthodox. The woodcut of Eden, and the map between leaves 55 and 56 of the New Testament, are missing. The Music of the Metrical Psalms is given; and in the Calendar there is a curious list of fairs.

1544 BIBLE (SAINTE) contenant le Vieil et Nouveau Testament, Latin-FRANCOIS chacune Version correspondante l'une á l'autre, verset â verset, avec Annotations par R. Benoist, 3 vols. 4to. woodcuts, fine copy in old veau fauve, gilt edges, £4. 4*s* Paris, 1568

Very scarce, having been censured by the "Faculté de Paris," and prohibited, notwithstanding the high esteem in which the expositions of Bénoit were held. These are contained in the concise marginal notes.

1545 Bible en François avec les Pseaumes mis en Rime par C. Marot et T. de Beze et la Forme des Prieres Ecclesiastiques, 4 vols. in 3, 24mo. with music to the Psalms, vellum, £1. 16*s* Genève, 1570

1546 BIBLE, par les Pasteurs de Geneve, avec un nouvel Indice, item les Pseaumes et Cantiques, stout sm. 8vo. morocco extra, gilt edges, £1. 16*s* La Rochelle, Corneille Hertman, 1616

PICART, etc. . . . . , ont apposé leur nom ou leur monogramme au bas des nombreuses et délicieuses gravures sur cuivre qui ornent ce volume. On voit sur le frontispice gravé un très-beau portrait en pied du roi Louis XIII, le sceptre en main et l'épée au côté, exécuté par Michel Lasne."

1548 BIBLE qui est toute la Saincte Escriture, en François, 4 parts in 1 vol. stout 16mo. beautiful copy in old red morocco extra, gilt edges, £2. 2*s* Sédan, 1633

The best and finest of all the editions printed in excessively minute type, which are known as "Bibles de Sédan." The version is a Protestant one.

1549 BIBLE (La Sainte) traduite sur les textes originaux avec les differences de la Vulgate, 12mo. printed in minute type, old crimson morocco, gilt edges, bound by DE ROME, £2. 8*s* Cologne, 1730

This was first published as a cheap Bible for the poor, and consequently has suffered destruction and become rare. It is based apparently upon that of Le Maistre de Sacy.

1550 NOUVEAU TESTAMENT, traduit du Latin en François par un Docteur de la Sorbonne, 12mo. a very pretty book, printed with small clear type, calf neat, gilt edges, from the library of the Marquis of Hastings, very rare, £2. 2*s* [Mons, Migeot, 1688]

This is the celebrated Port Royal Testament of the Jansenists.

Leaf A 1, intended to hold the title, is blank, and has the autograph of "T. Huntingdon," pp. 2-35 contain a preface; pp. 26-28, Permissions d'imprimer, dated Cambray, 1665, Louvain, 1666, and Bruxelles, 1666; the Testament, pp. 29-280, Table 4 leaves, not paged.

Pflanzmann, cir.* 1473)

This Bible is excessively rare. In fact, the name of the printer is almost unkno wn. He was a literary man rather than a printer, and it is likely that he carried on the business of a typographer but for a short while. In 1493 he employed Erhardt Ratdolt to print his German translation of a Latin law-book, being then a procurator. The above Bible and a Psalter which appeared about the same time, seem to be the only works printed by him which have come down to us. In Metzger's work on the early productions of the Augsburg press, his name only is mentioned, but none of his publications described as existing in the Royal Library there. The Bible is described by Panzer, p. 2 of the Zusätze zu den Annalen.

1558 Fourth German Bible. On verso of first leaf: Hie vahet an das register über die bibeln des alten testaments. On verso of fol. 408: Ein ende hat das ander buch der stritter das man nennet zu latin machabeorum. *On first leaf of N. sine notâ, (Nürnberg, Sensenschmidt und Frissner, cir. 1474)

This Bible is very rare, even in the most ordinary state; but the occurrence for sale of a fine large copy like the present is an almost unprecedented circumstance.

1559 Fifth German Bible. At end: Diss durchleuchtigost werck der ganczen | heyligen geschrifft. genandt die Bibel für | all ander vorgedrucket teútsch biblen. lau | terer. klärer. vnnd warer. nach rechter ge | meinen teútsch dañ vorgedrucket. hat hie | ein ende. (Günther Zainer, circ. 1474)

A magnificent production of the early press of Augsburg, in which city "not the least one of the noble German nation," Günther Zainer its first typographer established himself in the year 1468. It is remarked by Dibdin of the copy in the Spencer library, there divided into two volumes, that "these are the most magnificent volumes of ancient editions of the Sacred Writ in the Collection."

1560 Ninth German Bible. Die Gantze Heylige Geschrifft genant dy Bibel für all and.' vorgetrücket teutsch biblē lauterer, etc. stout folio, the ninth German Bible, printed with a very elegant type, and embellished by 109 singularly fine woodcuts, artistically coloured at the time of the publication, thus enhancing the effect of these quaint illustrations, dark hogskin binding, very sound copy, £12.

Nüremberg, Koburger, 1483

In one of the woodcuts we find the Pope doing duty as a Fallen Angel. The same wood-blocks were used to illustrate the Cologne Bible, and the Bible of Halberstadt, 1522. See Goetz' ample description of this magnificent specimen of Koburger's press.

1561 PSALTERIUM cum Canticis et Hymnis, 12mo. with vellum fly-leaves from a MS. of the twelfth century, containing Musical notes, wooden boards, with clasp, very scarce, £2. 12*s* 6*d*

1562 [Das NEWE TESTAMENT Deutzsch] Second Edition of Luther's Translation, 2 parts in 1 vol. folio, woodcuts, fine copy in the original binding, £10. 10*s* (Wittemberg, 1522)

Extremely rare. This precious volume is an unknown second edition of Luther's Testament. To judge from the comparisons afforded by Goetz, it must have followed the first, and preceded the so-called second edition of 1522; on both of which, for their rarity and intrinsic value, he lavishes the most extreme eulogies. Indeed a volume which has escaped the researches of the many bibliographical inquiries into this subject, may safely be styled unique. The first part is foliated I-CI; a blank leaf follows, then a "Vorred" of 5 leaves, and afterwards the second part numbered I-LXXXVIII leaves.

1563 ANDER THAYL des Evangelii S. Lucas von der APOSTEL GESCHICHTE (durch M. LUTHER), 12mo. PRINTED ON VELLUM, with initial woodcut, green morocco extra, gilt edges, VERY RARE, £3. 6*s* (? 1522-30)

This portion of Luther's translation of the New Testament contains the entire Acts of the Apostles, and is only called "Ander Thayl," because the Acts were formerly treated as the second part of St. Luke's Gospel. There is no date, nor can a description of this edition be found in Goetz or elsewhere; but from a comparison with the other editions, it must have been printed between 1522 and 1530.

1564 DAS NEWE TESTAMENT mit fleyss verteutscht; fol. large and beautiful woodcut of the Adoration, and small cuts at the commencement of each book, as well as woodcut capitals throughout, a few insignificant worm-holes, large copy in the original stamped binding, oak covers, very rare, £3. 16*s* Nürmberg, Frid. Peypus, 1524

This edition is curious from a typographical error in the V. chapter of the Epistle to the Galatians, v. 6, where the words "Glaube" and "Liebe" are made to usurp each other's places. It is one of the most beautifully printed editions, and contains the prefaces to each book; and so rare as to have been unknown to Palm, whilst Goetz emphatically places it "amongst the greatest book-rarities."

1565 NEWES TESTAMENT gantz yetzt klärlich ausz dém rechten grundt teutscht, mit gargelerten Vorreden, etc. 12mo. woodcuts, very fine copy in old Venetian morocco, gauffré edges, £6. Basel, T. Wolff, 1524

This third Basel edition by Wolff,—which is a republication of Luther's text,—is very rare.

Wittemberch, N. Schyrlenz, 1525

This edition is not mentioned by Götz or Brunet.

1567 PSALTER TEUTSCH, folio, woodcut initials coloured and illuminated, fine copy in the original stamped hogskin binding, £6.

Nürnberg, J. Petreius, 1525

VERY RARE. This copy corresponds with the description of his own copy given by Götz, and may be the same. See his account of its rarity and peculiarities, in Vol. III, Deutsche Bibeln, p. 158.

1568 PSALTER wol verteutscht mit Verklerung durch Johann Bugenhag, und Butzeri Vorrede, folio, Black letter, calf extra, by F. BEDFORD, RARE, £4. 4*s* Basel, Adam Petri, 1526

1569 DER PROPHET JONA (auch Habbacuc) auszgelegt durch Martinū Luther, 2 parts in 1 vol. sm. 4to. leaf A 1 of Habbacuc wanting, in the original stamped binding, 36*s* s. l. 1526

This volume cannot be identified with any of the editions which bibliographers mention as published in the year 1526.

1570 PROPHETEN (Alle) nach Hebraischer sprach verteutschet, sm. folio, woodcut title, in the original binding, £2. 16*s* Augspurg, S. Otmar, 1527

An excessively rare edition of the Worms Bible translation by Hätzer and Denken, wholly different from that of Luther, but also a Reformed one. It is quoted by Goetz, III, 215, as "eine höchst seltene Ausgabe."

1571 NEW TESTAMENT durch L. Emser sälige vteuscht, 12mo. woodcuts, some of which have been coloured, in the original binding, £2. 5*s* Leyptz. 1528

1572 ——— the same, a very fine copy in stamped pigskin, with clasps, £2. 12*s* Leyptzick, 1528

COMPLETE EDITION of Luther's version in the Low German dialect, a few insignificant wormholes, otherwise a fine copy in the original stamped binding, with clasps, £10.

Lübeck, Ludowich Dyetz, 1533 (at end 1534)

I sold a copy in 1864 for £15. It is an excessively rare volume, being the first Low Saxon edition, translated by Johann Hoddersen, of Luther's Bible, at the request of the great Reformer himself. Many of the notes are by Bugenhagen.

1574 BIBLIA: die gantze Heilige Schrifft Deudsch Mart. Luth. Theil IV, V, VI, in 1 vol. sm. fol. an immense number of fine woodcuts coloured and illuminated, frontispiece damaged, and a few other small defects, in the original binding, EXCESSIVELY RARE, £6. 10*s*

Wittemberg, Hans Lufft, 1534

A copy of this Bible fetched at Holland's sale, in 1860, £66. Contents of the above:—Die Propheten alle Deudsch; Apocrypha; das Neue Testament. The existence of this Bible has frequently been denied by the learned men of Germany, in consequence of its extraordinary rarity, caused by the destruction of most copies at a later period by the Roman Catholics. John George II. of Saxony was unable to obtain it for himself, and was obliged to rest contented with a mere sight of one copy then supposed unique. Goetz in describing this edition of Luther's Bible, says it is the one "welche unter allen Augsgaben der Bibel Lutheri mit Recht Princeps heissen kann." (Deutsche Bibeln, III. 166-171) where he also says that Kraft was right in naming this edition "die Allerrareste."

1575 BIBLIA, beider Allt und Newen Testamenten, . . . durch D. J. DIETENBERGER new verdeutscht, stout folio, woodcuts, good sound copy in stamped hogskin, both titles and the Bible itself quite perfect and in fine condition, only a leaf of errata missing, VERY RARE, £10. 10*s* Meintz, Peter Jordan, 1534

FIRST EDITION of the ROMAN CATHOLIC VERSION, produced during the time of the Reformation. "First edition of Dietenberger's German Bible, printed in double columns, intended to supersede Luther's version, it is of the utmost rarity. I find no copy in all the known collections of Bibles, also in no Catalogue; it was unknown to all the Bibliographers. This first edition is a remarkable book in a Biblical Library. Goezen's Sammlung seiner Bibeln. 4to. Halle," 1777, page 227.

1576 PSALTER, tzu Latein und Teutsch mit glosen durch die Carthauser in Colln (sic), 12mo. wanting title-page and other leaves, old impressed binding, with clasps, 10*s* 1535

A curious volume, in which the German translation and an explanatory commentary run together without distinction.

1577 Luther's Last Revision of the Bible. DIE PROPHETEN alle (und das NEWE TESTAMENT) Deudsch. D. Mart. Luth., thick folio, numerous fine large woodcuts by Lucas Kranach, very fine copy in pigskin, with clasp, £10. 10*s* Wittemberg, Hans Lufft, 1541

This forms the second volume of the complete Bible published by Luft for Luther in 1541—an edition pronounced by Goetz to be "indisputably the most remarkable in the entire series of the Luther Bibles." It contained the final result and perfect development of the great Reformer's scheme of translation.

Magdeborch, Wolffgang Kirchner, 1578

RARE. Goetz devotes four pages of his work to a full and particular description of this volume, which he styles "a very remarkable edition." It is the first edition of the Low Saxon Bible with marginal notes.

Colln, 1574

A curious metrical translation of the Psalms, written to correct the evil caused by the heretical Lutheran Psalter which some years before had been "botched-up by our dear strayed churchservants of Bonn." It deserves to be rescued from oblivion, as well as the translator's name.

1582 PSALTER mit D. Mart. Lutheri Summarien, 12mo. black letter, very fine copy in red velvet, gilt gauffré edges, 25*s* Lübeck, 1599

This Version in the Low-Saxon dialect is extremely rare. The preface is curious in its remarks upon the number of useless legends of Saints that had been published of late years, so that the Psalter "was left in darkness under the bench."

There are four editiones principes of the Septuagint text, that by Aldus in 1518, the Complutensian in 1520, that published by Grabe from the Alexandrine Codex in 1707 at Oxford, and the present, which may be looked upon as really the first edition. It was published from the Codex Vaticanus, and gives the original form of the Septuagint version, not the text as modified, altered, and completed by Origen, which appears in the Aldine and Complutensian volumes.

This is a Concordance of the Alexandrine copy of the Greek Septuagint, with the corresponding Hebrew words. The Index of the second volume furnishes a valuable Hebrew-Greek Lexicon, by giving the Hebrew words with their various renderings in Greek. 1643 BIBLIA SACRA HEBRAICA ET CHALDAICA (Hebrew Bible, with the Targums and Masoras, and the Rabbinical commentaries of Aben Ezra, Kimchi, Rashi, and others, edited by BUXTORF, with the TIBERIAS or Masoretic key in Latin) bound in 2 vols. folio, fine copy in vellum, £4. 10*s* Basel, König, 1620

Such a stupendous monument of English learning, of the patient and enduring scholarship of the last century, is not likely to be equalled by any similar undertaking in these days of superficial and wasted reading.

Brucioli who was condemned as a heretic (but had his sentence committed to banishment through the interest of some powerful friends) may be looked upon as one of the earliest of the Italian Reformers. His Bible is consequently an important item in any collection of editions of the Scriptures.

1669 BIBLIA. Tutti i Sacrosanti libri, tradotti in lingua Toscana, con commento di A. Brucioli, 7 vols. in 2, folio, very fine copy, half russia, £12. Venezia, 1542-47

Best and rarest edition of Brucioli's Bible, having the anti-Papal commentary which is not in the others. Complete copies of this work are very difficult to meet with, partly because it was issued at intervals during a space of six years, and partly because it was placed in the Index librorum prohibitorum.

1682 Latin. BIBLIA SACRA LATINA, 2 vols. in 1, stout large folio, fine copy, with illuminated capitals, in the original oak boards, recovered with stamped pigskin, £52.

In Urbe Maguntina per Petrum Schoiffer de Gernsshem, 1472

Extremely rare. It is reprinted, page for page, but with corrections, from Schoffer's edition of 1462, which is the first Bible with a certain date, and which is considered not to be so rare as the present volume. At the end of the book, in a contemporary handwriting, is a Manuscript containing Prologues to the Prophets.

1683 EVANGELIARIUM Quadruplex Latine versionis antiquae seu veteris Italicae, primum in lucem editum ex Codicibus Manuscriptis, sub auspiciis Johannis V. Regis Lusitaniae, a J. Blanchino, 2 vols. folio, Thick Paper, numerous fine facsimiles from ancient MSS. Codices of the Scriptures, chiefly European, hf. russia, £2. 18*s* ; or, vellum, £3. Romae, 1749

Two plates intended to be placed before p. 592 in Part II. were never published.

This is an important work, containing in a good critical edition with notes, the principal portion of the ancient Latin Testament used in the Church before the time of St. Jerome.

Lugduni, J. Sacon, expensis A. Koberger de Nuremburgis, 1513

Above the title is a woodcut figure, representing St. Jerome kneeling, headed by these words in large Gothic characters.—"Sanctus Hieronymus interpres Biblie." The woodcuts are by a Venetian artist, 144 in number, and some are of very curious character.—It is curious to find the "vir notabilis," Koberger, the illustrious printer of Nuremberg, resorting to a Lyons press after more than forty years' experience of typography.

1685 BIBLIA, cum Concordantiis, folio, very fine copy in sprinkled calf extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, £4. 10*s* Lugd. Sacon, 1516

This is a new edition of the preceding Bible, with the same woodcuts.

1686 DEUTERONOMION Mose cum Annotationibus M. Lutheri, Latine, sm. 8vo. fine copy in stamped pigskin, rare, 30*s* Wittembergæ, Johannes Lufft, 1525-24

The Annotations occupy two-thirds of the volume, and constitute its chief value. It may be surmised that Luther had an object in selecting the Deuteronomy or New Law for his commentation.

Paris, R. Stephanus, 1528

This is the first of the celebrated editions of Stephanus; and was, says Townley, "corrected from the best MSS. he could procure of the Vulgate version, as well as from the Complutensian Polyglott, and from all other printed editions he could obtain." This, as well as all Stephens' editions, was put on the list of prohibited works.

1688 BIBLIA LATINA. A fine specimen of the Gothic typography of the time. The woodcuts are new engravings on the same designs as those of the 1513 and 1516 Bibles.

1689 BIBLIA SACRA ex Santis Pagnini tralatione, sed ad Hebraicæ linguæ amussim novissime ita recognita ut plane nova editio videri possit (cum prefatione et notis SERVETI) folio, First Edition, fine copy in old red MOROCCO extra, gilt edges, £5. Lugd. 1542

This edition was suppressed on account of the notes of Servetus, which sought to prove that all the Old Testament prophecies usually supposed to refer actually to the Saviour's life had been historically fulfilled before his birth.

This curious treatise exposes the wonderful discrepancies between the two Papal editions of the Vulgate, that of Sixtus V. in 1590, and that of Clement VIII. in 1592.

A MS. note states that the translation was by Cypriano de Valera; but this is really the version of Cassiodoro de la Reyna, as in the Bear Bible, slightly improved by the former. The preface mentions the obstacles that the Church of Rome and Cardinal Ximenez had placed in the way of publishing the Bible in Spanish. Ricardo del Campo is said to be Richard Field, the celebrated London printer.

1769 ——— Vetus Testamentum, 3 vols. 4to. vellum, £3. 1723-29

The first volume of the Bible is printed on paper of excessively coarse texture and bad colour, which was evidently manufactured in India. The missionaries seem to have procured from Europe the paper used for the continuation of the work.

Mortier's illustrations to the Bible are eagerly sought for by collectors when in the state of "Avant les Clous." An accident having happened to the last plate in the Apocalypse, in passing through the press, it was repaired with nails, the marks of which shew in the later impressions. The impressions in this copy are very fine.

1790 CONFESSIO CATHOLICAE FIDEI Christiana, vel potius explicatio quaedam Confessionis a patribus factae in Synodo Provinciali, quae habita est PETRIKOVIAE, 1551, folio, fine portrait of Sigismund Augustus, King of Poland, calf, 20*s* Moguntiæ, 1557

The publisher of this celebrated Confession of Faith was the Polish Cardinal Hosius whose presence at the Council of Trent was considered indispensable by the Pope. It was given to the world with the above title by way of opposition to the Augsburg Confession. The book was printed at Maintz for a Posen bookseller, about twenty years before the establishment of printing in the latter town.

1792 CAVALLERIIS (J. B. de) PONTIFICUM ROMANORUM EFFIGIES, small 8vo. first impressions of the 230 portraits, olive morocco super extra, ornamented with gold tooling, gilt edges by Clarke and Bedford, Mr. Slade's copy, £3. 10*s* Romæ, 1580

This is a beautifully engraved series, which must not be considered imaginary; the engraver having collected his pictures from sepulchral monuments, ancient mosaics and frescoes, and from coins. The first Popes are consequently depicted from the works of early Christian art, while from the ninth or tenth century downwards the pictures are genuine portraits.

By far the best and completest history and illustration of animated nature that has ever appeared. It is in every sense of the word a NATURALIST'S LIBRARY, embracing the result of the labours of all the great natural historians brought down to the latest period.

"We could hardly have thought that any new periodical would have obtained our approbation so entirely as the 'Naturalist's Library;' but the price is so low, the coloured plates so elegant, and their descriptions so scientific and correct, that we cannot withhold our warmest praise. It is a perfect bijou, and as valuable as pretty."—LITERARY GAZETTE.

"This book is, perhaps, the most beautiful and the cheapest series ever offered to the public."—ATHENÆUM.

GLEANINGS from the MENAGERIE and AVIARY at KNOWSLEY HALL: HOOFED QUADRUPEDS, edited by J. E. GRAY, of the British Museum, impl. folio, 62 fine plates, thirteen of them very superbly coloured, from drawings by W. Hawkins Knowsley, 1850

The plates of this volume are selected from the series of Drawings of Ungulated Quadrupeds made by Mr. Waterhouse Hawkins for the Right Honourable the Earl of Derby, chiefly from the animals living in his Lordship's Menagerie at Knowsley Hall. They have been lithographed by Mr. W. Hawkins, and coloured under his superintendence.

The plates are accompanied by Lord Derby's notes on their habits, and by a brief description of the specimens of the various Genera, chiefly derived from the study of the animals at Knowsley, or in the British Museum."—J. E. GRAY.

1875 ——— the same, 2 vols. impl. folio, a picked presentation copy, with seventy coloured plates, cloth, £16. 16*s* 1846-50

PRINTED FOR PRIVATE DISTRIBUTION amongst the friends of the late Earl of Derby, to whose zeal for Natural History these volumes will remain a lasting monument. The editorship of Dr. Gray of the British Museum is a further guarantee for the excellence of this work, which is indeed the most correct and the most beautiful, especially as far as the MAMMALS are concerned, printed in Europe. The few single volumes which have at rare intervals turned up at sales, have fetched high prices.

To all Public Libraries this work is necessary, as the plates present most accurate delineations of rare Birds and Mammals, made by first-rate Artists from living specimens. The Knowsley Menagerie forms a necessary complement to the great work of Cuvier et Geoffroy St. Hilaire, "Histoire naturelle des Mammifères, 3 vols. folio, 1824-35," in which the plates and the text are inferior in beauty and accuracy to the above.

2102 Chinese Astronomy.—OBSERVATIONS OF COMETS from B.C. 611 to A.D. 1640, extracted from the Chinese Annals, translated, with introductory remarks and an APPENDIX comprising the Tables necessary for reducing Chinese time to European reckoning, and a CHINESE CELESTIAL ATLAS, 21 plates by JOHN WILLIAMS, F.S.A. Assistant Secretary of the Royal Astronomical Society, 4to. cloth, 15*s* 1871

This is a work the compilation of which has evidently been attended with very great labour and research. The number of observations amounts to 373, the whole of which have been carefully translated and are fully explained, and it perhaps forms the most complete list that has hitherto been published. The introductory remarks contain many particulars relating to the progress, &c. of Chinese Astronomy of the highest interest, together with a full explanation of the mode of using the Tables in the appendix. The Chronological Tables in particular will be found of great service to all persons who may be engaged in the study of Chinese History or in the investigation of their coinage. The celestial atlas also, which is copied from an original Chinese work on Astronomy, and which is fully explained, does not appear to have been hitherto published, and therefore forms an interesting addition to the work.

2231 ——— the same, 4 vols. 4to. LARGE PAPER, 360 COLOURED plates (pub. £20.) cloth, very rare, £12. 12*s* 1846-51

The "Phycologia Britannica" forms a complete illustrated history of all the Sea-Weeds inhabiting the shores of the British Islands; an entire plate, with a few exceptions in which it is unnecessary, being appropriated to each species. In addition to a characteristic figure of the specimen of the natural size, the detail of fructification and growth is exhibited in different degrees of magnitude, with that fidelity and minuteness, for the delineation of which the author is alone competent, from his knowledge of their structure, developed by the improved powers of the microscope. To effect a proper degree of delicacy in the figures, each subject is printed in its own tone of colour, the shades and varieties of tint being added by the pencil; and of the letter-press two pages are devoted to each plate or species, including generic or specific characters and ample descriptions, geographical distributions, synonymes, references, and a general summary of observations.

The beauty, variety, and extraordinary delicacy of colour of the marine Algæ have ever rendered this tribe of plants a favourite object of study; but hitherto a serious want has been felt of an adequately illustrated work, devoted to these plants. The admirable figures by Greville, comprise but a few of the most remarkable species, while the plates in the 'English Botany' are, in several instances, drawn from imperfect specimens, and do not afford that justice to the subject which modern discoveries and improvements render necessary.

2232 HARVEY'S PHYCOLOGIA AUSTRALICA; a History of Australian Seaweeds, comprising Coloured Figures and Descriptions of the more characteristic Marine Algæ of New South Wales, Victoria, Tasmania, South Australia, and Western Australia, and a Synopsis of all known Australian Algæ, by Dr. Harvey, F.R.S., 5 vols. royal 8vo. 300 COLOURED plates, (sells £7. 13*s*) cloth, £5. 15*s* 1858-63

This beautiful work, the result of an arduous personal exploration of the shores of the Australian continent, is got up in the style of the 'Phycologia Britannica,' by the same author. Each species has a Plate to itself, with ample magnified delineations of fructification and structure, embodying a variety of most curious and remarkable forms.

HOOKER, K.H., and JOHN GILBERT BAKER, F.L.S., Assistant Curator of the Kew Gardens, 9 plates, COLOURED by hand, (pub. £1. 8*s*) cloth gilt, 24*s* 1868

This is the cheapest and most complete book which describes all the Ferns throughout the world. So full and clear are its details that anybody who will take the trouble to master a few botanical terms can with certainty name any fern he may meet with in any part of the world, whether growing wild or under cultivation in garden or hothouse.

"Sir W. Hooker began collecting a Fern Herbarium in 1811. For this study this enthusiastic and illustrious botanist had all his life extraordinary advantages. The positions he occupied—first as Professor of Botany at Glasgow, and then as Director of the Kew Gardens—were made the most of, not merely by amiability of character which made his pupils and friends willing assistants, but at Kew he possessed the finest herbarium of ferns, and, thanks to Mr. John Smith, the best collection of ferns in cultivation in the world. The names of travellers and botanists to whom he acknowleges obligations fill a page and a half of his preface. When Sir W. Hooker died, his son, Dr. Hooker, requested Mr. J. G. Baker to carry it out, possessing as he did full access to the specimens, and being supplied with Sir William's notes and annotations. The result is the publication of such a work as the author designed—a vade mecum for the students, cultivators, and collectors of ferns. Athenæum.

The concluding 5 parts, comprising plates 126-130, can be had plain for 30*s*; coloured, for £3.

SMITH, with GENERAL INDEX, complete, ORIGINAL AND BEST EDITION, containing 2592 carefully COLOURED plates, systematically arranged, (pub. at £55. 6*s* 6*d*)—the 37 vols. bound in 25 vols. roy. 8vo.—Supplement, by Hooker, Babington, and others, Part 1-38, containing plates 2593-2781 carefully COLOURED, (pub. £5. 14*s*)—together 37 vols. in 25, half calf, UNCUT, and 38 parts, roy. 8vo. £25. 1790-1814-29-33

A most desirable set, this being an original copy, without any mixture whatever of the latter impressions; and having besides the peculiar advantage of being arranged systematically in classes, thereby facilitating the use and study of the work in no ordinary degree.

This fine work contains every English Plant and every Flower, truthfully delineated after nature, with a precise description. Original sets, like the above, are more accurately coloured than others.

2363 ——— the same, 10 vols. royal 8vo. half morocco, £22. 15*s* 1863-70

Vol. XI, containing the Grasses, will complete the work.

"Under the editorship of T. Boswell Syme, F.L.S., assisted by Mrs. Lankester, 'Sowerby's English Botany,' when finished, will be exhaustive of the subject, and worthy of the branch of science it illustrates. . . . . In turning over the charmingly executed hand-coloured plates of British plants which encumber these volumes with riches, the reader cannot help being struck with the beauty of many of the humblest flowering weeds we tread on with careless step. We cannot dwell upon many of the individuals grouped in the splendid bouquet of flowers presented in these pages, and it will be sufficient to state that the work is pledged to contain a figure of every wild flower indigenous to these isles."—The Times.

"Will be the most complete Flora of Great Britain ever brought out. This great work will find a place wherever botanical science is cultivated, and the study of our native plants, with all their fascinating associations held dear."—Athenæum.

"Nothing can exceed the beauty and accuracy of the coloured figures. They are drawn life-size—an advantage which every young amateur will recognize who has vainly puzzled over drawings in which a celadine is as big as a poppy—they are enriched with delicate delineations of fruit, petal, anther, and any organ which happens to be remarkable in its form—and not a few plates are altogether new. . . . A clear, bold, distinctive type enables the reader to take in at a glance the arrangement and divisions of every page. And Mrs. Lankester has added to the technical description by the editor an extremely interesting popular sketch, which follows in smaller type. The English, French, and German popular names are given, and, wherever that delicate and difficult step is at all practicable, their derivation also. Medical properties, superstitions, and fancies, and poetic tributes and illusions follow. In short, there is nothing more left to be desired."—Guardian.

"Without question, this is the standard work on Botany, and indispensable to every botanist. . . . The plates are most accurate and beautiful, and the entire work cannot be too strongly recommended to all who are interested in botany."

The history of the most ancient maritime nations affords conclusive evidence of the importance which they attached to the construction of secure and extensive Harbours as indispensably necessary to the extension of commerce and navigation, and to the successful establishment of colonies in distant parts of the globe.

To this important subject, and more especially with reference to the vast extension of our commerce with foreign nations, the attention of the British Government has of late years been worthily directed; and as this may be reasonably expected to enhance the value of any information which may add to our existing stock of knowledge in a department of Civil Engineering as yet imperfectly understood, its contribution at the present time may become generally useful to the Engineering Profession.

The Plates are executed by the best mechanical Engravers; the Views finely engraved under the direction of Pye: all the Engineering Plates have dimensions, with every explanatory detail for professional use.

This is the finest work on mammiferous animals ever published in any country, and has always been considered, both for the high talent displayed in the text and the extremely beautiful execution of the plates, which resemble drawings, as taking the first place in the class to which it belongs.

"Un des ouvrages les plus exacts et les mieux exécutés que l'on ait encore donnés sur les Mammifères."—Brunet.

"It is unnecessary to dilate upon the splendid style in which this work is brought out, or on the ability and fidelity that characterise as well the figures as the descriptions contained in it, since these must be well known to all who have seen any of the plates. It will doubtless form the standard work of reference for the Mammalia. Necessarily too expensive for general circulation, public libraries and the collections of the rich can alone possess it; but to these it is indispensable; while the manner in which it is executed renders it worthy of a place by the side of their most costly and elegant volumes."—Zoological Journal.

Audubon is celebrated for the truth and accuracy of his descriptions, and chiefly for the vigour and life-like character of his drawings. To those naturalists and collectors who have not room in their library for the magnificent work as it was originally issued by the author, this handsome edition will be found very useful. To each species there is a full description, and the illustrations are beautifully executed by Bowen from the author's own drawings. They possess all the animation which characterises the plates in the large edition, of which they are reduced copies.

Gurney's copy fetched £98.; good copies are usually sold for £110. and upwards. A most magnificent work, which for beauty and accuracy stands unrivalled. The celebrated Temminck, in his Manuel d'Ornithologie, emphatically remarks: "The birds of Europe sont d'un fini si parfait, tant pour le dessein, la pose et l'exacte vérité de l'enluminure, qu'on pourrait, avec de si beaux portraits, se passer des originaux montés." Only 280 copies are printed, and eventually the work must become as rare as it is beautiful.

"We must still consider the 'Birds of Australia' to be, on the whole, the most remarkable of the magnificent series of works for which the name of John Gould must ever remain famous in the annals of our science. The special journey to the Antipodes, undertaken for the collection of materials, the number and importance of new forms and new facts thus brought to light, and the complete novelty of the whole subject rendered the 'Birds of Australia' one of the most extraordinary works ever produced by the unassisted efforts of a private individual."

3052 ——— the same, parts I—XIII, imp. folio, containing 215 coloured plates, (pub. £40. 19*s*) bds. £24. 1850-61

The later works of Gould have been distinguished for the exquisite finish of the illustrations, but none is so remarkable in this respect as 'The Birds of Asia.' Drawn with all the fidelity which characterises his earliest productions, the birds represented in this work may be seen in the romantic beauty of their native haunts, and many of the bright-hued flowers of the East will be found figured in these magnificent illustrations.

3053 GOULD'S Monograph of the Trochilidæ, or Humming Birds, 5 vols. in 25 parts, complete, (pub. at £78. 15*s*) with 360 magnificent COLOURED plates, original subscription copy, £50. 1849-61

A copy in 1862 fetched £60.; another in 1863, £62.

Gould's "Humming's Birds" is the most fascinating and artistic of all his splendid publications.

"Anxious to render his representations of these lovely objects as faithful as possible, the Author instituted a series of experiments upon a new mode of colouring, which has been so far successful, that the birds are as closely imitated as Art can hope to be accomplished."—Author's Advertisement.

Under this title has been completed a series of 100 COLOURED ILLUSTRATIONS of NEW, or hitherto UNFIGURED BIRDS, to form a SUPPLEMENT to Buffon's Planches Enluminées, Paris, 1770-86; to Temminck's Planches Coloriées, 5 vols. Paris, 1838; and to Des Murs, Iconographie Ornithologique, Paris, 1845-49.

Although it was originally intended by the Authors that the subjects for illustration in this work should be selected from the many new and remarkable ornithic forms which the exertions of modern collectors have recently brought to light in nearly every part of the world's surface, particularly within the tropics, it was found as the work progressed, that it would be more convenient in this first series to restrict it to the illustration of the birds of the neotropical region, i.e. America south of the United States.

This series then contains illustrations of AMERICAN birds only, a few of them being taken from the interesting and peculiar forms inhabiting the West India islands; a greater number representing birds of Central America, a district personally explored by one of the Authors; the remainder are figures of species belonging to South America proper.

The species illustrated are 104 in number, belonging to 51 genera. To the final illustration in each genus is appended in almost every case, a systematic list of all the other American members of the same genus known to the Authors, and the geographical distribution, compiled from every available authentic source, has been added to each species mentioned in the work.

The majority of the specimens from which the drawings have been taken are to be found in the private collections of the authors, but the Museums of Berlin, Paris, and Neufchatel, and in England the British Museum, the Norfolk and Norwich Museum, and the Derby Museum of Liverpool, have all kindly lent specimens (many of them types) for illustration, and thus added materially to the value of the drawings in a scientific point of view.

This first series contains One Hundred Plates, each part contains eight coloured plates and two sheets of letter-press. The thirteenth part contains the last four plates, and the Title and Index to the volume.

Only One Hundred and Fifty copies, in imperial 4to. have been printed.

FIFTEEN copies have been printed on LARGE PAPER, royal folio, to match the Large Paper issues of Temminck and Des Murs.

3225 Cox (G. W.) and E. H. JONES, Popular Romances of the Middle Ages, 8vo. cloth, 9*s* 1871

The tales of the Arthur and Charlemagne cycles, with those of Guy, Havelok, and Beowulf, told in pleasant wise, with a learned introduction, in which Mr. Cox adds further evidence in favour of his admirable "Solar System" of Comparative Mythology. But surely it is going a little too far to hint a belief that the Day and Night theory is illustrated in Shakespeare's Othello, in the extinction of Desdemona by the Moor.

Ellis' "Early Romances" was meant to fill the same place in English literature as the Fabliaux of Legrand in French. It is however much more comprehensive, and takes in the legends of the Round Table and the Twelve Peers, besides many others.

3229 FERRARIO (Giulio) Storia ed Analisi degli Antichi Romanzi di CAVALLERIA e dei Poemi Romanzeschi d'Italia con Dissertazioni sull' origini de' Cavallieri, sulle Corti d'Amore, Tornei, &c. con la Bibliografia dei Romanzi (opera del Conte Melzi), 4 vols. 8vo. 34 plates of Armour, Military Processions, etc. hf. calf neat, gilt tops, uncut, £2. 16*s* 1828-29

The first two volumes of this curious and valuable work contain the historical part; the third and fourth are by Count Melzi, and comprise the Analysis of the contents, and a complete Bibliography of all the Italian Chivalric Romances, in prose or poetry.

3230 FERRARIO, e MELZI, Storia, Analisi, e Bibliografia dei Romanzi di Cavalleria, 4 vols. impl. 8vo. LARGEST PAPER, red morocco, gilt and blind tooled, in cases, £15. 15*s* Milano, 1828-29

One of the seven copies for presentation by the author, containing three sets of the plates.—1. Water-coloured and relieved with gold and silver—2. Taken on India paper, and of two colours—3. Etched. The present is unique, being that of the Count J. de Strassoldo, to whom the work is dedicated; and contains a leaf of Epigram to the Count, following the dedication, which exists in this copy alone. The binding is a chef-d'œuvre of the Italian style, the compartments being formed of pearls to the number of 3000, countersunk with marvellous effect.

3231 FERRARIO E MELZI, Analisi e Bibliographia de' Romanzi di cavalleria e dei poemi romanzeschi d'Italia, 2 vols. 1829 — Supplemento alla Bibliografia dei Romanzi, 1 vol. 1831—together 3 vols. impl. 8vo. uncut, 20*s* 1829-31

This is the most complete work of the kind ever published. Raynouard's collection of the Troubadours is vastly inferior in comprehensiveness to Von der Hagen's assemblage of their German fellow-minstrels, the Minnesingers. He gives their complete works, so far as known, with a life of each of the poets.

No less than 36 Tournaments are described, and the names of the Combatants, Nobles, and Ladies, amounting to many thousand, are given, together with numerous cuts of arms. There are the favourite topics of the most celebrated troubadours of mediæval Europe to be found in all their primitive beauty and simplicity; and without any disparagement to Sir T. Mallory or Mr. Tennyson, few can have any notion of the primitive beauty of these old tales till they read them in 'The Mabinogion.'"—Athenæum, No. 1814, Aug. 2, 1862.

3263 ——— the same, 3 vols. 8vo. calf gilt, £9. 10*s* 1801-7

An invaluable collection of the more ancient Welsh poetical remains—almost our only trustworthy source of information regarding the customs, ceremonies, and legends of the British people.

3264 GEOFFREY of MONMOUTH. The British History, translated into English, from the Latin of Jeffrey of Monmouth, by Aaron Thompson, 8vo. fine copy in calf extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, 36*s* 1718

The famous Jeffrey, so celebrated for his share in this work, died in 1153. The story of Merlin and Arthur occupy the second half of the book.

3265 BERGMANN'S Inquiry into the origin and signification of the Romances of the San Greal, 12mo. cloth, 1*s* 6*d* Edinb. 1870

3266 NASH'S Taliesin, or the Bards and Druids, a translation of the remains of the earliest Welsh Bards, and an examination of the Bardic mysteries, 8vo. cloth, rare, 18*s* 1858

An admirable critical work upon early Welsh literature, written by an Englishman, who with perfect fairness of spirit treats upon and disposes of many accepted theories. The origin of the Arthur myths, and the question of the existence of Druidic traditions in the poems of old Wales, are carefully discussed by the author.

3267 GLENNIE'S Arthurian Localities; their historical origin, chief country, and Fingalian relations, 8vo. with a map of Arthurian Scotland, cloth, 7*s* 6*d* 1869

Full of interesting facts concerning the composition of the population in Britain and South Scotland in the ante-English period.

3268 Merlin. GALFRIDI de MONEMUTA Vita MERLINI: Vie de Merlin, suivie des Prophéties de ce barde, etc. publ. par F. Michel et T. Wright, roy. 8vo. sd. 7*s* 6*d* Paris, 1837

The Latin life of Merlin by Geoffrey of Monmouth, with preliminary dissertations on the Merlin romances, and kindred subjects. The French romance is said to have been composed by Robert de Borron, whose name occurs so frequently in the prologues of the Arthur stories.

3269 LE SECOND VOLUME DE MERLIN, nouuellement imprime à Paris, small 4to. gothic letter, old French green morocco, £2. 10*s*

Cy fine le second volume de Merlin, nouvellement imprime a Paris en la grande rue sainct Jacques a lenseigne de la Rose blanche couronnée, xxviii

There is no printer's name to this volume, which however belongs to the edition of 1528, published by Philippe Lenoir, in three volumes. It has frequently been supposed to have no date, but the letters xxviii, which stand alone some distance below the colophon, sufficiently express the time of printing.

3270 MERLIN'S Life and Prophecies, by T. Heywood, small 4to. frontispiece, fine copy in red morocco extra, border of gold, gilt edges, £2. 10*s* 1641

3271 Arthur. ARTHUR AND MERLIN, a metrical Romance, now first edited from the Auchinleck MSS. (by Turnbull) 4to. frontispiece by Sharpe, cloth, 36*s*; or in blue morocco extra, gilt edges, £2. 8*s* Edinburgh, Abbotsford Club, 1838

A valuable form of the legend and undoubtedly well edited, but it is to be regretted that the "Exordial Observations" of the editor contain not a word of critical remark on the age, history, and character of the MSS.

3272 ARTHUR (King) The Byrth, Lyf and Actes of KYNG ARTHUR; of his noble Knyghtes of the Rounde Table, theyr mervellous Enquestes and Adventures, thacheyeuyng of the Sanc Greal; and in the end Le Morte Darthur, reprinted from Caxton's Edition of 1485, with Introduction and Notes by SOUTHEY, 2 vols. 4to. bds. uncut, £5. 10*s*; or, in russia, gilt backs, £4. 4*s* 1817

3275 MORT D'ARTHUR: the most Ancient History of Prince Arthur, in English by Sir T. Malory, reprinted from the edition of 1634, 3 vols. 16mo. frontispieces and plates, calf, appropriately tooled, 25s 1816

This is a rival edition to the one in two volumes, and claims to be a better book.

3277 ——— the same, 3 vols. 8vo. cloth, 15s 1866

The four preceding editions all contain the story of King Arthur as told in the simple prose of Sir Thomas Malory. They ought by right to rank after the Lancelot below, but are here given the first place after Merlin's life which they seem naturally to occupy. The real order of composition of the Arthurian romances was as follows: the History of the Grail, the life of Merlin, the romance of Lancelot, the Quest of the Grail, and the Mort d'Arthur.

3278 LELANDI (T.) Genethliacon illustrissimi Eäduerdi Principis Cambriæ, 1543—Cygnea Cantio cum Commentariis, s. a. (1545)—Laudatio Pacis, 1546—Assertio inclytissimi Arturi Regis Britanniæ, John Herford, 1544—in 1 vol. sm. 4to. fine copies in morocco, gilt edges, by J. Mackenzie, £2. 2*s* 1543-46

A copy of the first article in this volume fetched £3. at Sir Mark Sykes' sale. All these pieces are rare and valuable.

3278*RITSON's Life of King Arthur, 8vo. bds. 9s 1825

The poetical antiquary is very hard upon the Welsh, but still judiciously critical.

3279 The Holy Grail. ROMAN DU SAINT-GRAAL, publié pour la première fois d'après un Manuscrit de la Bibliothèque Royale par Francisque Michel, sm. 8vo. uncut, 10s 6d Bordeaux, 1841

This metrical romance is not to be confounded with the following one in prose, although it no doubt furnished a goodly proportion of the work of Walter Map on the Grail. It was composed by an unknown author in the twelfth century. It is different from the lost work of Guyot le Provençal upon the Holy Grail, which is only represented at the present day by the Perceval of Wolfram von Eschenbach, who embodied in it the best part of Guyot's work. (See Bergmann.)

3280 CEST LHYSTOIRE DU SAINCT GREAL qui est le premier liure de la Table Ronde... ensemble la QUESTE dudict sainct Greaal faicte par Lancelot, Galaad, Boors, et Perceval qui est le dernier liure de la Table Ronde, 2 vols. in 1, small folio, title printed in red and black within woodcut borders, woodcuts throughout the text, fine copy in blue MOROCCO, gilt edges, by Duru, £120. Paris, Philippe le Noir, 1523

This is the genuine work of Robert de Borron, translated with presumably large modifications and additions, at the request of Henry III of England, from the Latin original which Walter Mapes had written for Henry II, upon the basis of the old Celtic legends of England and France. Some critics have been inclined to doubt that a Latin original ever existed, since none has descended to us.

"One of the most remarkable editions of these romances is that of Paris, in folio, published in 1516, in which the history of the Grëal is divided into two branches." —Bergmann. "Philippe Le Noir en donna à Paris, en 1523, une réimpression qui est tout aussi rare que l'édition originale (de 1516)."—Francisque Michel.

3281 ALBRECHT VON SCHARFENBERG und WOLFRAM VON ESCHENBACH, TYTURELL, altdeutsche Gedicht, folio, old calf, £16. 16*s*. s. l. et typ. nom. (Augsburg, Günther Zainer,) 1477

This is the early history of the Holy Grail, down to its establishment in the East, as the palladium of the Prester John dynasty, of which the first monarch-priest was the knight Perceval. Titurel had been the keeper of the Grail in the west, in Spain, and its removal only took place after his death; the disappearance of the sacred vessel from Europe being the cause of the famous Arthurian Quest. This poem was composed by Albrecht from the fragments left by Wolfram of his poem of Titurel, and from other sources. The latter lived at the beginning of the thirteenth century, the former towards the end.

3282 Lancelot. LANCELOT DU LAC, 3 vols. in 1, small folio, numerous woodcuts, slightly wormed, and a few leaves cut in head-line, morocco, gilt edges, £25. Paris, 1513-20

3283 ——— the same, 3 vols. small folio, a fine copy in old French green morocco, gilt edges, £96. 1513-20

The Lancelot is supposed as well as the Grail to have been composed in French by Robert de Borron after the Latin original of Walter Map.

The present is an extremely rare edition of this fine prose Romance, of which Brunet mentions a copy as annoncée in the Stanley sale, and selling for £34. 13*s*. adding, "Nous ne l'avons pas vue."

Lancelot was the noblest knight of the Round Table, and his story is the most interesting in the whole cycle of the Arthur romances. There is an irresistible charm in the simplicity of the old French chronicle which although written in prose has all the pathos and fascination of a beautiful poem.

Those who have read Tennyson's magnificent poem will derive no small enjoyment from the simple and dignified prose of the old French romance.

Paris, Jehan Petit, 1533

This is typographically the finest edition of the romance. As far as the text is concerned it follows closely the publication of 1513 above described.

3285 LANCELOT DU LAK, a Scottish Metrical Romance, edited by Stevenson, 4to. printed for the Maitland Club, bds. 20*s*; or, hf. morocco, £1. 4*s* Edinb. 1839

Printed from a fifteenth century MS., the only copy known.

3286 Meliadus. LES NOBLES FAICTZ DARMES DU VAILLANT ROY MELIADUS DE LEONNOYS: Ensemble plusieurs autres nobles proesses de Chevalerie faictes tant par le roy Artus, Palamedes, le Morhoult DIRLANDE, le bon chevalier sans paour, Galehault le brun, Segurades, Galaad, que autres bons Chevaliers estans au temps dudit roy Meliadus, folio, beautiful copy from the private library of King Louis Philippe (Palais Royal), red morocco super extra, gilt marbled edges, EXTREMELY RARE, £48. Paris, 1532

Meliadus was the father of the more celebrated Tristan, but the romance relative to the latter was compiled earlier. According to the prologue of the volume, and to the usually received accounts, the story of Meliadus was compiled by Rustician of Pisa (the writer who took down, in barbarous French, from Marco Polo's dictation, the first edition of the latter's travels) at the request of Edward I. of England, sometime towards the end of the thirteenth century. The above edition is headed on every alternate page "le premier volume," but there is no other and the work is complete in itself; the error arising from the circumstance that Meliadus and Giron le Courtois were generally written together in one MS. The preface of Giron also was frequently applied to the former, and the authorship of Meliadus attributed in consequence to Helie de Borron, Henry III's romancist.

3287 Tristan and Isolt. TRISTAN, recueil des Poèmes relatifs à ses aventures composés en Francois, en Anglo-Normand, et en Grec, dans les XII et XIII siècles, publié par Michel, 3 vols. 12mo. cloth, 36*s* 1835-39

The third volume contains a Nouveau Recueil, discovered and published some years later than the others.

This romance was in former days the most popular of all the Round Table stories.

3288 TRISTAN CHLR. DE LA TABLE RONDE nouuellement imprime a Paris, 2 vols. in 1, folio, 2 large woodcuts, the final leaf said to be in facsimile, otherwise a fine copy in green MOROCCO extra, gilt edges, from Utterson's library, £48. Paris, Verard, 1496 (? 1504)

The most celebrated, and generally considered to be the most beautiful, of all the Round Table Romances. It does not really, however, belong to the genuine original series of those fine old legends; for although existent in poetical form at an earlier period than the prose compilation of the Lancelot and the Grail, the first author of the above French prose narrative, Luces de Gast, a Norman knight, who lived in England about the beginning of the thirteenth century, is believed to have falsely engrafted the story upon the Round Table cycle. He pretended to derive it, like the other romances of the series, from the original Latin book of the Holy Grail, attributed to Walter Map.

There is a peculiarity in the above copy of Verard's second edition which deserves to be noted. It belongs entirely, with the exception of the last "facsimile" leaf, to the second undated edition (according to Brunet's words) by Vérard, which the bibliographer attributes to a date after September 1503. But the so-called facsimile leaf bears the following colophon: "Imprime a Paris Lan mil quatre cents nonante six par Verard libraire demourant dans la grãt rue sainct Jacques." Now Vérard only lived in that street from Sept. 1500 to Sept. 1503; he was "sus le Pont Nostre Dame" in 1496; and Brunet describes the two undated editions as bearing his address: the first "sus le pont Nostre Dame," the other "devant la rue neufve nostredame," where he took up his abode after September 1503. This peculiar circumstance is enough to shew that the volume was injudiciously described in the sale-catalogue, and sold as "a unique copy of an unknown edition."

3289 TRISTAN DE LEONNOYS. Les grandes Proesses du tres vaillant, noble et excellent cheualier Tristan filz du noble roy Meliadus de Leonnoys & Cheualier de la Table Ronde, sm. folio, the last two leaves supplied in Manuscript, red morocco extra, gilt edges, by J. Wright, EXCESSIVELY RARE, £18. Paris, (D. Janot) 1533

From the Library of E. V. Utterson, Esq. who in a MS. note has pointed out the excessive rarity of this celebrated Romance of Chivalry in Prose, showing that there is no perfect copy either in the National Library of Paris or in the British Museum. Crozet's copy sold for 400 francs, and in these days would probably sell for three or four times that sum.

Imprimee à Paris pour Galliot du pre, 1522

THE RAREST AND FINEST edition of this celebrated Romance. The Solar copy fetched 2000 francs.

This romance appears to have been a composition of the fifteenth century. The prologue mentions the story as having existed formerly in short and fragmentary episodes, and alludes to the narrative which follows as being the only complete history of Isaie, and apparently of recent compilement. It is only the orgin of the hero which connects the romance with those of the Round Table. The chief battles it recounts are all between Christians and Saracens, and amongst the prominent characters are fairies and a goblin dwarf. The title of the above volume bears the words "nouvellement imprimé," but there is no record of any earlier edition than this, which is equally remarkable for its rarity, and its condition as a beautiful specimen of typography.

Paris, J. Bonfons, s. d. (cir. 1548)

Dunlop was not aware of more than a single edition of this work, and considered it to be the rarest of all the French Romances of Chivalry. The present copy sold for £26. 10*s* in Mr. Roupell's sale.

3292 Gawain. GOLAGRUS AND GAWANE, a Knightly Tale, with other ancient Poems, with Introduction by D. Laing, 4to. Black Letter, woodcuts, reprinted from the unique copy of the Edinburgh edition of 1500, morocco extra, gilt edges, by Riviere, £5. 15*s* Edinb. 1827

Only 76 copies were saved from the disastrous fire which destroyed the printer's premises, and even these were partially burnt so as to render it necessary to inlay several of the leaves.

This old Scottish poem, dating probably from the fourteenth century, is considered by the editor to be an original work, not a translation. The position of Gawain amongst the Round Table Knights ought to give this volume a priority of order over the Tristan and Isaie above mentioned. It has no connection however with the Grail, any more than those Romances.

3293 Giron the Courteous. GYRON LE COURTOYS avecques la Devise des armes de tous les chevaliers de la Table Ronde, folio, Editio Princeps, curious woodcuts, fine copy in red MOROCCO super extra, gold tooling on sides, gilt edges, by J. Wright, EXCESSIVELY RARE, £52. 10*s* Paris, A. Verard, s. d. circ. 1500

This copy does not bear a title printed on the obverse of the first leaf (the reverse of which contains a large woodcut), although it is certain that some, probably the later, copies were so issued.

Mr. Utterson, to whom the copy formerly belonged, has prefixed a leaf containing a facsimile in manuscript of the titular words as he found them in some other copy. That variations exist between copies is shewn by the circumstance that Brunet remarks that folio c is marked CIIII, whereas in this copy it is printed correctly, and the book has, moreover, a Prologue, of which he makes no mention.

The story of Guiron was composed by the knight Helie de Borron, a kinsman of Robert de Borron, at the request of Henry III of England, early in the thirteenth century. It is one of the most interesting of the Round Table romances. Francis I was so fond of it that he commissioned Luigi Alamanni to render it into Italian verse, and thereby became the originator of the Poet's Girone il Cortese.

For an interesting MS. of Gyron, see No. 138 on p. 32 ante. It is to be regretted that the printed editions of the book are very inferior to the original MS. Brunet says, however, that "Celle de Vérard est la plus belle et la plus recherchée, et les exemplaires complets en sont fort rares."

3294 GYRONE IL CORTESE di LUIGI ALAMANNI, sm. 4to. title within woodcut border, fine copy in calf, 25*s* Parigi, 1548

Francis I asked the poet to turn the story of Giron into Italian verse, about a year before his death; it did not therefore appear till the accession of Henri II, to whom the book is dedicated.

3295 Arthur of Little Britain. ARTUS DE BRETAIGNE. Histoire des Merveilleux faicts du preux & vaillant Chevalier Artus de Bretaigne, et des grandes adventures ou il s'est trouvé en son temps, sm. 4to. woodcuts, fine copy, with autograph of Le Riche, in green morocco extra, gilt edges, by Duru, £14. Paris, Nicolas Bonfons, 1584

3296 HYSTORY OF THE MOST NOBLE AND VALYAUNT KNYGHT ARTHUR OF LYTELL BRITAYNE, translated out of Frensshe into Englysshe by the noble Johan Bouchier, Knyght, Lord Barners, folio, woodcuts, Black Letter, crimson morocco, by Hayday, £15. Powles Churcheyard, at the sygne of the Cocke, Robert Redborne, n. d. (cir. 1576)

3297 ARTHUR OF LITTLE BRITAIN, a Romance of Chivalry, translated from the French by John Bourchier Lord Berners. A new Edition by E. V. Utterson, 4to. with a series of plates from illuminated drawings, calf extra, gilt edges, by J. Mackenzie, £2. 12*s* 6*d* 1814

This romance only belongs to the Arthur series by the single circumstance that its hero is a descendant of the noble Lancelot. It was composed by an unknown French author early in the fifteenth century.

3298 Turpin, CRONIQUE ET HISTOIRE faicte et composee par reverend pere en dieu TURPIN archevesque de Reims lung des pairs de Frãce, contenant les prouesses et faictz darmes advenuz en son temps du tres magnanime Roy Charles le Grãt autremẽt dit Charlemaigne & de son nepveu Rolãd, sm. 4to. Editio Princeps, Gothic letter, woodcuts, RARE, A VERY FINE COPY, in morocco extra, gilt edges, £45.

Imprime a Paris par Maistre Pierre Vedoue pour Regnault Chauldiere demourant a la Rue Sainct Jacques ce huitiesme iour de juing mil cinq cens XXVII. 1527

The original French romance was probably composed in the 11th century from the Latin chronicle attributed to Turpin. The above printed volume is a sixteenth-century redaction or renovation of the old French text, which seems to have gone through two or three different forms since its first compilation. As for the contents of the Turpin romance, Paulin Pâris maintains, with an excellent show of reason, that several chansons de geste upon the deeds of Roland and Charlemagne were in existence in the tenth and eleventh centuries, and that the first Latin composition on the subject was made by an unknown writer, bringing these scattered materials into one body, and decorating his work with the false title of a Chronicle by Archbishop Turpin. Whatever be the truth of these speculations, the Turpin romance is the basis and starting point of all the existent Charlemagne romances, just as the history of the Grail by Walter Map stands amid those of the Arthur cycle. And the edition of 1527 is the princeps of the Turpin romance.

3299 CHRONIQUE DE TURPIN. This is not the same work as the above Chronique de Turpin, but incorrectly entitled so. It is, as Brunet has pointed out, a new edition of the romance called the Conquête de Trebisonde, which was first printed about 1530.

The Paladins whose story is related in the Reali, begin with Rizier the Frank in the time of Clovis, including the great Bevis of Hampton in England, and end in Roland the nephew of Charlemagne. The Reali di Francia is the great Italian popular romance of Charlemagne and his peers. Ferrario derives it through French from the Latin, others hold it for an original work. Whichever opinion be correct, and whoever may have been the author, the Italian romance was existent in the thirteenth century.

Emilius and Amicus are two saints of the Roman Martyrology, having been killed in a battle fought by Charlemagne against the Lombards. The romance is very old; but its present form is no doubt a later recension. It does not come down so far as the Ronceval fight in the history of the Twelve Peers.

A pseudo-romance of chivalry, chiefly concerning Roland.

3345 MORGANTE MAGGIORE composto per LUIGI DE PULCI & aggionto per lui in molti parti, &c. ritracto novamente del vero originale, &c. sm. 4to. in gothic letter, woodcuts, title mounted, leaves r i, r ii, r vii, r viii, and sheets, s, t, u, wanting, hf. calf, £2. 10*s* 1517

This famous and popular poem was constructed by Pulci from the older chronicles and romances of Roland and the peers of Charlemagne, while frequenting the court of the magnificent Lorenzo. The first edition appeared in 1481. It is generally recognized in modern times as a burlesque upon the romance of chivalry, but it was not so considered in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. Pulci may be looked upon as a forerunner of Cervantes; but although the burlesque element of his poem cannot be ignored, this does not seem at all likely to have been its chief feature in the intention of the author.

3348 ORLANDINO, per LIMERNO PITOCCO da Mantoa composto, 12mo. a few words defective on the last leaf, calf, 15*s* Vinegia, Bindoni, 1550

VERY RARE edition, being, according to Brunet, the one chiefly preferred. A counterfeit edition exists, but the above is the genuine book. The author is Teofilo Folengo the Macaronic writer known as Merlinus Coccajus. The Orlandino is a burlesque romance on the infancy of Roland.

Probably one of the rarest of the Italian metrical romances. The author of this Roland-poem is unknown. He probably lived during the fifteenth century.

3351 ORONTE Gigante de leximio poeta ANTONIO LENIO, continente le battaglie del Re de Persia et del Re de Scythia fatte par amor de la figliola del Re de Troia, capitani de Perse Rinaldo et de Scythe Orlando, sm. 4to. woodcuts, from the library of Diane de Poitiers, and in very fine state, in the original decorative binding, bearing her and the King's monogram with her initials, the fleur-de-lys and the royal H surmounted by a crown, an admirable and perfect specimen of an interesting historical binding, £63. Vinegia, Aurelio Pincio, 1531

The book itself is very rare, but the chief interest of the volume lies of course in its precious covering. The fly-leaf bears the name of "Jo. Garetus, 1670;" and how it came into his possession one may imagine from the fact that the grandfather of that learned Benedictine had been major-domo at the Château d'Anet, the pleasant summer-residence bestowed by Henri II upon the fair and accomplished Diana, and in which she died in her neglected old-age in 1566. It must have been about the time of her death that the honest steward took possession of the book, as an elegant memorial of his mistress.

This unfinished heroic poem is a branch from the great Orlando tree of Pulci, Boiardo, and Ariosto.

3353 Olger the Dane. L'HISTOIRE D'OGIER LE DANNOIS, Duc de Dannemarche, qui fut l'un des douze Pairs de France, sm. 4to. woodcuts, fine copy in veau fauve, gilt marbled edges, £15. Lyon, 1599

A very rare edition. Few can imagine, without reading, the freshness and the interesting character of this old romance as told in the original style. No reprint or modernization can convey the same impression. Ogier, the gallant Dane, stands during part of his history in a relation of antagonism to his master, Charlemagne, as the peerless Launcelot does to King Arthur.

The romance of Ogier was existent in the eleventh or twelfth century in a Latin prose original; and not long afterwards appeared in French metrical form. The text of the French prose romance was probably written in the fifteenth century.

3355 DOON DE MAIENCE, chanson de geste, publiée pour la première fois d'après les MSS. par Pey, 12mo. cloth, 5*s* Paris, 1859

This form of the story dates from the thirteenth century, although it is believed to have existed earlier. Doon or Doolin of Mentz was the grandfather of Ogier and the founder of the Danish line; but in chronological order of composition he is much younger than his grandson.

3356 GAUFREY, chanson de geste publiée pour la premiére fois par Guessard et Chabaille, 12mo. cloth, 5*s* Paris, 1859

Geoffrey was son of Doon and father of Ogier. The same remarks apply to this romance as to that of Doon.

3358 The Four Sons of Aymon. ROMAN DES QUATRE FILS AYMON Princes des Ardennes, 8vo. sd. 12*s* Reims, 1861

This is the only edition of the old chanson de geste, upon which the prose narrative was afterwards founded. Few of the Charlemagne romances have been so popular as this; the sufferings undergone by the noble Renaut, or Rinalt, and his three brothers, in the course of their persecution by the emperor and their father, and their deeds of adventurous daring, having created a wide and strong interest in the story.

The language of these two romances is quite modernized from the editions described below.

A marvellous history, full of enchantment and diablerie, which forms a supplement to the story of the Four Sons of Aymon and other personages in that series.

3363 Huon of Bordeaux. HUON DE BORDEAUX, chanson de geste publiée pour la première fois d'après les MSS. par Guessard et Grandmaison, 12mo. cloth, 7*s* 6*d* Paris, 1860

Supposed to have been composed in the thirteenth century. The story begins in a similar way to the Four Sons of Aymon, Huon's misadventures commencing with the slaying of Charlemagne's son, on the arrival of the former at court, just as the troubles of Rinalt and his brothers begin with his homicide of the emperor's nephew.

3364 HUON DE BORDEAUX. Les gestes et faictz merveilleux du noble Huon de Bourdeaulx, Per de France, Duc de Guyenne. Nouuellement redige en bon Françoys, sm. 4to. Black Letter, woodcuts, very fine copy in red morocco super extra, gilt marbled edges, by Trautz-Bauzonnet, £25. Paris, pour Jan Bonfons, s. d. (cir. 1550)

This romance belongs to the Charlemagne series, although not to the "Douze Pairs de France." All but one of these original twelve having been "slain at Ronceval," while Huon's adventures relate to a later period of the Emperor's reign. It is excessively rare in whatever form; as besides the French editions, there are only an English version and a Flemish one. Of these latter, the English exists in two editions, (1530) and 1601, only one copy of the first being known to exist, and only one copy of the second having come into the public market for sale. Of the Flemish one, there is but a single edition, the existence of which has only recently become known. The book was never translated into Spanish, Italian, or German. The original poem in the langue d'oil, and the date of the prose romance, are referred to in these words at the end: "Le quel livre et hystoire a este mis de rime en prose. . . . lan 1454." It is from Huon, that poetical literature, especially English, and the opera, have derived the graceful character of Oberon, King of the Fairies.

3365 HUON DE BORDEAUX, 2 parts, 1675-76—QUATRE FILS AYMON, rude woodcuts, 1675—3 vols. in 2, sm. 4to. calf, 6*s* 6*d* Troyes, N. Oudot, 1675-76

The ancient language is almost entirely preserved in these editions, the merest possible alterations being made for the sake of clearness.

The story of the giant Ferumbras, Fierabras, or Ferragus, has been popular all over Europe. He was at first a Saracen, but being vanquished by the Paladin Oliver, turned Christian, and joined the warriors of Charlemagne. Critics have discovered that the above trouvère chanson is anterior to the troubadour one below.

The editor does not state the probable date of the MS. from which the book is printed, but mentions that it bears the signature of an Elizabethan possessor.

The events of Garin's story, which is largely historical, are placed in the time of Pepin the Short, and form one of the introductory legends to the series of Charlemagne romances.

3. Amadis and the sequels.

The first four books, which really constitute the genuine whole of this famous romance, were originally written in Portuguese, (although they have never been printed in that language) by Vasco de Lobeira, sometime in the fourteenth century. They are also, however, attributed with a fair show of reason to Spanish origin, and Garci-Ordoñez de Montalvo, the editor of the Spanish version, simply speaks of his own work as a modernization of one more ancient. The Portuguese MS. of the first four books of which Barbosa attested the existence, has since his time disappeared. Of these books in Spanish no more ancient edition is known than that of 1519, although they must have been printed before that time, and the earliest edition of the fifth book (Esplandian) known is that of 1521, which was also edited, or as some consider, composed by Montalvo. The various continuations were published by other hands at different times down to 1546. In 1540, Nicholas de Herberay commenced his famous French translation which extended to the eighth book. Other hands carried it on to the twelfth book, printed in 1556, and this work achieved perhaps as great a popularity in its French form as any production of romantic literature ever yet known. The twelfth or final book in Spanish was published in 1546, and was translated, with a series of continuations from other sources, so as to form books 13-21 of the French Amadis, printed 1571-81. The work really ends with the twenty-first part, but some anonymous writer composed three more parts as a continuation to the French edition, which he published in 8vo. form in 1615. The Italian version is in 25 vols. 1546-94, and has Belianis of Greece added as a final Supplement.

3374 AMADIS DE GAULA. Los Quatro libros de Amadis d'Gaula nueuamente impressos & hystoriados, folio, numerous rude woodcuts, EXTREMELY RARE, very fine copy in brown morocco super extra, gilt edges, by BEDFORD, £30. Venecia, Juan Antonio de Sabio, a las espesas de Juan Batista Pedrazano, e Compaño, 1533

The editor in his preface speaks of the book in the following manner: "Este libro se celebra por muy antiquissimo, y assi lo parece en el su gentil y gracioso estilo." This evidently refers to an ancient Spanish text, not to a Portuguese original; as also in the heading where Montalvo mentions his correction of the "antiguos originales que estavan corruptos."

According to the Priest (in Don Quixote) Amadis de Gaul was the first of the Romances of Chivalry in Spain, and as the father of so pernicious a sect deserved to be thrown into the flames, but was spared at the intercession of the Barber "as the best of all the books of the kind." Colonel Stanley's copy sold for £50.

Salva describes this edition as extremely rare, and catalogues it without a price, merely quoting the sum fetched at Stanley's sale. He enters into long particulars concerning the excessive scarcity of this and similar works, both in Spain and elsewhere.

3375 AMADIS DE GAULE, mis en François par le Seigneur des Essars, Nicholas de HERBERAY, (avec la continuation par d'autres traducteurs) 21 parts in 32 vols. 16mo. uniform in old calf neat, £10. 1577-81

VERY RARE in this uniform state, and indeed rare in any. The last part is entitled, Vingt-uniesme et dernier, and bears in the colophon, Fin de l'histoire d'Amadis. It is thus seen that the three 8vo. volumes concocted as a supplement in 1615 are no integral or necessary portion of the work.

The above set is composed as follows: Vols. 1-8, 13-17, were printed by Didier at Lyons in 1577; 9-12, 20-22, by Rigaud, Lyons, 1575-78; 18, 19, Chamrey, Poumar, 1575; 23, 24, Lyon, Michel, 1578; and 25-32, by Cloquemin, Lyon, 1579-81.

Bernardo Tasso, the father of the more famous Torquato, composed this poem upon the deeds of Amadis, as contained in the original four books, some forty years before the date of this edition. It has been very frequently printed, and was supposed to possess so much poetical merit, that one critic stupidly and impiously preferred it to the Orlando Furioso.

3377 AMADIS of GAUL, from the Spanish Version of Garciordoñez de Montalvo, by SOUTHEY, 4 vols. 12mo. calf, £2. 2*s* 1803

Southey gives only the four books which represent the genuine original Amadis, omitting the Esplandian which Montalvo added as a fifth book to the Spanish version.

The Knight of the Burning Sword was great-grandson of Amadis of Gaul. His history constitutes the 9th book of the Spanish Amadis and the eighth of the French, while it forms Vols. 8, 9, 10, of the Italian. Feliciano de Silva was probably the author.

3385 BELLIANIS OF GREECE. The Honour of Chivalry: or the famous and delectable History of Don Bellianis of Greece, with Continuation by J. Shurley, 3 parts in 1 vol. sm. 4to. calf, £2. 16*s*

E. Tracy on London Bridge, 1703

A very scarce edition of a famous Romance of Chivalry, a copy of which sold for £3. 4*s* in Goldsmid's sale. Shurley was tolerably faithful in his rendering of the first part, but the second is disguised and altered in the most liberal style, while the third part is all his own composition.

Belianis is usually treated as a supplement to the Amadis, although it has really no connection with it. The book was first composed in the sixteenth century, in Spanish, by Geronimo Fernandez, who professed to take it from a Greek original.

3386 VERDERE (M.) Love and Armes of the Greeke Princes, or the Romant of Romants, translated for Philip Earle of Pembroke and Montgomery, 3 vols. in 1, small folio, hf. bound, £2. 5*s* 1640

This curious work, the Romance of Romances, forms a supplement and continuation to all the books of Amadis, and also to the Palmerin and Primaleon. I cannot trace the existence of the French original mentioned on the title; is is possible there is none such, and that the book may be completely English. The empires of China and Mexico are mentioned towards the end of the third part. A contemplated fourth part never appeared.

4. Palmerin and its sequels.

The romance of Palmerin de Oliva, which formed the starting-point of this series, was first published in Spanish in 1525 at Seville. It is of the same class as the Amadis, but inferior in interest to that famous work of fiction. Southey's criticism quoted below may be read with qualifications, as to the character of the book and its authoress, the carpenter's daughter of Burgos.

P., calf*, £2. 2*s* Anvers, Jan Waesberghe, 1572

"As a woman's picture of female morals, this book is truly curious; the utter want of all decent feeling which it manifests, is surprising even to a reader of romances. It is not that the book is obscene—far from it; the lady authoress commits every other crime as coolly as she does murder."—SOUTHEY.

Auquel seront recitees ses grandes proësses: & semblablement la chevaleureuse bonté de Florian du desert, son frere, avec celle du Prince Florendos, filz de Primaleon, traduit de Castillan par Iaques Vincent, 2 vols. in 1, folio, beautiful copy in red morocco super extra, ornamented with gold tooling, gilt edges, by Capé, £10. 10*s* Lyon, 1552-53

This first French edition is very rare. The Spanish edition had been printed at Toledo four years previously.

3394 PALMEIRIN DE INGLATERRA, Cronica de, por Francesco de Moraes, a que se ajuntaõ as mais Obras do mesmo autor, 3 vols. sm. 4to. BEST EDITION, fine copy in old Spanish calf, 28*s* Lisboa, 1786

3395 ——— the same, 3 vols. sm. 4to. red morocco, gilt edges, 35*s* ib. 1786

Priced, Thorpe, £2. 2*s*; fetched, 1858, £1. 14*s*. Moraes was of course only the Portuguese translator of the Spanish story by Luis de Hurtado, but his compatriot the editor of this edition claims the entire authorship for him.

3396 PALMERINO D'INGHILTERRA, et Floriano dal Deserto suo fratello, con alcuni gloriossi fatti del Principe Florendo, tradotto dal Spagnuolo, 3 vols. 12mo. fine copy in green morocco extra, gilt edges, from Miss Currer's library, £2. 2*s* Venetia, 1609

RARE. - Priced, Thorpe, £3. 13*s* 6*d*. The third part is added to the original work, and contains the Primaleone Secondo. "Questo romanzo è reputato il più perfetto dell' antica cavalleria."—Melzi.

3397 FLORTIR. HISTORIA del Cavalier Flortir, nella quale si ragiona de i magnanimi fatti, imprese, & amori di esso Cavalier, very stout 12mo. hf. russia, formerly in the library of Mr. Heber, and recently in that of Mr. G. Smith, 16*s* Venetia, 1581

A rare and little known prose Romance of Chivalry. Flortir was the son of Platir and consequently grandson of Primaleon. His story is the last of the Palmerin series.

3398 Godfrey, or Jerusalem delivered. TASSO, GERUSALEMME LIBERATA, tratta dal vero originale, con l'allegoria dello stesso autore (per cura di Febo Bonna), small 4to. Editio Princeps of the complete work, a fine copy in vellum, from Dr. Wellesley's library, £2. 5*s* Ferrara, Baldini, 1581

This is the FIRST COMPLETE EDITION of the text, and has the editor's dedication, dated June, 1581. It has not the Argomenti by Horatio Ariosti which appeared in the edition of July.

3399 TASSO, la medesima (seconda edizione di Bonna), con gli' Argomenti del S. Horatio Ariosti, small 4to. woodcut border, fine copy in blue morocco extra, gilt edges, from Dr. Wellesley's library, £2. 12*s* Ferrara, hered. di F. de Rossi, 1581

This is the second and improved edition by F. Bonna, with the dedication dated 20 July, 1581. It is entirely a distinct edition from the preceding. Heber's copy fetched £3. 4*s*. The rarity of the above two editions is seen from the following circumstance which shews that they were inaccessible to the editor of the Milan edition of 1820. He alters the word volto (in the 62nd stanza of Canto V) which appeared in the 1584 edition (from which he reprinted) and in all the other editions he referred to, except only that of Parma, 1581, into volo, on the faith of this last edition and of his own critical sense. Now, both the Ferrara editions of 1581 above described, are anterior to that of Parma, and contain the correct reading volo.

Only 200 copies were printed of this, the most elegant of all the editions. Priced, 1830, Bossange, £8. 8*s*; 1855, Bernal's copy fetched £6. 10*s*.

3407 ——— la Gerusalemme Liberata, edizione sopra quella di Mantova, 1584, 2 vols. 8vo. numerous plates, portrait, hf. calf, uncut, 14*s* 1820

Only THIRTEEN COPIES WERE PRINTED on this paper. This Baldwin, who followed Godfrey's brother on the throne of Jerusalem, is not to be confounded with Baldwin Count of Flanders.

Imprimé a Paris, pour Jean Bonfons, n. d. (cir. 1510)

Heber's copy fetched £9. 19*s* 6*d*. The romance of Baldwin, Count of Flanders and Latin Emperor of Constantinople, occupies only about one-third of the book; the remainder is a continuation and includes even the Crusade of St. Louis. The impostor who set up in Flanders as the returned Crusader, and who tried to verify his claim by informing Baldwin's daughter of some curious private marks on her body, is treated in the romance as having been the real Baldwin himself, the husband of the Devil according to the chronicler.

6. Special Romances.

Alexander. This romance of Alexander was originally composed in Greek by a monk named Æsop (Pseudo-Callisthenes), probably before the tenth century. The name of the Latin translator, Julius Valerius, seems to be the only particular known respecting him.

3413 HISTORIA ALEXANDRI MAGNI regis Macedonie de Preliis — HISTORIA TROIANA GUIDONIS (de Columna)—2 vols. in 1, folio, russia extra, gilt edges, £3. 3*s* Argentine, 1486

3414 ——— Historia Alexādri Magni Regis Macedonie de Preliis, small folio, calf extra, by Prout, £2. 2*s* Argent. 1489

The above editions are identical in their text, which is a rifaccimento of the version of Julius Valerius, and it is from it that the French and German Alexander-romances seem to have been rendered. The French metrical romance, however, seems to have existed so far back as ths eleventh century. There are some interesting observations on the subject by Chassan and Berger de Xivrey.

3415 THE ALLITERATIVE ROMANCE OF ALEXANDER, from the unique MS. in the Ashmolean Museum, edited by Stevenson, 4to. hf. morocco, uncut, £2. 12*s* 6*d* Roxburghe Club, 1849

This English poem may be referred to the beginning of the fifteenth century.

3416 BUIK OF THE MOST NOBLE and vailzeand conquerour ALEXANDER THE GREAT, 4to. bds. £2. 2*s* Bannatyne Club, Edinb. 1831

3416*——— the same, Utterson's copy with the title-page and the first initial illuminated by him, hf. morocco, uncut, £2. 12*s* 6*d* 1831

This is reprinted from the unique copy of the old edition printed at Edinburgh by Alexander Arbuthnot about the year 1580. But as is the case with many of the club-books, there is no introduction to state either the origin of the romance, or the probable date of the original impression.

3417 TRADITIONS TÉRATOLOGIQUES, ou récits du Moyen-Age en Occident, sur quelques points de la Fable et du Merveilleux, par Berger de Xivrey, 8vo. chiefly illustrated from the Alexander romance, with portions of the unpublished Greek text, sd. Humboldt's copy, 6*s* Paris, 1836

Angelina. The origin of this romance is questionable. In spite of the statement of translation from the Norman language (by which that of the Trouvères is meant) it seems likely to be purely of Italian invention. Only two or perhaps three editions of it are known.

3418 NOTABILE et famosa Historia del felice innamoramento del DELFINO DI FRANCIA et di ANGELINA LORIA, nobile Siciliana, novamente ritrovata & dall' antica lingua Normanna tradotta da Giulio PHILOTEO DI AMADEO, stout 12mo. First Edition, a leaf of Index wanting, vellum, gilt edges, VERY RARE, 15*s* Venetia, Tramezzino, 1562

The Arcadia. This famous romance is always called a Pastoral, but it has equal right to be placed amongst Romances of Chivalry. The story is of knights and fair ladies; love and battle are both woven into the high-flown conceitful prose, and the stately poetry of Sir Philip Sidney. He composed the Arcadia in the years 1580-81, and it was first published in 1590.

3419 SIDNEY (Sir Philip) THE COUNTESS OF PEMBROKE'S ARCADIA, now the fourth time published, with sundry new additions by the same author, (Sonnets, Defence of Poesie, Astrophel and Stella, and the Lady of the May, sm. folio, dedicated to the Countess of Pembroke, with autograph and book-plate of James Adams, the Architect, morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, £15. *London, for Matthew Lownde*s, 1605 which has been usually considered as the genuine fourth edition. For an account of this rare volume, see "A brief account of an unique edition of Sir Philip Sydney's Arcadia, by Mr. J. O. Halliwell, (printed) for private circulation only, 1854," a transcript of which is bound with this copy, at the end.

The May-Lady was a kind of al-fresco masque or dramatic entertainment played before Queen Elizabeth at Wanstead, in which there is some dialogue strongly reminiscent of Shakespeare.

3420 THE UNFORTUNATE LOVERS: the history of Argalus and Parthenia, 16mo. rude woodcuts, 12*s* n. d. cir. 1750

This is portion of the Arcadia, rewritten. The effort made by the adapter to gild Sidney's refined gold has only resulted in the production of a most extraordinarily inflated and unsurpassably fustian style. 1672 is the date of the first edition noted by Mr. Hazlitt, who does not however seem to have observed the connection between this little book and the Arcadia.

Aucassin and Nicolette.—This romance is compared by the editor with the Daphnis and Chloe of Longus. It was composed by a nameless trouvère in the thirteenth century.

3421 AUCASSIN ET NICOLETTE, Roman de Chevalerie Provençal-Picard, publié avec introduction et traduction par A. Delvau, 8vo. Black Letter, fine copy on vellum paper, blue morocco super extra, by Belz-Niedrée, £2. 2*s* Paris, 1866

Only 150 copies printed.

Only two copies were printed upon vellum.

Beowulf.—This great heroic poem, the oldest monument of the English tongue, is shewn by Mr. Kemble to have been composed in Schleswig in the fifth century. It may not perhaps have been committed to writing until it was carried into Britain by the wild Teutonic warriors, and the civilisation of the vanquished Celts was transferred to them. The home of Beowulf, an Anglish warrior, was the battle ground of the Dane, the Jute, and the Saxon, and in the very poem which celebrates his deeds we may discern the chief reason why the name English has prevailed to designate the common tongue of the conquerors of Britain, although the Saxons were by far the most numerous amongst them.

3422*BEOWULF. Poems of Beowulf, the Travellers' Song, and the Battle of Finnes-Burh, Anglo-Saxon and English, with Historical Preface, Glossary, and Philological Notes, by John Mitchell KEMBLE, 2 vols. 12mo. cloth, only 100 copies printed, cloth, £2. 10*s* 1833-37

3423 Bruce and Wallace.—THE BRUCE, or the History of Robert I, King of Scotland, written in Scotish verse by John BARBOUR, (Archdeacon of Aberdeen) the first genuine edition published from a MS. by Pinkerton, with notes and glossary, 3 vols. sm. 8vo. engravings on titles, £2. 16*s* 1790

This is a fine old epic poem, historically faithful in the main, but full of knightly pictures which entitle it to a place here. It was written little more than fifty years after the death of Dante, whose name Mr. Pinkerton mentions with depreciation by the side of Barbour. Tastes cannot be accounted for, but it was surely a curious one which induced the editor to prefer "the Bruce" to the Divina Commedia.

Edinburgh by Andrew Anderson, 1673

Blind Harry's poem was composed about a hundred years after that of Barbour. His name is not mentioned in this edition, in the preface of which the poem is attributed to John Blair. The fact is that John Blair, who was a contemporary of Wallace, wrote a chronicle in Latin, which Blind Harry is supposed to have made use of. The language is modernised in the above edition.

3430 ——— the same, hf. roan, sprinkled edges, 8*s* 6*d* 1853

Best edition of this famous chronicle. It was composed probably in the thirteenth century, and exhibits at once the character of a faithful history, of a great prose-poem, and of a romance of chivalry. "It is overflowing with the very spirit of the times when it was written, and offers us so true a picture of their generous virtues, as well as their stern violence, that it may well be regarded as one of the best books in the world, if not the very best, for studying the real character and manners of the ages of chivalry."—Ticknor.

3431 Sir Degory of England.—SIRE DEGARRE, a Metrical Romance of the end of the 13th century, 4to. with facsimiles of woodcuts in Wynkyn de Worde's edition, cloth, privately printed for the Abbotsford Club from the Auchinleck MS. 21*s* Edinb. 1849

No French version of this poem is known, and although Mr. Utterson is probably correct in supposing that it was written originally in French, it was no doubt composed in England.

Floris and Blancheflore.—The legend of these two lovers, which Boccaccio afterwards made his own, is very ancient; it is known to have existed before the twelfth century, but nothing has come down to the present time earlier than the French metrical versions of the thirteenth century.

The French version of this Romance of Chivalry is much more rare than the Italian original. The Italian original is however only an amplification by Boccaccio of the still more ancient French story mentioned above.

Sir Generides.—The French original of this romance has never been seen: that there was such an original is proved by the existence of portion of an edition by Wynkyn de Worde, of an English metrical translation, and the MS. containing a different version, which has been printed by the Roxburghe Club, and in which the translator alludes to the geste "that was radde in frensh ryme." The English MS. dates from about 1430.

3437 ROYAL HISTORY of the excellent knight GENERIDES, (a metrical romance) edited from the unique MS. by Furnival, 4to. hf. morocco, uncut, £2. 5*s* Roxburghe Club, 1865
There is considerable merit in this romance; the translation printed by Wynkyn de Worde contains a later version, much less spirited and poetical.

Gerard of Nevers.—There is another Romance of the Violet in existence, different from the present. The subject was a favourite one, and is met with in history as well as in fiction. A lady is wrongfully accused, her accuser mentions some secret mark (the violet) as a proof of his assertion, battle is done, and her champion forces him to confession in the moment of defeat.

This historical romance, which might perhaps better be placed under the heading of National Ballads, is lavishly interspersed with poetry, and contains some of the finest old ballads in the language. The segunda parte is a continuation of the chronicle, and relates the insurrection and final ruin of the Moors under Philip II.

Guy of Warwick.—This ancient English romance is attributed to the monk Walter of Exeter, who lived in the 13th century, but whether he wrote it in English or French is doubtful. Portion of it seems to have suggested some of the incidents of Ivanhoe; as, for instance, the return of Guy, disguised as a palmer, from the Holy Land, the impending combat with the giant Colbrand, the regret expressed to the palmer by King Athelstan for the absence of Sir Guy, the acceptance of the combat by the pilgrim; the victory, and the throwing off of the champion's disguise.

3447 ROMANCES of Sir GUY of WARWICK, and Rembrun his Son; now first edited from the Auchinleck MS. by Turnbull, stout 4to. black letter, plates, cloth, 30*s* Edinburgh, 1850

Only 100 copies were printed. This metrical Romance is allowed to surpass all the other Club publications in a philological point of view, and as illustrative of ancient manners.

3448 ROWLANDS (S.) THE FAMOUS HISTORY OF GUY EARL OF WARWICK, smallest 4to. A METRICAL ROMANCE, with curious woodcuts, one leaf defective and another wanting at end, blue morocco, gilt edges, from Mr. Utterson's library, VERY RARE, £2. 10*s* Edward Brewster, 1679

This rifaccimento by Rowlands became, like the original, a popular book. It was first published in 1632, but most of the copies have now disappeared.

3449 THE NOBLE AND RENOWNED HISTORY of Guy, Earl of Warwick, extracted from authentick records, 18mo. curious rude woodcuts, hf. morocco, 10*s* 1759

A modernised prose version of the old rhymed Romance, with fragments of verse scattered through.

Havelock the Dane.—The story of Havelok (a name sometimes confounde with Anlaf) seems to have some connection or points of contact with Guy of Warwick and Bevis of Hampton. So far as a romance of chivalry can be considered historical, the Lay of Havlok may be said to stand between the Brut or Arthur, and the Rollo or Norman Conquest; and to form a link in the English chronicles between the Saxon Conquest of Britain and the Conquest of Neustria and England by the Northmen. Like so many other romances, the Havelok is said to be derived (in French, in the thirteenth century, as its earliest now existing text) from Breton or Welsh legends, which seems to be well founded from the fact that Haveloc's name, while serving as a scullion, is Quistron, a word evidently formed in part of the Welsh and Breton Gwas or Gwaz—servant.

Not the least able of the many learned and valuable works that have adorned the laborious career of Sir Fred. Madden.

die heideschafft, sm. folio, numerous woodcuts, including the excessively rare large one at the beginning, dark morocco extra, gilt edges, by BEDFORD, £25. Hagenaw, Henrich Gran, 1509

One of the rarest books printed at Hagenau. When copies do occur, they are almost always imperfect and in very bad condition. Panzer imagined that this edition was the first (it is really the third), and considered it a highly important and remarkable book, especially as being a collection of the oldest German poetry.

Jehan de Saintré.—Composed about the middle of the fifteenth century, for the pleasure of the French dauphin. The plot is fictitious, and turns on the secret love of a page for a royal lady, but the faithful and vivid pictures which the story gives of the courtly and knightly life and manners of the time, compose the chief value of the book. The princess turns faithless, and meets with a public exposure in the end. The page is intended to be the representative of perfect knighthood and gallantry; and is not wholly an unreal personage, whatever may be considered of the lady.

Lepolemo is described as the son of Maximilian, the Emperor of Germany, carried away in infancy to the East.

3459 Melusina. MELUSINE par Jehan d'Arras, nouvelle édition conforme à celle de 1478, avec une préface par Ch. Brunet, 12mo. cloth, 7*s* 6*d*; or, in red morocco extra, gilt edges, 10*s* Paris, 1854

3460 MELUSINE nouvellement imprimée, sm. 4to. woodcuts, £4. 4*s* 1692

This work, called the History of Lusignan, or of Melusine, the fairy daughter of the King of Albania (Scotland), was written by Jean of Arras at the command of the Duke of Berry in 1387. The author professed to have found his materials in the chronicles furnished to him by the Earl of Salisbury.

3461 MELUSINE. Analysis of the metrical Romance of Melusine, sm. 4to. neat English MS. by E. V. Utterson, including extracts from the old French poem, with 2 very neat drawings, hf. morocco, 12*s* cir. 1830

The poet states that he had been requested by the Sieur de Partenay in Poitou, a descendant of Melusine, to rewrite the poem from an older metrical form, and that the older work had been compiled from the Earl of Salisbury's books. This does not agree with the received belief that Jean of Arras had written his story in prose, in the form in which it exists printed; yet it hardly seems likely that an earlier poetic version can have been made between 1387 and the time of composition of the MS. (about 1430).

J. Wright, with the monogram of E. V. Utterson in gold on sides, £4. 4*s* Louvain, Jean Bogard, s. d.

EXTREMELY RARE. This edition is quite equal in rarity with that of Lyon, 1549, which sold for £15. in the Roxburghe sale. Brunet describes it as printed about the year 1560, but 1590 would be a more correct approximation of the date.

3463 The Need of the Nibelungs. DER NIBELUNGE NOT mit der Klage, in der ältesten Gestalt herausgegeben von Lachmann, 4to. bds. 5*s* 1826

3464 DER NIBELUNGEN NOTH, Bearbeitung des Textes von Pfizer, roy. 4to. with numerous beautiful illustrations by Schnorr von Carolsfeld and Neureuther, calf extra, gilt edges, full gilt back, £2. 12*s* 6*d* 1843

The old text has only been so far modified as was necessary to make it readable as a modern German poem, slightly irregular in its metres.

3465 Octavian. OCTAVIAN, Emperor of Rome, a Romance abridged from a MS. in the Bodleian (by Rev. J. J. Conybeare), sm. 8vo. bds. uncut, scarce, 15*s* Oxford, 1809

Only 50 copies printed. Bp. Randolph's copy sold for £2. 2*s*.

This is abridged in English from a French MS. of the thirteenth century. The romance also exists in German (see Buch der Liebe, ante) and in Danish.

3466 Oliver of Castille. HISTORIA de los muy nobles y valientes Cavalleros Oliveros de Castilla y Artus de Algarve y de sus maravillosas hazañas, compuesta por Pedro de la Floresta, 12mo. vellum, 25*s* Barcel. 1726

Floresta was only the editor. The romance is an old one, and although the earliest known printed edition is in French, 1489, professedly translated by Philippe Camus from Latin, it is most probably of Spanish origin. The earliest known edition in Spanish is of Burgos, 1499. It exists as well in Italian, German, Dutch, and English, Wynkin de Worde having printed an edition in this last language in 1518. The interest of the book is almost wholly English, the principal scene of adventure being laid in England and Ireland.

3467 Palladian of England. PALLADIEN. Histoire Palladienne traitant des Gestes et genereux Faitz d'Armes et d'Amours de plusieurs grandz Princes et Seigneurs, specialement de Palladien Filz du Roy MILANOR D'ANGLETERRE et de la belle Selerine Sœur du Roy de Portugal; nouvellement mise en nostre vulgaire Françoys par C. COLET, folio, woodcuts, fine copy in calf extra, gilt edges by Koehler, £7. 7*s* Paris, Jan Dallier, 1555

VERY RARE. This romance is believed to be translated from the Spanish, although there is nothing to justify such a supposition in the book, and although a Spanish original has never been seen. Collet had already translated the ninth part of Amadis. The preface to Palladien by Etienne Jodelle is very interesting, his friendship for Collet and his dislike of useless romances being both strongly expressed, although he admits that the latter had so many arguments on the other side —"que je commençoy à fléchir quelque peu et cognoistre que le temps employé aux romans n'était pas du tout dependu en vain."

3468 PALLADINE OF ENGLAND, translated out of French by A(nthony) M(unday), small 4to. black letter, woodcut frontispiece cut out and mounted, calf extra, gilt edges, by C. Lewis, with the arms of Goldsmid in gold on sides, £5. 1664

This second edition of Munday's translation is very scarce. I can only find a record of four or five copies, and it is not improbable that the greater part of the edition perished in the Fire of London. The first edition was printed in 1588.

3469 PALLADINE OF ENGLAND, the famous, pleasant, and delightful History of, translated by A(nthony) M(unday), 12mo. second edition, woodcut, hf. calf, 10*s* J. F. & sold by J. Marshall, n. d. (cir. 1670)

Paris and Vienna.—The French translation, made early in the fifteenth century, states that the story came from Catalan, through Provençal. It must be very old, as it existed in German at the end of the thirteenth century, and was in 1308 translated into Swedish. Versions exist also in Italian, English, Flemish and Latin. In fact the Italian and the English translations (the latter by Caxton) were printed before the first French edition, which appeared in 1487.

3470 HISTOIRE DU CHEVALIER PARIS ET DE LA BELLE VIENNE, edition publiée d'après les Manuscrits de la Bibliothèque Royale, large 8vo. calf, gilt edges, 120 copies only printed, £2. 2*s* Paris, 1835

Richard Minshull, in the preliminary pieces, has the impudence to claim this book as his own invention (although he only modernised it), and to accept the congratulations of Thomas Haywood and other friends on the achievement of it. This shews that the early editions by Caxton and Wynkin de Worde were wholly forgotten. This edition is also rare, as Mr. Hazlitt refers to it without specifying any copy, and evidently without having seen it, as he does not notice the engraved title.

Parismus.—This Romance appears to exist only in English. The author was Edward Ford, but not the same as he who wrote "Wine and Women," although Lowndes makes one man of the two. The first edition of Parismus was apparently published in 1598.

3472 PARISMUS. The most famous, delectable and pleasant History of Parismus, the most renowned Prince of Bohemia, with the second part containing the Adventures of Parismenos, 2 parts in 1 vol. sm. 4to. Black Letter, woodcut frontispieces, calf, gilt edges, scarce, £2. 16*s* 1684

A Prose Romance of Chivalry, which, in 1698, belonged to Matthias Rogers, who in an autograph note records the names of this and eight other Romances in his possession.

The author of this romance, Denis Piramus, lived in the early part of the thirteenth century, in the French dominions of Henry III of England. The story exists in Spanish, Catalan, German, and Danish translations, all of which had been published long before the French text saw the light.

3480 PARTINOBLES. General Historia del esforçat Cavaller Partinobles, Comte de Bles: y apres fonch Emperador de Constantinopla, sm. 4to. Romance of Chivalry in the Catalan dialect, 68 pp. woodcut on title, bds. 16*s* Gerona, Jaume Bró, (cir. 1700)

It is said that an ancient Catalan version of the story was in existence in the fifteenth century (probably derived from the French original), but the present volume is stated to be "newly translated from Castilian."

Perceforest. The author of the Perceforest is unknown. The story is of a later and inferior class as compared with the Round Table and Charlemagne romances, but as containing a true picture of the code and ceremony of chivalry in its full development, a special value must be attached to it; and it was for that reason that Sainte-Palaye used the Perceforest as the groundwork of his History of Chivalry. It may have been composed about the beginning of the fifteenth or end of the fourteenth century. The description of its origin given in the second chapter is manifestly fictitious. The name of the Grail-hero, Perceval, suggested, no doubt, that of Perceforest, although Mr. Bergmann fancies he can find the origin of the former name in two Arabic words: Fáris-fál (the imprudent knight). Perceforest may be added to the Arthur series, as it touches slightly upon the Grail, and alludes to the descendance from the heroes of this romance, of Meliadus and Tristan and other Knights of the Round Table.

3482 PERCEFOREST. La tres elegante, delicieuse, melliflue et tres plaisante Hystoire du . . . Paris, par N. Cousteau pour Galliot du Pre, 1528

Besides the Towneley, the Roxburghe and Utterson's copies, none appears to have been sold in England for some years. "Edition la plus recherchée de ce roman, dont les exemplaires sont fort rares." – Brunet.

3483 PERCEFOREST. La treselegante delicieuse melliflue et tresplaisante Hystoire du tresnoble victorieux & excellentissime Roy Perceforest, ROY DE LA GRANT BRETAIGNE, avecque les merveilleuses Entreprinses Faitz et Adventures du tresbelliqueulx GADIFFER ROY DESCOSSE, 6 vols. in 2, folio, black letter, fine copy, but a corner of T iii in Vol. 2, a portion of title to Vol. III restored with a pen, and a part of the Table torn off, calf, £15. Paris, G. Gourmont, 1531-32

This edition of Gourmont, 1531, is almost as rare and as much in request as that of Galliot Du Pré, 1528, mentioned above. In fact the fifth and sixth volumes of this copy are from that edition, and bear that date.

3484 Polimantes. THEATRE D'HISTOIRE. Où, avec les grād's Prouesses et Auentures etranges du Noble et Vertueux Chevalier Polimantes Prince d'Arfine, se representent plusieurs occurrences fort rares et merveilleuses (par PHILLIPE DE BELLEVILLE) sm. 4to. many curious engravings, FIRST EDITION, old calf, £3. 16*s* Brux. 1613

"Ce roman est très-recherché surtout à cause de ses charmantes et nombreuses gravures à l'eau forte dans le genre de Della Bella."

Dedicated to Albert Archduke of Austria on his marriage with the Infanta, and their entry into Belgium in 1599.

3486 Pontus. PONTUS UND SIDONIA. A fine copy of this rare Romance; which is particularly interesting to English collectors, not merely because the heroine is named a British queen, but because this translation from the French original is stated on the title to have been made by "Heleonora, queen of Scotland, archduchess of Austria." This lady was not

Queen of Scotland, but one of the daughters of King James I. She married Sigismund, Archduke of Austria in 1468, and died 1480. The translation (which seems from the preface to have been made from the Latin, not directly from the French), is very creditable to a Scottish princess.

3486* Kynge Rycharde Cuer de Lyon, sm. 4to. A METRICAL ROMANCE, Black Letter, woodcuts, rebound in calf, the original sides stamped with curious figures of Birds, Beasts, &c. being preserved, gilt edges, only five copies known, £75. Wynkyn de Worde, 1528

Daniel's copy fetched, in 1864, £92. Mr. Hazlitt is mistaken in stating that the book has only 97 leaves, A 1 being "probably blank;" it has really 98 leaves, without any blanks. The title is the first leaf of signature A. The present copy has one leaf, G 8, admirably reprinted in fac-simile.

Richard sans Peur.—This metrical Romance is different from the prose one in which the same Richard is represented as king of England.

3488 King Roberd of Cysylle, (published from the fifteenth century MS. in English verse, by E. V. Utterson), 12mo. hf. bd. uncut, 15*s* 1839

Only thirty copies printed, and not for sale.

Robert the Devil.—This curious legend exists in prose and in verse, in French and in English. It is also found in Spanish. The French metrical version dates from the thirteenth century. The extraordinary pranks played by this semi-historical Robert, make the romance almost a grotesque one. It has always been popular.

The Roman de Rou is a history of the Normans from the conquest of Normandy by Rollo to the Conquest of England by William, but chiefly relating to the latter event. The Brut romance is the old story by Geoffrey of Monmouth (Vid. 3425).

Seven Champions of Christendom.—This is entirely an English romance, although Richard Johnson, its author, may have drawn his materials together from many sources. It was published originally in 1596-97, and attained a wonderful popularity throughout Great Britain. The number of editions is countless, from its first dignified appearance in 4to. as food for adult and high-born readers, to its latest issue as a chap-book from the contemporary press of Seven-Dials. The language is highly inflated and bombastic, with a special flavour of its own, yet it is certainly superior to the style adopted in the third part, although M. Y. the unknown author of the latter accounts for his own greater beauty of language by the fact of the refinement of style brought about through the lapse of time!

The events of this tragical story of seven noble Spanish youths, slain by the Moors, through the treachery of their uncle, occurred about the year 1000. They must have been sung in many a popular ballad before they were first written down in the thirteenth century, in the Royal Chronicle of Spain.

3502 Siege of Troy. SENSUYT LA DESTRUCTION DE TROYE LA GRANT par psonnages, faicte par les Grecz, avec les merveilleux faitz du PREUX HECTOR de Troye filz du grant roy Priam, (par maistre Jaques Millet licencie en loix), sm. 4to. "Edition recherchée . . la seule où ce mystère soit attribué à J. de Mehun."—Brunet.

This dramatic poem or Mystery, written by Jacques Millet about the year 1450, ought not to be confounded with the other works which were composed on the same subject by Guido Colonna, Jean de Meung, and Raoul Le Fevre, each of them being a completely different narrative.

3504 [LE FEVRE (Raoul)] The Ancient Historie of the Destruction of Troy, shewing how it was . . . destroyed by Hercules, re-edified and destroyed the second time; how Priamus rebuilded Troy and for the Composed by Raoul Le Fevre, chaplain of Philip, Duke of Burgundy, about the year 1460, from the supposititious works of Dares and Dictys, in the same manner as Guido Colonna had composed his story. It was afterwards translated and printed by Caxton at the request of the Duchess of Burgundy; and of his version the above is a modernized edition. Shakespeare, if we consider him the real author of Troilus and Cressida, knew the book, and used it in preference to the tale as told by Guido Colonna and Lydgate.

Mr. Inglis has written a note on the fly-leaf to the following effect: "This romance seems to have been in greater favour than any of the translations of Homer, till it was superseded by the more popular version of Pope, which will probably maintain its place against all the later versions, some of which are not even in an idiom that any English reader will ever tolerate." This is an absurd and impertinent statement, Lefevre's book having no connection whatever with Homer. Out of the 546 pp. which the book contains, only forty or fifty run parallel with the Iliad; and the quarrel between Pelides and Atrides does not appear in it at all.

3510 ——— Supplément: Huit Planches manquant dans les éditions de 1775 et 1799, folio, 18*s* Vienne et Paris, 1869

☞ This is the work CARLYLE spoke so highly of in his recent political letter on the present war.

The engravings of this very curious work, invaluable for the military art and for the manners and customs of the Middle Ages, were executed in 1516-19; but owing to the death of the Emperor were never published until 1775. Unfortunately 8 of the wood-blocks were missing and were searched for in vain. The cuts however were facsimiled at Paris in 1869, and form the Supplement to the above copies.

The Weiss Kunig contains the Life of Maximilian as written by himself in allegorical and chivalric strain; Treitzsaurwein having only put the papers in order. He represents the various princes of Europe by such titles as the Red King (of England), the Blue King (of France), etc. and gives the history of his career from his birth. The Tewrdank may be considered as an amplification of one of the episodes of the Weiss Kunig. An interesting fact told by him is that of his having learnt the English language from a number of English bowmen with whom he exercised, soon after his marriage with Mary of Burgundy.

3511 DIE GEUERLICHEITEN UND EINS TEILS DER GESCHICHTEN DES LOBLICHĒ STREITBAREN UND HOCHBERÜMBTEN HELDS UND RITTERS TEWRDANNCKHS, folio, not quite perfect, but containing 115 of the 118 beautiful woodcuts by Hans Schäufelein and Hans Burghmair, in the ancient calf binding, £6. 10*s* (Augsburg, 1519)

VERY RARE, even in Germany ; the book being a favourite with collectors in all countries, from the beauty of its woodcuts, the chivalric allegory of the poem, and the extraordinary elegance of its typography, in which graceful curves and flourishes accompany the finely-modelled characters of the letterpress. The poem was written and published by Melchior Pfintzing in 1517, for the delight and instruction of the young king of Spain (afterwards the Emperor Charles V.), from the papers of the Emperor Maximilian's secretary, which are supposed to have been dictated or inspired by the Emperor himself. The Tewrdank embodies in a romantic and allegorical form the story of the wooing of Mary of Burgundy by the young and knightly Maximilian, while Archduke of Austria. There is a key at the end which explains the characters; thus : "so wirdet durch den edlen Künig Romreich verstanden der löblich Herr H. C. V. B." (Herzog Carl von Burgund). "Die Künigin Ernreich bedewt desselben Künig Romreichs Tochter F. M. H. Z. B." (Fräulein Maria Herzogin zu Burgund). "Tewrdanck bedeut den löblichen Fürsten R. M. E. Z. O. V. B." (Rex Maximilian Ertzherzog zu Osterreich und Burgund). The name Tewrdanckh is given him because all his thoughts (Gedanken) are bent upon glorious objects (nach tewerlichen Sachen).

This celebrated romance was first written in Portuguese, about 1430-50, by João Martorell, who professed to translate it from the English. He afterwards translated it into Catalan, and in that language we possess the oldest existing text of the work, the Portuguese original being lost. The Catalan version was printed in 1490, a Spanish translation came out early in the sixteenth century, and some years later the romance appeared also in Italian form. The French publication by Caylus is most liberally altered from its original, whatever of indecency the latter might be charged with, being carefully heightened and brought forward by the translator.

Valentine and Orson. This is a fifteenth-century romance of French origin, which achieved great popularity throughout France, England, Italy, Holland, and Germany. It may be affiliated to the Charlemagne series, as the two heroes were nephews of King Pepin, and some of the names familiar to readers of the Paladin-stories will be met with also in Valentine and Orson. It first appeared at Lyons in 1489.

There are also four mottoes on the sides, "Virtutem fortuna superans," "Virtus parta labore viget," "Cede la Vertu aux Fortunez," "L'Histoire est Messagere de l'Antiquité," and the binding is evidently contemporary with the book.

Full of knightly adventures mixed up with the purely historical narrative of the Chronicle. The first of these two editions ends with Louis XII, the second is continued to Francis I.

3532 Mer des Histoires, 2 vols. Editio Princeps, large folio, Gothic Letter, with magnificent initials and numerous other woodcuts, the preliminary leaves of Vol. I wanting, and the last leaf slightly defective, old French calf, with arms of Louis Alexandre de Bourbon, Comte de Toulouse, Duc de Damville, EXTREMELY RARE, £21. Paris, Pierre Le Rouge, 1488

Heber's copy sold for £16. 10s. This curious medley of sacred and profane history commences with the Creation, and strangely enough has anticipated the Genevan Translation in the use of the word "Breeches," as the French interpreter says our first parents made themselves "brayes des feilles de arbre de figuier pour couvrir leur nature et leurs membres honteulx." It is full of woodcuts of the same character as are seen in romances of chivalry, battles, sieges, coronations, etc.

offered for sale, quite perfect, brown MOROCCO extra, gilt edges by Bedford, £25. 1493

This copy measures over 18 in. in height and above 12½ in. in width; it was bound by Bedford from the original boards. The Nürnberg Chronicle is a volume of extraordinary interest, embellished with 2250 woodcut engravings of the principal events, characters, and cities, described in the work, executed in a masterly and spirited style by Michael Wolgemuth and Wilhelm Pleydenwurff, as the last colophon in the work informs us.

RARE; the Solar copy fetched 250 fr. plus expenses. The work may be called a Chronicle of Chivalry, written in the same style, and illustrated with woodcuts of the same character as the Romances of Chivalry which are now so scarce and eagerly sought after.

3538 Scanderbeg. BARLETIUS, de Vita, moribus ac rebus praecipue adversus TURCAS gestis Georgii Castrioti, clarissimi Epirotarum principis, sm. folio, new calf extra, gilt edges, £2. 16*s* Argentorati, 1537

Scanderbeg was one of the greatest heroes of history; his wars against the Turks belong to the most romantic period in the annals of Eastern Europe.

3539 HISTORIE of George Castriot surnamed SCANDERBEG king of Albanie, by Jaques de Lavardin, lord of Plessis Bourrot, translated out of French by Z. I. sm. folio, wanting one preliminary leaf, limp vellum, 15*s* 1596

3540 Siege of Rhodes. SYEGE, CRUELL OPPUGNACYON, and lamentable takynge of the cyte of RODES, small folio, black letter, curious woodcuts, wanting two preliminary leaves (signatures a 1 and a 2, being the title and second leaf) but having the text perfect, and the printer's mark at the end, hf. calf neat, £20.

In the Fletestrete at ye sygne of the Rose Garlonde by Robert Copland, 1524

The productions of this typographer are very rare. He printed little and apparently only his own translations from French and Latin. The above volume, which may be considered unique, as I do not find it mentioned by any of the bibliographers, or in any of the sale catalogues, was probably Copland's English version of the Latin work of Fontanus published at Rome in the same year.

Alonso relates his life in many services, but the interest of the story consists in the adventures of his masters and mistresses, and their friends.

3543 Arnalt and Lucinda. LAWRENCE (Leonard) A small Treatise betwixt ARNALTE and LUCENDA, entituled, the Evill-intreated Lover, or the Melancholy Knight, originally written in the Greek Tongue by an unknown author, translated into Spanish, French, Thuscan, and now turn'd into English Verse by L. This rare original edition was supposed to be disfigured by an infusion of the native Siennese dialect of its author, which was expunged or corrected in all subsequent editions.

There can be little question about Mrs. Behn's cleverness, and still less about her indecency.

3548 Belli (Francesco). BELLI, Accidenti di Cloramindo Principe della Ghenuria, sm. 4to. vellum, 7*s* Venetia, 163.

Although the names of Ghenuria and Vastria would indicate a political meaning in this romance, it does not seem to have any.

3549 Boccaccio's Tales. BOCCACCIO, il DECAMERONE, nuovamente corretto et con diligentia stampato, sm. 4to. dark olive morocco extra, gilt edges, 30*s* Firenze, per li heredi di Giunta, 1527 (Venezia, 1729)

This is a copy, in beautiful condition, of the famous forgery or facsimile, executed at Venice, for Consul Smith, under the care of Stefano Orlandini and Salvatore Ferrari; of which 300 copies were printed.

The original Giunta edition of 1527 is excessively rare and of course very dear. Gardner's copy fetched £50, and another copy, sold at Sotheby's in 1865, brought £57. It is the best of all the early editions, and the archetype of nearly all the editions published since that time. The so-called facsimile has frequently fetched from three to four guineas.

3550 BOCCACCIO (G.) il DECAMERONE, nuovamente corretto et con diligentia stampato, stout 12mo. bds. £15. Brescia, Lud. Britannico, 1536

AN EXCESSIVELY RARE AND VALUABLE EDITION, which in the opinion of Haym equals the celebrated Giunta of 1527 in merit. No copy has occurred in the London market for years; I have not one reference to any copy. Neither Gamba nor Poggiali was able to cite it.

This celebrated edition, called dei Deputati, is very rare, highly esteemed for its correctness (wherever there is no wilful alteration), and much in request, although Boccaccio suffered emasculation at the hands of the Tuscan and Papal deputies who edited the book.

This precious volume is supposed to have been printed in 1471, at Ulm. Panzer and Hain attribute it to the press of Johann Zainer, but other bibliographers erroneously to that of Bämler, at Augsburg. It is, moreover, supposed to be the earliest book wherein the leaves were numbered. The edition is of extraordinary rarity, and a perfect copy, like the present, almost equals in scarcity the famous Italian original, printed by Valdarfer also in 1471, which sold for £2260. in the Roxburghe sale. It is a curious fact that this book should have appeared in Italian and German simultaneously, and that whilst in Italy it served only to amuse sceptics, in Germany it greatly assisted in producing the Reformation, by means of its pictures of the corrupt lives of churchmen. The excessive rarity of all the early German editions was probably caused by the work being prohibited and destroyed by the priests, who dreaded the effect produced by its reading by the laity.

3574 Camerino, Novelas Amorosas, sm. 4to. vellum, £2. 2*s* Madrid, 1624

Original and very rare edition, unmentioned by Salvá, who only possessed the reprint of 1736, which he described as peu commun, and priced 20 fr.. Ticknor guessed that Camerino was an Italian from a hint in Lope de Vega's sonnet and another in the proem. It was not necessary to go so far: the title-page describes him of Fano in the Papal States.

Celestina.—Although stigmatized as infamous by some writers, and acknowledged to be very indecent by all, yet this celebrated tragicomedy is the parent-work of the modern drama, not only in Spain but in the rest of Europe. The story which attributes the authorship of the first act to Juan de Mena or Rodrigo Cota, while that of the other twenty are acknowledged by Fernan de Rojas, seems absurd. It is most probable that the entire work is from the hand of the latter who finished it about the year 1491. It was published anonymously, but the author's name is found in the initial letters of some preliminary verses: "El Bachiller Fernando de Rojas acabò la comedia de Calysto y Melybea, fue nascido en la pueblo de Montalvan." The chief characters are Celestina, an aged procuress (alcahueta, from the Arabic al-kawwadah), and the young lovers Calisto and Melibea, whose gratification she brings about, but who end like herself tragically.

All the early editions of this famous drama are very rare; and amongst them a prominent place may be claimed for this Burgos edition, which is not mentioned by either Brunet or Salvá, and is not included in my bibliographical index of books sold by auction during the last forty years. In fact, the only Burgos edition recorded by bibliographers is that which Brunet describes as having been sold at the Heber and Soleinne sales, being the only copy known, and bearing the date of 1499 and the mark of Fadrique Aleman the first printer of Burgos; but the colophon-leaf of which was recognized to be a modern forgery.

3576 LA CELESTINA, ó Calixto y Melivea, por Juan de Mena y por Rodrigo Cotta, y concluida por Fernando de Rojas, 8vo. 4 plates, hf. bd. 6*s* Barcelona, 1842

3577 CELESTINE, ou Histoire tragicomique de Caliste et de Mélibée, en Espagnol et en François, sm. 8vo. fine copy in red MOROCCO extra, gilt edges, by Duru, £4. 4*s* Rouen, 1633-34

This edition is rare and valuable; it contains besides the text a faithful translation, and must therefore have been unknown to Mr. Delavigne who published the following version, the first literal one as he calls it.

3578 CÉLESTINE, tragi-comédie de Calixte et Mélibée, traduite par Lavigne, accompagnée de notes et preface, sm. 8vo. sd. 2*s* 6*d* Paris, 1841

This is a literal translation. The Celestina has always, except in the preceding two instances, been castrated or modified by translators, whether into French, English, Latin, Italian, or German.

Cent Nouvelles.—No manuscript of these celebrated and witty, but more than licentious, stories, is now known to exist. The first edition was published by Vérard in 1486. No doubt seems to be entertained, that the Cent Nouvelles are the genuine reproduction of the actual tales and anecdotes with which the Dauphin, afterwards Louis XI, and his friends, while residing at the court of Burgundy from 1456 to 1461, amused their social gatherings. Some clerkly member of these gay réunions must have committed the choicest stories to writing.

3579 CENT NOUVELLES nouvelles, avec une introduction par Le Roux de Lincy, 2 vols. sm. 8vo. sd. 5*s* Paris, 1841

3580 CENT NOUVELLES NOUVELLES, contenant les cent histoires nouveaux (sic) qui sont moult plaisant a raconter en toutes bonnes compagnies par maniere de joyeuseté, 2 vols. 12mo. first impressions of the numerous engravings by Romain de Hooghe, beautiful copy in citron MOROCCO extra, gilt edges, £2. 10*s* Cologne, 1701

The first edition of these celebrated novels was published by Gualteruzzi in 1525.

"This is the edition which merits the post of honour in a collection of Novellatori."—Gamba. It contains the last revision, corrections, and augmentations of Sansovino. The Cento Novelle Antiche are those originally published by Gualteruzzi. The typographer attempted to introduce an ugly innovation by substituting k in most places for ch.

Portions of these novels are very loose, on account of which Gamba states that copies are often found with leaves torn out. Colonel Stanley's copy sold for £3.

3589 The Devil on Crutches. VELEZ DE GUEVARA, el Diablo Cojuelo, frontis. Londres, 1812—Vida de Lazarillo de Tormes, por Hurtado de Mendoza, Burdeos, 1816—2 vols. in 1, 16mo. hf. calf, 3*s* 6*d* 1812-16

This original edition contains more matter than was ever reprinted, but the present copy does not comprise the Fiori. The Zucca is a collection of historiettes, anecdotes, facetious remarks, and repartees.

3596 Giraldo Giraldi, NOVELLE, con alcune inedite, large 8vo. hf. bd. uncut, 7s 6d Amst: (Firenze) 1819

Only one of the novels is by this fifteenth-century writer; the others are modern fabrications.

3597 Giraldi Cinthio's Works. GIRALDI CINTHIO, HECATOMMITHI (i quali sono cento Avenimenti narrati da una nobile brigata di huomini & di donne in un loro viaggio), 2 vols. sm. 8vo. ruled throughout with red ink, beautiful copy in olive morocco super extra, gilt edges, by C. Smith, £25. Monte Regale, 1565

This copy is wholly complete, with even all the blank leaves that were originally issued. In such a state the book is one of singularity rarity. "La difficulté de rencontrer ce livre bien complet en fait et la rareté et la valeur."—Brunet. These tales were amongst the most popular literature of the sixteenth century. They are especially interesting to English collectors, because of the large use made of them by Shakespeare and other Elizabethan writers.

"Of all the Italian Novelists Cinthio appears to have been the greatest favourite with our old English Dramatists. Two of the most popular of Shakespeare's plays were taken from his Novels, Othello and Measure for Measure; also the plots of two other plays by Beaumont and Fletcher, The Laws of Candy and the Custom of the Country—and Dryden's tragedy of Amboyna, and the incidents of many scattered scenes in the works of these dramatists may be traced to the same source."

3611 GRAZZINI, NOVELLE, 4to. LARGE PAPER, fine copy in green MOROCCO extra, gilt edges, £2. 2*s* 1756

Genuine edition containing 28 lines to a page. The counterfeit of Lucca has only 27. Col. Stanley's copy sold for £5. 15*s* 6*d*; Hibbert's, £2. 14*s*. Priced, Payne and Foss, £3. 3*s*.

3612 Estevanillo Gonzalez. VIDA y Hechos de ESTEVANILLO DE GONZALEZ, hombre de buen humor, 12mo. vellum, 7*s* 6*d* Madrid, 1725

Ticknor was ignorant of this edition; he states that he knew of none printed between 1652 and 1795. The book is an extraordinary one, being the graphic and honest autobiography of "a jester, wit, rogue, and liar," servant to the great Piccolomini of the Thirty Years' War. The ground-work of the narrative is essentially true, but many of the incidents fictitious.

3613 Guzman of Alfarache. ALEMAN (M.) Primera Parte de la Vida del Picaro Guzman de Alfarache, 1603—Luxan de Sayauedra (M.) Segunda Parte de la Vida del Picaro Guzman de Alfarache, 1606 (at end 1601)—2 vols. in one, 16mo. fine copies, vellum, £2. 10*s* Tarragona, 1603, Barcelona, 1602

Rare; not in Salva's Catalogues.

The genuine second part by Aleman himself did not appear till 1605. Brunet's description of the editions of Guzman is full of errors, he having evidently confounded the different books of the first part, with the similarly numbered parts. The edition of Luxan's second part in the above copy is the princeps, and wholly unknown to Ticknor and Brunet. Its licence is dated 8 August, 1602.

"The most ample portraiture of the class of Catariberas, or the gayer one of Picaros, that is to be found in Spanish Literature. It was very successful, falling in with the vices and humours of the times of the loose Court of Philip III. after the hypocrisy and constraint of the last dark years of Philip II."—Ticknor.

Heptameron of the Queen of Navarre.—The fame of the "Marguerite des Marguerites," the fair, wise, and learned sister of Francis I, rests chiefly upon her Heptameron, although these stories, collected and written by her for private amusement, were never meant to be published. They were printed for the first time in 1558, nine years after her death, by Boaistuau, but in an imperfect form; and Claude Gruget, one of her valets-de-chambre, published an almost satisfactory edition one year later. Since that time, the Heptameron has been freqently reprinted.

3614 MARGUERITE DE VALOIS, Reine de Navarre, Contes et Nouvelles, 12mo. plates by Romeyn de Hooghe, hf. morocco, uncut, top edges gilt, 32*s* Paris, 1740

The language of this edition is modernised.

3614*——— les mêmes, 3 vols. sm. 8vo. with Frendenberg's beautiful plates, £12. 12*s* Berne, 1780-92

3615 ——— HEPTAMERON, or the History of the Fortunate Lovers, Englished by Robert Codrington, 12mo. a few of the head lines slightly cut into, blue MOROCCO, gilt edges, RARE, £2. 2*s* F. L. for Nath. Ekins, 1654

This translation was made from the original edition of Claude Gruget, as appears from its including the dedication of the latter, so that the Heptameron in Bohn's series ought not to bear the words "now first translated." Codrington, although a Parliament-man and anti-cavalier, did not deserve this.

3616 HISTOIRE de Marguerite de Valois, Reine de Navarre, par Mlle. de La Force, 6 vols. 12mo. calf extra, gilt edges, £3. 3*s* Paris, 1783

An historical romance upon the life of the authoress of the Heptameron.

Jehan de Paris.—This pleasant story of disguises and surprises is considered to have been written towards the end of the fifteenth century, and to conceal beneath its fantastic splendour the triumph of Charles VIII. over Maximilian in winning the hand of Anne of Brittany.

3618 Justina. LIBRO de Entretenimiento de la PICARA JUSTINA, compuesto por Francisco de Ubeda, 12mo. calf, rare, 16*s* Brucellas, 1608
Second edition, equally rare with the first which was printed at Medina del Campo in 1605.

3619 ——— la Picara Montañesa llamada Justina, 12mo. vel. 10*s* Barcelona, 1640
The author, a Dominican monk named Andreas Perez, used for shame's sake a pseudonym in the composition of this work—the fictitious life of a low-bred and profligate female swindler.

3620 ——— Vita della Picara Giustina, trasportata nella favella Italiana da Barezzi, 1624—Lazariglio di Tormes, tradotto da Barezzi, 1622—2 vols. in 1, 12mo. vellum, 5*s* 6*d* Venetia, 1622-24

3621 Lafontaine's Tales. CONTES ET NOUVELLES en vers par M. DE LA FONTAINE, 2 vols. sm. 8vo. EDITION DES FERMIERS-GÉNÉRAUX, with the beautiful plates by EISEN, and the vignettes by Choffard, French red morocco extra, gilt edges, £15. 15*s* Amsterdam (Paris), 1762

3622 ——— the same, 2 vols. 8vo. fine impressions of the engravings, without the list of plates, beautiful copy in old French red morocco, by De Rome, £14. 14*s.* 1762
This copy is one of those which Brunet considered to have been the first printed and sent out for presents to ladies of the French court—namely, it has the less indecent form of the plates to Papefiguière and the Cas de Conscience.

3623 CONTES DE LA FONTAINE, 2 vols. sm. 8vo. beautiful original impressions, without the branch in the Cas de Conscience, and with the scanted drapery in the Diable de Papefiguière, very fine copy in old red MOROCCO extra, gilt edges, by DEROME, £18. 18*s* 1762
In spite of Brunet's opinion, this is really the first and finest issue of the book.

3624 CONTES DE LAFONTAINE, 2 vols. 12mo. the plates re-engraved by Martinet from Eisen's designs to the edition of 1762, the "Cas de Conscience" without the branch, and the "Diable de Papefiguière," as in the early state of that edition, old French red morocco, gilt edges, £5. Londres, s. d. (ca. 1770)

3627 Leolin and Sydanis. KINNASTON (Sir F.) Leoline and Sydanis, an heroick Romance of the amorous Adventures of Princes: together with sundry affectionate addresses to his Mrs. under the name of Cynthia (or amorous Sonnets,) sm. 4to. frontispiece, fine copy in red morocco extra, gilt edges, by C. Lewis, £3. 16*s* R. Heron, 1646
Rare. Bright's copy sold for £4. 6s.

3628 Malespini, Ducento Novelle, nelle quali si raccontano diversi Avvenimenti cosi lieti come mesti e stravaganti, 2 vols. in 1, stout sm. 4to, very fine tall copy in vellum, £2. 10*s* Venetia, 1609
"No Italian novelist has been more copious and fertile in narrative than Malespini, . . . His novels are curious, delightful, now worthy of close attention, and now shocking through indecency, while on the other hand they preserve for us the memory of singular occurrences and of strange customs that prevailed in his time." Gamba.

3629 Marcos de Obregon. ESPINEL, Relaciones de la vida del Escudero Marcos de Obregon, 12mo. Editio Princeps, cf. gt. 20*s* Barcelona, 1618

3630 ——— the same, sm. 4to. hf. morocco, 10*s* Madrid, 1744
This imaginary life of a wanderer, a Spanish jack-of-all-trades, a student, a soldier, a thief, a squire of dames, and many things besides, achieved great popularity in Spain. Lesage made some use of it in Gil Blas.

3631 Masuccio's Novels. CINQUANTA NOVELLE di Masuccio Salernitano intitolate il Novellino, 12mo. rus. £2. 2*s* Vinegia, Marchio Sessa, 1535

Priced, 1848, Payne and Foss, £2. 12*s* 6*d*; fetched Col. Stanley's sale, £4. 5*s*.

These popular stories were first published at Naples in 1476. The above is the genuine Sessa edition, with his proper mark.

This is the counterfeit edition, bearing Sessa's mark, but probably printed about 1680.

3633 Mirror for Magistrates. A MIROUR FOR MAGISTRATES, being a true Chronicle historie of the untimely falles of Princes; newly enlarged with a last part called a WINTER NIGHT'S VISION, with a poem annexed called ENGLAND'S ELIZA, (edited by John HIGGINS) 3 vols. in 1, stout sm. 4to. woodcut-portrait of Queen Elizabeth, without the leaf of dedication to "England's Eliza," old calf neat, £2. 16*s* 1610

A collection of narratives which was highly popular in England.

3634 WHETSTONE'S MIROUR FOR MAGESTRATES of Cyties, representing the ordinances of the noble Emperor Severus, to suppresse the notorious vices noorished in Rome by the superflous nomber of Dicing-houses, Tavarns, and Stewes, cheerished by his beastlye predecessour Helyogabalus; with a Touchstone for the Time, containyng many perillous mischiefes bred in the bowels of the citie of London, sm. 4to. fine copy in red MOROCCO extra, gilt edges, £7. 7*s* Richarde Jones, 1584

This very rare and curious volume is an entirely different work from the Mirour for Magistrates. It is severe and satirical upon the ways and habits of London life in the time of Queen Bess: the prosperity of the citizens,—the commercial class of the community,—seeming to the author to be a dreadful injury to the state.

3635 Moraleja, el Entretenido, varias flores de diversion, relaciones serias, burlescas, etc. sm. 4to. vellum, 6*s* Madrid, 1741

A strange mixture of odds and ends, written as a continuation part to the Entretenido of Sanchez Tortoles.

It is said that only 50 copies were printed.

3637 Novelle per far ridere le brigate, di varii autori, 8vo. LARGE VELLUM PAPER, (one of four copies so printed) 2 portraits of Mich. Colombo, bds. 8*s* 6*d* Venezia, 1824

3638 Palace of Pleasure. PAINTER (William) The Palace of Pleasure, beautifully adorned and well furnished with plesaunt Histories and excellent Novels, 2 vols, sm. 4to. Black letter, VERY RARE, £63.

Imprinted at London, by Thomas Marshe, 1575 (the second volume undated)

To this edition are added seven Novels and a Table.

A work of universal interest, and specially coveted by collectors from its connection with Shakspeare, many of whose plots are found in these stories. Every copy that turns up for sale brings a higher price than its predecessors; and it is to be apprehended that the development of American competition will, before long, render all books of this kind still rarer and dearer than ever before.

3639 PAINTER'S Palace of Pleasure, first edition, Vol. I only, black letter, small 4to. wants title and 3 leaves of preliminary matter, and also the last fifteen leaves, original calf, £3. 10*s* H. Denham, 1566

3643 The Pacorone. IL PECORONE di Ser Giovanni Fiorentino, nel quale si contengono cinquanta Novelle antiche, 12mo. hf. bd. 7*s* 6*d* Mil. 1554

This is a celebrated edition which has caused many disputes amongst the critics, because if the date were correct, it would be the Princeps. It was really produced in Lucca about 1740.

3644 Peregrin (the Pilgrim of Love). DIALOGUE TRÈS-ÉLÉGANT INTITULÉ LE PEREGRIN, traictant de lhonneste pudicq amour concilié par pure et sincère vertu, traduict de vulgaire Italien, par Maistre Françoys Dassy, sm. 8vo. Gothic letter, blue MOROCCO extra, gilt edges, by Thompson, £5. 5*s* Paris, Galliot du Pré, 1528

This curious romance is by Giacomo Caviceo, and was first published in Italian at Parma, in 1508. The hero and heroine attain happiness, after many troubles and trials, towards the end of the book, but the lady dies in giving birth to a child, whereupon the gentleman orders his tomb, writes his epitaph, and dies also.

3646 ——— Varios PRODIGIOS de Amor, sm. 4to. being another edition of the Efectos, calf, 10*s* ib. 1729

"No work affords more ample proof of the inexhaustible richness of the Castilian language than the present. To write five novels, in prose and verse, under the strict condition of excluding from each of them one of the five vowels of the alphabet, and to accomplish his task in such a manner that the reader does not at first sight perceive the scheme or the fetters with which the author has surrounded his pen, could be only done in a language extraordinarily rich in words and phrases."—Salva.

3647 Sacchetti (Franco) Novelle (con prefazione di Poggiali), 3 vols. 12mo. calf gilt, 7*s* 6*d* Milano, 1815

Sacchetti was a Florentine citizen of the fourteenth century, who wrote these stories in such a brisk, energetic, and free style that all the editions before that of Poggiali are found mutilated in one way or another.

3648 Alonso de Solorzano. SAVORSANO (sic) Three ingenious Spanish Novels, containing amorous intrigues, etc. translated with advantage by a person of quality, 1709—Cynthia, with the loves of Almerin and Desdemona, 1710—2 vols. in 1, 12mo. calf, 20*s* 1709-10

The greatest work of prose fiction in the English language ought not to be omitted in a catalogue like the present.

2. Allegorical, Political, Moral, and Satirical Romances.

3651 The Abused Old Courtier, by the good King René. LA-BUSE EN COURT (par René d'Anjou, Roi de Sicile), smallest 4to. Gothic letter, many curious woodcuts, with initials M. H. probably those of the printer, on the title-page, portrait of King René inserted, French calf, EXTREMELY RARE, £30. (? Lyon, Martin Havart, cir. 1520)

A very curious volume of mingled prose and verse, with coarse woodcuts, recounting in allegorical style the wasted life of a poor old courtier, l'Abusé. He is first described as a gentil vieillard, arrayed in faded finery, and then the author enters into conversation with him. Personifications of La Cour and l'Abus are also amongst the speaking characters.

Argenis and Poliarchus.—A once famous and popular work, now undeservedly neglected. It is called a political allegory, but is also a romance. It may be considered to represent the career of Henry of Navarre and his marriage as Poliarchus with France in the character of Argenis, but it is impossible to find any real concordance between the narrative and the facts of history. The language is elegant and lucid: it has received even extravagant praise from some of the admirers of the accomplished Franco-Scotsman John Barclay.

s. l. & d. (Lyon, G. Le Roy, circ. 1485)

The most ancient edition known. It is a curious work in rhyme, written by Martin France or Lefranc, towards the middle of the fifteenth century, in defence and praise of women as compared with men, and meant to nullify the attacks of the Rose Romaunt and the Matheolus. It is full of stories of women, not omitting their chivalric prowess, "Dame Jehanne la pucelle nouuellement venue en France," being cited, and woodcuts given to illustrate the warlike career of her and other ladies. The work is relieved from monotony by the remarks of "Franc Vouloir," and the constant attacks of "Malebouche," who states the faults of the fair sex in no measured terms. Johanne la Papesse is not forgotten by him, but the champion defends her stoutly in a curious mode of argument.

3655 Le Chevalier délibéré. EL CAVALLERO DETERMINADO, traduzido de lengua Francesca en Castellana, por Don HERNANDO DE ACUÑA, (y el EMPERADOR CARLO V.) sm. 4to. 20 fine illustrations, engraved on steel, very large and fine copy in green MOROCCO extra, gilt edges, £4. 8*s* Anvers, Plantin, 1591

"One of the best editions of the Cavallero Determinado."—Ticknor, 1849, I, 458.

This allegorical romance by Olivier de la Marche was meant to symbolize the life of Charles the Bold and his daughter Mary of Burgundy, passed amid so many difficulties. Charles V, when in retirement, translated it into Castilian prose, being no doubt struck with its resemblance to the Theurdank of his grandfather Maximilian. The task of rendering this prose narrative into verse was given to Hernan Acuña, who in turning it into Spanish coplas, executed the only work in native style that ever came from his pen, and achieved in it his greatest and most brilliant success.

Circe. A very curious modification of an episode from the Odyssey, serving as a satire upon man's notions of existence. When Circe changed the Greek followers of Ulysses into swine, she did not, according to Homer, keep them so, but allowed them to regain their proper shapes and return with the hero. Gelli supposes that the change was not to manhood back again, but simply into inferior animal natures of various kinds, and that the siren only permitted Ulysses to restore them provided he could gain their own consent. This he fails to do; each animal being resolute to remain in his new condition; and the fiction of Gelli details in dialogues the reasons of each refusal. Gelli died in 1553.

3658 Don Quixot. CERVANTES, El ingenioso Hidalgo Don Quixote de la Mancha (la primera parte), 12mo. fine copy in vellum, very rare, £5. 15*s* Milan, 1610

This edition represents the original text of Don Quixote and is divided into four parts, an arrangement abandoned in the Madrid edition of 1608 and all others that followed except this. It is moreover the only edition printed in Italy. The printers mention in the dedication that they printed the work in Spanish instead of an Italian translation so as not to rob the story of its graces, and because the Castilian tongue was then familiar to the gentlemen of Milan.

"Pellicer has greatly improved the text, and in his numerous annotations has displayed much erudition in tracing the sources whence the author drew his supplies; in pointing out the passages in the old romances alluded to in Don Quixote; in detailing at large the historical facts which are there mentioned; and in collecting biographical, bibliographical, and critical information concerning the several authors whose writings Cervantes has either directly or indirectly noticed."—Lockhart's Don Quixote.

An allegorical Romance in verse, describing the adventures of "le jeune chevalier" in his intercourse with several characters who personify moral qualities and defects. In this respect it has some affinity with the "Castle of Indolence" and the "Pilgrim's Progress." One of the headings will illustrate this: "Comment Cueur attrempé arrive au Chasteau de Confort devant le Duc de Vraye Amour."

It consists to a large extent of allegories like those in the Roman de la Rose, containing the speeches of various characters, the lover, his lady, and a number of mystical personages, typifying passions and phases of the mind. But the roundels and ballads of which the volume is full, constitute its chief charm.

or virtue of womanly conduct, but written in such a blunt and downright manner that the book could no longer be trusted in the hands of youth. On the other side the modern critics who revile its "gross indecencies," are only witnesses to a well-known fact: that increased squeamishness and delicacy is the external show that always veils a greater moral depravity.

William Caxton . . enprynted at Westmynstere the last day of Janyuer the fyrst yere of the reyne of kynge Richard the thyrd (1484)

The translation was completed in June, 1483. EXCESSIVELY RARE, ONLY THREE other PERFECT COPIES ARE KNOWN; of which two are in the British Museum and one in the library of Earl Spencer. There is besides one imperfect one which is in the Bodleian. It is easy therefore to conceive that the present PERFECT COPY may be considered unique as far as the collector is concerned: Lord Spencer's copy is never likely to come into the market; the other two are, of course, inaccessible, and the one now described is probably the only one that can be offered for sale within the next hundred years. Since the year 1698 only one other copy has been seen in the public auctions; it was purchased by Earl Spencer at Brand's sale in 1807. The present one was bought at the Marquis of Blandford's sale in 1819, by G. W. Taylor; from him it passed into the hands of Mr. Jolley, at the sale of whose books in 1843 it became the property of Rodd the bookseller. Since that time, it has been in the possession of the Rev. Mr. Corser. Consequently this volume is perhaps the rarest and most unattainable in the whole Caxton series, and that consideration is quite sufficient to account for its high price. As one of the scarcest of the volumes printed by the first English printer, it must be precious to the eighty millions of English-speaking people in Europe, America, and Australia, the richest and most prosperous race in the world, whose numbers and influence are growing greater with every year.

About this work Mr. Corser said to me, in a letter dated Aug. 10, 1868: "With regard of the Knight of the Toure, which was a fine and perfect specimen of Caxton's press, I do not wonder that it brought a high price, because NO OTHER COPY CAN EVER OCCUR FOR PUBLIC SALE AGAIN."

Limprimeur est Michel le Noir
Qui a Paris a son manoir
En la Rue, &c. 1508

This volume consists of 124 leaves, not 126 as stated by Brunet, who overlooked the circumstance that the second-last signature had but four leaves.

The book is a singular one, consisting entirely of conversations in verse between Satan and Lucifer upon the nature and conduct of men, which the author is supposed to have overheard. Their theological value is no doubt what the author prized most, but their chief importance now is the curious illustrations they afford of social customs, and the ordinary life and habits of his time—especially amongst the bourgeois. The phrase of "Chateau en Espagne" occurs in the author's introduction, in which he describes himself as lying in bed:—

"Batissant maisons en champaigne Et mille chasteaulx en espaigne."

This edition contains the Epitaph on Meschinot, which so curiously fixes the death of the Poet in 1491. This copy sold for 245 francs in the Cailhave sale, and for £25. in the Roupell sale. A work with a moral purpose, containing imaginary colloquies with Reason.

Fine copy of this exceedingly rare edition; containing the piece intitled, Giovanni Cinelli al Cortese Lettore, of which only 50 were printed, and subsequently as far as possible suppressed. Poggiali seems never to have seen this preface, as he states that every copy was suppressed before publication. It is an outrageous attack upon several of the literary men of the time. A Key to the names is given in MS. on the fly-leaf.

The Malmantile Racquistato is a burlesque story treated in grave style, and written in the purest and most simple Italian.

Romance of the Rose. This celebrated love-romance,—the characters in which are personified qualities, such as Dame Oiseuse, Richesse, Honte, Bel-Accueil, Faux-Semblant, Pauvreté, Amour, and others,—was written by William of Lorris and John of Meun. The former composed little beyond one-fifth of it; he died in 1260, and the witty Clopinel (the nickname of the latter) took up the thread of the story about the year 1300 or soon after, and spun out the remainder for the delight of the court of Philip the Fair, and the entertainment of all succeeding generations. A fair description of the nature of the Romaunt of the Rose is contained in the following lines by Lenglet du Fresnoy:—"Celui-ci n'est pas seulement un roman d'amours, il est encore satirique, il est moral, et peu s'en faut même qu'il ne soit aussi roman de chevalerie." It is needless to consider whether there is any truth in the old tale that a number of ladies contrived on a certain occasion to get Jean de Meung alone into a room, where they secured, stripped, and flogged him, as a punishment for his bitter attacks upon the fair sex in the Roman de la Rose.

EXTREMELY RARE. A copy sold for 1530 francs in the Yemeniz sale, and another for 2100 fr, in the Double sale. This is the first of the four undated editions with which Brunet commences his description of the fifteenth-century impressions of the Roman de la Rose. And even he speaks doubtfully of the title-leaf bearing the words "Le Rommant de la Rose," which he had only seen in MS., but which is found in fine state (apparently the genuine and proper frontispiece) in the above copy.

All the fifteenth century editions are vastly superior to those of the sixteenth century, in which Clement Marot disfigured the text with his own audacious alterations and interpolations.

Gil Polo, however, achieved a striking result, and in five admirably written books he has closely approached the excellence of the original author.

3712 Diana Enamorada de Gil Polo, cinco libros que prosiguen los VII de Montemayor, sm. 8vo. best edition, frontispiece, calf, 3*s* 6*d* ib. 1778

In this edition illustrative notes are added upon the song in which Gil Polo (in the character of Turia) introduces the names of all the poets of Valencia.

della Primiera, Roma, F. Minitio Calvo, 1526—in 1 vol. sq. 8vo. vellum, 18*s* 1510-26

The Driadeo is a pastoral romance by Luigi, not by Luca Pulca.

3714 Filida of Montalvo. GALVEZ DE MONTALVO, el Pastor de Filida (con prologo de Mayans), 12mo. best edition, calf, 5*s* Valencia, 1792

This pastoral romance by an intimate friend of Cervantes, was very popular in Spain. It contains many beautiful pieces of poetry.

The Fortune of Love. A dull and absurd pastoral romance, composed by a Catalan soldier, who is transmogrified into a Sardinian, in the translation from Cervantes below. He was of Cerdanya, not of Sardinia.

3715 FORTUNA DE AMOR, diez libros, compuestos por Antonio de LO FRASSO, donde se hallaran los amores del Pastor Frexano y de la Pastora Fortuna, 2 vols. 8vo. prose interspersed with Canciones, Glosas, Sonetos, and Villancios, portrait and plates, calf, 25*s* Londres, 1740

Col. Stanley's copy fetched £3. 13*s* 6*d*.

"'This,' said the Barber, opening another, 'is the Ten Books of the Fortune of Love, composed by Antonio de lo Frasso, a Sardinian Poet.' 'By the holy orders I have received,' said the Priest, 'since Apollo was Apollo, the muses muses, and the poets poets, so humourous and whimsical a book as this was never written; it is the best and most singular of the kind that has appeared in the world; and he who has not read it may reckon that he never read anything of taste."—Don Quixote.

The editor of the book is not the only person who quotes the remarks on Don Quixote's library in ignorance of their real significance.

Phædrus, Kalila wa Dimna, Anwari Suhaili, Ayari Danish, Khirad Afroz, and Humayun Namah. The composition of the Panchatantra is referred to Vishnu Sarman, who lived probably some centuries before Christ. It seems more correct to speak of his work as a compilation.

This is the translation into Arabic, made about the middle of the eighth century by Ibnu l'Muqaffa, from the Pehlvi or ancient Persian version of the Indian (Sanscrit) tales, which remain to us in the Hitopadesa and the Panchatantra.

3727 FABLES OF PILPAY, an ancient Indian philosopher, 128vo. a most diminutive edition in very small type, calf, a typographical curiosity, 21*s* 1801

3728 ANWARI SUHAILI min tasnífi Husain bin 'Alí al Wá'iz al-Káshifí: Paraphrase of the Kalila wa Dimna, by Husain Wa'iz, in Persian, edited by Ouseley, 4to. cloth, 28*s* Hartford, 1851

This is considered to be one of the most elegant productions in the Persian language. Husain Vaiz produced it in the fifteenth century by amplification and improvement from the older Persian version of the Kalilah wa Dimna, made by Nasrullah in the first half of the twelfth century.

3729 ANVAR-I SUHAILI: or the Lights of Canopus; being the celebrated work of Husain Vâ'iz ul Káshifii, translated for the first time into English prose and verse (on the same principles as the author's translation of the 'Gulistan'), with an elaborate Preface and copious Notes by E. 3730 ÆSOPI VITA ET FABULÆ, Latine, cum versione Italica, et allegoriis Fr. Tuppi, folio, with an exquisitely beautiful series of woodcuts, surrounded by Arabesque borders, in English olive morocco super extra, joints, gilt edges, the Yemeniz copy, very large and fine, £80. Neapoli, 1485

"EXTREMELY RARE. De Bure had not seen it, when he wrote his Bibliographie Instructive, and Crofts had it not."—MS. note by the late Mr. Heber. "Belle et très-rare édition, ornée de figures assez bien gravées sur bois."—Brunet. The woodcuts are very remarkable for their spirit and effect, and are finished with a delicacy seldom observable in works of the period.

The present is a beautiful copy of one of the most curious publications of the Fifteenth Century. It contains the Life of Æsop and his Fables with an Italian Version and a moral explanation, a paraphrase and a parallel story extracted from the Chronicles of Italy, or from some event of recent occurrence and affixed to each Fable.

This beautiful edition is called by De Bure, "rare and much sought after by the curious; the execution of it is magnificent, and it is considered as one of the finest of the Aldine classics." Renouard is elaborate in his account of this "rare et belle édition," as he calls it.

Geendet säliglich von Johanne Zeiner zu Ulm (cir. 1476)

VERY RARE. This precious volume is in Latin and German, and seems to be the very highest degree of scarcity. It contains firstly the life of Æsop, then the four books of his Fables, next the Extravagantes, the New Fables of Rimicius, those of Avienus, and a collection of Facetiæ from Poggio and others. This edition is evidently anterior to the other undated ones described by Brunet, Vol. I, col. 100-101, —the present one being incorrectly described by him after Dibdin and Graesse (perhaps from imperfect copies). The description in the Bibl. Spencer. and the quotation there from Braun of the number of leaves as being 275 instead of 278, indicated plainly that imperfect copies were used. Ebert's account also mentions 275 leaves. I cannot find mention of any copy but the above as having occurred for sale.

3733 ÆSOPI FABULÆ cum vulgari Interpretatione et Figuris acri cura emendatæ (per V. Metellum), sm. 4to. numerous singular woodcuts, calf extra, gilt edges, by Petit, £4. 4*s* Brixiæ, 1537

An edition of considerable rarity; quite as scarce as, if not scarcer than that of 1534, which sold for 305 francs in the Libri sale. The Italian interpretations are in the Venetian dialect.

3734 ÆSOPI Fabulæ, cum Vita, 12mo. rude woodcuts, fine copy in green morocco extra, gilt-marbled edges, by Belz-Niedrée, a very scarce edition, 30*s* Matriti, 1664

3735 ÆSOPI Fabulæ, 16mo. rude woodcuts, fine copy in green morocco extra, gilt-marbled edges, by Belz-Niedrée, 25*s* Lugduni, 1689

In this edition the text is reprinted from that of Madrid, 1664, but the woodcuts are new engravings.

3736 ÆSOP'S FABLES (with his Life), in English, French, and Latin, folio, 131 plates executed by Faithorne and Hollar from the Designs of F. BARLOW, with an additional set of 30 by Dudley, illustrating the Life (the seventeenth being as usual missing in the series of thirty-one), fine copy in red morocco extra, gilt edges, £5. 15*s* 1687

The bold and spirited character of the designs, and their faithfulness to nature, has given this work a rank amongst the favorite books of amateurs. The versified portion is by the notorious Afra Behn: it has consequently some claim to regard, but none to be considered as poetry.

3737 ÆSOP'S Fables, a new version, from original sources, by the Rev. Thos. James, 8vo. over 100 fine illustrations by Tenniel, 8vo. calf extra, gilt edges, 30*s* 1848

This is really a charming fable-book; the old familiar stories are ornamented with attractive designs such as are not found in any other edition, old or new, of the Æsopian apologues.

2. Apologues, Grotesque Stories, Satire.

Bertoldo and Bertoldino. These curious grotesque romances, combining somewhat of Aesop (as he is shewn in the Life), and of Eulenspiegel, are said to have been composed by Giulio Cesare dalla Croce, a Bolognese, born in 1550, who wrote many humourous pieces, some in his native dialect. The Bertoldo must however be derived from older sources, the name of Marculphus as an Æsopian jester being known long before the time of Dalla Croce. The folk-lore of North Italy may supply some light. Bertoldo is stated to have lived at the court of the Lombard king Alboin.

This is a translation of the old Italian prose stories.

El Conde Lucanor. This is a curious collection of fifty apologues, anecdotes, and tales, composed by an Infante of Spain, Don Juan Manuel, during the first half of the fourteenth century. It is considered to be the finest production of the Spanish language at that period.

3762 MANUEL (Principe Don) Hijo del Infante Don Juan, EL CONDE LUCANOR con advertencias y notas de Gonzalo de Argote y de Molina, sm. 4to. red MOROCCO extra, ornamented with gold tooling, gilt edges, very rare, fine copy, from the library of Mr. Chorley, £4. 4*s* 1642

Dialogues of Creatures. A very popular book in the fifteenth century, many editions existing in Latin and Dutch before 1500. The author is unknown, and no ancient MS. of the work has yet been met with, but the merit of the composition is undeniable. High powers of imagination and construction were necessary to write these apologues, in which wise morals are deduced from the fabled colloquies of animals.

3763 DIALOGES OF CREATURES MORALYSED, sm. 4to. original edition, black letter, numerous curious woodcuts, wanting 20 leaves, mended and bound in old russia, gilt edges, from Heber's library, £10. 10*s* (John Rastell, circ. 1517)

A VERY RARE AND CURIOUS VOLUME. It is generally attributed to the press of John Rastell, but the opinion of Mr. Haslewood, in his preface to the reprint of 1816, that the book was printed on the continent is perhaps the correct one. Mr. J. Dunn Gardner's copy fetched £30.

Casti's great work has a deeper signification than the old Dialogues of Creatures; it bears upon the condition of society and the government of states, taking thus a place beside the Romance of the Fox. The author has been frequently reproached for undue coarseness of language.

Eulenspiegel. It is highly improbable that the facetious stories of the buffoon known as Eulenspiegel were composed, as some assert, by Thomas Murner. He can only have given literary shape to the popular stories of Lower Saxony, and it is most likely that the earliest form of the compiled legend was Platt-deutsch.

Faust. It seems very unlikely that the hero of the Faust and Mephistopheles legend was a certain Johann Faust, who lived at the beginning of the sixteenth century, and who was even asserted to have attended the court of the Emperor Maximilian. If it had been so, the discussions upon the subject which arose in the earlier part of that century as to his identity with Fust, the Mentz printer of 1450, would not have taken place. The supposition that his history is a monkish distortion of the printer's life, has been long since dismissed from the region of criticism. It is most probably to be sought for in the older traditions of the German peasantry.

This is a reprint of Thomas Churchyard's English version, published about 1600. Both the French and English translations, especially the former, are largely modified with modern incidents.

Friar Bacon. The great Roger Bacon was so many centuries in advance of his time that it is not wonderful that he lived in men's memories as a wizard. But it is curious that his name should have become associated in folk-lore with the grotesque and mischievous tricks which are recounted in the "famous history." The earliest known edition of the tale was printed in 1627.

3782 BACON (Friar). The most famous History of the learned Fryer Bacon, how he came to be a scholar and to study Art-Magick; with the merry Waggeries of his man Miles and the Exploits of Vandermaster and Fryer Bungy, an English conjuror, sm. 4to. woodcut, half russia, 21*s* T. Norris on London Bridge, n. d. (cir. 1700)
The woodcut represents the brazen head in the moments of its speaking, while the friars sleep, and the man Miles amuses himself with piping and drumming.

The text is somewhat modified, and the songs altered.

Friar Rush. The amusing story of the Devil, who under the name of Friar Rush, enters a convent, and in a variety of circumstances sets all the monks by the ears and turns everything topsy-turvy, exists in English, in Danish, and in German. Its real origin is undecided. The monastery in the Danish legend is said to lie in Saxenland, in the German it is placed at Elsinore in Zealand, while the locality is not mentioned in the English one. The German story ends by relating that Rush, after his expulsion from the convent, made his way to England and bewitched the king's daughter, but was dispossessed by his old abbot. The English version omits this, but has a continuation of his adventures as a farmer's labourer and gentleman's servant. It is reprinted in Thoms' Early English Prose Romances.

Gesta Romanorum. On p. 147 of the Dialogues of Creatures (see ante) the words are used: "whereof Helmandus tellyth in Gestys Romanorum." This is the only reference that has anywhere been met with, to the authorship of the collection of curious Apologues known as the Gesta Romanorum. It seems to indicate that the monk Helinand, celebrated as one of the earliest versifiers in the French language, compiled these stories from older sources, adding the Morals, and styling the book de gestis Romanorum, about or soon after the beginning of the thirteenth century.

Matheolus. Mathiolet, an early writer of North France, was born at Boulogne about 1260. He composed this singular work in Latin, with the title of "Liber de infortunio suo;" and some twenty years after his death, Jean Lefèvre de Therouanne translated it into the form in which we now have it. It is a very curious satire upon Women, as may be discovered even from the last three lines of the title alone. All the editions are rare according to Brunet.

Reynard the Fox. The oldest known text of this popular romance is generally considered to be the French one, dating from the thirteenth century, which was published by Méon. But the original legend was undoubtedly Frankish, and current amongst the German invaders of Gaul many centuries before the composition of the French poem, which cannot have been written till near the end of the twelfth century. Willems gives a very fair show of demonstration that "probably in the ninth century, but certainly about the year 1100, the story of Reynard the Fox was known to all German-speaking Franks; and certainly soon afterwards the Latin poem on the subject was written by some Flemish monks." He has also published a Flemish text, which he attributes to the twelfth century. But there can be little doubt on the subject of the origin of the romance, since the name of the Wolf or second hero is in all the versions given as Isengrin or Isengrion, which is an ancient German name for that animal (Eisengrimm), and since the name of the Fox also remains the same in all, and has even given to the French language its only word denoting the species. The statement often made that Reynard the Fox was originally an historical romance based on the adventures of an outlawed Lotharingian noble, named Reginhart, may or may not be true; but in all its later forms the fable was used to embody political and social satire, notably in the Low-German poem bearing the name of Henry of Alkmar as author.

The Seven Wise Masters. This ancient story is supposed to be derived from a similar source to that of the Fables of Bidpai and Æsop,—that is, from India. In all the versions the plot of the narrative is the same, or nearly the same, but the fables or anecdotes which are interposed to save the life of the prince, vary in all. The old Arabic text is entitled the Book of Sindbád, not the voyager of the Arabian Nights.

s. n. (cir. 1476)

An edition totally unknown to Panzer, Ebert, and other bibliographers. It is printed on 76 leaves (the first and last blank), with 34 lines to a full page, signatures a to k.

The type of the book is somewhat like that used by Anton Sorg of Augsburg, but the former owner (Senator Culemann of Hanover) attributes it to Hagenau, about 1476. If this be correct, the volume is the first book printed at that town.

These English versions in which the sexes are reversed, and a young princess is condemned to die by her mother, are printed as chap-books. It will be seen that both in the English, and in the old German story, the compiler has confounded the Seven Wise Masters with the Gesta Romanorum.

This work on Solon, Thales, and the other sages of Greece was probably meant to correct the vulgar notions which were brought about by the spread of the mythical Seven Wise Men.

3825 BUCH von dem Leben und Sitten DER HEYDNISCHEN MAISTER, smallest 4to. hf. russia, 20*s* Augspurg, Anthon Sorg, 1490

This is a translation of Walter Burley's Liber de vita ac moribus philosophum, which was written in the thirteenth century, and is almost historical. It has often been confounded with the Seven Wise Masters.

Ship of Fools. Sebastian Brandt, the most learned of all Strasburgers, wrote this curious satire on the men and manners of his time, in the year 1494, the thirty-sixth of his age. It was then published at Basel, and the extent of its popularity throughout Europe may be measured by the number of editions, translations and imitations, in various languages, which immediately followed, and maintained a wide and constant circulation during more than a hundred years.

3826 SEBASTIAN BRANTS NARRENSCHIFF, herausgegeben von Zarncke, 8vo. portrait and 3 other woodcuts, calf gilt, 15*s* Leipzig, 1854

3828 SALUTIFERA (sic) NAVIS: Narragonice Profectionis nunquā satis laudata Navis, per Sebastianum Grant (sic) fabricata, (cum novis additionibus) sm. 4to. 119 woodcuts, being finer and larger engravings of the same subjects as are contained in the Augsburg edition of 1497, vellum, £3. 3*s* (Lugduni) Jac. Zachon, 1488 (sic for 1498)

This edition contains at the end twenty new pieces by Sebastian Brandt himself. The first of these is upon irregular and corrupt ways of living, and is illustrated by a fine characteristic engraving of the Cart before the Horse, the rider standing on his head within it, the driver behind with spurs on his toes, and other laughable signs of propriety reversed. Opposite this is an astrological figure, perhaps a horoscope, bearing the year 1503.

3829 BADII ASCENSII (J.) Stultiferæ Naves sensus animosque trahentes Mortis in exitium, sm. 4to. 20 leaves, with 8 very fine woodcuts (including devices of E. G. de Marnef and T. Kerver), calf extra, gilt edges, £2. 8*s* Paris, T. Kerver (1500)

This is a supplement, written by Badius Ascensius on the Foolish Virgins and Senses, intended to be published with the Paris edition by Marnef in 1498 of Brandt and Locher's Ship of Fools. Some copies of that edition seem to have the supplement in ten leaves, apparently without woodcuts (see Brunet, under Brandt and Badius, who is, however, rather obscure and uncertain on the subject) while the present publication by Kerver was an édition de luxe, in a separate form, of a composition considered so highly meritorious.

3830 NAVIS STULTIFERÆ Collectanea ab Jodoco Badio Ascensio conflata, sq. 8vo. 115 large woodcuts on the same subjects as the 117 of the Basel edition, but with slight variations, calf neat, £2. 16*s* Paris, 1507

The text is completely the composition of Badius Ascensius on the same themes as the original book contains, worked out in a more concise and elegant style, and with a commentary added, but lacking the strongly flavoured humour and coarse wit which constitute the chief merit of Brandt's Ship of Fools. The supplement which Badius wrote in 1498 was not inserted.

3831 BRANDT, Stultifera Navis mortalium in qua fatui affectus, mores, conatus, etc. ponuntur, 12mo. with new woodcuts on the same 117 subjects as in the Basel edition of 1497, fine copy in vellum, 25*s* Basil. 1572

The text is the same as in the Lyons edition of 1498, except that the "Cart before the Horse" engraving is omitted, as well as Locher's letter and metrical address to Bergmann the printer.

3832 BRANT (SEB.) STULTIFERA NAVIS: THE SHIP OF FOOLES translated out of Latin into Englishe by Alexander Barclay, Latin and English, with the Mirrour of good Maners and certain Egloges, sm. folio, Black Letter, Best Edition, with almost the same woodcuts as are contained in the Lyons edition above, wormed in the text, fine tall copy, old russia gilt, £15. by John Cawood, 1570

Daniel's copy sold for £21.

Barclay translated evidently from a copy of the Lyons edition described above, but his version is so free and so diffuse that he may be said to have made the work his own, and transformed it into a satire upon his own people. His translation was first printed by Pinson in 1509.

3833 BRANDT, Aff-ghebeelde Narren Speel-Schuyt, in Nederduytsch, sq. 12mo. 102 woodcuts, with a very fine portrait of Seb. Brandt engraved on copper, old calf, 20*s* Amst. 1635

This edition resembles the work of Badius in being a compendious paraphrase of the original, not a translation, and in having a commentary. The cuts are imitations of those in the Paris book of 1507.

"This very singular and amusing production is a burlesque on the manners of the clergy of the thirteenth century; the principal personage introduced is a monk or some other religious person, who, shut up in a cloister, is discontented with that situation of life in which he has been placed. He is represented under the disguise of an ass, dissatisfied with the length of his tail, who applies to a doctor for the removal of his own and the application of another of more lengthy dimensions, forgetting, in his folly, that what nature had ordered was most fit and advantageous for him. Under this and similar other ludicrous imagery the author has contrived to work out a 'Mirror for Fools—in which all persons may see reflected upon themselves the many reprehensible faults of others.' Nigellus was an Englishman and a native of London; he flourished at the beginning of the 13th century, in the reign of King John."

Virgilius. The necromancer is generally supposed to be identical with the great Roman poet, but it seems more probable that the Irish Bishop of Saltzburg, St. Fergal or Virgilius, in the eighth century, was the real original. His heretical belief in the spherical form of the earth, and the existence of men at the antipodes; his dealings with mines, and the miracles wrought by his dead body, are a likelier groundwork for the story of the wizard, than can be found in the poet's works. The similarity of the Irish name, Fergal (the fair man), to the Latin Virgilius, offers a tempting speculation to the ethnologist.

The most popular of all stories amongst the pure Arabs. It does not glitter with the gorgeous wonders of the Thousand and One Nights, in which the influence of Persian and Indian luxury may be traced, but is equally marvellous. There is no hero of fiction who wields such a blade, or achieves such extraordinary deeds as 'Antar, the "Father of Cavaliers." The story is very ancient, and historical in its basis, the warrior himself being identified with the poet who contributed a poem to the Moallakat in the days of Mohammed.

This rare edition is apparently the first in which the author's name appeared. Absque ullâ notâ (? Conrad Kacheloven, Leipzig, cir. 1495)
This edition was so rare as to be almost totally unknown when Sebastian Brandt produced his own edition or modernisation of the Freidank in 1501. The old German text of the work is attributed by Wilhelm Grimm (the most competent authority on the subject,) to the famous Minnesinger Walter von der Vogelweide, in the thirteenth century. The Latin version which is in rhyme, was of course a later production. These sentences express all the morality and wisdom of the author's time, and soon became so popular in Germany that every wise saying was attributed to "Herr Fridank," as the minnesinger had chosen to style himself

This is Sebastian Brandt's edition, newly revised and altered, so as to give a Protestant sense to everything which could be regarded from a religious point of view. The corrector is unknown, but he is generally supposed to have been the printer himself, Sebastian Wagner. The curious woodcuts which are of similar character to those in the Ship of Fools, render this edition the costliest and the most highly desired by collectors.

5. Wonderful Travels.

Sir John Maundeville's Travels.—A most popular narrative in former days, although unfortunately the simple readers took more delight in the fictitious and exaggerated portions than the substantial truth of the good knight's story.

3878 JOHANNES DE MONTEVILLA. CE LIVRE EST APPELLE MANDEUILLE & fut fait & compose par messiere Jehan de Mandeuille cheualier natif dangleterre de la ville de sainct alein Et parle de la terre de promissiō cest assavoir de iherusalem et de pluseurs autres isles der mer & les diverses & estranges choses qui sōt es dictez isles, sm. folio, curious woodcuts, printed in long lines in a large type, with 33 and 34 lines in a full page, ten leaves wanting, but having the first and last, EXCESSIVELY RARE, old russia, gilt, from the Swinton Library, £21. Cy finist ce tresplaisant livre nomme Mandeuille parlant moulte autentiquement du pays et terre doultre mer (? Lyon, cir. 1480)

This edition consists of signatures a to l in sheets of eight leaves, which would thus make up a total of 88 leaves. But the following signatures are unfortunately wanting: a 3; b 2 and 7; h 4, 5, 6; k 1 and 6; l 1 and 2. This edition does not seem to be mentioned by any of the bibliographers, but it is apparently more ancient than the first edition described by Brunet as of Lyons, 1480,—both consisting of eighty-eight leaves, with signatures a to l; but the one above described is printed in large type, with more lines on a page—a sufficient testimony of priority.

COLLATION: Table, 3 leaves, the above title appearing on the verso of the third; and 58 leaves of text. The signatures are a to ȝ in eights, except a which has seven leaves and g which has six.

The subscription shews clearly this edition was printed at Venice. It declares ". . . opus . . . ubi completum sit ipsa elementa seu . . . caracteres litterarum . . . Venetica monstrant." The Venetian characters could not be pointed to as shewing where the book was printed, if it had been executed by Dietrich Martin at Alost, while the resemblance of the types used by the latter, as noticed by Panzer, is accounted for by his having imported them from Venice.

Munchausen's Travels.—First published in English, at London, in 1785, by the Hanoverian Raspe, a learned and clever scoundrel, who derived the materials partly from his recolleetion of an old Baron of Münchhausen who had served in Russia, partly from the popular stories of his native country, and partly from the wonderful fictions known to older literature. The famous Bürger was no more than the translator from the English of the first German edition, the original form of the story being English, although the writer was a German. The sequel, which, like most other sequels, is very inferior to the original work, was written as a satire upon Bruce's travels.

A very rare and apparently undescribed edition of Schildberger's Travels in Tartary, Persia, Turkey, Arabia, the Holy Land, Egypt, &c. The top of the first page is occupied by a woodcut, under which the first line of the text is "Bey dem Abubachir was eyns Künigs Sun"—so that the beginning is wanting. The copy consists of 38 leaves, with 36 and 33 lines to a page, and is said to have been printed by A. Sorg, at Augsburg, circa 1480. It may also have been the production of Johann Zainer's press at Ulm. The book concludes on the reverse of folio 38: "Ein ende hat der Schiltberger." The last page comprises the Tatar and Armenian Paternoster in Gothic letters.

6. Religious Works.

3890 The Apocalypse. — APOCALYPSIS SANCTI JOHANNIS, small folio, BLOCK BOOK, 48 leaves of Xylographic printing, the illustrations richly coloured, bound in old green morocco, with silk linings, gilt edges, from Mr. Corser's library, £550. cash circ. 1420

A careful comparison of the various editions, as actually seen, and as described or facsimiled by others, has convinced me, and will convince others, that the above volume contains the first edition of the block-book Apocalypse. It is unique in its arrangement, the impressions being taken upon the second and fourth pages of each sheet—an awkward method of procedure which can only have been a first experiment. All other known editions of the book follow the natural and improved order of impression on the second and third pages of each sheet. A main distinction between the Corser block-book and the later ones, is that the former is artistically superior, while the others enjoy a no less decidedly mechanical superiority. The errors of language in the first are also corrected in the latter.

3891 APOCALYPSIS SANCTI JOHANNIS, sm. folio, another edition of the great block-book, xylographically printed on 48 leaves, the engravings coloured, with some minute worm-holes, bound in embroidered silk, with a design of the Virgin crowned by God the Father, morocco back and borders, from the Seymour Kirkup library, £200. circ. 1440-50

This Block-Book is of the edition which is ranked by Heineken as second, by Sotheby as fourth, and which I consider should stand fifth in order.

Nurnberge per Albertum Durer Pictorem, 1511

This grand work of the great Nürnberg artist is of a very high degree of rarity. Dürer's Apocalypse has been seen by but few collectors, although it is a magnificent specimen of his powers.

3893 Ars Moriendi. ARS MORIENDI, Editio Princeps. Photographisches Facsimile des Unicum im Besitze von T. O. Weigel. Facsimile of the EDITIO PRINCEPS OF THIS CELEBRATED BLOCK-BOOK: executed by photography from the unique copy, royal 4to. 24 leaves, in a portfolio, £3. Leipzig, 1869

Falkenstein in his History of Printing says, page 23; This Block-Book surpasses in the spirited expression of the figures, and in the artistic use of the graver, every artistic production of the 15th century; conception and execution point to Lower Rhenish origin, and it was most likely the work of the great artist Petrus Christus of Cologne, temp. 1438.

3894 ARS MORIENDI. Kunst wol zu sterben, ein gar nutzliches Büchlein mit Exempeln gezieret durch Adam Walasser, 12mo. numerous woodcuts, the designs of the mediæval character, the execution of about the period of the date, stamped hogskin clasps, fine copy from the Yemeniz library, £3. 6*s* Dilingen, Johan. Mayer, 1603

3895 Barlaam and Josaphat. VITÆ ET RES GESTÆ SS. Barlaam et Josaphat, Billio interprete, 16mo. vellum, 5*s* Antverp. 1602

This legend of two of the Saints in the Roman calendar is attributed to Saint John of Damascus, but the authorship is uncertain. Barlaam is noticed as a hermit much earlier. The story is however supposed to contain the earliest European reference to the life of Buddha, and to have, like other marvellous tales, migrated from the east, suffering singular modifications in its transit.

3896* ——— l'istessa, 8vo. calf extra, 7s 6d Roma, 1816

The ancient Italian translation which is reproduced in the above two editions is considered to be one of the finest monuments of the early Tuscan tongue. It was perhaps executed about the end of the thirteenth century.

3897 Belial. THERAMO (Jacobi de) Lis Cristi et Belial judicialiter coram Salomone judice, sm. folio, gothic letter, an early edition, 96 leaves, double columns, 36 lines in a page, old calf gilt, £5. 5*s* Sine ulla nota

A very extraordinary and curious work, as the dispute between Christ and the Devil is carried on through the entire form of a process in the Ecclesiastical Courts, from the citation to the final judgment on appeal. The whole proceedings are truly laughable, the Counsel of Christ as well as the Advocate for the Devil citing and laying down the law from the Corpus Juris Canonici.

3900 BIBLIA PAUPERUM, reproduced in facsimile from a (xylographic) copy in the British Museum, with an Introduction, by Berjeau, atlas 4to. 40 leaves of facsimile and preliminary text, (pub. at £2. 2*s*) hf. bd. 32*s* 1859

These are both works of extreme rarity, and I cannot find any bibliographical mention of them. The first is a Bible historiée, with a set of curious engravings, coloured us issued. It is said, on the authority of the Sussex catalogue, that the Scriptural text was falsified by monks, but whether this be correct or not, the title certainly bears the singular statement "translated and enlarged." The wood-blocks from which the cuts were worked, are evidently much older than the book; they include many singular illustrations of the gross popular belief of the fifteenth century.

Hans Lützelburger was the original engraver of this beautiful series. It is almost certain that Holbein designed neither the Alphabet nor the Dance of Death.

The Dance of Macaber which was painted on the walls of one of the chapels of old St. Paul's, has long since ceased to exist. "On the walls whereof was richly pourtraied the Dance of Death (viz. the picture of Death leading away all estates) at the charge of Jenkyn Carpenter, a citizen of London in those days, with Englishe verses to explaine the painting, translated out of French by John Lydgate." This painting was executed perhaps about 1440-50.

These plates have a striking and remarkable merit of their own, imitated but not borrowed from the old Todtentänze. The pieces of illustrative verse are also the painter's work.

Flower of the Commandments. The first known form of the French original, from which Andrew Chertsey rendered the following English version, was printed at Rouen in 1496. It was frequently afterwards reprinted.

3922 FLOURE OF THE COMMANDEMENTS OF GOD, with many examples and auctorytes extracte and drawen as well of Holy Scryptures as other Doctours and good auncyente Faders, the whiche is moche utyle and profytable unto all people; sm. folio, woodcuts, Black Letter, wanting 12 leaves of tabula, with title-page at commencement, and X x 4-6 at end, EXTREMELY RARE, calf, from Archdeacon Cotton's library, £12. 12*s* (Wynkyn de Worde, 1510)

This very rare edition contains a Supplement of 30 additional lives, beyond the original 177, which did not appear in the earlier ones, but were first added by Winters. They are for the most part different from the additions in the Cologne edition of 1485, and from the Strasburg edition of 1490.

3925 LEGENDÆ SANCTORUM, quas collegit in unum Frater Jacobus Januensis, folio, initial letter richly illuminated, very fine large copy with ROUGH LEAVES, in the original oak boards covered with stamped leather, and protected by brass centres and corners, an elegant specimen of the binding of the time, in singularly fine preservation, £10. 10*s*

Cœllen, Ludovuich van Renchẽ, 1485

In the Cologne dialect of Low German. The additional lives are to the number of 41, many of whom are special Saints of Cologne. This work is for the most part a translation from Conrad Winter's Latin edition of 1481 of the Golden Legend, but varies towards the end. It includes one of St. Thomas of Canterbury. Caxton probably translated his Golden Legend from the first edition of this book. Panzer only mentions one book by this printer—whom he calls Ludovicus de Reuchen—a Latin Psalter printed one year before the present volume.

Argentinæ, sine typogr. nom. 1490

The volume consists of signatures a to z, and A to N 7. The original work ends, with colophon and date on the obverse of H 5; and is followed by 38 additional lives and legends, corresponding to those in the Cologne edition in Latin of 1485.

This work differs entirely from the Cologne edition of 1485 in arrangement and in language. They may be looked upon as in general two independent versions of the Aurea Legenda.

3930 LEGENDA AUREA, that is to saye in Englysshe THE GOLDEN LEGENDE, for lyke as passeth Golde in valewe all other metallys, so this legende excelleth all other bookes, folio, very spirited woodcuts, Black Letter, wanting the preliminary leaves, folios 1-8, and folios 491-498, a few others defective, calf, fine tall copy, £36.

(WYNKYN DE WORDE), 1498

This fine volume is as far as it goes in very fine condition; the woodcuts are very spirited and differ from those in the edition of 1527.

The volume commences with the Old Testament Saints (Abraham) on sheet Bbij and extends to sheet Cg 5 leaves, or pp. 9-52; signatures then beginning again with a and extending to sheet D, or folios 1—CCCLXXXX. The last leaf containing "The Lyfe of Saynt Morante."

This, says Mr. Dibdin, "appears to have been the first volume with which De Worde opened his typographical labours of 1498; and a rare and truly magnificent book it is, although most of the woodcuts, with which it is illustrated, are of the rudest execution." See Dibdin's Bibl. Spencer, iv. p. 402.

3931 LEGENDA AUREA, that is to saye in Englysshe, the GOLDEN LEGENDE, folio, Black Letter, woodcuts, imperfect at end, and first four leaves supplied in MS. calf, £10. Wynkyn de Worde, 1527

This is probably the second German edition; the first was issued by Sorg in 1486. Panzer only knew of the existence of the present one from Zapf's description.

Productions from the press of this Jesuit monastery in Guipuzcoa are very rare. It only lasted half a dozen years before it was suppressed by Spain at the desire of the French Government.

A curious religious treatise, written for the greater part in verse, and symbolising the various sins as beasts of the chase. The chain of woodcuts with emblematic inscriptions upon them, gives the book the character of an allegorical romance.

Riche et du Ladre, à douze Personnages, 67 copies printed—5 parts in 1 vol. woodcuts, calf, £2. 2*s* (Paris, 1798-1823)

The reprints of old French literature by Caron are extremely rare, as only 50 copies were printed. The two latter pieces were intended as a continuation to Caron's collection.

3940 RECUEIL DE FARCES, MORALITÉS et SERMONS JOYEUX, publié d'après le Manuscrit de la Bibliothèque Royale, par LEROUX DE LINCY et FRANCISQUE MICHEL, 4 vols. sm. 8vo. calf extra, gilt edges, Felix Slade's copy, £8. 8*s* Paris, 1837

An extraordinary collection of 74 Pieces. As each was published separately, with a distinct title-page, and the impression limited to 76 copies, it is supposed that not more than 50 copies of the entire series are in existence.

3942 MOUNT CALVARY; or the History of the Passion, Death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ, in Cornish and English, by Keigwin, 8vo. bds. 10*s* 1836

This old Cornish poem, which perhaps may be referred to the fifteenth century or earlier, is not broken in Keigwin's transcription by the names and dialogue of personages, but it is considered to have been a miracle play.

3943 MYSTERE DES ACTES DES APOSTRES, illustre des legendes, tout ordonne par personnages, dernierement joue à Bourges, 2 vols. in 1, sm. 4to. black letter, a few leaves slightly cut in head-line, red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Pratt, £7. 7*s* Paris, A. et C. Les Angeliers, 1540

This book is not only very rare, but also extremely curious, and belongs to a class of early literature now much sought after. It contains the Acts of the Apostles dramatised as a mystery, with a number of singular characters and grotesque stories added to heighten the effect. When it was played at Bourges, as the title states, it must have been divided into parts so as to cover a long space of time. The printer's device is a punning one: two angels tied, with the motto les anges lies.

The oldest known edition of this valuable "Mystery" was printed by Vérard, in 1491. Brunet states that the authorship is attributed to Pierre Blanchet, but it scarcely seems probable that that writer should have achieved a work so extensive and successful at a time when he can merely have passed his thirtieth year. Numerous editions of this dramatic Destruction de Jerusalem were afterwards issued; which must not however be confounded with an historical romance bearing the same title, and also very popular. God, Tiberius, Nero, Galba, Otho, Theodoric, and Mark Antony, are among the personages, and Pilate who is brought to punishment for his false judgment upon Christ. But with all its incongruities, there is no lack of imagination and other poetical merits in the drama.

3948 The Speculum. SPECULUM HUMANÆ SALVATIONIS, folio, FIRST EDITION, THE WHOLE OF THE TEXT PRINTED WITH MOVEABLE TYPES, AND THE WOOD BLOCK CUTS AT THE TOP OF EACH PAGE, £750. (? 1450)

The above specimen of the Books printed from Wooden Blocks (which have excited so much controversy, as connected with the claim of Holland to the Invention of Printing), is in the finest possible condition. The cuts are uncoloured and not pasted together as they generally are.—See Berjeau's Catalogue of Block Books.

On the first day of the Inglis' sale, the Speculum humanæ salvationis was sold, and secured by Mr. Quaritch. The last time it appeared in the market was in 1867, when the copy with the Dutch text belonging to the eminent printers Enschede of Haarlem realised at auction a sum of about 8250 florins, and was purchased by Mr. Quaritch. This extraordinary volume, half xylographic (or block-printed) and half typographic, has been recognised by Messrs. Ottley, Sotheby, and others, as the first existing specimen of printing with moveable types. All the claims advanced by the Dutch school to the glory of having invented the Art of Printing, are founded upon the Speculum. With its rude Latin rhymes, and its coarse woodcuts, it has been for more than a hundred years the oriflamme and central object of a hot conflict, waged with partisan fury by all the critics and bibliographers of Europe, arrayed in two hostile divisions to support the honour of Germany and of Holland. The fact that Guttenberg and Faust were engaged in typographical labours at Mentz, about the year 1450, is denied by none; but the statement, so strenuously upheld on the one side, so fiercely opposed on the other, that Lawrence Janson Koster printed books in Haarlem thirty years earlier, finds its strongest point-d'appui in the existence of the Speculum humanæ Salvationis.

3950 ——— the same, the introduction and the impression at full, without the facsimile, 2*s* 6*d* 1861

This is a facsimile of the edition partly in moveable types and partly block-printed, which Mr. Berjeau with singular defectiveness of reasoning considers to have preceded the edition wholly printed with moveable types; although it must be plain that the xylographic portion, occurring where it does in the middle of the book, was only engraved to supply the deficiency of moveable types for a second edition.

3951 SPECULUM VITÆ HUMANÆ, liber dictus, editus à Rodorico Episcopo Zamorensi, folio, initial letters in red and blue, a few in gold and colours, calf gilt, £3. 16*s* 1477
Ludini supra Rhodanum, Guillermus Regis, (i. e. GUILLAUME LEROY)

There were about forty editions of this popular book—which must not be confounded with the older Speculum of the block-books—printed in several languages before the close of the fifteenth century. The present edition is remarkable for being the production of the first printer of Lyons, and one of the earliest books printed in that city. Typography had been established there by Leroy in 1473.

Cruelty deserves a notice for different qualities. There are two varying editions of this metrical romance, in which a gardener is hired by a high-born lady to murder her son's lowly-born sweetheart. Each ends with the gardener's punishment. No. 1: "The Gardiner we hear, He executed were, A just reward for this henious deed." No. 2: "The gard'ner as we hear, Was apprehended there, And hung in chains for being so severe." Another ballad on Dido and Æneas, called "the Wandering Prince of Troy," is not without merit, although the pious Trojan is in the end carried off by fiends for his unworthy treatment of the fair Queen, now turned into a grisly ghost. The earliest pieces in the collection are the "Execution of the Covenant, 1661," and "Monmouth degraded, 1685;" and a rather curious one is the "Predictions of Nostradamus, 1687."

It is well known that this is a suppositious work. It exists in Latin and French, in fifteenth-century editions, and is also found in English so early as 1528, printed by Robert Copland. It has very frequently been printed in English, and yet copies are extremely rare except of the editions printed in the present century.

4059 Bartholomew Glanvil. Cy commence ung tres excellent liure nomme Le Proprietaire des Choses, translate de Latin en Françoys (par J. Corbichon), folio, Gothic letter, woodcuts, fine copy, olive morocco, gilt edges, by Padeloup, £12. 12*s* Lion, par Jehan Cyber, s. d. circ. 1490

His work de Proprietatibus is a complete history of nature, and comprises in 19 books all the knowledge that was then accessible upon almost every subject. followed by a supplement upon Arithmetic, Mathematics, and Music. It exists in Latin, English, French, Spanish, Dutch, all of them first printed in the fifteenth century.

Sine notâ (? Mogunt. cir. 1495)

This is the first of the editions described by Brunet, but notwithstanding its priority in the Manuel, it seems more probable that it was printed after the Maintz edition of 1491.

4066 ORTUS SANITATIS de Herbis et Plantis, de Animalibus et Reptilibus, de Piscibus, Lapidibus etc. sm. folio, title within woodcut border, with hundreds of curious woodcuts, some coloured, in the original boards covered with stamped leather, £3. 3*s* sine loco, 1517

John of Milan, one of the doctors or Masters of the School of Salerno, is believed to have versified these curious medical precepts, in the name of his fellows, and addressed them to Robert Curthose duke of Normandy, the son of William the Conqueror. The popularity of the work is attested by more than a hundred and sixty editions.

4071 Shepherd's Calendars. LE GRANT KALENDRIER, CŌPOST DES BERGIERS AVECQ LEUR ASTROLOGIE, et plusieurs aultres choses, folio, numerous very curious woodcuts, remarkably fine copy in green morocco, gilt edges, £25. Troyes par Nicolas le Rouge, 1529

These Shepherd's Calendars are composed of a very singular medley of meteorological, agricultural, moral, medical, physiognomical, and other observations, interspersed with French and Latin rhymes, some of which are possessed of considerable merit.

4073 Tusser's Husbandry. TUSSER (T.) Five Hundreth Pointes of good Husbandrie, newlie augmented to a fourth part more, small 4to. black letter, VERY CHOICE COPY in red MOROCCO extra, with gold borders inside, gilt edges, £10. 10*s* Richard Yardley and Peter Short, 1593

4077 TUSSER REDIVIVUS, being part of his Five hundred Points, with Notes and Observations, 8vo. calf, 7*s* 6*d* 1710

This fantastic agricultural poet, who mixes up much doggrel with a flow of pleasant and melodious verse, never succeeded in working out his own schemes. He died in poverty; but many a farmer in days of yore learned his book by heart, and throve upon the useful lessons it contains.

4084 COMINCIA LA PRIMA PARTE DELLA CANTICA OVERO COMMEDIA CHIAMATA INFERNO DEL CHIARISSIMO POETA DANTE ALINGHIERI DI FIRENZE—Incipit primus cantus PARADISI COMEDIE DANTIS ALDEGHIERII—2 parts in 1 vol. roy. folio, FINE MANUSCRIPT of the Divina Commedia, containing the Inferno and the Paradiso, with the gloss or commentary called "IL FALSO BOCCACCIO," finely written in a large and beautiful Gothic letter, with painted capitals, having at end the name of the scribe and date: "Scriptum per me bartolomeum filium andēe maççonis de luce Sub annis dñi Mille CCCC·L.VII Deo Gratias Amen," in the original oak boards, £36. A.D. 1457
Baron Kirkup believed that this Manuscript belonged formerly to the Ricasoli family of Florence. He has prefixed a leaf from a beautiful Manuscript on Vellum, written about 1350, containing a portion of Canto XXIV of the Inferno, which MS. if still in existence, would, in the opinion of Viscount Colomb de Batines, be not only one of the oldest, but also in respect to calligraphy, one of the finest.

4085 DANTE, LA DIVINA COMEDIA, col Commento di JACOPO DELLA LANA, comunemente attribuito à BENVENUTO (RAMBALDI) DA IMOLA, corretto da Christofal BERARDI, con la Vita del poeta per Giovani Bocchacio; thick folio, black letter, very fine clean large copy, measuring 12 inches by 8½, with the RARE blank leaf A 1 of the "Commedia," green morocco extra, joints, gilt edges, by Kalthoeber, £28.

The work is absolutely complete, in 374 leaves, as described by Colomb de Batines, not 377 as in Brunet.
The Colophon (in verse) ends:—
De spiera vendelin fu il stampatore
Del mille quatrocento e settantasetti
Correvan gli anni del nostro signore.
FIRST EDITION WITH A COMMENTARY. De Bure in giving a long account of this volume, calls it "fort rare et recherché;" and an ample description of it is given by Dr. Dibdin, in the Bibliotheca Spenceriana, Vol. IV. p. 105. "Libro per ogni conto pregievolissimo," says Gamba. Among many other curious particulars contained in this valuable Commentary is a singular anecdote relating to Mahomet.
"The first Commentary printed was this one of Jacopo della Lana, in the well-known edition, the Vendeliniana of 1477; but it appeared under the name of Benvenuto da Imola; a mistake rectified chiefly through the Latin version. The commentary of the Imolese was in Latin, and is found in many libraries. The Italian version, published not many years ago, has rendered it more popular; though, in this case, the translator has not done justice to the original."

H. C. Barlow. The Athenæum, Dec. 18, 1869.

4087 DANTHE ALIGHIERI, la Comedia, col Comento di Christoforo Landino, stout folio, with three of the ENGRAVINGS by Baccio Baldini, several leaves pierced by a small wormhole, otherwise a good copy, blue morocco, gilt edges, very rare, £10. 10*s*

Firenze, per Nicholo di Lorenzo della Magna, 1481

The third engraving is a duplicate of the second, as is generally the case.

4088 DANTHE ALEGHIERI, Cantica o vero Comedia, col Comento di Christophforo Landino, folio, 67 fine large woodcuts, red morocco gilt, from the Kirkup library, £8. Bressa, per Boninum de Boninis, 1487

Excessively rare. Mr. Slade's copy fetched £59. There are but few specimens in existence of the Bonini press at Brescia. Printing had been established in that town about fifteen years before the date of the above Dante. This book forms the third edition of Landino's commentary, and was reproduced from the famous Florence Dante of 1481, but with entirely new engravings.

4089 DANTE, le Terze Rime: lo 'nferno e l' Purgatorio e l' Paradiso, 12mo. first Aldine edition, old calf gilt, £3. 10*s* Venet. in ædibus Aldi, 1502

4090 ——— the same, 12mo. a tall copy, in morocco gilt, or half russia, £5. 5*s* 1502

Sir M. Sykes' copy fetched £5. 10*s*; and Dr. Hawtrey's, in 1858, £5. 15*s*. "Edition recherchée, mais dont on trouve difficilement des exemplaires complets et bien conservés."—Brunet. This copy has the anchor on the last leaf, which is wanting in many copies. It is the first book in which this mark was employed.

4091 DANTHE ALIGHIERI Fiorentino historiado (Comedia col Comento di C. Landino, il Credo, Pater nostro et Ave Maria), folio, woodcuts, vellum, £2. 16*s* Venetia, Bartholomeo de Zanni, 1507

A scarce edition. Colomb de Batines mentions having seen only two copies, one in the Benini, and this in Baron Kirkup's Library.

4092 DANTE. Comedia di Danthe Alighieri, cō l' Espositione di Christophoro Landino, folio, fine title page in red and black, with portraits of five Roman and five Italian poets, large portrait of Dante on the back, full-page size, and numerous other woodcuts throughout text, in oak boards, with russia back and clasps, many rough leaves, £3.

Venet. Jac. del Burgofrāco, 1529

"Edizione difficile a trovarsi."—Colomb de Batines. It was printed for Lucantonio Giunta.

4093 LA COMEDIA DI DANTE ALIGIERI con la nova espositione di Alessandro Vellutello, sm. 4to. Editio Princeps of this celebrated commentary, with 110 curious woodcuts, old calf, £3. 10*s*; or a fine copy in old calf, £4. 4*s* Vinegia, Marcolini, 1544

Priced, 1840, Bohn, £4. 4*s*; 1863, B. Q. £4. 4*s*; Boone, 1864, £6. 6*s*; fetched in 1869, at Sotheby's, rebacked, £3.; Roscoe's copy sold for £4. 14*s* 6*d*, and Borluut's for 250 fr.

This rare edition is remarkable in many respects. It is the first appearance of a celebrated commentary, it is entirely printed in italics, and it is ornamented with woodcuts which in design and execution are amongst the finest specimens of the art. It is also one of the best of the old editions of the text. Vellutello speaks with contempt of the critical value of the editions printed by Aldus of both Dante and Petrarch.

4094 IL DANTE, con argomenti, 18mo. with woodcut portrait, a very pretty little edition, in russia, gilt edges, 35*s* Lione, Giovan di Tournes, 1547

The above interesting collection of Periodical Writings is of the greatest rarity. Thorpe, in one of his Catalogues, states that a gentleman had assured him he could meet with but one copy in his travels through Spain, for which he was asked upwards of £30.

It is generally found defective, and copies vary to a considerable degree. The second copy described above is no exception to this rule; it wants, besides Vol. V, Nos. 333, 4, in Vol. IX, which are very frequently absent. Some Nos. have been omitted, while the pagination remains correct; and sometimes there are two with the same No., although the text runs on correctly. The last part of Vol. XI is number 382, yet the first of Vol. XII receives the number 573, from which the numeration proceeds to the end (No. 611), although nothing is deficient. Nothing is known to be wanting in the first copy. The periodical seems to have been produced under great difficulties and discouragements; it was suppressed by the Spanish government, as the enlightened opinions which the French Revolution had first set afloat were winning popularity amongst the educated youths of Spanish Peru. There is a sort of indignant bitterness in the title of the last volume, which is stated to be "dado a luz por uno de los individuos de la Sociedad."

The Bengal Journal was published in the following order :—SERIES I, 1832 to Dec. 1838, 84 Nos. ; SERIES II, Jan. 1839 to Dec. 1846, 89 Nos. or Nos. 85 to 173, Old Series; SERIES III, (publishing at the present time), 1847 to 1866, in which the old numeration stopped short at No. 297, being the end of Vol. 33, 1864. In 1865 the Society commenced to issue the Journal in two divisions: I, History, Literature, etc.; II, Physical Science; and in this order it has continued to be published. In 1866 the Proceedings commenced to be published separately, a number every month.

All the early volumes are out of print in Calcutta, and sell there at exorbitant prices. The Bengal Journal is a continuation of the "Asiatic Researches;" it is a most valuable periodical, devoted to Oriental Literature, Science, Antiquities, Geography, Art, &c. No public library can do without this important work; it forms, with the Asiatic Researches, one of the noblest monuments of British dominion in the East.

This extremely rare work should be added to a set of the Bengal Journal.

the above portion is therefore described by the dates on the wrappers. Complete sets are extremely rare. The following is an accurate collation from its beginning to 1870: No. 1, 1845-46 (a reprint exists dated 1859); No. 2, May '46—Feb. '47; 3, May '47—April '48; 4, June '48—Aug. '49; 5, June '49—Aug. '50; 6, or Vol. II, No. 1, 1852; 7, Vol. II, No. 2, 1853; 8, Vol. II, No. 3, 1855; 9, 1856-58, No. 1; 10, 1856-58, No. 2; 11, 1858-59, dated 1860; 12, 1865-66, dated 1866; 13, 1867-70, No. 1; 14, 1867-70, No. 2. Had the publishers adopted a running number, as in the Bengal Journal, this confusion would have been prevented.

The melange is great in its variety, and judicious in its selection. We have translations from the Welsh poets, statistical information, geological researches, ancient mythologistic tales, legends, fragments of local history, provincial news, and reviews of Celtic literature ; these are again enlivened with poetry and music, with descriptive excursions in the land of the Cymry, and with biographical sketches. We heartily wish success to a periodical production undertaken with such zeal, and prosecuted with so much ability."—Gentleman's Magazine.

Reynolds's Discourse delivered at the opening of the Royal Academy, January 2, 1769.

The early Catalogues of the Royal Academy are extremely rare. Such a desirable set as the above, collected with much care and patience, ought to find a place in a public library. Very few complete sets can be in existence, for although Mr. Quaritch has collected them for many years, this is the only perfect set he has been able to offer for sale lately. The early purchasers could not of course know

Cave added), the whole uniformly bound in hf. russia, UNCUT, A MAGNIFICENT SET, from Sir Charles Price's library, £65. 1731-1868

So complete and desirable a set of this truly valuable Antiquarian periodical is rarely to be met with. The first ten vols. being on Large Paper, the whole set is uniform in size; the small paper copies of the early volumes were in post 8vo. so that they had to be stilted in binding to render them uniform with the later ones. The set is, as described above, complete down to what may be considered its end, in May, 1868. On June 1st, 1868, an entirely new series commenced. The Magazine is now devoted to the drama, general literature, fiction, music, etc. The great inferiority of this new publication is such as to prevent its being treated as a continuation of its famous predecessor, and the value of the latter must therefore be greatly enhanced.

"Some years ago the design of publishing Les Historiens des Gaules de la France was resumed on a larger scale and in a more splendid form; and although the name of Dom Bouquet stands foremost, the merit must be shared amongst the veteran Benedictines of the Abbey of St. Germain des Prés at Paris. This noble collection may be proposed as a model for such national works; the original texts are corrected from the best manuscripts; the curious reader is enlightened without being oppressed by the perspicuous brevity of the preface and notes. But a multitude of obstacles and delays seem to have impeded the progress of the undertaking; and the historians of France had only attained the twelfth century and the thirteenth volume, when a general deluge overwhelmed the country and its ancient inhabitants." —Gibbon's Miscellaneous Works, vol. 2, p. 713.

"The tables of contents and the index are framed with so much minuteness as to bring, in a few minutes, before the reader's eye, all that can be found respecting any fact within the period of the collection, and the dissertations are so copious and ably executed, that there seldom is a point of importance where the writers have not collected the learning and sentiments of all preceding writers. Dom Bouquet lived to finish the first eight volumes; on his decease, the work was put into the hands of Dom Haudiquier, who had, in Dom Bouquet's life-time, learned the Arabic language, to enable him to print, with a translation, the authors who have written in that language upon the Crusades. Both writers were Benedictine monks of St. Maur; and invaluable as the work is it is by no means the only work of the same calibre for which we are indebted to that learned community."—Works of C. Butler, vol. 2. p. 5. (Appendix.)

"Bouquet is a name better known to the continental historian than any other compiler and editor, and indeed almost every one who has studied the earlier portions of English history, must be familiar with the sound. This Benedictine was commissioned by his order to draw up one of those immense works which, from time to time, have been the peculiar boast of the French literary world, and to which we have nothing to compare in our country. It was considered desirable that all ancient and mediæval writers upon the history of France should be collected into one immense corpus historicum for the good of the nation."—H. L. Jones, in Gent.'s Mag., Dec. '55.

"All preceding collections of Northern Antiquities were exceeded equally in splendour, utility, and extent, by the meritorious labours of LANGEBEK, whose collection has now become a work of uncommon occurrence. The editor was doubtless the Bouquet of Denmark. It is said that the present venerable and learned Dr. Thorkelin, principal librarian of the Royal Library at Copenhagen, seldom pronounces the name of Langebek without passing his hand across his eyes, or placing it on his heart. This is as it should be."—Dibdin's Lib. Comp.

As usual with Asiatic publications there is some intricacy in the arrangement of the Madras Journal. The first volume was complete in five numbers (1-5); the second, in four numbers (6-9); two numbers then appeared (10 and 11), which were intended to form a third volume; but on the appearance of No. 12 (Vol. IV pt. 1) a notice was issued stating that titles and indexes to the third and fourth volumes would be published with the next number (13, or last part of Vol. IV). On the appearance of that number, however, the title and index to Vol. IV. alone were published, and as an excuse, a "notice to the binder" was issued, saying, "The 10th and 11th Nos. may be bound up separately, or with the previous volume, at discretion." In some copies of this part which appeared later, the title to Vol. III was inserted: the first three sets above described have this title. Vols. IV to the end are each complete in two thick parts. The titles and indexes were published irregularly, but when not in the parts to which they belong, they will be found further on, perhaps three or four numbers later.

de l'Original Japonais-Chinois, par J. Klaproth, (5 Maps) 8vo. and 4to. 12*s* 1832

A geographical description of COREA, LOO CHOO, and JESSO, or YESO, translated from a Japanese work dated 1786, with facsimiles of the original maps. It contains vocabularies of the languages, and comparative lists of the Aino dialects. The history, customs, and legislation of the people, are also treated of; and this work will serve to correct all European accounts of the Three Kingdoms.

26. Annals of the Turkish Empire, from A.D. 1591 to 1659, translated from the Turkish, by C. Fraser, Vol. I. 4to. 15*s* 1832

28. Mirkhond. Early Kings of Persia, from Kaiomars, the first of the Peshdádian Dynasty to the Conquest of Irán by Alexander the Great, from the Persian, entitled the Rauzat-us-safa, with Notes and Illustrations, by D. Shea, 8vo. 6*s* 1832

29. Customs of the Women of Persia, and their Domestic Superstitions, translated from the Original Persian Manuscript, by J. Akinson, Esq. 8vo. 4*s* 1832

30. Tuhfat-ul-Mujahidin; a History of the First Settlement of the Mohammedans in Malabar, and of their subsequent Struggles with the Portuguese, translated from the Arabic, by Lieut. M. Rowlandson, 8vo. 4*s*. 1833

31. Alfiya; ou, La Quintessence de la Grammaire Arabe: Ouvrage de Djemal-eddin Mohammed, connu sous le nom d'Ebn Malec. Publié en Arabe, avec un Commentaire, par Silvestre de Sacy, 8vo. 6*s* 6*d* Paris, 1834

32. Evliya, Travels in Europe, ASIA, and AFRICA, in the Seventeenth Century, translated from the Turkish by J. von Hammer. 2 vols. 4to. in 1, £1. 4*s* 1834-56

The writer was an enthusiastic Turkish traveller, and his description of the various countries he passed through, is remarkably faithful. Indeed, no other book of Oriental travels can be said to equal this. His account of the Turkish and Persian provinces, and Asia Minor, is all that remains; the narrative of his travels through Europe (Sweden, Holland, Germany, etc.) if ever written, has perished. He lived in the sixteenth century, and was in the service of some of the more ambitious Pashas of the Porte, so that his relation of contemporary affairs in Turkey is most ample and interesting.

33. Description of the Burmese Empire; compiled chiefly from Native Documents, by the Rev. Father Sangermano; and translated from his MS. by W. Tandy, 4to. 12*s* 6*d* 1834

34. Annales des Empereurs du Japon, traduites par M. Isaac TITSINGH. Ouvrage revu, complété et corrigé, sur l'Original Japonais Chinois, accompagné de Notes et précédé d'un Aperçu de l'Histoire Mythologique des Japonais, par J. Klaproth, 4to, £1. 1835

A history of Japan, since the year 660 before Christ, from a native source, and translated by a competent scholar, is a work of which the great importance cannot fail to be recognized. M. Klaproth has added in a supplement, the continuation to the present time of the annals, which ended in the original with the year 1611. This Supplement is also deived from native sources. Not the least remarkable feature of this volume, is the Mythological History which Klaproth has prefixed; and the elaborate Index which M. Landresse has subjoined to the work is of extreme usefulness.

35. Architecture of the Hindus, by Ram Raz, Native Judge and Magistrate at Bangalore, 48 plates, royal 4to. 1834

36. Harivansa; ou, Histoire de la Famille de Hari; Ouvrage formant un Appendice du Mahabharata; et traduit sur l'Original Sanscrit, par A. LANGLOIS. 2 vols. 4to. £2. 16*s* 1835-36

The Harivansa is a poem, which relates the history of the family of Krishna, and is deemed so important by the Brahmins that the book is held sacred. Those who read and listen to the reading of it, are supposed to acquire a sanctity which will have its reward in this life as well as the next. It forms what may be called an Appendix to the Mahábhárata, but it also goes back to the origin of things, and unfolds a long course of history intermingled with the cosmogony and theology of the Indian mind.

37. Didascalia; Apostolical Constitutions of the Abyssinian Church, translated from the Ethiopic, by T. Platt, Esq. 4to. 8*s* 1834

38. Les Aventures de Kamrup, par Tachinuddin; traduites de l'Hindoustani par M. Garcin de Tassy, 8vo. 1834

39. Chronicles of Rabbi Joseph Ben Joshua Ben Meir, the Sphardi, translated from the Hebrew, by C. H. F. Bialloblotzy, 2 vols. 8vo. £1. 1837

The account of the Crusades, and of the events that followed them in the Holy Land, is a feature of special interest in this work. But the history of Europe, during the reign of Charles V. is the portion most largely treated on, and best shews the extensive knowledge of state secrets and motives which could be acquired by Jews, whose mercantile and financial resources put them in connexion with the rulers of kingdoms. The author of this General Chronicle, was born at Avignon in 1496, but lived the greater part of his life at Genoa.

40. The Political and Statistical History of Gujerat, translated from the Persian, by J. Bird, 8vo. 1835

41. Livre des Récompenses et des Peines, traduit du Chinois, par Stanislas Julien, 8vo. 17*s* 1835

42. HAJI KHALFÆ Lexicon Encyclopædicum et Bibliographicum, edidit G. FLUEGEL, 7 vos. 4to. complete, cloth, £6. 6*s* Leipzig, 1835-54

—— the same, 7 vols. impl. 4to. LARGE PAPER, cloth, £8. 8*s* 1835-54

Sets completed at the same rate.

This work is, without comparison, the most useful of all the Fund publications. It stands in the same relation to Oriental Literature as Watts' Bibliotheca and Graesse's Tresor do to that of the Western World. The arrangement is alphabetic, according to the names of the works, (an IDEX OF AUTHORS being added at the end), and comprises descriptions of above 15,000 books in Arabic, Persian, and Turkish; with statements of the date when the writers flourished, and many other useful particulars.

Mustafá ben Abdallah Kátib Tchelebî, called Hadjî Khalfeh, was a learned Turk, who, early in the seventeenth century, held a high official position under Murád IV. At a later period, he collected a large library, and wrote several works, chiefly historical; but the greatest monument of his immense industry and erudition remains in the Bibliographical Lexicon, (Kashf uz-Zunun.) The Bibliothèque of D'Herbelot consists principally of an abstract from defective texts of the work of Hadjí Khalfeh; while Flügel's edition is based upon the most perfect and important copies in existence.

43. Chronique de Mohammed Tabari, traduit du Persan, par L. Dubeux, Vol. I. 4to. 30*s* 1836

44. Laili and Majnun, a Poem, from the Persian of Nazámi, by J. Atkinson, 8vo. 1836

46. Sankhya Karika; or, Memorial Verses on the Sankya Philosophy; translated from the Sanscrit, by H. T. Colebrooke, Esq. Also, The Báhshya; or Commentary of Gaurapáda; translated and illustrated by an original Comment, by H. H. Wilson, 4to. 10*s* 6*d* 1837

47. MAKRIZI, Histoire des Sultans Mamlouks de l'Egypte. Ecrite en Arabe par Taki-eddin-ahmed-Makrizi. Traduite en Francais, par M. Quatremere. 2 vols. 4to. complete, £2. 2*s* 1837

Of Macrizi's great work on the history of Egypt and Syria (Sulúk fi márifat Daul il-Mulúk) M. Quatremère has translated the important portion which relates to the Turkoman sovereigns called Mamelukes. Macrizi lived at Cairo in the fourteenth century, so that this work comprises a record of not quite sixty years. The subject is treated with all the taste, discrimination, and learning, which have placed Macrizi in the first rank of Arabic historians. The editor's notes add immensely to the value of the work.

48. Rig Veda Sanhita, Sanskritè et Latinè. Edidit F. A. Rosen, 4to. £1. 1*s* 1837

49. Kumara Sambhava, Sanscrite et latine, edidit Stenzler, 4to. 20*s* 1837

50. Philosophy of the Muhammadan People. Exhibited in its professed connexion with the European, so as to render either an introduction to the other; being a translation of the Akhlak-I-Jalaly, the most esteemed Ethical Work of Middle Asia, from the Persian of Fakir Jany Muhammad Asaad; with References and Notes, by W. F. THOMPSON, 8vo. 8*s* 1839

51. Vishnu Purana (the) a system of Hindu Mythology and Tradition, translated from the Original Sanscrit, and illustrated by Notes derived chiefly from other Puranas, by H. H. Wilson, 4to. 1840

52. AL-MAKKARI. The History of the Mohammedan Dynasties in Spain, translated by PASCUAL ED GAYANGOS, 2 vols. 4to. £3. 8*s* 1840

A most valuable work, the best Moorish account of the History of Spain, whilst under their rule. Indispensable to an Historical Library.

53. Bidpai's Fables.—Anvar-i Suhaili: or the Lights of Canopus; being the celebrated work of Husain Vá'iz u'l Káshifií, translated for the first time into English prose and verse (on the same principles as the author's translation of the 'Gulistan'), with an elaborate Preface and copious Notes by E. B. Eastwick, royal 8vo. cloth, £2. 2*s* 1854

54. El-Mas'udis Historical Encyclopædia, entitled "Meadows of Gold and Mines of Gems," translated from the Arabic by Dr. A. Sprenger, Vol. I. 8vo. 16*s* 1841

55. Sama Veda. Translation of the Sanhitá of the Sama Veda, by the Rev. J. Stevenson, 8vo. LARGE PAPER, cloth, 7*s* 1841

56. Popular Poetry of Persia, as found in the Adventures and Improvisations of Kurroglou, the Bandit-Minstrel of Northern Persia; and in the Songs of the People inhabiting the Shores of the Caspian Sea. Orally collected and translated by A. Chodzko, 8vo. 12*s* 6*d* 1842

57. IBN KHALLIKAN'S Biographical Dictionary. Translated from the Arabic by Baron Mac Guckin de SLANE, now completed in 4 vols. 4to. sd. £6. 6*s* 1842-71

—— the same, LARGE PAPER, 4 vols. roy. 4to. sd. £8. 8*s* 1842-71

This was the first general Biographical Dictionary in the Arabic language; and it remains a wonderful testimony to the learning, genius, and industry of the author. The biographies are arranged in alphabetical order of names, and comprise distinguished individuals of every sect and nation in Islam, down to the thirteenth century, when Ibn Khallikan flourished. Moslem critics have blamed him for enlarging on the lives of poets and historical writers, at the expense of the learned doctors of law; but the very circumstance renders his book all all the more valuable to the European reader. Even the poetical and elegant selections which fill these biographical notices, are so extensive, that an Anthology was culled from them by an ancient Arabic writer. The editor has added in his notes all fresh information that could be acquired regarding each name mentioned in the text.

58. History of Hyder Naik, otherwise styled Nawaub Hyder Ali, by Meer Hussein Ali Khan Kirmani. Translated from an Original Persian MS. by Col. Miles, 8vo. 10*s* 1842

59. The DABISTAN; or School of Manners. Translated from the Persian, with Notes, &c. by D. Shea, and A. Troyer, 3 vols. 8vo. cloth, £2. 2*s* 1844

This is a work of great interest for all Oriental Scholars and Comparative Mythologists.

Sir William Jones describes this work as containing "more recondite learning, more entertaining history, more beautiful poetry, more ingenuity and wit, indecency and blasphemy, than" he "ever saw collected in a single volume." It contains an account of the old Persian, the Brahmin, the Buddhist, the Christian, the Sufi, and the Mohammedan religions, with their various sects; as well as a statement of their doctrines. It is most valuable for its exposition of the Zoroastrian creed, as this is based upon ancient Zend works now entirely lost.

63. Kalpa Sutra, and Nava Tatva. Two works illustrative of the Jain Religion and Philosophy, by Stevenson, D.D. 8vo. 25*s* 1848

64. Corpus Ignatianum, a complete Collection of the Ignatian Epistles, in Syriac, Greek, and Latin, and an English translation of the Syrian text, copious Notes, and introduction by W. Cureton, royal 8vo. 25*s* 1849

65. Makamat; or Rhetorical Anecdotes of Abu'l Kasem al Hariri, of Basra, translated into English Verse and Prose; and illustrated with Annotations, by the Rev. T. Preston, 8vo. cloth, 20*s* 1850

"The most classical work in Arabic literature—a masterpiece of elegance and refinement." This translation, by the freedom of its rendering and the easiness of its style, will be more acceptable to an European reader than any literal version; while the frequent notes recall to the more studious reader the subtler points of the text as verbally followed. Mr. Preston has been careful not to fall into the error of Rückert, who made an imitation rather than a translation.

66. Avesta, the Religious Books of the Parsees, from Professor Spiegel's German translation of the original MSS. by A. H. Bleeck, 3 vols. in 1, 8vo. cloth, £1. 5*s* 1864

68. Japanese Lyrical Odes; Translations of the Hyak Nin Is'Shiu, by a Century of Poets, into English Verse with Explanatory Notes, the text in Japanese and also in Roman letter, with a full Index, Catalogues of Books referred to, and Lists of Titles, &c. &c. by Dr. F. V. Dickins, 8vo. pp. ix, 52, xiii, xvi, vi, xvi. Printed on toned paper, extra cloth, gilt edges, 10*s* 1866

This is a sort of ancient ballad book of Japan, known and used in every Japanese household. Numerous commentators have explained the meaning and the puns contained in the Songs. Although the famous Dr. Kämpfer brought a copy (still in the British Museum) to Europe about two centuries ago, Dr. Dickins has been the first to translate the book, which he met with in Japan in 1864.—See Leisure Hour for April: Jap. Poetry, by J. Summers, p. 222.

69. Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam, the Astronomer-Poet of Persia, rendered into Eng. verse, sq. 8vo. XVIII and 30 pp. sd. 1868

This second edition has like the first entirely disappeared.

The translation is a faithful re-production of Omar's Poems, so remarkable for their boldness of thought and freedom of expression. Omar is entirely free from the shackles which make Oriental poems so monotonous.

70. Kitab-i-Yamini; Historical Memoirs of Early Conquerors of Hindustan, and Founders of the Ghaznavide Dynasty, transl. from the Persian, by the Rev. J. Reynolds, 8vo. 12*s* 1858

71. Browne (Rev. G. A. Suckling) Mosaic Cosmogony: a literal translation of the First Chapter of Genesis, with annotations and rationalia, 8vo. 140 pp. cloth, 5*s* 1864

The specimen of the translation given in two columns—a literal and an amended version—is a remarkable performance in itself, and cannot fail to be discussed by the Committee for the revision of the English Bible. As for the Cosmogony the purely scientific world will no doubt find in it something to criticise and quarrel with, but no one can refuse to acknowledge the deep scholarship and ingenuity with which Dr. Brown has endeavoured to reconcile the apparently conflicting causes of modern science and of holy writ.

Of the above publications there are some entirely out of print, and no copies remain in the possession of the Society.

EVIDENCE given by Lord Overstone, before the select Committee of the House of Commons of 1857 on the BANK ACTS, with Additions, 8vo. cloth, separately, £2. 1858

A SELECT COLLECTION of Scarce and Valuable ECONOMICAL TRACTS, with prefaces, notes and Indexes by J. R. MACCULLOCH, printed for friends only at the expense of LORD OVERSTONE. Vol. I, Tracts on Commerce; Vol. II, Tracts on the National Debt and Sinking Fund; Vol. III, Tracts on Paper Currency and Banking; Vol. IV, Miscellaneous Tracts, not sold separately 1837-59

Only 150 copies were printed of these 4 volumes.

—— together 6 vols. 8vo. presentation copy to Sir Emerson Tennent, with a Letter from Mr. MacCulloch, VERY RARE, £18. 18*s* 1857-59

Referring to the two volumes of Lord Overstone's own writings, Mr. MacCulloch, says:—"Lord Overstone's Tracts are all excellent, being admirable alike for the uniform soundness of their doctrines, the perfect acquaintance of the Author with the details of the subject, their skilful arrangement, and the graces of their style. Since Ricardo, no writer on currency has combined the same wide range of theoretical and of practical information as Lord Overstone, or has been so able to detect plausible fallacies, and to elicit and illustrate true principles, however obscured by sophistry, prejudice, or interest. The study of his Lordship's evidence before the Committee of 1857 is a high intellectual treat."

When the latter volumes, titles, indexes, etc. were put forth, but a very limited number were printed on Large Paper, and the early vols. being all of that description, copies too frequently present an unsightly combination. The volumes here are all, as they should be, uniform in size, and the copy possesses the leaf in the "Exon Domesday," which, when the work was about to be printed, was discovered to have been abstracted; not very long ago, after many years of absence, this leaf was accidentally found, miles away, among some family papers, and then printed. In every way this is a desirable copy of "the most valuable piece of antiquity possessed by any nation."

Almost every page of Dugdale's Baronage may be referred to as evidence of the importance of this census to the Genealogist.

"The Domesday Book of William the Conqueror is unquestionably the most valuable record of property possessed by any nation in Europe, whether we consider the extent, the variety or the importance of the information it contains. In this inestimable survey, the various manors are arranged under the names of the tenants in Capite, who were those who held of the King as the supreme lord of all the lands in England—thus exhibiting in the clearest manner the original distribution of property, at the time of the Conquest, throughout the kingdom; and presenting us with a view, which is nearly complete, of all the persons who, in the first twenty years after the Conquest, formed the Barons of England—the progenitors of those who, in subsequent times, were the active agents in wresting from King John the great Charter of our Liberties."—Mumford's Domesday Book of Norfolk.

The [present] periodical publications of the Society consist of a Bulletino (monthly during the winter) and Monumenti ed Annali, annually produced. "Mr. Roach Smith has brought to his task a thorough and familiar acquaintance with the writings of Roman and Greek authors, which enables him to interpret at a glance the significance of isolated and otherwise inscrutable facts and allusions. But besides these acquirements he possesses an enthusiastic spirit, which has neither been daunted by opposition nor chilled by indifference: and to this we owe the results recorded in his splendid volumes. How many thanks are due from all historical and antiquarian enquirers to Mr. Roach Smith for his public-spirited labours! Fortunately, he needs no other memorial than his greatest work to attest his labours and services."—Leicester Chronicle.

Vol. I. can be supplied separately for £12. 12*s* 1856-67

The Spalding Club, which has done so much for Scottish Antiquities, has just completed a magnificent and valuable work, The Sculptured Stones of Scotland, under the able editorship or rather authorship of Mr. John Stuart, secretary of the Club and of the Society of Antiquaries of Scotland. This work, the first volume of which was issued in 1865, consists of an extensive series of lithographic plates, representing stones which exist in Scotland, as well as of illustrative specimens from the neighbouring districts of England. In addition to these are plates of ornamental metal work and of MS. decoration from the early Irish Books of the Gospels. A long and elaborate introduction by Mr. Stuart, enters fully into many questions which originate in a consideration of the art and intention of these interesting memorials, and is characterized as well by learning and research, as by a thoroughly common-sense treatment of the subject.

"After such an examination, we need scarcely say that these two volumes of Mr. Stuart are a noble monument of Scotch archæological zeal. The execution of the drawings, their transfer to the stone, and the whole "getting up" of the books leaves nothing to be desired."—Athenæum, Aug. 17, 1867.

OBRAS PUBLICADAS POR LA REAL ACADEMIA DE LA HISTORIA, MADRID:

5137 AJBAR MACHMUA (coleccion de Tradiciones) Cronica anonima del Siglo XI, dada á luz por primera vez, en Arabigo y Espanol, anotada por Lafuente y Alcantara, impl. 8vo. pp. 265 and 165, 10*s* Madrid, 1867

The Spanish transcription of the title somewhat disguises this valuable work, which would in France or England be called the Akhbar Madjmu'a. It contains a history of Musulman affairs in Africa and Spain from about the year 70 to 150 of the Hedjrah, and involves a mass of geographical and other matter, for which special appendices are annexed. The work was compiled in the eleventh century from the popular traditions and official authorities which related to the conquest of Spain, as well as the political and literary history of the conquerors.

Only one copy of the original Manuscript is known, from which two transcripts were made in recent years. Don Emilio de Lafuente died a short while since; but this volume remains an ample testimony to his great learning and ripe scholarship.

It is published by the Spanish Royal Academy of History as the first volume of a "Coleccion de Obras Arábigas de Historia y Geografia."

The Surtees Society was established in the year 1834, in honour of Robert Surtees, the Author of the History of Durham, and in accordance with his pursuits and plans; having for its object the publication of inedited MSS. illustrative of the intellectual, the moral, the religious, and the social condition of those parts of England and Scotland, included on the east between the Humber and the Frith of Forth, and on the west between the Mersey and the Clyde, a region which constituted the ancient Kingdom of Northumbria.

The Society is still, after thirty-six years, in a highly flourishing condition; its List of Members (limited to 350 and now full), includes the names of many of the most eminent Antiquaries, Topographers, and Genealogists, and in the last volume published a list is given, which comprises thirty-three works intended for future publication. The volumes described above speak for themselves: to all who take an interest in Northern Antiquities, their importance and value are well known.

Only nine volumes of this curious and interesting publication have appeared. The editor contemplates issuing a second series at some future period.

The Meeting of the British Association at Belfast, in 1852, gave rise to the publication of this Journal, which is devoted principally, but not exclusively, to the History and Antiquities of Ulster, the last province which held out against the English sway. It was, at an earlier period, the battle-field of the native Irish Chieftains and the Scandinavian Sea-Kings. Other distinct races of men, from time to time, are recorded to have effected settlements in the district, whose lineal descendants yet remain. The mountains still preserve their ancient Cairns and Cromlechs of pre-historic times; the vallies their earthen tumuli; the peat-bogs daily give up their ancient treasures of gold, silver, and bronze, teeming with the most varied and remarkable memorials of successive phases of society.—Extract from Prospectus.

"The works of Arthur Young should have a prominent part in every economical library."—Macculloch.

"The works of Arthur Young did incomparably more than those of any other individual to introduce a taste for agriculture, and so diffuse a knowledge of the art in this and other countries. They are written in an animated, forcible, pure English style ; and are at once interesting and insrtuctive. It has been truly said, that if great zeal, indefatigable exertion, and an unsparing expense in making experiments can give any one a claim to the gratitude of agriculturists, Arthur Young deserves it more than most men."—Kirwan's Irish Transactions, as quoted in 'Penny Cyclopædia.'

5241 PROCEEDINGS of the COMMITTEE, and Proceedings of the SOCIETY, 18 vols. or parts, RARE 1830-47

5242 PROCEEDINGS of the Society, with Illustrations, from the commencement of this issue in 1848 to 1870, 23 vols. with about 790 COLOURED PLATES, (pub. at £47. 7*s*)—together 41 vols. 8vo. in boards and parts as issued, an absolutely perfect set, £36. 1831-70

5243 ZOOLOGICAL SOCIETY'S PROCEEDINGS: a complete set of the plain series, from the commencement in 1830 to 1868, as follows:—PROCEEDINGS of the COMMITTEE of SCIENCE and CORRESPONDENCE, 1830-32, 2 vols.—PROCEEDINGS of the ZOOLOGICAL SOCIETY of LONDON, 1833-68, 30 vols.—together 32 vols. 8vo. plates and woodcuts, twenty-seven vols. cloth, uncut, and the last five in parts, £16. 10*s* 1830-68

The volumes before 1848, though much in demand, are not easily obtained. This is accounted for by the fact that the Society commenced in 1848 to issue parts with coloured illustrations, but for the benefit of those gentlemen who could not afford to purchase these expensive parts, the series without plates was still continued, and was in 1867 improved by the insertion of uncoloured plates. It will be seen that, the number of copies of the volumes published before 1848 being much smaller than those published from 1848 to the present time, many sets must want these early volumes. The set marked £16. 10*s* contains, besides many woodcuts, 92 plates in the volumes for 1867 and 1868; also the following additions:—a volume of 32 plates of Reptiles and 11 of Fishes, most of which are coloured, published from 1848-60; and 19 plates of Reptiles and Fishes, some coloured, inserted in the volumes for 1862-63.

5244 TRANSACTIONS of the ZOOLOGICAL SOCIETY of London, A COMPLETE SET, Vols. I-VI, and VII pts. 1-5, with 479 plates of Mammals, Birds, Fish, Insects, etc. CHIEFLY COLOURED, (pub. at £53. 7*s*), £42. 1835-71

Many of the parts are out of print, and it is now very difficult to obtain a perfect set. Even when the scarce parts do occur they are generally imperfect.

ENGLISH BOOKS.

I.—PUBLICATIONS OF CAXTON, WILLIAM OF MACHLINIA, AND WYNKYN DE WORDE.

5246 CAXTON'S GAME AND PLAY OF CHESS MORALIZED, (translated 1474) FIRST EDITION, folio, 65 LEAVES (of the 72), bound in old russia gilt, £400.

Fynyſhid the laſt day of Marche the yer of our Lord God, a thouſand foure hondred and lxxiiii....

THE FIRST BOOK PRINTED IN ENGLAND,

from Caxton's press.

Mr. Blades quotes 9 copies (4 perfect, 5 imperfect), the present is the 10th known copy, and is TALLER than even the Grenville—hitherto the tallest known copy; my copy measures 11⅛ inch in height by 8 in width, whilst the Grenville copy (also imperfect) is only 11 inches high.

COLLATION of my copy:

This Booke conteyneth iiii traytees	1 leaf.
This firſt chapiter of the firſt tractate	1 leaf.
The trouthe for to do Juſtice right wyſly, etc. to the end .	62 leaves.
The last leaf with the date:
	65 leaves.

My copy wants therefore 7 leaves, the two blank ones being out of question. The imperfections include the first leaf, and two leaves in the second chapitre of the fourth tractate, the end is all right. I should be glad to hear of any IMPERFECT COPY of this work, which would supply me with what I want. In the mean time this precious relic of the Infancy of Printing in England can be seen by BUYERS of Rare books.

See Dibdin's Bibl. Spenc. IV. p. 189.

No copy of this edition has been sold for years; in 1813, Alchorne's copy, wanting first two leaves, the last two leaves and two leaves in the second chapter of the fourth tractate, fetched at Evans', £54. 12*s.* The value of this class of books has much risen since then, and may now be considered, as ten times greater.

In comparing the first edition of "Caxton's Game of Chess" with the second, one perceives many variations in the spelling. I consider the first edition to be the more interesting, for a variety of reasons:

1. It is the first book printed in England.
2. It is the Editio princeps of the English version.
3. It shows the Art of Printing in its crudest form.
4. It has a Post-script not in the second edition.

Both editions run on together to the passage on the last page of the second edition:

And a mon that lyvyth in thys world without vertues lyveth not as a man but as a beste.

The first edition ends thus:

And therefore my right redoubted Lord I pray almighty god to save the Kyng our soverain lord to gyve him grace to yssue as a Kynge tabounde in all vertues | to be assisted with all other his lordes in such wyse yn his noble royame of Englond may prospere | habounde in vertues and yn synne may be eschewid justice kepte | the royame defended good men rewarded malefactours punyssyhid the ydle peple to be put to laboure that he wyth the nobles of the royame may regne gloriously.

In conquerynge his rightfull inheritaunce | that verraypeas and charite may endure in both his royames and that marchandise may have his cours in suche wise that every man eschewe synne | and encrese in vertuous occupacions | Praynge your good grace to resseyve this litylI and symple book made under the hope and shadow of your noble protection by hym that is your most humble servant in gree and thanke And I shall praye almighty god for your long lyf & welfare | whiche he preserve And sende yow thaccomplishment of your hye noble joyous and vertuous desirs Amen : | :

The second edition ends thus:

Thenne late every man of what condycion he be that redyth or herith this litel book redde. take therby ensaumple to amende hym. Explicit per Caxton.

5247 HIGDEN (RANULPH) THE POLYCRONYCON, conteyning the Berynges and Dedes of many Tymes, englyshed by Jehan de Trevisa, with an eighth book added, by W. Caxton, stout folio, FIRST EDITION, Gothic Letter, with many early MS. notes, old English red morocco gilt, gilt edges, FINE LARGE COPY, EXCESSIVELY RARE, the Llandaff House copy, £80. Imprinted by William Caxton, 1482

COLLATION :—The Proheme, two leaves in MS. commencing on a 2 ; the Table a 4 to 6, a 7 in MS. a 8 wanting ; b 8 leaves, c 3 leaves, c 4 wanting. Then the text commences on sig. 1 ii. and is continued to sig. 55 vii. in eights, sig. 55 being omitted, with the exception of signatures 28 and 49, the former having 9 leaves and the latter 4 leaves. Four leaves of the table are inlaid and the remainder mended ; folios 169—176 mended in the margins ; fol. 421 and the last leaf in MS. There is one blank leaf (fol. 4).

It will be seen from the foregoing collation that this copy wants seven leaves, four blanks not being counted. Five of the leaves, however, have the text supplied in MS. Mr. Blades mentions twenty-eight copies, nearly the whole of which are imperfect.

5248 TOUR-LANDRY. THREE other PERFECT COPIES ARE KNOWN; of which two are in the British Museum and one in the library of Earl Spencer. There is besides one imperfect one which is in the Bodleian. It is easy therefore to conceive that the present PERFECT COPY may be considered unique as far as the collector is concerned; Lord Spencer's copy is never likely to come into the market; the other two are, of course, inaccessible, and the one now described is probably the only one that can be offered for sale within the next hundred years. Since the year 1698 only one other copy has been seen in the public auctions; it was purchased by Earl Spencer at Brand's sale in 1837. The present one was bought at the Marquis of Blandford's sale in 1819, by G. W. Taylor; from him it passed into the hands of Mr. Jolley, at the sale of whose books in 1843 it became the property of Rodd the bookseller. Since that time, it has been in the possession of the Rev. Mr. Corser. Consequently this volume is perhaps the rarest and most unattainable in the whole Caxton series, and that consideration is quite sufficient to account for its high price.

Colophon, Iste Libellus imp'ssus est ī opulentissima Ciuitate Londoniar' p. me Willelmū de Machlinia ad instanciam necnon expensas Henrici Vrankenbergh mercatoris (cir. 1480)

Specimens of Machlinia's press are of the greatest rarity. This work, of which a long description will be found in Dibdin's Ames, is perhaps the most interesting that ever was issued from his press. The others were chiefly law books, in Latin or Norman-French, but the Speculum is full of pieces of verse, hymns, and precepts, in English. The first twenty-seven leaves are in Latin, upon the Commandments, the Judgment, etc. with eighteen pieces of rhyme interspersed. The first is a couplet:

In heven shall dwelle alle cristen men
That knowe & kepe goddes byddynges ten

The others are quatrains, and versified from the Commandments, etc. Leaves 28—47 are almost entirely in English, both in verse and prose, full of quaint, proverbial rhyme. Leaves 48, 49, contain a long Hymn to the Virgin, of real poetical merit, beginning thus:—

Mary moder wel thou be,
Mary moder thenke on me;
Mayden and moder was never none,
Togeder lady saf thou allone.

The remainder of the book is in Latin. The copy, which is in the King's Library, B M., belonged to Dr. Farmer, who inscribed in it a statement that the Speculum was the first book printed in the city of London. William of Mechlin, had his house in Holborn, near the Fleet-bridge.

5250 HIGDEN (RANULPH) POLYCHRONICON, in whiche booke ben comprysed bryefly many Wonderfull hystoryes, Englysshed by Syr Johan de Trevysa, Chappelayn unto Lord Thomas of Barkley, folio, black letter, (the title, last leaf, and Caxton's large device admirably supplied in facsimile by Harris), FINE, LARGE AND CLEAN COPY, dark morocco extra, gilt edges, old style, by Pratt, £40.

Enprynted at Westmestre by Wynkyn The Worde, 1495

A copy fetched, at Sotheby's, May 8, 1871, £105. This fine early specimen of Wynkyn de Worde's press was bought for Mr. Thompson at Puttick and Simpson's in 1863. It fetched then £40. 19*s*, or with the Commission £45. Early English Books are now in much greater request, and have further risen in price. Hibbert's copy fetched £10. 15*s*; in 1813, the Alchorne copy, imperf. fetched £21.; 1857, Stevens' copy, impf. £37.; 1860, Holland's, one leaf wanting, £24.; 1860, Puttick's, wormed, and having title in facsimile, £21. 10*s*.

"This book is justly commended for the beauty of its typographical execution: indeed it may be questioned whether any contemporaneous production of the foreign presses exceed it, in the regularity of the register, and lustre of the ink. Emprynted at Westmestre by Wynkyn de Worde, 1497

Excessively rare, and, according to Lowndes, the four copies known are those of George III and Mr. Grenville (both in British Museum), Lord Spenser's, and one on vellum in the Lambeth Library. This belonged to the Marquis of Hastings, and sold in his sale for £60.

(WYNKYN DE WORDE), 1498

This rare volume is as far as it goes in very fine condition: the woodcuts are very spirited and differ from those in the edition of 1527.

The volume commences with the Old Testament Saints (Abraham) on sheet Bbij and extends to sheet Cg 5 leaves, or pp. 9-52; signatures then beginning again with a and extending to sheet D, or folios 1—CCCLXXXX. The last leaf containing "The Lyfe of Saynt Morante."

Londini, Wynkyn de Worde, Flete Strete, s. a. (cir. 1516)
This edition of Wynkyn de Worde was unknown to Johnson, who only describes several of this work in Roman type. It is also unmentioned by Dibdin and Lowndes. Many of the Words are explained in English. The types, used for this work are stated to have been the same as those used by Theodoric Martens at Antwerp for his Gemma Gemmarum.

5258 KYNGE RYCHARDE CUER DE LYON, sm. 4to. METRICAL ROMANCE, Black Letter, woodcuts. rebound in calf, the original sides stamped with curious figures of Birds, Beasts, &c. being preserved, gilt edges, only five copies known, £75. Wynkyn de Worde; 1528 Daniell's copy fetched, in 1864, £92. Mr. Hazlitt is mistaken in stating that the book has only 97 leaves, A 1 being "probably blank;" it has really 98 leaves, without any blanks. The title is the first leaf of signature A. The present copy has one leaf, G 8, admirably reprinted in fac-simile.

Southwerke, by my Peter Treveris, 1527
VERY RARE. There are very few specimens in existence of the typographical labours of Peter of Trevis, who reprinted the above edition page for page from that of Wynkyn de Worde of 1495. A copy fetched a very high price at Sotheby's in 1864 in consequence of its great size, being 11½ by 7½ inches. This fact makes the largeness of the above copy more appreciable.

Dr. Dibdin, in his Library Companion, thus glowingly speaks of this beautiful impression: "He who hath the Baskerville edition hath a good and even a glorious performance. It is pleasant, and of course profitable, to turn over the pages of these lovely tomes, at one's Tusculum, on a day of oppression from heat or confinement from rain." He recommends the young collector to hasten with six guineas in his pocket, and secure a copy. In Mr. Williams's sale it sold for £14. 14*s*; in 1863, Corrie's copy, mor. by De Rome, fetched £17.

5402 ALEMAN (Matheo) The Rogue, or the Life of GUZMAN DE ALFARACHE, 2 vols. in 1, sm. folio, cf. £3. 3*s for Edwin Blount*, 1622-23

FIRST edition of the translation, which was apparently made by Edward Blount, for whom it was printed, and which is highly praised by Ben Jonson in the verses prefixed to the volume. The first date of publication known to Lowndes is 1623, and I have no trace of any other copy of the first edition than the above.

5403 ALEXANDER (William) [EARL of STIRLING] The Tragedie of Darius, 1604—The Alexandraean Tragedie, 1607—Tragedie of Julius Cæsar, 1607—Tragedie of Crœsus, no title, ? 1607—Paraenesis to the Prince, 1604—Aurora, containing the first fancies of the Author's youth (Sonnets), 1604—in 1 vol. sm. 4to. hf. russia, EXCESSIVELY RARE, £10. 10*s* 1604-7

These beautiful Poems are so very rare, that but few collections contain them. In the Darius, Act 3, Sc. 3, some lines of the monarch's soliloquy bear a strong resemblance to the celebrated passage in the Tempest, beginning with "The cloud-capped towers." The Tempest, in all probability was written long subsequently to Darius, so that Shakspeare appears to have borrowed the idea from Lord Stirling. The lines in Darius begin with "Let greatnesse of her glascie scepters vaunt."

A book of singular importance, and the only one published upon the Social Annals of the English people. No work, professing to be a history of England, can pretend to any real value, unless based upon the statistics which shew forth the inner life of the masses, and their gradual progress through the phases of civilization. These statistics are collected here; and it may be remarked as a rather curious fact that the late Mr. Buckle, for whose work these details of domestic history would have been amongst its most valuable ingredients, seems to have been wholly ignorant of Eden's State of the Poor.

With the rare two pages of verse, by Quarles "to the Spencer of this Age," at the end of the volume.

"By this strange name is expressed a subject more strange;—it is a minute and elaborate account of the body and mind of man. Through five cantos the reader is regaled with nothing but allegorical anatomy, in the details of which Phineas seems tolerably well skilled,—evincing a great deal of ingenuity in diversifying his metaphors, and in presenting the delineation of his imaginary island with as much justice as possible to the allegory, without obtruding it on the reader's view. In the sixth canto he rises to the intellectual and moral faculties of the soul, which occupy the rest of the poem."—HALLAM.

Vols. I. II. Practical Treatise on Banking—III. Logic of Banking —IV. History and Principles of Banking—V. Lectures and Essays—VI. Logic for the Million. 1865-66

Gilbart's name has often been quoted in both Houses of Parliament, on questions of Banking and Finance, as that of a Practical man, whose opinions on all questions connected with his trade (that of a banker) deserve the utmost attention. Whenever an unsuccessful company is wound up, it is invariably found that Gilbart's maxims have been sinned against.

Gilbart's works have been long out of print, and a new edition has been most urgently called for by demand from home and abroad.

The finest and tallest perfect copy ever offered for sale, absolutely perfect, of the genuine FIRST FOLIO edition of

5779 MR. WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE, COMEDIES, HISTORIES, and TRAGEDIES, published according to the true Originall Copies, First Folio Edition

The leaves measure very nearly 13 inches by 8, every one of them fine, sound and perfect. Bound in red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, and enclosed in an olive morocco case, nett cash £525.

London, printed by Isaac Jaggard and Ed. Blount, 1623

This copy is really in the most desirable condition; the first leaf of verses by Ben Jonson, and the title with Droeshout's portrait, both of which are generally found defective or artificially restored, being here perfect, sound, and fresh in their original state. In this circumstance the copy described is superior to almost all others; and in height it has the advantage over the fine copy sold at Daniel's sale for £714. That copy was 12¾ inches in height, and a fraction over 8 inches in breadth; the present is 12$\frac{11}{12}$ inches in height, by eight in breadth.

The opportunity now afforded of securing a fine copy of the first Shakespeare, is one that may not occur again for many years, and a spirited collector should take advantage of it.

5780 SHAKESPEARE'S (Mr. William) COMEDIES, HISTORIES AND TRAGEDIES, published according to the True Originall Copies, First folio Edition, whole red morocco, gilt edges, by Bedford, £200.

Isaac Jaggard and Ed. Blount, 1623

A perfect and most desirable copy of this precious volume. The only exception is that the top and bottom of the title, in the centre of which is A REMARKABLY FINE IMPRESSION OF THE PORTRAIT BY DROESHOUT, are supplied in most perfect facsimile by Mr. Harris.

The general condition is very sound and good: size 12½ by 8 inches.

Isaac Jaggard and Ed. Blount, 1623

THIS PRECIOUS FIRST EDITION OF SHAKESPEARE'S PLAYS IS QUITE PERFECT; but having the Verses opposite the title, including probably the portrait and the bottom portion of the last leaf so skilfully facsimiled by Mr. Harris as to defy detection. The condition of this valuable volume is very good, sound, and clean; the size is 12¼ by 8¼ inches; it is therefore a broader copy than is usually met with.

5782 SHAKESPEARE'S (Mr. William) COMEDIES, HISTORIES and TRAGEDIES, First folio Edition, a good tall sound copy, measuring 12¾ by 8⅝ inches, red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, £90. 1623

5783 SHAKESPEARE'S (Mr. William) COMEDIES, HISTORIES and TRAGEDIES, First folio Edition, twenty-eight leaves supplied in facsimile, red morocco, gilt edges, a bargain, £30. 1623

To a Shaksperian Student or Collector, desirous of possessing the genuine first folio, but who would be deterred from purchasing a copy at the high price of an absolutely perfect one, an opportunity is here offered to secure this treasure at a reasonable rate.

It is well known that the price of a FIRST FOLIO EDITION OF SHAKESPEARE is yearly increasing. For Mr. Gardner's copy, sold in 1854, Mr. Lilly gave £250. Mr.

Daniel's was purchased in 1864, for Miss Burdett Coutts, for £714. The Earl of Charlemont's copy, sold in 1865, produced £455. Mr. G. Smith's copy, sold in July, 1870, was purchased by Mr. Halliwell for £410.

5784 SHAKESPEARE'S (Mr. William) Comedies, Histories and Tragedies, folio, portrait on the title, antique calf, £2. 10*s*
London, Upcott's typographical facs. of 1623, made about 1808

This edition has been repeatedly offered to me by persons who professed to have had the book in their families from time immemorial, for the low price of a hundred pounds or so.

5785 SHAKESPEARE (William) Comedies, Histories and Tragedies, reprint of the FIRST FOLIO edition, olive morocco extra, gilt edges, bound by BEDFORD, £4. 15*s* L. Booth, 1864

5786 SHAKESPEARE, the FIRST EDITION of the Dramatic Works of WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE, a Reproduction in Exact Facsimile of the Famous Folio of 1623, by Photo-Lithography, Executed under the Superintendence of HOWARD STAUNTON, folio, (pub. £8. 8*s*) red morocco extra, gilt edges, £5. 5*s* 1865

Now out of print, and rising in price.

To Shakespeare critics this is the most essential edition. Perfect copies of the original issue have become so expensive, that only the most wealthy collectors can enjoy the luxury of possessing it. The facsimile edition has been most accurately made,—it is sure to rise in price, as the few remaining copies will soon be bought up.

☞ The present work should not be confounded with another republication, not facsimile, but in smaller type and inferior in size to the original, known as Booth's reprint.

5787 SHAKESPEARE. Second Folio Edition, red morocco, gilt edges, £36. Printed by Tho. Cotes, for Robert Allot, 1632

QUITE PERFECT, with the exception of the Verses, which are in facsimile, the impression of the portrait by Droeshout being remarkably fine and clear. The condition throughout is quite sound and clean. Mr. Daniell's fine copy of this edition, size 13¾ by 9½, "the largest example known," sold for £148.; and Mr. G. Smith's, sold in July last, produced £58.

5788 SHAKESPEARE'S Comedies, Histories, and Tragedies, published according to the true Original Copies, portrait by Droeshout, Second Edition, folio, wants the Verses by Ben Jonson, sig. f f. 1 and the last leaf, size 13¼ in. by 9, sound copy in cloth, £10. 10*s* 1632

5789 SHAKESPEAR'S COMEDIES, HISTORIES, and TRAGEDIES, published according to the true Original Copies; and unto this Impression is added, SEVEN PLAYES, NEVER BEFORE PRINTED IN FOLIO, Third Folio Edition, portrait by Droeshout, with Verses underneath, a very large and fine copy in red MOROCCO extra, gilt edges, by BEDFORD, EXTREMELY RARE, £200. London, printed for P. C. 1664

5790 ——— the same, folio, wanting portrait and title, the dedication defective, otherwise a good copy, having the end leaves in good condition, size 13⅜ by 8⅞, old calf, £48. Lond. 1664

By some this third edition is considered of greater rarity than even the first edition, on account of the greater portion of the impression having been destroyed in the great fire of London.

The publishers of the fourth edition in 1685, appeared to have considered the destruction of the third edition so extensive as to entitle them to treat it as a non-entity; and accordingly say on their title page, "unto which is added Seven Plays never before printed in Folio," though they had been previously printed in the third —a certain proof of its great rarity even in those days.

With the exception of the leaf of portrait and verses being supplied from the fourth impression, and the title and three leaves mended, the above is a good, sound, and perfect copy of this valuable volume.

Harward's copy fetched in 1859, £31. 10*s*; another with the portrait on the title, £51. 9*s*; Dr. Bliss', £51.; Miss Currer's, 1862, £43. 10*s*; Sotheby, £58.; 1866, Daniell's copy fetched above £125.; this edition is rapidly rising in price.

Malone's edition of Shakespeare, with Prolegomena, supplementary matter, and the principal notes of the editors and commentators, published by Boswell—the son of Johnson's biographer—in twenty-one octavo volumes, in 1821, and known as the Variorum edition, is a monument to the industry and judgment of Malone; whose labours appear to the greatest advantage when placed beside those of his predecessors and opponents.

133 fine plates, facsimiles and several hundred woodcuts, hf. green morocco, uncut, £65. Printed for subscribers only, 1853-65

A copy fetched recently £100. at Sotheby's. ONLY ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY COPIES were printed in all of this magnificent work.

In this edition, to which Mr. Halliwell may be considered to have devoted his life, the object has been to bring together every thing from those relics of the Elizabethan age which have descended to the present time, that has a bearing upon, or illustrates the works of our great national Poet. In the illustrations of the work, he has had the assistance of that eminent antiquary, Mr. Fairholt, whose name will be a guarantee for their accuracy. Each play is accompanied by valuable philological and historical notes, poems, novels and tales from which Shakespeare is known or supposed to have drawn his plots and delineations of character.

The text is based on a thorough collation of the 4 folios, and all the 4to. and subsequent editions, with notes and conjectural emendations at the foot of each page. The lines of each Scene are separately numbered, and where a quarto edition varies much from the other, the variation is printed literatim in smaller type.
